Course overview

Introduction

Our aim with American English File Third Edition has been to make every lesson better and to make the package more student- and teacher-friendly. As well as the main A, B, C Student Book lessons, there is a range of material that you can use according to your students' needs, and the time and resources you have available. Don't forget:

- videos that can be used in class in every File: Practical English, Video Listening, and Can you understand these people?
- Quick Tests and File Tests for every File, as well as Progress Tests, an End-of-course Test, and an Entry Test, which you can use at the beginning of the course
- photocopiable Grammar and Communicative activities for every A, B, C lesson, and a Vocabulary activity for every Vocabulary Bank

Online Practice and the Workbook provide review, support, and practice for students outside the class.

The Teacher's Guide suggests different ways of exploiting the Student Book depending on the level of your class. We very much hope you enjoy using American English File Third Edition.

What do Level 1 students need?

We believe that in 9 out of 10 cases when a student signs up for English classes, their goal is to speak. Speaking a foreign language is very hard, so students need a great deal of motivation to encourage them to speak in English.

Grammar, Vocabulary, and Pronunciation

If we want students to speak English with confidence, we need to give them the tools they need – Grammar, Vocabulary, and Pronunciation (G, V, P). We believe that “G + V + P = confident speaking,” and in American English File Level 1 all three elements are given equal importance.

Each lesson has clear G, V, P aims to keep lessons focused and give students concrete learning objectives and a sense of progress.

Grammar

- Clear and memorable presentations of new structures
- Regular and varied practice in useful and natural contexts
- Student-friendly reference material

We have tried to provide contexts for new language that will engage students, using real-life stories and situations, humor, and suspense. The Grammar Banks give students a single, easy-to-access grammar reference section, with example sentences with audio, clear rules, and common errors.

There are at least two practice exercises for each grammar point. Students can look again at the grammar presented in the lesson on Online Practice. The Workbook provides a variety of practice exercises and the opportunity for students to use the new grammar to express their own ideas.

Vocabulary

- A focus on high-frequency words and phrases
- Opportunities to personalize new vocabulary
- Accessible reference material

Every lesson focuses on high frequency vocabulary and common lexical areas, but keeps the load realistic. All new vocabulary is given with the phonemic script alongside, to help students with the pronunciation of new words.

Many lessons are linked to the Vocabulary Banks which help present and practice the vocabulary in class, give an audio model of each word, and provide a clear reference so students can review and test themselves in their own time. Students can review the meaning and the pronunciation of new vocabulary on Online Practice, and find further practice in the Workbook.

Pronunciation

- A solid foundation in the sounds of English.
- Targeted pronunciation development.
- Awareness of rules and patterns.

Level 1 learners are often frustrated by English pronunciation, particularly the sound–spelling relationships, silent letters, and weak forms. There is a pronunciation focus in every lesson, which integrates clear pronunciation into grammar and vocabulary practice. There is an emphasis on the sounds most useful for communication, on word stress, and on sentence rhythm. Online Practice contains the Sound Bank videos which show students the mouth positions to make English vowels and consonants. They can also review the pronunciation from the lesson at their own speed. There is more practice of pronunciation in the Workbook, with audio, which can be found on Online Practice.

The screenshot shows a lesson page titled "4C Blue Zones". It includes a navigation bar with "position of adverbs, expressions of frequency", "months, adverbs and expressions of frequency", and "the letter h". The main content is divided into three sections: 1. VOCABULARY (months, adverbs and expressions of frequency), 2. GRAMMAR (position of adverbs, expressions of frequency), and 3. PRONUNCIATION (the letter h). Each section contains exercises with instructions and examples. A sidebar on the right features a "Hardly ever. Maybe once a month." speech bubble and a "How often do you eat fast?" question. At the bottom, there is a "Bookkand.com" watermark.

Speaking

- Topics that will inspire students' interest
- Achievable, motivating tasks
- Regular opportunities to use new language

American English File motivates students to speak by providing varied and achievable tasks, and the language (G + V + P) that they need in order to communicate with confidence. In addition to the Speaking stage, students are encouraged to speak all through each lesson, responding to texts and listenings, and practicing grammar and vocabulary orally. Every two Files, students can use Online Practice to record themselves doing a short task.

Listening

- A reason to listen
- Confidence-building tasks
- Help with connected speech

The listenings in American English File are based on a variety of entertaining and realistic situations. The tasks focus on helping students to get the gist on the first listen and then being able to understand more the second time. On Online Practice, for each File students can find further listening practice related to the topic. They can also access the listening activities from every lesson, to practice in their own time, and to read the script to check anything that they have found difficult.

Reading

- Engaging topics and stimulating texts.
- Manageable tasks that help students to read.

Many students need to read in English for their work or studies, and reading is also important in helping to build vocabulary and to consolidate grammar. The key to encouraging students to read is to give them motivating but accessible material and tasks they can do. In American English File Level 1 reading texts have been adapted from a variety of real sources (the newspapers, magazines, news websites) and have been chosen for their intrinsic interest and ability to generate discussion.

Writing

- Clear models
- The "nuts and bolts" of writing on a word and sentence level

The growth of the internet and email means that people worldwide are writing in English more than ever before both for business and personal communication. American English File Level 1 provides guided writing tasks covering a range of writing types from a formal email to a social media post. Students can use Online Practice to develop their writing skills further. The Discussion board also provides opportunities for informal written interaction.

Practical English

- Understanding high-frequency phrases
- Knowing what to say in typical situations

The Practical English lessons give students practice in key language for situations such as checking into a hotel or ordering a meal in a restaurant. To make these everyday situations come alive, there is a storyline involving two main characters, Jenny (from New York) and Rob (from London). There is a clear distinction between what students will hear and need to understand and what they need to say. The lessons also highlight other key "Social English" phrases. On Online Practice, students can use the interactive video to record themselves and hear their own voice in the complete conversation. They can also listen and record the Social English phrases. The Workbook provides practice of all the language from the Practical English lessons.

Review

- Regular review
- Motivating reference and practice material
- A sense of progress

Students will usually only assimilate and remember new language if they have the chance to see it and use it several times. Grammar, Vocabulary, and Pronunciation are recycled throughout the course. After every two Files there is a two-page Review & Check section. The left-hand page reviews the grammar, vocabulary, and pronunciation of each File. The right-hand page provides a series of skills-based challenges, including street interviews, and helps students to measure their progress in terms of competence. These pages are designed to be used flexibly according to the needs of your students. On Online Practice, for each File, there are three Check your progress activities. The first is a multiple choice activity for students to test themselves on the Grammar and Vocabulary from the File. The second is a dictation related to the topic and the language of the File for students to practice the new language in context. Finally, there is a Challenge activity, which involves a mini-research project based on a topic from the File. Every two Files, the Workbook contains a Can you remember...? page, which provides a cumulative review of language students have covered in the Student Book.

c What does Okinawa have in common with Ikaría and Nicoya? Are there people in your country who live like this? In what ways is your lifestyle similar to or different from life in the 'Blue Zones'? Would you like to live in one of the 'Blue Zones'?

Go online to watch the video and review the lesson.

What are their secrets?

What do the Greek island of Ikaría, the Nicoya peninsula in Costa Rica, and the island of Okinawa in Japan have in common? The answer is that, together with Loma Linda in California and Sardinia in Italy, they are the five so-called 'Blue Zones', the best places in the world to live if you want to have a long and healthy life. Many people there live until they are 100 or more. So what are their secrets?

Alexis is a builder from Sicily.

Maria from Nicoya cooks and goes to the market every day.

For students

Student Book

The Student Book has 12 Files. Each File is organized like this:

A, B, and C lessons

Each File contains three two-page lessons which present and practice Grammar, Vocabulary, and Pronunciation with a balance of reading and listening activities, and lots of opportunities for speaking. Every two Files (starting from File 2), the C lesson ends with a Video Listening section. All lessons have clear references to the Grammar Bank, Vocabulary Bank, and where relevant, to the Sound Bank at the back of the book.

Practical English

Every two Files (starting from File 1), there is a two-page lesson with integral video which teaches functional “survival English” (for example language for checking into a hotel or ordering a meal) and also “Social English” (useful phrases like Nice to meet you, Let’s go.). The video is in the form of a drama, featuring the two main characters, Rob and Jenny. The lessons have a storyline which runs through the level.

Review & Check

Every two Files (starting from File 2) there is a two-page section reviewing the Grammar, Vocabulary, and Pronunciation of each File and providing Reading, Listening, and Speaking. The “Can you...?” section challenges students with engaging reading texts and street interview videos, which give students exposure to real-life English.

V days of the week, numbers 0–20
P vowel sounds (/ɪ/, /i/, /æ/, /e/, /eɪ/, /aɪ/), word stress

Lesson plan

The context of this first lesson is a young man who meets a woman at a salsa class. He then introduces her to his friend, who clearly likes her and joins the class. The lesson starts with five conversations where Sts practice basic greetings, asking names, etc. They then focus on the grammar of the verb be in positive sentences and on subject pronouns. In Pronunciation, Sts are introduced to word stress and the English File system of teaching the sounds of English. Here they begin by focusing on six vowel sounds. There is a vocabulary focus on the days of the week and numbers 0–20, and the lesson finishes with a listening and speaking activity, which pulls together the various strands of the lesson.

There is an Entry Test on the Teacher Resource Center which you can give Sts before starting the course.

OPTIONAL LEAD-IN (BOOKS CLOSED)

Pre-teach conversation 2 in b by introducing yourself. Say Hi / Hello, I'm (...), and ask three or four Sts What's your name? When they answer, pretend sometimes not to have heard them properly, and say Sorry? and put your hand to your ear.

1 LISTENING & SPEAKING recognizing names

a 1.2 Books open. Focus on the people in the photo story. Then tell Sts to listen to the conversations and label the four people in pictures 1–4.

Play the audio once or twice if necessary.

Check answers.

EXTRA SUPPORT Read through the script and decide if you need to pre-teach any new vocabulary before Sts listen.

A Carla B Matt C Sally D Ben

1.2

C = Carla, M = Matt, S = Sally, B = Ben

1

C Hello, everybody. Welcome to the class. I'm Carla. I'm your teacher.

2

M Hi, I'm Matt. What's your name?

S Sally.

M Sorry?

M What's your phone number?

4

B Hi, Matt.

M Hello. This is Sally. She's in my salsa class.

B Nice to meet you. My name's Ben.

S Nice to meet you, too.

M Bye, Sally.

B Hi, Sally.

S Ben! Are you in the salsa class, too?

B Yes, I am. How are you?

S I'm very well, thank you. And you?

B Fine, thanks. ... Great! You're my partner!

S Yes! See you later, Matt.

b Play the audio again for Sts to listen and fill in the blanks. Point out that the first one (name) has been done for them. Play it again if necessary.

Check answers and write the words on the board.

2 Sorry 3 number 4 Hi 5 meet 6 you 7 thank
 8 Fine

EXTRA SUPPORT Write the seven missing words in jumbled order on the board.

Finally, go through each line of the conversations eliciting / explaining the meaning of any words / phrases that Sts don't understand. You might want to tell Sts that nowadays some people say I'm good (instead of I'm fine / Fine) in answer to the question How are you?

c 1.3 Play the audio for Sts to listen and repeat. Encourage them to try to copy the rhythm of the audio. Getting the rhythm right is one of the most important aspects of good pronunciation.

1.3

EXTRA IDEA Put Sts in groups of three, and tell them to take roles (Sally, Matt, and Ben). Tell them to focus on the pictures and explain that they are going to act out the conversations. If there's time, get Sts to change roles.

d Focus on the exercise. Explain that Hello and Hi mean the same, but Hi is more informal. Get Sts, in pairs, to fill in the blanks with words from the list. Check answers and highlight that the words / phrases on the right are more informal than those on the left.

My name's... = I'm Very well = Fine Thank you = Thanks
Goodbye = Bye

EXTRA SUPPORT Write the phrases in the left-hand column on the board first.

e Focus on the example sentences in the speech bubbles.

EXTRA CHALLENGE Explain that in English some words are said more strongly than others, e.g., in Nice to meet you, Nice and meet are pronounced more strongly than to and you. Model and drill the phrase, and encourage Sts to try to copy the rhythm.

Tell Sts to imagine that they're at a party where they don't know anyone. Get them to stand up.

Now tell Sts to introduce themselves to at least five other Sts. Encourage them to shake hands, or use a locally appropriate gesture, say Nice to meet you, and say Sorry? if they don't hear the other student's name.

2 GRAMMAR verb be ⊕, subject pronouns

a Focus on the instructions and on the first sentence, I am Carla. Then read the second sentence, I'm Carla, and explain that I'm is the contraction of the two words I and am. Tell Sts that when people speak, they normally use contractions.

Give Sts a minute to fill in the other four blanks and check answers.

2 I'm Matt. 3 My name's Ben. 4 You're my partner.
5 She's in my salsa class.

b Tell Sts to go to Grammar Bank 1A on p.124. Explain that all the grammar rules and exercises are in this section of the book.

Grammar notes

Highlight that fluent speakers of English often use contractions in conversation, especially when the subject is a pronoun.

Highlight also that in English there is only one form of you, which is used for singular and plural, and for formal or informal situations. In your Sts' language(s), there may be different pronouns for second person singular and plural, and also formal and informal forms.

EXTRA SUPPORT If you have a monolingual class, don't be afraid of using your Sts' L1 to talk about the grammar rules. At this level, it is unrealistic to expect Sts to fully understand grammar rules in English.

1.4 Focus on the example sentences and play the audio for Sts to listen and repeat. Focus particularly on the pronunciation of the contractions, especially You're /yʊə/, We're /wɛr/, and They're /ðeɪ/. Then go through the rules with the class.

Now focus on the exercises for 1A on p.125. Sts do the exercises individually or in pairs.

Check answers, getting Sts to read the full sentences.

1 are 2 is 3 are 4 is 5 am 6 is 7 are 8 is 9 is 10 am

b
1 It's... 2 They're... 3 I'm... 4 You're...
c
1 He's... 2 We're... 3 She's... 4 It's... 5 They're...

Tell Sts to go back to the main lesson 1A.

EXTRA SUPPORT If you think Sts need more practice, you may want to give them the Grammar photocopiable activity at this point.

c 1.5 Play the audio and get Sts to listen and repeat the pronouns and contractions.

1 I, I'm
2 you, you're
3 he, he's 4 she, she's 5 it, it's
6 we, we're
7 they, they're

EXTRA SUPPORT Write the words on the board so that Sts know what they are saying.

d 1.6 Focus on the example and tell Sts they're going to hear a full form of the verb and that they must say the contracted form.

Play the audio, pausing after each phrase, and elicit a response from the whole class.

1 I am (pause) I'm
2 you are (pause) you're
3 he is (pause) he's 4 she is (pause) she's
5 it is (pause) it's
6 we are (pause) we're
7 they are (pause) they're

Now repeat the activity with individual Sts.

e Point to a male student whose name you remember and say He's (Antonio). Then point to a female student and elicit She's (María).

Put Sts in pairs and ask them to continue naming other Sts, using He's / She's.

f Focus on the example sentences in the speech bubbles. Tell Sts to stand up and speak to the other Sts.

3 PRONUNCIATION vowel sounds, word stress

Pronunciation notes

It is important to point out to Sts that with vowels (a, e, i, o, u), there is no one-to-one relation between a letter and a sound, e.g., the letter e can be pronounced in more than one way, e.g., he, very, and they. However, reassure your Sts that there are common combinations of letters that are usually pronounced the same way, and these will be pointed out to them as the course progresses.

a 1.7 Focus on the Vowel sounds box and go through it with the class. Tell Sts that English has 21 vowel sounds, and that the American English File pronunciation system has an example word to help them remember each sound. Learning the sounds will help them to pronounce words more clearly and confidently.

Focus on the six sound pictures (fish, tree, etc.). Explain that the phonetic symbol in the picture represents the sound. The phonetic alphabet is used worldwide to show how words are pronounced. Learning to recognize these symbols will help Sts to check the pronunciation of a word in a dictionary.

Now tell Sts that diphthongs, e.g., /eɪ/ and /aɪ/, are two sounds together (/e/ and /ɪ/, /a/ and /ɪ/).

Now focus on the example words in the column under each sound picture, e.g., it, this, in. Explain that the pink letters are the same sound as the picture word they're under. Demonstrate for Sts, e.g., say fish, it, this, in; tree, he, we, meet, etc.

Play the audio for Sts just to listen.

See words and sounds in the Student Book on p.7

Now play the audio again for Sts to listen and repeat. Get Sts to repeat the first picture word (fish), then the sound (/ɪ/), and then the group of three words (it, this, in). However, you may wish to get Sts to repeat after each individual word rather than the group of three.

EXTRA SUPPORT If these sounds are difficult for your Sts, it will help to show them the mouth position. You could model this yourself or use the Sound Bank videos on the Teacher Resource Center.

b 1.8 Tell Sts they're going to hear ten words and that they must write them in their notebooks.

Play the audio, pausing after each word to give Sts time to write.

Check answers by getting Sts to write the words on the board.

1.8

Hi Bye meet they he thanks we very this name

c 1.9 Focus on the Word stress box and go through it with the class. Elicit / Explain the meaning of syllable (= units into which a word is divided).

Now focus on the words. These are words that many Sts will probably already know, and some are "international," e.g., hotel, internet. Write AIRPORT on the board. Elicit / Teach that it has two syllables. Then explain that all words of two or more syllables have one which is stressed (pronounced more strongly than the other(s)). Then say airport both ways (airport and airport) and ask Sts which way they think is correct (airport). Underline AIR on the board, and tell Sts to underline the stressed syllable when they learn new words, especially if it isn't where they would expect it.

! Warn Sts that even if the same or a similar word exists in their language, the stress may be on a different syllable.

Play the audio once the whole way through for Sts just to listen.

1.9

airport computer email hotel internet museum pasta pizza salad sandwich university website

Now play it again, pausing after each word for Sts to underline the stressed syllable.

Check answers.

See underlining in script 1.9

EXTRA IDEA If Sts have dictionaries with them, for example on their phones, get them to look up a word, e.g., airport, and show them that stress is marked in dictionaries with an apostrophe before the stressed syllable, e.g., /'ɛrpoʊrt/. If not, copy a dictionary entry onto the board, or use an online dictionary entry if you have an interactive board.

d Get Sts to copy the chart and write the words from c under the correct heading. Point out that the first one (airport) has been done for them.

Get Sts to compare with a partner, and then check answers.

food	technology	places
pasta	computer	airport
pizza	email	hotel
salad	internet	museum
sandwich	website	university

e Write the three categories on the board. Then give Sts, in pairs, one minute to try to add more English words to each column.

Write their answers on the board. Underline the stressed syllable, and model and drill the correct pronunciation.

4 VOCABULARY days of the week, numbers 0–20

a 1.10 Focus on the picture and elicit that the two people are Ben and Sally.

Play the audio for Sts to fill in the blanks.

Check answers.

1.10

Ben See you on Saturday. Bye.
Sally Bye, Ben.

b Tell Sts to go to Vocabulary Bank Days and numbers on p.148 and get them to do Parts 1 and 2. Explain that these pages (Vocabulary Banks) are their vocabulary section where they will first do the exercises, and will then have the pages for reference to help them learn and remember the words.

Focus on 1 Days of the week and get Sts to do a individually or in pairs.

1.11 Now do b. Play the audio for Sts to listen and check.

Check answers.

1.11

Days and numbers, 1 Days of the week
Monday Tuesday Wednesday Thursday Friday Saturday Sunday

Now either use the audio to drill the pronunciation of the days, or model and drill them yourself. Ask Sts where the stress is (always on the first syllable). Give further practice of any words your Sts find difficult to pronounce. Sts may have problems with Tuesday /'tuzdeɪ/, Wednesday /'wenzdeɪ/, and Thursday /'θɜːzdeɪ/. You could write these on the board and cross out the silent d in Wednesday, and highlight the vowel sounds in Tuesday and Thursday.

🔊 1.12 Now focus on the instructions for c, and play the audio for Sts just to listen.

See phrases in the Student Book on p.148

Highlight the stressed syllables (weekend, weekday, today, etc.). Elicit / Explain the meaning of any words Sts don't know.

Now either use the audio to drill the pronunciation of the phrases, or model and drill them yourself. Give further practice of any words your Sts find difficult to pronounce. Then focus on Activation. Get Sts to cover the days of the week with a piece of paper and say them in order. Now ask them What day is it today? And tomorrow?

Finally, go through the Capital letters box with the class.

Now focus on 2 Numbers 0–20 and get Sts to do a individually or in pairs

Vocabulary notes

Highlight the spelling changes between three and thirteen, and five and fifteen. You could also point out to Sts that numbers in English have only one form and never change.

🔊 1.13 Now do b. Play the audio for Sts to listen and check.

Check answers.

5 five 7 seven 11 eleven 12 twelve 15 fifteen 18 eighteen 20 twenty

🔊 1.13

2 Numbers 1-20

one, two, three, four, five, six, seven, eight, nine, ten, eleven, twelve, thirteen, fourteen, fifteen, sixteen, seventeen, eighteen, nineteen, twenty

Now either use the audio to drill the pronunciation of the numbers, or model and drill them yourself. Explain / Elicit that numbers 13–19 are stressed on the second syllable. Give further practice of any numbers your Sts find difficult to pronounce.

! When we count in a list, 1, 2, 3, 4, etc., we usually stress numbers 13–19 on the first syllable. However, at all other times, when we say them in isolation, e.g., Room 13, they are stressed on the second syllable. We recommend that you teach this pronunciation, as it is important for Sts to later distinguish between, e.g., 13 (thirteen) and 30 (thirty).

EXTRA SUPPORT Most Sts will probably know how to count to ten, but may be less confident with 11–20. Get the class to try to count from 0 to 20. You start with the number 0 and get a student to say the next number. Try to elicit all numbers from 0 to 20. Then do the same counting backwards, starting from 20.

Now focus on Activation. Get Sts to cover the words with a piece of paper, leaving the numbers visible.

Finally, go through the Phone numbers box with the class. Highlight that 0 is usually pronounced /oʊ/ in telephone numbers, although zero can also be used.

Tell Sts to go back to the main lesson 1A.

EXTRA SUPPORT If you think Sts need more practice, you may want to give them the Vocabulary photocopiable activity at this point.

c 🔊 1.14 Focus on the example and tell Sts they will hear two words (days of the week or numbers), and they have to say the next word in the sequence.

Play the audio, pausing after the two words, and elicit a response from the whole class.

🔊 1.14

Monday, Tuesday, (pause) Wednesday eighteen, nineteen, (pause) twenty Tuesday, Wednesday, (pause) Thursday eight, nine, (pause) ten thirteen, fourteen, (pause) fifteen Friday, Saturday, (pause) Sunday
Sunday, Monday, (pause) Tuesday ten, eleven, (pause) twelve sixteen, seventeen, (pause) eighteen

Now repeat the activity, eliciting responses from individual Sts.

d Model and drill the question. Get Sts to ask three Sts sitting near them. They should write down the phone numbers so that they can check them.

! Tell Sts they can invent their phone numbers if they prefer.

Get feedback from the class.

5 LISTENING & SPEAKING recognizing places and numbers

a 🔊 1.15 Focus on the six places (airport, sandwich shop, etc.) and make sure Sts understand them. Tell Sts they're going to listen to six short conversations. The first time they listen, they should just try to understand where the conversation is taking place and write a number 2–6 in the boxes. Point out that the first one has been done for them.

! Make sure Sts write 2–6 in the boxes before the words airport, sandwich shop, etc., and not in the spaces, e.g., after gate number.

Play the audio once for Sts to identify the place. Play again if necessary, and then check answers.

EXTRA SUPPORT Read through the script and decide if you need to pre-teach any new vocabulary before Sts listen.

2 language school 3 airport 4 taxi 5 hotel 6 museum

1.15

(script in the Student Book on p.118)

- 1 A A cheese and tomato sandwich, please.
B That's nine dollars and 15 cents.

- 5 A Here's your key. Room twelve.
B Thank you.
- 6 A Here we are.
B Oh, no! It's closed.
A Look, it says "Closed on Monday."

b Focus on the words on the right in a. Elicit / Explain the meaning of gate, etc. Now tell Sts to listen again, but this time to focus on the numbers and days they hear in each conversation.

Play the audio once or twice as necessary, pausing between each conversation to give Sts time to write the numbers or days in the blanks.

Get Sts to compare with a partner, and then check answers by playing the audio a final time and eliciting the numbers and days for each one.

1 sandwich shop	9 dollars and 15 cents
2 language school	Classes on Tuesday and Thursday mornings
3 airport	Gate number 5
4 taxi	16 Manchester Road
5 hotel	Room 12
6 museum	Closed on Monday

EXTRA SUPPORT If there's time, you could get Sts to listen again with the script on p.118, so they can see exactly what they understood / didn't understand. Translate / Explain any new words or phrases.

c 1.16 Focus on the examples and tell Sts they're going to hear a sentence and they must respond to it.
Play the audio, pausing after each sentence to elicit a response from the whole class.

1.16

- 1 Hello. Nice to meet you. (pause)

- 6 Have a nice weekend. (pause)
- 7 Hi. This is Anna. (pause)
- 8 Hello. How are you? (pause)

Now repeat the activity, eliciting responses from individual Sts.

G verb be [ ] and [ ? ]

V countries, numbers 21–100

P /ə/, consonant sounds /tʃ/, /f/, /dʒ/, word stress

Lesson plan

The context of this lesson is the Olympics, a time when people from many nationalities gather together in one place. Sts complete their study of the verb be and learn how to say where they and other people are from. They start the lesson by learning vocabulary for countries and nationalities, and this language is then practiced in a world quiz. Next, Pronunciation covers the schwa /ə/, a sound which occurs in many English words, and three consonant sounds, which are difficult for many nationalities. The Grammar section, be in negative sentences and questions, is then presented through three interviews between a journalist and sports fans from different countries. Sts then practice asking where people are from. There is then a second Vocabulary section where Sts learn numbers 21–100, and a Pronunciation and Listening section which focuses on word stress in numbers, and practices numbers through listening and playing Bingo.

OPTIONAL LEAD-IN (BOOKS CLOSED)

Write the word CONTINENT on the board and elicit / teach its meaning. Ask Sts how many continents there are (six) and if they can name them (from largest to smallest: Asia, Africa, North America, South America, Europe, Australia). Answers to this question might differ as some people say there are five continents (counting North and South America as one); some also include Antarctica.

1 VOCABULARY countries

a 1.17 Books open. Focus on the four countries and make sure Sts know what they are.

Now tell Sts that they are going to hear music from these countries and they must write a number 1–4 in the boxes. Play the audio once for Sts to listen and complete the task. Check answers.

1 China 2 Brazil 3 Mexico 4 Russia

1.17

- 1 Chinese music
- 2 Brazilian music
- 3 Mexican music
- 4 Russian music

b Tell Sts to go to Vocabulary Bank Countries on p.149.

Focus on 1 Continents and get Sts to do a individually or in pairs.

1.18 Now do b. Play the audio for Sts to listen and check.

Check answers.

1.18

Countries, 1 Continents

- 4 Africa (pause) African
- 5 Asia (pause) Asian
- 6 Australia (pause) Australian
- 3 Europe (pause) European
- 1 North America (pause) North American
- 2 South America (pause) South American

Now either use the audio to drill the pronunciation of the words, or model and drill them yourself. Give further practice of any words your Sts find difficult to pronounce. Focus on the instructions for c. Get Sts to cover the words with a piece of paper, leaving the map visible. Sts look at the map and try to remember both the continents and adjectives.

Finally, focus on the compass points, and model and drill the pronunciation: north /nɔːθ/, east /iːst/, south /saʊθ/, west /west/.

Focus on 2 Countries and nationalities and get Sts to do a individually or in pairs.

Vocabulary notes

The nationality word is normally the same as the word for the language of the country, e.g., in Italy the language is Italian, in Hungary the language is Hungarian. However, some countries are different, for example, in Brazil the language is Portuguese, and in some countries like Switzerland there are several official languages (German, French, Italian, and Romansch).

1.19 Play the audio for Sts to listen and check.

Check answers.

1.19

- 15 Japan (pause) Japanese
- 17 Vietnam (pause) Vietnamese
- 20 the Czech Republic (pause) Czech

- 19 Thailand (pause) Thai

Now either use the audio to drill the pronunciation of the words, or model and drill them yourself. Give further practice of any words your Sts find difficult to pronounce. If your Sts' country is not in the list, teach it with the nationality adjective, and elicit which group the adjective belongs to.

Focus on the Capital letters box and go through it with the class.

Now focus on the instructions for b. Get Sts to cover each group of words with a piece of paper, leaving the flags visible. Sts look at the flags and try to remember both the countries and nationalities.

Finally, focus on Activation and the example. Put Sts in pairs and get them to tell their partner in which continent the six countries are, or, still in pairs, A could say a country, e.g., Brazil and B says where the country is, e.g., Brazil is in South America.

Tell Sts to go back to the main lesson 1B.

EXTRA SUPPORT If you think Sts need more practice, you may want to give them the Vocabulary photocopiable activity at this point.

- c Tell Sts they are going to do a quiz in small groups. Before they start, draw their attention to the example speech bubbles. Focus on the expressions I think... and I'm not sure. Teach / Elicit their meaning and drill the pronunciation.
- Put Sts in small groups of three or four and give them a time limit to do questions 1–4 in The World Quiz. Tell them that the answers to questions 2, 3, and 4 are the 20 countries in the Vocabulary Bank, and let them refer to it. Check answers and find out which group got the most correct answers.

2 PRONUNCIATION /ə/, /tʃ/, /ʃ/, /dʒ/

Pronunciation notes

The /ə/ sound occurs before or after stressed syllables and is the most common vowel sound in English.

/tʃ/ the letters ch and tch are usually pronounced /tʃ/, e.g., children, watch.

/ʃ/ the letters sh are always pronounced /ʃ/, e.g., she, shop.

The letters s and double ss are very rarely pronounced /ʃ/, e.g., only in sure, sugar, Russian, passion, and a few other words.

/dʒ/ j is always pronounced /dʒ/, e.g., Japanese. g is usually pronounced /dʒ/ before e or i (e.g., German, giraffe), but is pronounced /g/ before all other vowels, e.g., gate, goodbye, and sometimes before e and i, e.g., get, give, etc.

- a 1.20 Focus on The /ə/ sound box and go through it with the class. Model and drill the sound. Before you play the audio, you may want to point out that some words, e.g., computer, can have more than one /ə/ sound in them (it has two). Also show Sts that the stressed syllable has been underlined in the example words.

Play the audio for Sts just to listen to the sound and the four example words in the list.

1.20

See words in the Student Book on p.8

Now play the audio again for Sts to listen and repeat.

- b 1.21 Focus on the Consonant sounds box and go through it with the class.

Now focus on the three sound pictures (chess, shower, jazz). Remind Sts that the phonetic symbol in the picture represents the sound.

Play the audio once for Sts just to listen.

1.21

See sentences in the Student Book on p.8

Now play the audio again, pausing after each sound and sentence for Sts to repeat. Play again if necessary.

Put Sts in pairs to practice saying the sentences.

EXTRA SUPPORT If these sounds are difficult for your Sts, it will help to show them the mouth position. You could model this yourself or use the Sound Bank videos on the Teacher Resource Center.

- c 1.22 Here Sts recycle some of the country and nationality words that they learned in the Vocabulary Bank.

Tell Sts they will hear the name of a country and they must say the nationality. Focus on the example.

Play the audio, pausing after each country, and elicit the nationality from the class.

1.22

- 1 Canada (pause) Canadian
- 2 Turkey (pause) Turkish
- 3 China (pause) Chinese
- 4 Germany (pause) German
- 5 England (pause) English
- 6 Brazil (pause) Brazilian
- 7 France (pause) French
- 8 Ireland (pause) Irish
- 9 Argentina (pause) Argentinian
- 10 Japan (pause) Japanese

Now repeat the activity, eliciting responses from individual Sts. Give further practice of any words your Sts find difficult to pronounce.

3 GRAMMAR verb be  and

- a 1.23 Focus on the instructions, and on the photos and conversations.

Play the audio, pausing after each interview for Sts to write the country or nationality.

Check answers.

- 1 Brazil, Brazilian 2 Australia 3 American, Japan

1.23

(script in Student Book on p.118)

- 1 A Hi. Where are you from?
B We're from Fortaleza, in Brazil.
A OK. Good luck to the Brazilian team!
B Thank you!
- 2 A Hello. I'm Mike from US News. Where are you from?
B I'm from Australia.
A Are you from Sydney?
B No, I'm not. I'm from Cairns.
A Where's Cairns? Is it near Sydney?
B No, it isn't. It's in the north. Am I on TV?
A Yes, you are.
B Wow!
- 3 A Hi. Are you American?
B No, we aren't. We're from Japan.
A Oh, sorry!

- b Give Sts two minutes to read the interviews again and complete the chart. Point out the example (you aren't). Get Sts to compare with a partner, and then check answers by copying the chart onto the board and getting Sts to tell you how to complete it.

<input type="checkbox"/>	I'm	you're	it's
<input type="checkbox"/>	I'm not	you aren't	it isn't
<input type="checkbox"/>	Am I	Are you	Is it

Finally, go through the interviews, eliciting / explaining the meaning of any words or phrases that Sts don't understand. You might want to point out to Sts the different use of sorry in the last interview. In 1A Sts saw Sorry being used to ask someone to repeat something. Here the interviewer uses it to apologize – to show he feels bad about getting the nationality wrong.

- c Tell Sts to go to Grammar Bank 1B on p.124.

Grammar notes

Remind Sts that in conversations it is more common to use contractions in negatives than the full form.

In the negative, the verb be can be contracted in two ways, e.g., You aren't Vietnamese (contracting not) or You're not Vietnamese (contracting are). American English File at lower levels normally uses the former.

With short answers, explain to Sts that although native speakers often use Yes, I am instead of just Yes, both ways of answering are perfectly correct. However, answering just Yes or No can sound abrupt.

- 1.24 Focus on the example sentences and play the audio for Sts to listen and repeat. Then go through the rules with the class.

Now focus on the exercises for 1B on p.125. Sts do the exercises individually or in pairs.

Check answers, getting Sts to read the full sentences.

- a 1 I'm not American.
2 They aren't Brazilian.
3 It isn't in South America.
4 You aren't French.
- b 1 Am I in room 10? Yes, you are.
2 Is it Spanish? No, it isn't.
3 Are they students? No, they aren't.
4 Is he from Peru? Yes, he is.
5 Are you Mike Bell? No, I'm not.
- c 1 's 2 Are 3 'm 4 'm 5 Are 6 'm 7 Is 8 isn't 9 's 10 Are 11 'm

Tell Sts to go back to the main lesson 1B.

EXTRA SUPPORT If you think Sts need more practice, you may want to give them the Grammar photocopiable activity at this point.

- d 1.25 Focus on the example and tell Sts they will hear ten questions, and each time they must respond with a short answer.

Play the audio, pausing after each question to elicit a response from the whole class.

1.25

- 1 Is Sydney the capital of Australia? (pause) No, it isn't.
- 2 Are you Canadian? (pause) No, I'm not.
- 3 Is Superman American? (pause) Yes, he is.
- 4 Are the Simpsons English? (pause) No, they aren't.
- 5 Is sushi Chinese? (pause) No, it isn't.
- 6 Are Zara and Mango from England? (pause) No, they aren't.
- 7 Is Lima in Peru? (pause) Yes, it is.
- 8 Are Honda and Suzuki Japanese? (pause) Yes, they are.
- 9 Is J.K. Rowling American? (pause) No, she isn't.
- 10 Is New York the capital of the United States? (pause) No, it isn't.

Now repeat the activity, eliciting responses from individual Sts.

EXTRA CHALLENGE Play the audio again and ask Sts for the correct answers where appropriate, e.g., “Is Sydney the capital of Australia?” “No, it isn’t. The capital of Australia is Canberra.”

e Focus on the instructions and tell Sts to write similar questions to those they heard in d, beginning with Is...? or Are...?. Give them some more examples if necessary, and then set a time limit for Sts, in pairs, to write three questions.

Monitor and check what they are writing. Then put two pairs together and get them to answer each other’s questions.

Get feedback from a few pairs.

4 SPEAKING

a Put Sts in pairs, A and B, and tell them to go to Communication Where are they from?, A on p.102, B on p.108.

Go through the instructions with them carefully, and focus on the two example questions (Where’s X from? and Where in (country)?). Tell Sts they have to ask these questions for each of their three people and write the answers in the chart.

Sit A and B face-to-face. A asks his / her questions about person 1 to B and writes the information in the chart.

B now asks A about person 2, and they then take turns to ask and answer.

When they have finished, get them to compare charts, and then get feedback from some pairs.

Tell Sts to go back to the main lesson 1B.

b Focus on the instructions and give Sts time to choose a different country from Vocabulary Bank Countries and then think of a city there.

Get Sts to ask you the questions first.

! The answer to Where are you from? is usually I’m from (town) when you’re in your own country, and I’m from (country) or I’m (nationality) followed by the town when you’re abroad.

Get Sts to stand up and ask five other Sts the questions.

Finally, ask a few Sts where they are from.

EXTRA SUPPORT In a multilingual class, get Sts to use their real towns and countries / nationalities.

5 VOCABULARY numbers 21–100

a 1.26 This exercise reviews numbers 1–20, which Sts did in 1A. Focus on the illustration and elicit how to say it (three plus one is...). Then point out the speech bubble and elicit the number (four).

Tell Sts they are going to hear ten sums and they must only write the answers.

Play the audio, pausing after each question to give Sts time to write the answer.

Check answers by playing each sum again, pausing and getting individual Sts to answer.

See numbers in bold in script 1.26

1.26

- 1 What’s three plus one? (pause) four
- 2 What’s nine plus two? (pause) eleven
- 3 What’s thirteen plus three? (pause) sixteen
- 4 What’s eight plus five? (pause) thirteen
- 5 What’s seven plus five? (pause) twelve
- 6 What’s six plus four? (pause) ten
- 7 What’s ten plus four? (pause) fourteen
- 8 What’s five plus three? (pause) eight
- 9 What’s eight plus three plus seven? (pause) eighteen
- 10 What’s eleven plus seven plus two? (pause) twenty

b Tell Sts to go to Vocabulary Bank Days and numbers on p.148 and get them to do Part 3.

Focus on 3 Numbers 21–100 and get Sts to do a individually or in pairs.

1.27 Now do b. Play the audio for Sts to listen and check.

Check answers and write the numbers on the board.

30 35 40 43 50 59 60 67 70 72 80 88 90
94 100

1.27

3 Numbers 21-100

twenty-one, thirty, thirty-five, forty, forty-three, fifty, fifty-nine, sixty, sixty-seven, seventy, seventy-two, eighty, eighty-eight, ninety, ninety-four, a hundred

Focus on the Pronunciation box and go through it with the class. Point out that 13, 14, etc. are stressed on the second syllable, and 30, 40, etc. are stressed on the first syllable. Sts will practice this difference in the next part of the lesson. Point out that with compound numbers e.g., twenty-one, thirty-five, forty-three, etc., the main stress is on the second number e.g., twenty-one, thirty-five, forty-three.

EXTRA SUPPORT Play the audio again or say the numbers yourself, pausing after each number for Sts to repeat.

Finally, focus on Activation. Get Sts to cover the words with a piece of paper and say the numbers.

Tell Sts to go back to the main lesson 1B.

EXTRA IDEA A numbers game which Sts always enjoy is Buzz. You may want to play it now or at any other time when you want to review numbers.

Get Sts to sit or stand in a circle and count out loud. When they come to a number which contains three (e.g., 13) or a multiple of three (e.g., three, six, nine, etc.), they have to say “Buzz” instead of the number.

If a student makes a mistake, either saying the number instead of “Buzz,” or simply saying the wrong number, he / she is “out,” and the next player begins again from number one.

Continue until there is only one student left, who is the winner, or until the group has gotten to 30 without making a mistake.

You can also play Buzz with seven as the “wild” number, and go up to 50.

c 1.28 Play the audio and get Sts to write the numbers they hear.

Check answers by eliciting the numbers onto the board.

1.28

twenty-five thirty-three forty-seven fifty sixty-six seventy-eight eighty-one ninety-nine d Sts work individually and choose ten numbers from 21 to 100, which they write on a piece of paper.

Put Sts in pairs and get them to dictate their numbers to their partner, who writes them down.

When they have changed roles, they can compare pieces of paper to check for mistakes.

6 PRONUNCIATION & LISTENING word stress

Pronunciation notes

As Sts have seen in the Vocabulary Bank, 13, 14, etc. are stressed on the second syllable, and 30, 40, etc. are stressed on the first syllable. However, 13 / 30, 14 / 40, etc. can sound very similar and are often confused. Native speakers sometimes need to clarify which number they mean, by saying, e.g., “one three” or “three oh” to make it clear whether they are saying 13 or 30.

a 1.29 Play the audio and get Sts to repeat the numbers.

Ask What’s the difference between the numbers in a and b?

The numbers in a, e.g., 13, 14, etc., are stressed on the second syllable, and the numbers in b, e.g., 30, 40, etc., are stressed on the first syllable.

Point out to Sts that this means that the pairs of numbers can be easily confused and this can be a problem, even for native speakers, particularly for example in a noisy environment like a restaurant or coffee shop.

1.29

See numbers in the Student Book on p.9

b 1.30 Tell Sts that this time they will hear seven conversations, and in each conversation they will hear just one number from each pair in a.

Play the audio twice and Sts circle a or b.

Check answers.

EXTRA SUPPORT Read through the script and decide if you need to pre-teach any new vocabulary before Sts listen.

1 b 30 2 b 40 3 a 15 4 a 16 5 a 17 6 b 80 7 b 90

1.30

(script in Student Book on p.118)

1 Announcer The 6:12 train to Poughkeepsie, making stops at Harlem, Beacon, New Hamburg, and Poughkeepsie is departing from Track 30.

A That’s our train. Track 30. Come on.

B OK. Let’s go.

2 A Excuse me! How far is it to Austin?

B It’s about forty miles.

A Thanks a lot.

3 A Just one more set. Come on.

B Fifteen—love.

A Great serve!

4 A Will all passengers on Delta flight 1182 to Portland please go to gate sixteen immediately.

B Gate sixteen. Is that our flight?

C No, it’s to Portland, Maine, not Portland, Oregon.

5 A How much is that?

B Two slices of pizza, a salad, and a soda. That’s seventeen dollars.

6 A What’s your address?

B It’s eighty Park Street.

A Sorry?

B Eighty, eight oh. Park Street.

7 A OK, be quiet, please. Open your books to page ninety.

B What page?

C Page ninety.

EXTRA CHALLENGE Ask Sts what each conversation is about.

c Draw this bingo card on the board for Sts to copy.

In pairs, Sts complete their bingo card with six numbers from a. They must only choose one from each pair, e.g., either 13 or 30, but not both.

Call out random numbers, choosing from the pairs of numbers in a. Keep a note of the numbers you call out.

If Sts have one of the numbers you call out on their card, they should cross it off. Keep calling until one pair has crossed off all the numbers, at which point they should call out “Bingo!”

Check the winning pair’s card. If it’s correct, they have won. If it isn’t, continue the game. Once there is a winner, you can play again if there is time.

- G possessive adjectives: my, your, etc.
V classroom language
P /ou/, /u/, /ar/, the alphabet, sentence stress

Lesson plan

The context for this lesson is the classroom, and signing up for an English course. The lesson starts with a focus on classroom language, which helps Sts to understand and respond to common classroom instructions, and to ask the teacher in English for information and clarification. Sts then learn the pronunciation of the alphabet and practice it with common abbreviations. Next, Sts listen to a Skype interview with a student and a teacher at a language school in the United States, and learn how to give personal information and practice spelling. This leads into the grammar focus of possessive adjectives. The different elements of the lesson are brought together in the final activities, where Sts do a communication activity discovering what some actors' and singers' real names are, and a writing focus where they complete an application form for a visa.

OPTIONAL LEAD-IN (BOOKS CLOSED)

Point to a few things in the classroom (from Vocabulary a) and ask Sts what they are. Write the words on the board, and model and drill pronunciation.

1 VOCABULARY classroom language

- a Books open. Focus on the illustration and get Sts to match the words and pictures.
b  1.31 Play the audio for Sts to listen and check. Check answers.

1.31

- 4 a board
 9 a chair
 3 a computer
 5 a desk
 1 a door
 2 a picture
 8 a table
 6 a wall
 7 a window

Now play it again to drill the pronunciation of the words. Give further practice of any words your Sts find difficult to pronounce.

- c Focus on the two small illustrations. Model and drill the two questions What's this? (for a singular object near you) and What's that? (for a singular object far from you). Demonstrate the meaning by touching your chair and asking What's this? Then point to the door and ask What's that?
 Put Sts in pairs and get them to point to objects and ask and answer the questions.
d Focus on the illustration in a again and the speech bubbles A–C. Tell Sts that sentences 1–3 are what the people are saying, and give them time to match them.
e  1.32 Play the audio for Sts to listen and check. Check answers.

1 C 2 A 3 B

1.32

- 1 C What page is it?
 2 A Sorry I'm late.
 3 B Look at the board, please.

- f Tell Sts to go to Vocabulary Bank Classroom language on p.150. The teacher says section helps Sts recognize and respond to common instructions used in the classroom. Get Sts to do a individually or in pairs.

-  1.33 Now do b. Play the audio for Sts to listen and check.

Check answers. Make sure the meaning of each phrase is clear by miming or getting Sts to mime.

1.33

Classroom language

- 7 Open your books, please.
 11 Go to page eighty-four.
 13 Do exercise a.
 5 Read the text.
 1 Look at the board.
 12 Close the door.
 2 Work in pairs.
 10 Answer the questions.
 9 Listen and repeat.
 6 Stand up.
 3 Sit down.
 8 Turn off your phone.
 4 Please stop talking!

Focus on the Please box and go through it with the class. In You say Sts learn phrases they themselves may need to use in class. Get Sts to do c individually or in pairs.

-  1.34 Now do d. Play the audio for Sts to listen and check.

Check answers. Make sure Sts know what all the phrases mean.

1.34

Classroom language

- 19 Sorry, can you repeat that, please?
- 14 Sorry I'm late.
- 18 I don't understand.
- 15 Can I have a copy, please?
- 22 How do you spell it?
- 17 I don't know.
- 21 How do you say gato in English?
- 20 Can you help me, please?
- 16 What page is it?

Either use the audio to drill the pronunciation of the sentences and questions, or model and drill them yourself. Encourage Sts to use the right rhythm.

Now focus on the instructions for e. Get Sts to cover the sentences and questions with a piece of paper, leaving the pictures visible.

Finally, focus on Activation. Tell Sts from now on you want them to try to use the phrases from this lesson. It's a good idea to have a poster on the wall with this classroom language for Sts to refer to.

Tell Sts to go back to the main lesson 1C.

EXTRA SUPPORT If you think Sts need more practice, you may want to give them the Vocabulary photocopiable activity at this point.

- g 1.35 Tell Sts they are going to hear some instructions and they must act out what they hear.
- Play the audio and get Sts to follow the classroom instructions.

1.35

- Stand up.
- Sit down.
- Open your books.
- Go to page twelve.
- Look at exercise one b.
- Close your books.
- Listen and repeat "Nice to meet you."
- Answer the question "Where are you from?"

2 PRONUNCIATION /ou/, /u/, /aɪ/, the alphabet

Pronunciation notes

Remind Sts that /ou/ is a diphthong, i.e., two sounds together, /o/ and /u/, if you think this will help them.

- a 1.36 Focus on the three sound pictures (phone, boot, car).
- Now focus on the example words in the row next to each sound picture, e.g., close (verb), go, and Mexico. Elicit / Explain that the pink letters are the same sound as the picture word they're next to. Demonstrate for Sts, e.g., say phone, close, go, etc.
- Play the audio for Sts just to listen.

1.36

See words and sounds in the Student Book on p.10

Now play the audio again for Sts to listen and repeat.

EXTRA SUPPORT If these sounds are difficult for your Sts, it will help to show them the mouth position. You could model this yourself or use the Sound Bank videos on the Teacher Resource Center.

- b 1.37 Focus on the alphabet. Explain that it's important to know how to say the English alphabet because you often need to spell first names, last names, town names, email addresses, passwords, etc. (especially when you're talking on the phone).

Play the audio for Sts to repeat the letters in groups of three.

1.37

See alphabet in the Student Book on p.10

- c 1.38 Focus on the chart. Explain that the letters are in columns according to the vowel sound of each letter. Elicit the seven picture words and sounds (Sts have seen them all before).

Then show Sts how the letters in each column have the same vowel sound, e.g., train, A, H, J; tree, B, E, etc.

Put Sts in pairs. Get them to go through the alphabet, stopping at the letters that are missing from the chart, and writing them in the correct column. Do the first one with them (C). Write it on the board and ask Sts how to say it and which column it goes in (tree). Give Sts a time limit, e.g., three minutes, to complete the chart.

Play the audio once for Sts to listen and check answers (you may want to copy the complete chart onto the board).

1.38

train /eɪ/	A H J K
tree /i:/	B C D E G P T V Z
egg /ɛ/	F L M N S X bike /aɪ/	I Y
phone /oʊ/	O
boot /u/	Q U W
car /ɑː/	R

Now play the audio again, pausing after each sound for Sts to repeat the group of letters.

- d 1.39 Focus on the group of letters and explain that these letters are often confused. Play the audio for Sts just to listen to the different sounds.

1.39

See letters in the Student Book on p.10

- e 1.40 Tell Sts that now they are going to hear just one letter from each group. They will hear the letter twice.
- Play the audio and tell Sts to circle the letter they hear. Check answers.

1.40

1 E, E 2 J, J 3 Q, Q 4 C, C 5 B, B 6 M, M 7 V, V 8 Y, Y

- f Focus on the phrases and tell Sts that they are all things that we normally refer to just using abbreviations (the bold letters). Point out the example (a PC). Put Sts in pairs and get them to practice saying the abbreviations. Make sure they understand all the phrases. Check answers.

EXTRA IDEA Play Hangman. Think of a word Sts know, preferably of at least eight letters, e.g., NATIONALITY. Write a dash on the board for each letter of the word:

Sts call out letters one at a time. If the letter is in the word (e.g., A), fill it in each time it occurs, e.g., _A_____A_____. Only accept correctly pronounced letters. If the letter is not in the word, draw the first line of this picture on the board:

Write any wrongly guessed letters under the picture so that Sts don't repeat them. The object of the game is to guess the word before the drawing is completed. Sts can make guesses at any time, but each wrong guess adds another line to the drawing.

The student who correctly guesses the word comes to the board and chooses a new word.

Sts can also play in pairs / groups, drawing on a piece of paper.

3 LISTENING & SPEAKING understanding personal information

a 1.41 Focus on the task and the photo of Micaela, a language student, and Mark, the man on the laptop screen, who is a teacher at a language school.

Now focus on the language school enrollment form. Explain (in Sts' L1 if necessary) that Micaela wants to study English at a language school in the United States. Tell Sts that they are going to listen to her having an interview with a teacher named Mark on Skype, and they must complete the form with her information.

Go through the different headings on the form and make sure Sts understand them. Explain the difference between first name and last name, using the names of famous people who you think Sts will know, e.g., Brad Pitt, showing that Brad is his first name and Pitt his last name (or family name). Sts may also not know age and zip code.

Play the audio once for Sts just to listen. Then play it again, pausing to give Sts time to complete the form. Play again if necessary.

EXTRA SUPPORT This is the first quite long listening that Sts have had. Reassure them by telling them just to relax and listen the first time, without trying to complete the form, but just trying to follow the conversation. Then tell them to try to complete some of the form, and play the audio as many times as you think they need, pausing where necessary, e.g., after the phone numbers.

Give Sts time to compare with a partner, and then check answers.

EXTRA SUPPORT Read through the script and decide if you need to pre-teach any new vocabulary before Sts listen.

T Five four, one one, six zero two three, five four four two.

M That's right.

T OK, that's great. So, what do you do, Micaela?

M I'm in college. I'm a nursing student...

b 1.42 Now focus on the teacher's questions and give Sts a couple of minutes to complete them. Point out that the first one (What's) has been done for them.

Play the audio for Sts to listen and check. Play it again, pausing if necessary.

Check answers and elicit the meaning of How old are you?

I The question How old are you? and the answer I'm 20 are with the verb be. In your Sts' L1, a different verb may be used, e.g., have.

1.42

- 1 What's your first name?
- 2 What's your last name?
- 3 How do you spell it?
- 4 How old are you?
- 5 Where are you from?
- 6 What's your address?
- 7 What's your zip code?
- 8 What's your email address?
- 9 What's your phone number?

EXTRA IDEA Get Sts to close their books. Play the audio again, pausing after each question and get Sts to answer about themselves.

c Focus on the Sentence stress box and go through it with the class. Remind Sts that getting the rhythm right when they speak will help them to understand and be understood.

Play the audio, pausing after each question for Sts to repeat the questions. Encourage them to copy the rhythm.

EXTRA SUPPORT Play the audio, pausing after each question for Sts to underline the stressed words. Check answers.

- 1 What's your first name?
- 2 What's your last name?
- 3 How do you spell it?
- 4 How old are you?
- 5 Where are you from?
- 6 What's your address?
- 7 What's your zip code?
- 8 What's your email address?
- 9 What's your phone number?

Then play the audio again for Sts to repeat the questions, copying the rhythm.

d Focus on the Saying emails box and go through it with the class.

EXTRA CHALLENGE Teach underscore (   ) and hyphen ( - ), and mention double for letters in spelling, e.g., Ella.

Put Sts in pairs, A and B, and get them to sit facing each other. Explain that they're going to role-play the Skype interview and ask and answer the questions in b. A is the teacher, and B is a new student. A is going to interview B. Tell A to start the interview: Hello. What's your first name?, etc. Remind Sts to write down the answers.

! Tell Sts they can invent their ages, addresses, and phone numbers if they prefer.

EXTRA CHALLENGE Get B to listen and answer the questions with his / her book closed.

Get Sts to change roles.

Get some quick feedback by asking a few Sts about their partners, e.g., What's his address? What's her email address?

4 GRAMMAR possessive adjectives: my, your, etc.

a Focus on the two questions and answers, and get Sts to fill in the blanks.

Check answers.

- 1 you 2 I 3 your 4 My

b Tell Sts to go to Grammar Bank 1C on p.124.

Grammar notes

In some languages, the possessive adjective agrees with the following noun, i.e., it can be masculine, feminine, or plural, depending on the gender and number of the noun that comes after. In English, nouns don't have gender, so possessive adjectives don't change, and the use of, e.g., his / her / their, simply depends on whether we are talking about something belonging or related to a man, a woman, or two or more people.

Remind Sts that your is used for singular and plural.

1.43 Focus on the example sentences and play the audio for Sts to listen and repeat. Then go through the rules with the class.

Then focus on the it's or its? box and go through it with the class.

Now focus on the exercises for 1C on p.125. Sts do the exercises individually or in pairs.

Check answers, getting Sts to read the full sentences.

- a
1 Their 2 Her 3 Our 4 its 5 your 6 His 7 My 8 your 9 Her 10 Our
- b
1 Her 2 their 3 your 4 she 5 He 6 his 7 your 8 Our 9 My 10 She

Tell Sts to go back to the main lesson 1C.

EXTRA SUPPORT If you think Sts need more practice, you may want to give them the Grammar photocopyable activity at this point.

c 1.44 Focus on the examples and tell Sts they are going to hear a sentence, e.g., I'm Matt, and they must change it using a possessive adjective and the word name (My name's Matt).

Play the audio, pausing after each sentence, and elicit a response from the whole class.

1.44

- 1 I'm Matt. (pause) My name's Matt.
- 2 You're Sally. (pause) Your name's Sally.
- 3 We're Mike and Mia. (pause) Our names are Mike and Mia.
- 4 He's Ben. (pause) His name's Ben.
- 5 They're Austin and Jack. (pause) Their names are Austin and Jack.
- 6 She's Carla. (pause) Her name's Carla.

Now repeat the activity, eliciting responses from individual Sts.

EXTRA SUPPORT The first time, you could pause the audio and give Sts time to write the transformed sentences. Then repeat, getting Sts to cover what they wrote and do the transformations orally.

d  1.45 Focus on the photos and ask Sts if they know the people. Make sure they understand the meaning of real (= actually true, in this case names, e.g., on their passport or ID).

Ask the question to the class and for each photo, elicit with a show of hands who thinks they are their real names.

Play the audio for Sts to listen and check.

Check answers.

 1.45

(script in Student Book on p.118)

Snoop Dogg isn't his real name. His real name is Calvin Cordozar Broadus. He's American.

e Put Sts in pairs, A and B, and tell them to go to Communication What's his / her real name?, A on p.102, B on p.108.

Go through the instructions with them carefully. Explain / Elicit the meaning of actor (= a man in a movie), actress (= a woman in a movie), and singer (= a person whose job is singing). Tell Sts that nowadays the word actor is often used for both men and women. Then drill the question What's his real name? or What's her real name?

Give Sts a minute to cross out the names they think aren't real. Then sit A and B face-to-face. A asks his / her questions to B and writes the information in the chart.

B now asks A his / her questions.

At the end of the activity, get Sts to compare charts to check they have spelled the real names correctly.

Tell Sts to go back to the main lesson 1C.

5 WRITING completing a form

This is the first time Sts are sent to the Writing section at the back of the Student Book. Here Sts will find model texts, with exercises and language notes, and then a writing task. We suggest that you go through the model and do the exercise(s) in class, but assign the actual writing task for homework.

Tell Sts to go to Writing Completing a form on p.113.

a Focus on the Capital letters box and go through it with the class. Tell them to highlight any rules that are different from their L1 (e.g., nationalities and languages are not written with a capital letter in several languages.).

b Focus on the application form for a visa. Go through the different sections with Sts. Highlight and check the meaning and pronunciation of:

- Mr. for a man, Mrs. for a married woman, and Ms. /mɪz/ for a woman (giving no indication about marital status).
- gender, for the sex of the person (male or female).
- married, single, divorced, separated.
- birth.

Give Sts a few minutes to complete the form. Remind them to check that they use capital letters correctly.

Go around checking Sts are completing the form correctly. Then elicit answers from individual Sts for each section.

EXTRA IDEA If you want to give extra practice with personal information questions, get Sts to use the form to interview each other.

c Focus on the paragraph and get Sts to copy it again, using capital letters where necessary.

Check answers by eliciting from Sts the words that need capital letters and writing the paragraph on the board.

My name's Omar. I'm from Lima in Peru, and I speak Spanish, French, and a little English. My teacher is American. Her name's Kate. My English classes are on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

EXTRA SUPPORT Quickly review how to say the alphabet in English before Sts try to correct the paragraph.

d As this writing task is very short, you may want to get Sts to do it in class. Get them to write their own paragraphs on a piece of paper, check for capital letters, and then exchange the paragraph with another student.

Function checking in Vocabulary in a hotel

Lesson plan

This is the first in a series of six Practical English lessons (one every other File) which teach Sts functional language to help them “survive” in English in travel and social situations. All the content for these lessons is on video. There is also an audio version, if you are unable to show the video in class. There is a storyline based on two characters, Rob Walker, a British journalist who works for a magazine called London 24seven, and Jenny Zielinski, who works in the New York office of the same magazine and is on a work trip to London. Sts meet them for the first time in this lesson, when Jenny arrives in the UK and checks into a hotel. The main focus of this lesson is on hotel vocabulary and checking into a hotel. You might want to point out to Sts that in the You say section of the lessons, they will be watching or listening and then repeating what the people say. You can find the video on the Teacher Resource Center, Classroom Presentation Tool, Class DVD, and an audio-only version on the Class Audio CDs. Sts can find the video and extra activities on Online Practice.

OPTIONAL LEAD-IN (BOOKS CLOSED)

Introduce this lesson (in Sts' L1 if you prefer) by giving the information in the lesson plan.

1 VOCABULARY in a hotel

- a Books open. Focus on the symbols. Give Sts, in pairs, a few minutes to match the words and symbols.
- b  1.46 Play the audio for Sts to check.
 Check answers. Drill the pronunciation of first, second, and third. You may also want to teach that for other ordinals, you normally add th, e.g., fourth.

1.46

1 reception 5 the elevator 2 a single room
 3 a double room 4 the first floor

Focus Sts' attention on the phonetics next to each word. Now play the audio again, pausing after each word for Sts to repeat.

- c Tell Sts to cover the words and look at the symbols. They could either test themselves or a partner.

2 INTRODUCTION

- a  1.47 Focus on the two photos and elicit what Sts can see. Tell them that the man is Rob and the woman is Jenny, and that they are the main characters in these lessons.

Focus on sentences 1–6 and go through them with Sts, eliciting / explaining new words, e.g., lives, works, magazine, etc. Then play the video / audio once the whole way through for Sts just to watch or listen.

Then play it again for Sts to mark the sentences T (true) or F (false). Make it clear that they don't need to correct the false sentences yet.

Get Sts to compare with a partner, and then check answers.

1 T 2 T 3 F 4 F 5 T 6 F

1.47

Rob Hi. My name's Rob Walker.

I live here in London, I work in London, and I write about London!
 I work for a magazine called London 24seven.
 I write about life in London – the people, the theater, the restaurants...It's fun!
 I love London. It's a great city.

Jenny Hi. My name's Jenny Zielinski.

I'm from New York – the number one city in the world.
 I'm the assistant editor of a magazine, New York 24seven. I'm the new assistant editor.
 But this week, I'm on a business trip to London.
 This is my first time in the UK.
 It's very exciting!

- b Play the video / audio again, so Sts can watch or listen again and correct the false sentences.

Get Sts to compare with a partner, and then check answers.

3 The name of his magazine is London 24seven.

4 Jenny is American.

6 It's her first time in the UK.

EXTRA SUPPORT If there's time and you are using the video, you could get Sts to watch again with subtitles / showing the script, so they can see exactly what they understood / didn't understand. Translate / Explain any new words or phrases.

3 CHECKING IN

- a  1.48 Focus on the photo and ask Sts Who is the person? (the receptionist in a hotel).

Now either tell Sts to close their books and write questions 1 and 2 on the board, or get Sts to focus on the two questions.

Play the video / audio once the whole way through and then check answers.

1 Z-I-E-L-I-N-S-K-I 2 306

1.48 1.49

R = receptionist, J = Jenny

R Good evening, madam.

J Hello. I have a reservation. (repeat) My name's Jennifer Zielinski. (repeat)

R Can you spell that, please?

J Z-I-E-L-I-N-S-K-I. (repeat)

R For five nights?

J Yes, that's right. (repeat)

R Can I have your passport, please?

J Just a second... (repeat) Here you are. (repeat)

R Thank you. Can you sign here, please? Thank you. Here's your key. It's room three oh six, on the third floor. The lift is over there.

J The lift? Oh, the elevator. (repeat)

R Yes. Enjoy your stay, Ms. Zielinski.

J Thank you. (repeat)

b Now focus on the conversation in the chart. Ask Sts Who says the You hear sentences? and elicit that it is the receptionist. Then ask Who says the You say sentences? and elicit that here it is Jenny. These phrases will be useful for Sts if they need to check into a hotel.

Give Sts a minute to read through the conversation and think what the missing words might be. Then play the video / audio again, and get Sts to fill in the blanks. Play again if necessary.

Get Sts to compare with a partner, and then check answers.

1 spell 2 please 3 key 4 lift

Go through the conversation line by line with Sts, helping them with any words or expressions they don't understand. You might want to highlight that we use over there to indicate something that is some distance away from the speakers.

Now focus on the information box about American and British English and Greetings, and go through it with the class.

Ask Sts which greeting they would use now if they met someone.

c 1.49 Now focus on the You say phrases and tell Sts they're going to hear the conversation again. They should repeat the You say phrases when they hear the beep. Encourage Sts to copy the rhythm and intonation.

Play the video / audio, pausing if necessary for Sts to repeat the phrases.

Same as script 1.48 with repeat pauses

d Put Sts in pairs, A and B. A is the receptionist. Get Sts to read the conversation aloud, and then change roles.

e Put Sts in pairs, A and B. Tell Sts to read their instructions, and help them to understand exactly what they have to do.

A is the receptionist and has his / her book open. He / She reads the You hear part with the new information. Elicit that he / she needs to change Good evening, madam to sir if B is a man, and It's room 306 on the third floor to It's room 207 on the second floor.

B has his / her book closed. He / She should quickly read the You say phrases again before starting. Remind Sts B that they should use their own first name and last name.

f Sts now role-play the conversation. A starts. Monitor and help.

When they have finished, they should change roles.

You could get a few pairs to perform in front of the class.

g 1.50 Focus on the Can you...? Can I have...? box and go through it with the class. Highlight that Can I have...? is one of the most common ways to ask for something in English (much more common than Can you give me...?).

Now play the audio for Sts to listen and repeat the Can phrases.

See phrases in the Student Book on p.13

h Tell Sts to imagine they are in a hotel and they want certain things from the receptionist. Focus on the four things and make sure Sts know what they mean.

Elicit the phrases from the class or individual Sts.

Can I have my key, please? / Can I have the key to room X, please?

Can I have my passport, please?

Can I have a map of London, please?

Can I have a pen, please?

EXTRA IDEA Focus on how Jenny says Here you are as a response to Can I have your passport, please? Get Sts to practice in pairs, asking each other for the four things with Can I have..., please?

4 JENNY TALKS TO ROB

a 1.51 Focus on the photo and elicit that Jenny is in the hotel cafe, and then she talks on the phone to Rob.

Focus on the instructions and on sentences 1–6.

Go through them with Sts and make sure they understand them.

Now play the video / audio once the whole way through, and get Sts to mark the sentences T (true) or F (false). Make it clear that they don't need to correct the false sentences yet.

Get Sts to compare with a partner, and then check answers.

1 F 2 T 3 F 4 F 5 T 6 F

1.51

W = waitress, J = Jenny, R = Rob

W Is your tea OK?

J Yes, thank you... It's very quiet this evening.

W Yes, very relaxing! Are you on holiday?

J No, I'm here on business.

W Where are you from?

J I'm from New York. What about you?

W I'm from Budapest, in Hungary.

J Really? Oh, sorry.

W No problem.

***

J Hello?

R Is that Jennifer?

J Yes...

R This is Rob. Rob Walker... from London 24seven?

J Oh, Rob, yes, of course. Hi.

R Hi. How are you?

J Oh, I'm fine, thanks. A little tired, that's all.

R I can meet you at the hotel tomorrow morning. Is nine OK for you?

J That's perfect.

R Great. OK, see you tomorrow at nine.

J Thanks. See you then. Bye.

W Would you like another tea?

J No, thanks. It's time for bed.

W Good night, and enjoy your stay.

J Good night.

b Play the video / audio again, so Sts can watch or listen a second time and correct the false sentences.

Get Sts to compare with a partner, and then check answers.

- 1 Jenny has tea.
- 3 The waitress is Hungarian.
- 4 Rob Walker phones Jenny.
- 6 Their meeting is at 9:00.

EXTRA SUPPORT If there's time and you are using the video, you could get Sts to watch again with subtitles / showing the script, so they can see exactly what they understood / didn't understand. Translate / Explain any new words or phrases.

c 1.52 Focus on the Would you like...? box and go through it with the class. Highlight that in English it is not polite to respond to an offer with simply Yes or No. We always use Yes, please or No, thanks.

Now tell Sts they must listen and repeat the Would you like...? phrases and responses.

Play the audio, pausing to give Sts time to repeat.

1.52

See script in Student Book on p.13

d Focus on the list of drinks and make sure Sts know what they are.

Put Sts in pairs and get them to practice offering and responding to each other.

e Focus on the Social English phrases and go through them with the class.

In pairs, get Sts to decide who says them.

f 1.53 Play the video / audio for Sts to watch or listen to the six phrases and check their answers to e.

Check answers. If you know your Sts' L1, you could get them to translate the phrases. Highlight that This is (Rob Walker) is what we use on the phone to say who we are.

1.53

See Social English phrases in the Student Book on p.13

Now play the video / audio again, pausing after each phrase for Sts to watch or listen and repeat.

g Focus on the instructions and make sure Sts understand what they have to do. Point out that the first one (4) has been done for them.

Get Sts to compare with a partner, and then check answers.

B 6 C 1 D 2 E 3 F 5

Now put Sts in pairs and get them to practice the conversations.

Finally, focus on the CAN YOU...? questions and ask Sts if they feel confident they can now do these things. If they feel that they need more practice, tell them to go to Online Practice to watch the episode again and practice the language.

- G singular and plural nouns
V things, in, on, under
P final -s and -es

Lesson plan

Two rooms, one very neat and one very messy, where the well-known authors Virginia Woolf and Ian Rankin wrote their books, provide the context for the presentation of both vocabulary and grammar in the lesson. Sts begin by looking at photos of these rooms, which are full of objects, and then learn more words for everyday things. They then learn the grammar of singular and plural nouns, and focus on the pronunciation of the final -s or -es in plural nouns. There is then a second vocabulary focus, where Sts learn how to use in, on, and under, after which all the language from the lesson is practiced in Speaking and Listening.

OPTIONAL LEAD-IN (BOOKS CLOSED)

Make sure you have five of the things taught in Vocabulary Bank Things (p.151) in your bag, e.g., a phone, a change purse or wallet, etc. Pre-teach some of the vocabulary from the lesson, first with the bag itself, by asking Sts What's this? and eliciting It's a bag, and continuing with the things in your bag.

Write the words for the things on the board, and model and drill pronunciation.

1 VOCABULARY things

- a Books open. Focus on the photos on p.14 and find out if Sts know Virginia Woolf and Ian Rankin. You might want to tell them that Virginia Woolf began writing as a young girl and published her first novel, The Voyage Out, in 1915. She committed suicide in 1941, at the age of 59. Ian Rankin is famous for his detective novels, especially the Inspector Rebus series. The books have been translated into 22 languages and are bestsellers around the world. Now focus on the question and make sure Sts understand neat (= with everything in the right place) and messy. Model and drill the pronunciation of the two words. Elicit a few answers from the class. You could tell the class whether you are neat or not.

- b Focus on the instructions and put Sts in pairs. When time is up, elicit Sts' answers and write them on the board. See which pair got the most words.

Virginia Woolf

1 door 2 lamp 3 file 4 glasses 5 chair

Ian Rankin

6 laptop 7 window 8 photo 9 table 10 newspaper

- c Tell Sts to go to Vocabulary Bank Things on p.151 and get them to do a individually or in pairs.
- 2.1 Now do b. Play the audio for Sts to listen and check. Check answers.

2.1

Things

- 15 a bag
 5 a calendar
 24 a change purse
 9 a charger
 1 a coin
 21 a credit card
 23 a dictionary
 2 a file / a binder
 4 glasses
 22 headphones
 13 an ID card
 11 a key
 29 a lamp
 3 a laptop
 17 a magazine
 14 a newspaper
 30 a notebook
 26 a pen
 16 a pencil
 12 a phone
 20 a piece of paper
 19 scissors
 28 sunglasses
 25 a tablet
 27 a ticket
 7 a tissue
 10 an umbrella
 6 a wallet
 18 a watch

Then either use the audio to drill the pronunciation of the words, or model and drill them yourself. Give further practice of any words your Sts find difficult to pronounce. Focus on the Plural nouns box and go through it with the class.

Now focus on Activation. Model and drill the two questions, What is it? (for singular objects) and What are they? (for plural objects). Stress that What are they? is only for the four plural objects, glasses, headphones, scissors, and sunglasses. Demonstrate by holding up an object, e.g., a pen, and ask What is it? to elicit It's a pen. Then do the same with a pair of glasses or scissors, etc.

In pairs, get Sts to cover the words with a piece of paper, look at the photos, and ask the appropriate question.

Tell Sts to go back to the main lesson 2A.

EXTRA SUPPORT If you think Sts need more practice, you may want to give them the Vocabulary photocopiable activity at this point.

2 GRAMMAR singular and plural nouns

a Focus on the chart and get Sts to complete it in pairs. Point out that the first one (an umbrella) has been done for them.

Check answers.

(two) umbrellas a watch a dictionary

Now ask Sts if they can guess why we use an (not a) before umbrella.

Because it begins with a vowel sound, not a consonant sound.

b Tell Sts to go to Grammar Bank 2A on p.126.

Grammar notes

Singular nouns

We usually use singular nouns for things with a / an (the indefinite article).

Articles are easy for some nationalities and more difficult for others, depending on Sts' L1. Here the focus is just on the indefinite article. Some nationalities may not have an indefinite article, and others may confuse the number one with the indefinite article as it may be the same word in their L1.

Plural nouns

The system in English of making regular nouns plural is very straightforward, simply adding an s.

es (/ɪz/) is added to some nouns when it would be impossible to pronounce the word by adding just an s, e.g., watches. A very small number of English words have an irregular plural form, e.g., child – children.

Focus on the information box about the and go through it with the class.

! Articles are very easy for some nationalities and more difficult for others, depending on Sts' L1. If articles are a problem for your Sts, give more examples to highlight the meaning of the.

Then go through the rules for regular and irregular plurals with the class.

Highlight particularly the pronunciation of -es (/ɪz/) in watches and boxes.

Now focus on the exercises for 2A on p.127. Sts do the exercises individually or in pairs.

Check answers, getting Sts to read the full sentences in b.

- a
1 a window, windows 2 a key, keys 3 an ID card, ID cards
4 a country, countries 5 a watch, watches 6 an exercise, exercises
7 a person, people 8 an email, emails 9 a box, boxes 10 a woman, women
- b
1 They're children. 2 It's a change purse. 3 They're men.
4 It's an umbrella. 5 They're sunglasses. 6 They're scissors.
7 It's a charger. 8 They're dictionaries. 9 It's a coin.
10 It's an egg.

Tell Sts to go back to the main lesson 2A.

EXTRA SUPPORT If you think Sts need more practice, you may want to give them the Grammar photocopiable activity at this point.

3 PRONUNCIATION final -s and -es

Pronunciation notes

When plural nouns end in s, the s is pronounced either as /s/ or as /z/ depending on the previous sound. The difference is small and difficult for Sts at this level to hear or produce (they will tend to pronounce all endings as /s/), and you simply want to point it out. Sometimes this difference can produce misunderstanding, e.g., eyes /aɪz/ and ice /aɪs/. The full rules are:

- s is pronounced /s/ after these unvoiced* sounds: /k/, /p/, /t/, /f/, /θ/, e.g., books, maps, cats.
- s is pronounced /z/ after all other (voiced*) endings, e.g., phones, keys, photos. This is by far the biggest group.

*Voiced and unvoiced consonants

Voiced consonant sounds are made by vibrating the vocal chords, e.g., /b/, /v/, /m/, /n/, etc. Unvoiced consonant sounds are made without vibration in the throat, e.g., /p/, /k/, /t/, /s/, etc.

You can demonstrate this to Sts by getting them to hold their hands against their throats. For voiced sounds, they should feel a vibration in their throat, but not for unvoiced sounds.

However, a common error, which is easier to help Sts with, is the tendency to add the /ɪz/ pronunciation to nouns which don't need it, e.g., files as /faɪlɪz/, etc. This rule, i.e., when to pronounce -es as /ɪz/, is the main focus of the exercises here.

a 2.3 Focus on the chart. Elicit the two sound picture words (snake and zebra) and the sounds /s/ and /z/. If your Sts have problems hearing the difference between these two sounds, tell them and demonstrate that the /s/ is like the sound a snake makes, and the /z/ is like the sound made by a bee or a fly.

Play the audio for Sts just to listen to the sounds and example words.

2.3

See words and sounds in the Student Book on p.15

Now play the audio again for Sts to listen and repeat.

EXTRA SUPPORT If these sounds are difficult for your Sts, it will help to show them the mouth position. You could model this yourself or use the Sound Bank videos on the Teacher Resource Center.

b 2.4 Focus on the Final -s or -es box and go through it with the class.

Now ask Sts to circle the words in 1–8 where -es is pronounced /ɪz/.

Get them to compare their answers with a partner.

Play the audio for Sts to listen and check.

Check answers.

2.4

See words in the Student Book on p.15

Now play the audio again for Sts to listen and repeat.

c Focus on the instructions and get Sts to look at the photos of Virginia Woolf and Ian Rankin's rooms on p.14 and write all the plural items they can see. Sts could do this individually or in pairs.

Check answers.

Virginia Woolf: chairs, doors, files, glasses

Ian Rankin: tables / desks, chairs, pieces of paper, photos, CDs

4 VOCABULARY & SPEAKING in, on, under

a Tell Sts to look at the photos and fill in the blanks with in, on, or under.

Check answers.

1 on 2 in 3 under

EXTRA SUPPORT Give more practice by putting your pen in different places, e.g., under a book, on the table, etc., and asking Sts Where's the pen?

b Put Sts in pairs, A and B, and tell them to go to Communication in, on, under, A on p.103, B on p.108.

Go through the instructions with Sts carefully, and focus on the example question (Where's the charger?). Elicit the question for a plural object, e.g., headphones (Where are the headphones?). Tell Sts they have to ask these questions for the objects in their list, and then they must draw the object in the correct place in the picture. Elicit / Explain the meaning of draw.

Sit A and B face-to-face if possible. A asks his / her first question about the charger to B and draws the item in picture 1. When A has finished asking about all his / her objects, Sts change roles and B now asks A about the file. When they have finished, get them to compare pictures. Finally, elicit some sentences from the class about the objects in both pictures.

Picture 1

The charger is in the bag. The glasses are on the book.
The keys are under the desk. The laptop is on the chair.
The scissors are on the book. The umbrella is under the chair.
The wallet is on the desk.

Picture 2

The file is under the desk. The headphones are in the bag.
The magazine is under the bag. The phone is on the chair.
The photo is on the desk. The tissues are in the bag.
The watch is on the book.

Tell Sts to go back to the main lesson 2A.

5 LISTENING listening for detail

a 2.5 Focus on the task. Elicit / Explain that a study is another term for a room in a house where you study, read, or write. Make sure Sts understand that the first time they listen, they just need to number the places in the left-hand column that the three speakers talk about.

Play the audio for Sts to listen and complete the task.

Check answers.

1 on his desk 2 in her study 3 in her bag

2.5

(script in Student Book on p.118)

1 On my desk I have my computer. I have some pens and pieces of paper. I have a lamp, and a photo of my family. Oh, and a phone. It's very neat.

2 In my study I have a desk, a table, and two chairs. I have a lot of books and a big dictionary on the desk – it isn't very neat! And I have a map of the world on the wall.

3 I have a lot of things in my bag. I have my phone. I have the charger for my phone. I have my sunglasses, tissues. And I have my house keys and my change purse.

b Play the audio again, and this time, tell Sts to write the things each person has. Point out that the first item (a computer) has been done for them. Play the audio again if necessary.

Check answers.

Speaker 1

a computer, pens, pieces of paper, a lamp, a photo, a phone

Speaker 2

a desk, a table, two chairs, books, a dictionary, a map

Speaker 3

a phone, a charger, sunglasses, tissues, keys, a change purse

c In pairs, Sts tell each other what they have in their bag, on their desk, or where they work or study.

EXTRA SUPPORT You could get Sts to write what they have first.

Get some feedback on what things Sts have, and who has a neat desk or study.

EXTRA IDEA Put Sts in pairs, A and B. Tell them they are going to play What is it? A closes his / her eyes. B gives A things and asks What is it? What are they?

Lesson plan

In this lesson, iconic aspects of the US are used to introduce common adjectives and their grammatical position, and Sts learn to give simple descriptions of things. Sts begin with a vocabulary focus on common adjectives. The grammar of adjectives is presented through a quiz about American icons, which includes common adjective / noun phrases such as The White House and New York, which should be familiar to Sts in English or in their own language. After the grammar practice, Sts go on to a pronunciation focus on long and short vowel sounds, which also serves to recycle the adjectives. Sts then do a picture-difference activity, before reading an article about the differences between British and American English.

OPTIONAL LEAD-IN (BOOKS CLOSED)

Write THE US on the board and ask Sts to tell you things that they think are typically American, e.g., Hollywood movies, hamburgers, etc.

Write their suggestions on the board.

1 VOCABULARY colors, adjectives

a Books open. Focus on the question. Sts need to add the missing vowels.

Get Sts to compare with a partner, and then write the answer on the board.

red, white, blue

EXTRA SUPPORT To get Sts to review the alphabet, elicit the missing letters, or ask a student to spell the whole word.

b 2.6 Individually or in pairs, Sts complete the colors. Play the audio for Sts to listen and check.

Check answers by eliciting the missing letters onto the board. Model and drill pronunciation. Highlight especially the pronunciation of orange /'ɔːrɪndʒ/.

black yellow gray orange brown
pink green purple silver gold

2.6

black yellow gray orange brown
pink green purple silver gold

c Focus on the instructions, and model and drill the two questions.

Put Sts in pairs and get them to ask each other about things in the classroom.

EXTRA SUPPORT Give more practice of colors, getting Sts to ask each other about different flags, e.g., What color is the Moroccan flag?, etc.

d Tell Sts to go to Vocabulary Bank Adjectives on p.152.

Vocabulary notes

Three of the adjectives here have two meanings: old, right, and short. Make sure Sts are clear about the different meanings and their opposites.

Focus on the pictures and tell Sts they have to match the numbered pictures to the pairs of adjectives. Get Sts to do a individually or in pairs.

2.7 Now do b. Play the audio for Sts to listen and check.

Check answers.

2.7

Adjectives

- 19 beautiful ugly
2 big small
7 cheap expensive
4 clean dirty
5 easy difficult

21 tall short

Then either use the audio to drill the pronunciation of the adjectives, or model and drill them yourself. Give further practice of any words your Sts find difficult to pronounce.

Focus on the instructions for c. Put Sts in pairs and get them to test each other. A (book open) says an adjective, e.g., full, and B (book closed) answers empty. They then change roles.

Focus on the Modifiers box and go through it with Sts.

Get Sts to do Activation, checking that they know the names and places before they start.

Check answers.

Possible answers

Mount Everest is very high and cold.
Bill Gates is American and very rich.
The Mona Lisa is beautiful, old, and very small.
The Pyramids are very old and very tall.
Africa is very hot and very big.

Finally, focus on the Opinion adjectives box and go through it with the class. Model and drill the adjectives.

Tell Sts to go back to the main lesson 2B.

EXTRA SUPPORT If you think Sts need more practice, you may want to give them the Vocabulary photocopiable activity at this point.

2 GRAMMAR adjectives

a Focus on the photos in American Icons and the Adjectives and Nouns in the circles. Then focus on the example (American football) and make sure Sts know what they have to do.

Put Sts in pairs and set a time limit, e.g., two or three minutes, for Sts to label the photos.

Check answers.

2 yellow taxis 3 fast food 4 French fries 5 White House
6 blue jeans 7 hot dog 8 New York

b Focus on the instructions and give Sts time to circle the correct word or phrase in 1 and 2.

Check answers. Elicit / Explain that adjectives go before a noun, and adjectives don't change before a plural noun.

1 hot dog 2 yellow

c Tell Sts to go to Grammar Bank 2B on p.126.

Grammar notes

The grammar of adjectives in English is simple.

There is only one possible form, which never changes.

When an adjective is with a noun in a phrase, there is only one possible position: before the noun, e.g., a new car, a big house.

However, Sts sometimes get confused because when the adjective goes with a noun, the order is, e.g., a fast car, but if it is in a question with be, it goes after the subject, e.g., Is your car fast?

2.8 Focus on the example sentences and play the audio for Sts to listen and repeat. Then go through the rules with the class.

Now focus on the exercises for 2B on p.127. Sts do the exercises individually or in pairs.

Check answers, getting Sts to read the full sentences.

1 It's a very big house.
2 Is Louis French?
3 It's an expensive watch.
4 Is it an easy exercise?
5 Is your girlfriend Vietnamese?
6 These questions are very difficult.
7 Are they cheap tickets?
8 My new glasses are very good.

b

1 It's a very hot day.
2 Is your teacher Australian?
3 That car isn't very fast.
4 It's a bad idea.
5 Are you good students?
6 English is very easy.
7 My brother is really strong.
8 This is a slow train.

Tell Sts to go back to the main lesson 2B.

EXTRA SUPPORT If you think Sts need more practice, you may want to give them the Grammar photocopiable activity at this point.

d Get Sts to close their books and try to remember the phrases in American Icons. You could do this as a whole-class activity or get Sts to do it in pairs.

If Sts worked in pairs, check answers.

3 PRONUNCIATION long and short vowel sounds

Pronunciation notes

Many Sts will find it difficult to hear the difference between some or all long and short vowel sounds, as they may not have these sounds in their L1. You can help Sts to hear the difference by exaggerating the long sounds.

You can also use the videos with the Sound Bank to show Sts the correct mouth position, or get Sts to watch them at home.

a 2.9 Focus on the six sound pictures.
Play the audio for Sts just to listen.

2.9

See words and sounds in the Student Book on p.17

Now play the audio again for Sts to listen and repeat. Elicit that /i/, /ɔ/ and /u/ are long sounds.

EXTRA SUPPORT If these sounds are difficult for your Sts, it will help to show them the mouth position. You could model this yourself or use the Sound Bank videos on the Teacher Resource Center.

b 2.10 Focus on the instructions. Tell Sts they are going to hear two adjectives for each sound, and they must write them in the chart.

Play the audio, pausing after each pair to give Sts time to write.

Get Sts to compare with a partner, and then play the audio again.

Check answers.

2.10

fish /ɪ/	rich, big tree /i/	easy, cheap
clock /ɑ/	hot, calm
saw /ɔ/	small, tall
bull /ʊ/	full, good boot /u/	blue, new

Then play the audio again, pausing after each group for Sts to repeat.

- c Focus on the two groups of words and the example, and explain the activity. Remind Sts to use the article a / an with singular nouns.

Put Sts in pairs and give them time to write the phrases.

EXTRA IDEA You could make c into a race with a time limit of, for example, three minutes.

- d 2.11 Play the audio for Sts to listen and check. Check answers and find out if any pairs have made nine correct phrases.

2.11

a big city a black bag cheap jeans a good book a gray day a long song new boots an old photo a short story

Then play the audio again to drill the pronunciation of the phrases.

EXTRA CHALLENGE Get Sts to make adjective + noun phrases about things in the classroom, e.g., a dirty board, big windows, a brown bag, etc.

4 SPEAKING

- a Focus on the instructions, and then give Sts time to think of eight things they have.

EXTRA SUPPORT You could get Sts to write the eight things they have.

Put Sts in pairs and get them to tell each other about their eight things.

Get some feedback from individual Sts.

EXTRA IDEA Before getting feedback, ask Sts if they can remember the eight things their partner has. Get Sts to tell each other You have...

- b Put Sts in pairs, A and B, and tell them to go to Communication The same or different?, A on p.103, B on p.109.

Go through the instructions with them carefully.

Sit A and B face-to-face. A describes the odd pictures and B describes the even pictures. A starts by describing picture 1, and B must say if his / her picture is the same or different. Then B describes picture 2, and A responds.

When Sts have found the eight pictures where there are differences, tell them to compare pictures to see if they have correctly identified them.

Different: Pictures 1, 3, 4, 5, 7, 9, 11, 12

The same: Pictures 2, 6, 8, 10

Tell Sts to go back to the main lesson 2B.

5 READING identifying paragraph headings

- a Focus on the title of the article and elicit what it is about (the differences between the two languages).

Give Sts time to read the article and complete the headings. Point out that the first one (Vocabulary) has been done for them.

Get Sts to compare with a partner.

EXTRA SUPPORT Before Sts read the article the first time, check whether you need to pre-teach any vocabulary.

- b 2.12 Play the audio for Sts to listen to the article and check answers to a.

Check answers.

2.12

American and British English – the same, but different

American and British people speak the same language, English, but with some small differences.

1 Vocabulary

Some words are different in British English, for example, they say postcode, not zip code, holiday, not vacation, and mobile phone, not cell phone. Some words have different meanings, for example, in American English, a purse is a woman's bag. In British English, a purse is a thing where women have their money and credit cards.

2 Spelling

Color, favor, and other words that end in -O-R in American English, end in -O-U-R in British English. Center, theater, and other words that end in -T-E-R in American English, end in T-R-E in British English.

3 Grammar

There are some small differences, especially prepositions. For example, British people say See you on Friday, but Americans say See you Friday.

4 Pronunciation

This is the really important difference between British and American English. American accents and British accents are very different.

When a British person starts speaking, American people know he or she is British, and vice versa.

EXTRA CHALLENGE You could ask the class what nationality they think the speaker is. With a show of hands find out who thinks the speaker is American (The speaker is American.).

- c Give Sts time to mark sentences 1–6 T (true) or F (false). Check answers. Elicit why the F answers are false.

- 1 F (The differences are small.)
- 2 F (In American English they are vacation and ZIP code.)
- 3 T
- 4 F (It's the American spelling. British spelling is kilometre.)
- 5 T
- 6 F (It's easy.)

EXTRA SUPPORT Get Sts to read the article again to check their answers, and then check answers as a class.

EXTRA CHALLENGE Get Sts to cover the article. Then write the following words and phrases on the board: CELL PHONE, CENTER, COLOR, PURSE, SEE YOU FRIDAY, VACATION, ZIP CODE. Ask Sts what they are in British English.

US

cell phone center color purse
See you Friday. vacation
ZIP code

UK

mobile phone centre colour handbag
See you on Friday.
holiday
postcode

Deal with any other new vocabulary. Model and drill the pronunciation of any tricky words.

- d Do this as a whole-class activity. Sts may remember lift and z (/zed/ from Practical English 1). Other common British words include film, biscuit, flat, holiday, etc.

- G imperatives, let's
V feelings: hungry, thirsty, etc.
P linking

Lesson plan

In this lesson, Sts begin by learning adjectives to describe states and feelings, e.g., hungry, happy. They then listen to a series of conversations between a couple with a baby, who are in a car going on vacation. The husband becomes increasingly irritated, and the child tired, hungry, etc. as the trip goes on. This serves as a context to present more imperatives (Sts have already learned some in Classroom language) and phrases to make suggestions beginning with Let's... Following this is a speaking activity with Sts role-playing different situations and asking each other what's wrong. There is then a pronunciation focus on connected speech, which is aimed at helping Sts to understand native speakers, and the lesson ends with a video listening about safe car trips.

OPTIONAL LEAD-IN (BOOKS CLOSED)

Mime being hot and cold, and elicit I'm hot and I'm cold, and write them on the board. Model and drill pronunciation.

1 VOCABULARY feelings

- a Books open. Give Sts a time limit to match the adjectives and pictures. Point out that the first one (worried) has been done for them.
- b 2.13 Play the audio for Sts to listen and check. Check answers.

2.13

- 5 I'm angry.
 11 I'm bored.
 9 I'm cold.
 12 I'm frightened.
 2 I'm happy.
 4 I'm hot.
 6 I'm hungry.
 10 I'm sad.
 8 I'm stressed.
 3 I'm thirsty.
 7 I'm tired.
 1 I'm worried.

When Sts have finished matching, go through the Collocation box together.

Vocabulary notes

In English, feelings are expressed using the verb be and an adjective. In some other languages, they are expressed using the verb have + a noun, and this causes Sts to make mistakes like I have hot, etc. For this reason, it is important to highlight the structure here as well as the adjectives themselves.

Play the audio again, pausing after each phrase for Sts to listen and repeat. Model and drill any phrases that are difficult for your Sts, e.g., I'm thirsty. Make sure Sts can hear and pronounce the difference between angry /'æŋɡri/ and hungry /'hʌŋɡri/.

Then give further practice by calling out the numbers of some pictures for Sts to tell you how the person feels using the verb be, e.g.,

T Number 5

Sts She's angry.

T Number 2, etc.

- c Focus on the instructions and the example sentences. Demonstrate the activity by telling Sts how you feel, using the phrases in a. Remind Sts of the modifiers very and really.

In pairs, Sts cover the words, look at the pictures, and make true sentences about themselves.

Get some quick feedback, asking the class about a few of the adjectives, e.g., Who's thirsty?, and getting a show of hands.

2 LISTENING & READING inferring mood

- a 2.14 Set the scene by going through the instructions and telling Sts to cover the conversations on p.19 and only look at the pictures.

Play the audio and tell Sts to listen and look at the pictures.

In pairs, Sts tell each other how the people feel in each picture. Point out the example (angry).

Don't check answers at this stage.

- EXTRA SUPPORT Read through the script and decide if you need to pre-teach any new vocabulary before Sts read and listen.

2.14

See story in the Student Book on p.19

- b Now tell Sts to uncover the conversations. Play the audio again for Sts to listen and read at the same time. The pictures and sound effects should help them to understand the conversations.
Check answers to a.

Picture 1: Lisa's angry / stressed.
Picture 2: John's thirsty, Henry's hungry.
Picture 3: Lisa's cold and frightened, John's hot.
Picture 4: Lisa and Henry are tired.

Go through the conversations and help with any new vocabulary.

- c 2.15 Focus on the instructions and play the audio for Sts to listen to the end of the story. Play the audio again if necessary.
Check whether it is a happy ending by getting a show of hands.

Yes. A police officer stops John because he is driving too fast, but the police officer isn't angry with them because of Henry, and they go to their hotel.

- 2.15
(script in Student Book on p.118)

L = Lisa, J = John, P = policewoman
L The Highland Hotel's twenty miles from here. Let's go there.
J Twenty miles? No problem.
L John! Slow down!
J Oh no!...Here she comes.
P Good evening. Turn off the engine, please. Thank you.
J What's the problem, officer?
P The problem? Well, seventy miles an hour is the problem. That's very, very fast. The limit on this road is fifty miles an hour. Can I see your driver's license?
J Seventy? Oh. Uh, I'm very sorry, officer.
P Ah, what a beautiful baby! What's his name?
L Henry. He's very tired, officer. And it's twenty miles to our hotel.
P Well...OK...go to your hotel. But please slow down.
J Yes – thank you, officer.
P Goodbye, sir, madam. Goodbye, Henry!

EXTRA SUPPORT If there's time, you could get Sts to listen again to both parts of the audio with the scripts in the main lesson and on p.118, so they can see exactly what they understood / didn't understand. Translate / Explain any new words or phrases.

EXTRA IDEA You could ask Sts if they're more similar to John or Lisa on car trips.

3 GRAMMAR imperatives, let's

- a Tell Sts to look at the highlighted phrases in 2b again and to complete the chart. Point out that the first one (Turn) has been done for them.
Check answers.

	Imperatives	Suggestions
<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	Turn right. Be careful! Look for a hotel.	Let's stop for some food. Let's go there.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Don't turn left! Don't drive fast! Don't worry.	Let's not stop.

- b Tell Sts to go to Grammar Bank 2C on p.126.

Grammar notes

Imperatives

Emphasize the simplicity of imperatives in English. There are only two forms, e.g., Stop. / Don't stop.

Emphasize too that an imperative can sound abrupt in English if you are asking somebody to do something, e.g., Close the door (please). I'm cold. Here it would be much more normal to use a polite request with Can..., e.g., Can you close the door, please?

Let's (= Let us) + infinitive is used to make suggestions which include the speaker.

A positive suggestion is made by using Let's + infinitive, e.g., Let's go to the movies.

A negative is made with Let's not, e.g., Let's not eat here.

- 2.16 Focus on the example sentences and play the audio for Sts to listen and repeat. Then go through the rules with the class.

Then focus on the Can you...? box and go through it with the class.

Now focus on the exercises for 2C on p.127. Sts do the exercises individually or in pairs.

Check answers, getting Sts to read the full sentences.

- a
1 Read 2 don't speak 3 Go 4 Don't watch 5 Have 6 Be 7 Take 8 Don't be
b
1 Let's go 2 Let's turn off 3 Let's do 4 Let's not take 5 Let's stop 6 Let's not go, Let's watch

Tell Sts to go back to the main lesson 2C.

EXTRA SUPPORT If you think Sts need more practice, you may want to give them the Grammar photocopiable activity at this point.

- c Tell Sts to look at the nine signs and to write a positive  or negative  sentence for each, using the verb phrases from the list. Point out that the first two have been done for them.

Get Sts to compare with a partner, and then check answers.

- 3 Don't eat or drink here.
4 Turn off your phone.
5 Don't take photos.
6 Don't go in here.
7 Cross the road now.
8 Be careful.
9 Don't listen to music here.

- d Get Sts to cover the list of phrases and look at the signs. In pairs, Sts tell each other the phrases. Get some feedback from the class, by calling out a number and getting Sts to tell you the meaning.

EXTRA CHALLENGE Ask Sts where they might see these signs, e.g., Don't smoke here in a gas station, Turn off your phone in the classroom, Don't take photos in a museum, etc.

4 SPEAKING

Put Sts in pairs, A and B, and tell them to go to Communication What's the matter?, A on p.103, B on p.109.

Carefully go through the instructions and example conversation in a with the class, explaining and drilling the question What's the matter?, and explain the expression cheer up (= be happy). Then focus on b and c, and explain that Sts are going to have similar conversations using prompts 1–4 and responding with a phrase, e.g., Thanks, OK, Good idea, etc.

Demonstrate the activity with a good student.

Then sit A and B face-to-face if possible. A asks B What's the matter?, B responds with his / her first prompt, and they have a mini conversation. They then have three more conversations, using B's other prompts.

A and B then change roles, and B asks What's the matter?.

When they have finished, focus on instruction d. Sts should try to do all eight conversations without looking at their books.

EXTRA SUPPORT Write the eight adjectives (bored, cold, etc.) on the board to remind Sts how to start.

Tell Sts to go back to the main lesson 2C.

5 PRONUNCIATION linking

a 2.17 Focus on the Connected speech box and go through it with the class. Explain that in English, when people speak fast, they don't pronounce each word separately. They tend to run them together and this can make it difficult for Sts to hear what has been said.

Tell Sts they will hear six short sentences and they must write them down.

Play the audio, pausing after each sentence to give Sts time to write. Play again if necessary.

Check answers by writing the sentences on the board.

2.17

- 1 Turn off your phone.
- 2 Let's eat at the café.
- 3 Take a book with you.
- 4 Let's open the windows.
- 5 Let's stop at a hotel.
- 6 Don't open the door.

b In pairs, Sts practice saying the six sentences. Encourage them to try to say them fast and link the words like on the audio.

6 VIDEO LISTENING understanding specific advice

This is the first of six video listenings, which are incorporated into the Student Book. If you are unable to show the video in class, remind students that they can find the video on Online Practice and ask them to watch the video and do the activities for homework.

a Tell Sts they are going to watch a program about car trips. Make sure they know the meaning of the title, Have a safe trip!, and a tip (= a small piece of advice).

Give Sts time to read tips 1–10 and point out that the first one (Plan) has been done for them. Elicit / Explain any words they may not know, e.g., seat belt.

Play the video for Sts to watch. Then play it again, pausing after each tip to give Sts time to complete them. Play again if necessary.

Get Sts to compare with a partner, and then check answers.

EXTRA SUPPORT Read through the script and decide if you need to pre-teach any new vocabulary before Sts watch or listen.

2 car 3 traffic 4 map 5 water 6 tablets 7 Check
8 gas 9 fifteen 10 phone

Have a safe trip!

Here are ten top tips to make your car trip safe.

Tip one: Plan your trip. Look at a map and plan where to stop on the way.

Tip two: Check your car. Is it ready for a long trip? Do it yourself or take it to a garage.

Tip three: Listen to traffic information on the radio, or check on the internet, before you start your trip.

Tip four: Take a map with you in the car, or have a map app on your phone – GPS isn't always right.

Tip five: Take bottles of water. People are often thirsty on long car trips.

Tip six: If you have children in the car, take books, games, and tablets with you. Then the children can watch videos or read. When children are quiet, the driver is less distracted.

Tip seven: Check that all the passengers in the car have their seat belts on.

Tip eight: Check that you have gas. Don't wait until your gas tank is nearly empty before you look for a gas station.

Tip nine: After driving for two hours, stop for fifteen minutes. Have a snack, and get some fresh air. If you're very tired, have a coffee or a drink with caffeine.

Finally, tip ten. This is very, very important. Don't use your phone. Calling and texting are very dangerous because you don't concentrate on the road.

Have a safe trip!

b Play the video again. Sts in pairs decide on their top three tips.

Get some feedback from various pairs.

You could also ask Sts if they have any tips of their own.

EXTRA SUPPORT If there's time, you could get Sts to watch again with subtitles / showing the script, so they can see exactly what they understood / didn't understand. Translate / Explain any new words or phrases.

There are two pages of review and consolidation after every two Files. These exercises can be done individually or in pairs, in class or at home, depending on the needs of your Sts and the class time available.

The first page reviews the grammar, vocabulary, and pronunciation of the two Files. The exercises add up to 50 (grammar = 15, vocabulary = 25, pronunciation = 10), so you can use the first page as a mini-test on Files 1 and 2. The pronunciation section sends Sts to the Sound Bank on pp.166–167. Explain that this is a reference section of the book, where they can check the symbols and see common sound-spelling patterns for each of the sounds. Highlight the Sound Bank videos showing the mouth position for each sound. If you don't want to use these in class, tell Sts to look at them at home and to practice making the sounds and saying the words.

The second page presents Sts with a series of skills-based challenges. First, there is a reading text which is of a slightly higher level than those in the File, but which reviews grammar and vocabulary Sts have already learned. The listening is some unscripted street interviews, where people are asked questions related to the topics in the Files. Sts can either watch the interviews on video or listen to them on audio. You can find these on the Teacher Resource Center, Classroom Presentation Tool, Class DVD, and Class Audio CDs (audio only). Alternatively, you could assign these sections / activities as homework. Sts can find the video on Online Practice. Finally, there is a speaking challenge which assesses Sts' ability to use the language of the Files orally. You could get Sts to do these activities in pairs, or Sts can check the boxes if they feel confident that they can do them.

Lesson plan

Different aspects of life in the United States provide the context for Sts to meet the simple present for the first time. They begin by learning a group of common verb phrases, and then, in a short text where an engineer writes what she likes about the United States, they see how the verb forms change for positive and negative forms and in the third person singular (question forms are presented separately in 3B). Sts then practice the pronunciation of verb + -s or -es, as well as the vocabulary and grammar, talking about themselves and about a partner. The lesson ends with Reading and Speaking. Sts read a text adapted from an American newspaper, in which Americans who live abroad say what they think about other countries, and Sts compare what they think about their country.

OPTIONAL LEAD-IN (BOOKS CLOSED)

Write DRINK EAT DRIVE READ on the board. Ask Sts for words that can go after these verbs. Elicit ideas from the class and write them on the board.

1 VOCABULARY verb phrases

- a 3.1 Books open. Give Sts time to look at the verb phrases.

Tell them they are going to hear a sound effect for each verb phrase and they must listen and number them.

Play the audio for Sts to listen and complete the task.

Play it again, pausing after each sound effect to check the answer. Model and drill the pronunciation of the phrases.

1 speak German 2 drink water 3 watch TV 4 play the guitar 5 like animals

3.1

(sound effects of the following)

- 1 Guten Tag. Wie geht's?
- 2 noise of a glass of water being poured...
- 3 sound of opening of TV news program with music
- 4 someone playing a classical guitar
- 5 someone opening the front door, dogs barking, cats meowing...

- b Tell Sts to go to Vocabulary Bank Verb phrases on p.153 and get them to do a individually or in pairs. Many of these verbs may already be familiar to them.

Vocabulary notes

You could point out that have can be used for possessions, but also with both food and drink (have a sandwich, have a coffee) and is more common when we talk about specific meals, e.g., have breakfast / lunch. Eat, e.g., eat fast food, can only be used for food.

You might also want to make sure Sts are clear about the meaning of take (an umbrella). Give a clear example like "Take an umbrella with you. It's raining." Sts may think that this verb means carry (e.g., Can you carry my bag for me? It's very heavy.).

- 3.2 Now do b. Play the audio for Sts to listen and check.

Check answers.

3.2

Verb phrases

- 19 cook dinner
- 14 do housework
- 24 do homework
- 20 do yoga
- 17 drink water
- 23 drive a car
- 18 eat vegetables
- 9 go to the movies
- 3 have a garden
- 8 like animals
- 11 listen to music
- 6 live in an apartment
- 22 need a new phone
- 15 play the guitar
- 12 play tennis
- 7 read a book
- 16 say sorry
- 5 speak German
- 4 study history
- 13 take an umbrella
- 1 want a coffee
- 10 watch TV
- 21 wear glasses
- 2 work in an office

Either use the audio to drill the pronunciation of the phrases, or model and drill them yourself. Give further practice of words and phrases your Sts find difficult to pronounce.

Finally, focus on Activation. Get Sts to cover the verbs and use the photos to test themselves or their partner.

Tell Sts to go back to the main lesson 3A.

EXTRA SUPPORT If you think Sts need more practice, you may want to give them the Vocabulary photocopiable activity at this point.

- c 3.3 Focus on the example and tell Sts they will hear the second part of some verb phrases and they must say the whole verb phrase.
Play the audio, pausing after each one, and elicit a response from the whole class.

3.3

- 1 TV (pause) watch TV
- 2 the guitar (pause) play the guitar
- 3 water (pause) drink water
- 4 to music (pause) listen to music
- 5 glasses (pause) wear glasses
- 6 a garden (pause) have a garden
- 7 vegetables (pause) eat vegetables
- 8 to the movies (pause) go to the movies
- 9 history (pause) study history
- 10 yoga (pause) do yoga

Now repeat the activity, eliciting responses from individual Sts.

EXTRA CHALLENGE In pairs, Sts do a similar activity to the listening. A (book open) says the second part of a verb phrase from the Vocabulary Bank, e.g., dinner, and B (book closed) has to guess the whole phrase, e.g., cook dinner.

2 GRAMMAR simple present  $\oplus$  and  $\ominus$

- a Ask Sts What do you think of when you hear the words "United States?" to elicit some ideas and write them on the board.

Focus on the instructions and the words / phrases in the list, and help Sts with vocabulary if necessary, e.g., freeways, freedom. Elicit / Explain what an engineer is. Point out that the first one (multiculturalism) has been done for them.

Give Sts time to read the article and complete the task.

- b 3.4 Play the audio for Sts to listen and check.
Check answers.

- 2 the language 3 coffee 4 the freedom 5 sports
6 freeways 7 the weather 8 fast food

3.4

My name's Chela. I'm an engineer. I like... multiculturalism. People from all over the world live in the US, and they live together happily. Usually.

the language. English is international. I speak English. You speak English. I don't have communication problems.

coffee. I have a large cup of coffee every day. When I'm in a hurry, I go to the drive-thru and buy it from my car.

the freedom. I wear what I want. I say what I want. I do what I want.

sports. I like all kinds of sports, but I really like basketball. My favorite team is the Golden State Warriors. I watch their games on TV.

freeways. We drive a lot! The freeways are very fast and have a lot of car lanes. It's really easy to drive from one place to another.

the weather. I love the fall weather. A good fall day is cool, but not too cold. Sometimes it rains in the fall, but it doesn't rain every day.

fast food. My boyfriend cooks really good hamburgers, and the US is great for fast food!

Finally, help with any new vocabulary. Model and drill pronunciation.

EXTRA CHALLENGE Tell Sts to cover the article and, in pairs, try to remember what Chela likes.

- c Focus on the instructions, and get Sts to answer the questions in pairs.
Check answers.

- 1 They end with -s because they are third person singular (he, she, it).
- 2  $\oplus$  I don't have, it doesn't rain.
We use don't to make negatives with I, you, we, and they.
We use doesn't to make negatives with he, she, and it.

- d Tell Sts to go to Grammar Bank 3A on p.128.

Grammar notes

Emphasize to Sts the relative simplicity of the simple present. There is only one different verb ending in the simple present (third person singular verbs add an -s or -es). All other forms are the same as the infinitive. For this reason, the use of the pronoun (I, you, etc.) is not optional as it is in many languages. It is essential as it identifies which person is being referred to.

In the negative, highlight the use of don't and doesn't, which are put before the infinitive. These contracted forms (of do not and does not) are almost always used in spoken English and in informal writing.

Highlight that goes /gouz/ and does /dæz/ both end with -oes, but are pronounced differently.

- 3.5 Focus on the example sentences and play the audio for Sts to listen and repeat. Then go through the rules with the class.

Focus on the information box Be careful with some he / she / it forms and go through it with the class.

Now focus on the exercises for 3A on p.129. Sts do the exercises individually or in pairs.

Check answers. Get Sts to read the sentences out loud and help them with the rhythm of  $\oplus$  and  $\ominus$  sentences, e.g. We live in an apartment. We don't study French.

- a
- 1 She goes to the movies.
  - 2 He lives in a house.
  - 3 They have two children.
  - 4 I don't like cold weather.
  - 5 The supermarket closes at 9:00.
  - 6 My sister doesn't study French.
  - 7 I do housework.
  - 8 My son wants a guitar.
  - 9 My friend doesn't work on Saturdays.
  - 10 Our classes finish at 5:00.
- b
- 1 doesn't work 2 reads 3 speak 4 don't play 5 wears
  - 6 listen 7 don't eat 8 has

Tell Sts to go back to the main lesson 3A.

EXTRA SUPPORT If you think Sts need more practice, you may want to give them the Grammar photocopiable activity at this point.

3 PRONUNCIATION third person -s

Pronunciation notes

The pronunciation rules for third person singular -s and -es endings are exactly the same as those for plural nouns (see 2A).

As with the plurals, if Sts want to know when the final s is pronounced /s/ and when it is pronounced /z/, explain that it is pronounced /s/ after verbs ending with these unvoiced sounds: /k/, /p/, /f/, /t/, e.g., works, stops, laughs, sits. After all other voiced endings, the s is pronounced /z/. See the Voiced and unvoiced consonants box on p.31.

Sts will have problems distinguishing between, and producing, the /s/ and the /z/ sounds, and will tend to pronounce all s endings as /s/. Remind them that the /s/ is like the sound made by a snake, and the /z/ is like the sound made by a bee or a fly.

- a Sts read the rule in the Final -s or -es box and then, in pairs, they answer the question.

Check answers. Model and drill the three words.

books /bʊks/keys /kiːz/
watches /wɑːtʃɪz/

- b  3.6 Play the audio for Sts just to listen to the three sounds and sentences.

3.6

See sounds and sentences in Student's Book on p.22

Now play the audio again for Sts to listen and repeat. If Sts are having difficulties producing the /s/ and /z/ endings, tell them that the difference is small and reassure them that it will come with practice. The most important thing at this stage is to make the /ɪz/ sound in the right place, e.g., watches, and not to make it in the wrong place, e.g., lives (NOT /lɪvɪz/).

Play the audio again if necessary.

Give Sts time to practice saying the sentences in pairs.

EXTRA SUPPORT If these sounds are difficult for your Sts, it will help to show them the mouth position. You could model this yourself or use the Sound Bank videos on the Teacher Resource Center.

- c  3.7 Focus on the instructions and the example, and tell Sts that they must listen to the first sentence and then change it using the new subject given, e.g., he, she, it. Play the audio, pausing after each sentence, and elicit a response from the whole class.

3.7

- 1 I live in an apartment. She (pause) She lives in an apartment.
- 2 I need a new phone. He (pause) He needs a new phone.
- 3 They work in an office. She (pause) She works in an office.
- 4 We wear glasses. He (pause) He wears glasses.
- 5 They finish at eight. It (pause) It finishes at eight.
- 6 I want a coffee. She (pause) She wants a coffee.
- 7 They have two children. He (pause) He has two children.
- 8 We do homework. She (pause) She does homework.
- 9 They study French. He (pause) He studies French.
- 10 They go shopping. She (pause) She goes shopping.

Now repeat the activity, eliciting responses from individual Sts.

- d Focus on the instructions and the two example sentences. Highlight the use of don't to make a negative in the second sentence. Then tell Sts to go to the Vocabulary Bank Verb phrases on p.153 and demonstrate the activity by making true sentences about yourself. Give Sts time to think about their six sentences.

EXTRA SUPPORT You could get Sts to write the six sentences.

In pairs, Sts tell each other their sentences. Tell Sts to put a check or an X next to the pictures that apply to their partner, so that they don't forget the information.

- e Get Sts to change partners. Sts now tell their new partner about their first partner, using the third person singular.

EXTRA SUPPORT Write the example on p.23 of the Student's Book on the board to help Sts: EVA PLAYS TENNIS. SHE DOESN'T WEAR GLASSES...

Get some feedback from individual Sts, both about themselves and about their partners.

Tell Sts to go back to the main lesson 3A.

4 READING identifying attitude

- a Focus on the title and explain / elicit the meaning of abroad (= in a foreign country). Model and drill pronunciation.

Now focus on the instructions and make sure Sts understand what they have to do.

Give Sts time to read the article and complete the task.

Check answers.

EXTRA SUPPORT Before Sts read the article the first time, check whether you need to pre-teach any vocabulary.

Sarah	X British people don't work like that. They only want to finish work and go home.
Amy	✓ I really like the weather. Also, the people are very friendly.
Jayne	✓ Argentina is a beautiful country, and the people are very warm and friendly. X Something I don't like is the weather in winter.
Gaby	✓ My favorite thing in Mexico is the tacos al pastor. X The traffic in Mexico City is very slow.
Eric	X Iceland can be very cold and gray. They eat a lot of fish and seafood here, and I don't like fish or seafood.
Christina	✓ Because I like the culture, the art, the history. I also love the beautiful scenery... X It's difficult for a woman to travel alone.

- b Tell Sts they are going to read the article again and must fill in each blank 1–7 with a name.

Give Sts time to read the article again and complete the task.

Then get them to compare with a partner, and check answers.

1 Amy 2 Jayne, Eric 3 Gaby 4 Christina
5 Amy, Jane 6 Eric 7 Sarah

Ask Sts if they have been to the countries mentioned in the article and if so, find out if they agree with anything they read.

- c Do this as a whole-class activity.

Either explain / demonstrate meaning, getting Sts to check in their dictionaries, or translating into Sts' L1.

1 all things everything
2 all people everybody
everywhere means "all places"

Help with any other new vocabulary. Model and drill the pronunciation of any tricky words.

5 SPEAKING

- a Focus on the two headings and the sentence beginnings under each one. Elicit / Explain the meaning of favorite (= the one that you like more than any other), and model and drill pronunciation /'feɪvərɪt/.

Tell Sts to complete the sentences under each heading, using their own words. Monitor and help.

- b Focus on the instructions and go through the Useful words box, making sure Sts understand the meaning of why and because /bɪ'kɒz/. Model and drill the pronunciation.

Now read the example. Put Sts in pairs and get them to compare sentences. Monitor and help, encouraging Sts to pay attention to the use of because.

Get some feedback from individual Sts.

EXTRA SUPPORT You could do this as a whole-class activity.

- G simple present [?]
V jobs: journalist, doctor, etc.
P /əɪ/

Lesson plan

The topic of this lesson is jobs and work. Sts begin by reading an interview that presents questions in the simple present in both second and third person singular, (Do you...? Does he...?). Then Sts learn the vocabulary for common jobs, and how to say what they do. There is a pronunciation focus on the /əɪ/ sound. Sts then listen to a radio program, where competitors try to guess first a man's job, and then his wife's job. Sts then practice by asking each other simple present questions about imaginary jobs, and the lesson finishes with Sts asking questions in the third person singular to guess someone's job.

- 1 I'M A TEACHER.
- 2 I WORK IN (THE NAME OF YOUR SCHOOL).
- 3 I WORK (...) HOURS A DAY.
- 4 I LIKE MY JOB VERY MUCH.

Elicit the difference between job and work (job is a noun; work is a verb) and focus on the use of a before teacher.

1 GRAMMAR simple present [?]

- a Books open. Focus on the photo of Jess and Carl, and the question.

Now tell Sts to read the interview quickly to find the answer. Remind Sts that they need to find out what Carl's job is, not Jess's.

Check the answer.

He's a police officer.

- b Focus on the title and elicit the meaning of night and day.

Tell Sts they are going to read the interview and this time they need to complete it with the questions the interviewer asks.

Focus on the example (What do you do, Jess?) and elicit / explain that this question is the same as What's your job?

Point out the Glossary. Give Sts time to read the questions from the list, the interview, and then complete 2–5.

- c 3.8 Play the audio for Sts to listen and check. Check answers.

I What does your husband do?

J He's a police officer. He works at night, from eight p.m. to six in the morning.

I Does he have free weekends?

J No, he doesn't. Well, he has two free days, but they're Wednesday and Thursday. He works Saturday and Sunday – they're busy nights for police officers.

I Do you have time together?

J Not really, except when we're on vacation. I'm in bed when he comes home, he's in bed when I leave home in the morning. We don't eat together. That's awful. Sometimes I don't cook, I just have cookies for dinner.

I Can you think of any good things about your different hours?

J Yes, we earn more money because Carl does a lot of overtime.

I Do you have any suggestions for couples like you?

J Have a whiteboard in your hall or your kitchen and write down all the housework. Then check off things when you do them. That way, the dogs don't eat twice!

- d Get Sts to cover the interview and just look at the five questions in b. In pairs or as a whole-class activity, get Sts to answer them.

Help with any new vocabulary in the interview. Model and drill pronunciation, e.g., administrator.

- e Do this as a whole-class activity.

- f Focus on the instructions and give Sts time to check who the questions in b are about.

Check answers.

- 1 What do you do, Jess?, Do you work long hours?
- 2 Does he have free weekends?, What does your husband do?
- 3 Do you have time together?

Now ask What's different when the question is about Jess and about Carl?

About Jess: Do you...? About Carl: Does he...?

g Tell Sts to go to Grammar Bank 3B on p.128.

Grammar notes

do and does

The auxiliary do (and does) can puzzle Sts if they try to translate questions word for word. Explain (in Sts' L1 if you prefer) that auxiliary means "helper," and that the auxiliaries do and does "help" to form questions and negatives. They do not have a separate meaning. The auxiliaries do and does are also often used to "soften" a yes / no answer (which can sound abrupt), e.g., Do you work here? No, I don't.

🔊 3.9 Focus on the example sentences and play the audio for Sts to listen and repeat. Then go through the rules with the class.

Focus on the do and does box and go through it with Sts.

Now focus on the exercises for 3B on p.129. Sts do the exercises individually or in pairs.

Check answers, getting Sts to read the full sentences.

- a
1 Do 2 Do 3 Does 4 Does 5 Do 6 Does 7 Does
8 Does 9 Do 10 Does
- b
1 Does he like tennis?
2 Does she speak Chinese?
3 Do you eat sushi?
4 Do they cook lasagna?
5 Does she live in a house?
6 Do you want an iPhone?
7 Does he drive fast?
8 Does she drink it with milk?
9 Do you have boys or girls?
10 Do you listen to music on your phone?

Tell Sts to go back to the main lesson 3B.

EXTRA SUPPORT If you think Sts need more practice, you may want to give them the Grammar photocopiable activity at this point.

2 VOCABULARY jobs

a Focus on the jobs in the list and point out to Sts that they have seen all these jobs before.

Individually or in pairs, Sts complete sentences 1–5 with a job from the list.

Check answers and write the words on the board.

- 1 police officer 2 actor 3 teacher 4 receptionist
5 administrator

Model and drill the pronunciation, and underline the stress.

b Tell Sts to go to Vocabulary Bank Jobs on p.154 and get them to do a individually or in pairs.

Vocabulary notes

You may want to point out to Sts that it is more common to ask What do you do? (which covers all possibilities, e.g., being a student, being unemployed, etc.) rather than What's your job?, which we would probably only ask if we knew the other person was working.

Focus on the a / an + jobs box and go through it with the class.

🔊 3.10 Now do b. Play the audio for Sts to listen and check.

Check answers.

🔊 3.10

Jobs

- 28 an accountant
26 an actor
2 an administrator
1 an architect
7 a chef
27 a cleaner
6 a construction worker
4 a dentist
17 a doctor
8 an engineer
11 a factory worker
22 a flight attendant
30 a guide
19 a hair stylist
10 a journalist
12 a lawyer
14 a manager
16 a model
18 a musician
5 a nurse
21 a pilot
23 a police officer
24 a receptionist
15 a salesperson
13 a soccer player
9 a soldier
29 a taxi driver
25 a teacher
3 a vet
20 a waiter / a waitress

Either use the audio to drill the pronunciation of the phrases, or model and drill them yourself. Point out that in compound nouns (e.g., factory worker, flight attendant), the main stress is on the first word. Give further practice of any words and phrases your Sts find difficult to pronounce.

🔊 3.11 Focus on the flow chart in c and go through the possible answers to the question What do you do? Play the audio for Sts to listen and repeat the sentences.

🔊 3.11

See flow chart in the Student Book on p.154

Play again if necessary.

Highlight the use of the prepositions for, in, at, and the article a / an.

Then give Sts time to decide how to say what they do in English, and go around helping with any jobs they don't know how to express. Don't ask Sts at this stage what they do as they will be asking each other in c in the main lesson.

Now focus on Activation. In pairs, get Sts to cover the words with a piece of paper, look at the photos, and try to remember the jobs. They could test each other – A says a number, and B says the job.

Tell Sts to go back to the main lesson 3B.

EXTRA SUPPORT If you think Sts need more practice, you may want to give them the Vocabulary photocopiable activity at this point.

- c Focus on the two questions and give Sts time to decide how to say in English what their parents do.
Get Sts to stand up and ask at least three other Sts the two questions.
Monitor and help, encouraging Sts to answer in a full sentence.
Get feedback from as many Sts as possible.

EXTRA SUPPORT Elicit the two questions that Sts need to ask (What do you do? What do your parents do?) and write them on the board to help Sts.

3 PRONUNCIATION /əɪ/

Pronunciation notes

You may want to tell Sts that the most common wor- words which have the /əɪ/ sound, and which Sts often mispronounce, are work, word, and world.

- a 3.12 Focus on the new sound picture, bird, and the words that follow, nurse, thirty, etc.
Play the audio for Sts just to listen to the sound and example words.

3.12

See sound and words in the Student Book on p.25

Now play the audio again for Sts to listen and repeat.
Finally, focus on the /əɪ/ box and go through it with the class.

EXTRA SUPPORT If this sound is difficult for your Sts, it will help to show them the mouth position. You could model this yourself or use the Sound Bank videos on the Teacher Resource Center.

- b 3.13 Play the audio for Sts just to listen to the six sentences.

3.13

See sentences in Student's Book on p.25

Now play the audio again, pausing after each sentence for Sts to repeat.
Put Sts in pairs and get them to practice saying the sentences.
Get a few Sts to say them aloud to the class.

4 LISTENING understanding specific information

- a 3.14 Tell Sts they're going to listen to a game show called His Job, Her Job, where a team of three people ask a man, Alex, and then his wife, Sue, questions for two minutes, and then have to guess their jobs.

Focus on the questions in the chart. Go through them, and elicit / explain any new words, e.g., outside / inside, with the public, qualifications, etc.

EXTRA SUPPORT Read through the scripts and decide if you need to pre-teach any new vocabulary before Sts listen.

Tell Sts that they will hear the contestants asking Alex questions first and they must underline the questions in the chart. Point out that the first one (work in an office?) has been done for them.

EXTRA SUPPORT Tell Sts that the contestants ask Alex a total of nine questions.

Play the audio for Sts to listen and underline the questions. Play the audio again if necessary, pausing after each question, and then check answers.

EXTRA IDEA You might want to pause the audio after the announcer says Let's have your first question for Alex and ask Sts what David, Kate, and Lorna do.
You could also ask how long they have to ask Alex and Sue about their jobs.

David is a teacher, Kate is unemployed, and Lorna is a writer.
They have one minute to ask about Alex's job, and one minute to ask about Sue's.

Alex's questions about his job

- Do you work in an office?*
Do you work in the evening?
Do you make things?
Do you wear a uniform or special clothes?
Do you drive for your job?
Do you work on a team?
Do you have special qualifications?
Do you speak foreign languages?
Do you travel?

3.14

(script in Student Book on p.118)

A = announcer, P = presenter, D = David, K = Kate, L = Lorna, Al = Alex, S = Sue

Part 1

- A And now your favorite radio show, His Job, Her Job.

P Welcome to the show, Alex and Sue. OK team, you have one minute to ask Alex questions about his job and then one minute to ask Sue about her job, starting now. Let's have your first question for Alex.
D Hi, Alex. Do you work in an office?
Al No, I don't.
L Do you work in the evening?
Al It depends. Yes, sometimes.
K Do you make things?
Al No, I don't.
L Do you wear a uniform or special clothes?
Al Uh, yes – I wear special clothes.
K Do you drive for your job?
Al No, I don't.
L Do you work on a team?
Al Yes, I do. With ten other people.
K Do you have special qualifications?

D Do you speak foreign languages?
Al No, only English.
P You only have time for one more question, team...
D Uh, do you travel?
Al Yes, I do. On weekends. Well, not every weekend...
P Your time's up.

- b Focus on the instructions and tell Sts that now they have to focus on Alex's answers. Elicit that he can only answer yes, no, or it depends. Explain / Elicit the meaning of it depends and drill pronunciation. Point out that the first one has been done for them.

Play the audio again for Sts to listen and put a check, an X, or a D in Alex's column.

Check Alex's answers about his job and elicit / explain the meaning of sometimes (= not all the time).

Alex's answers about his job

- Do you work in an office? X
Do you work in the evening? D
Do you make things? X
Do you wear a uniform or special clothes? ✓
Do you drive for your job? X
Do you work on a team? ✓
Do you have special qualifications? X
Do you speak foreign languages? X
Do you travel? ✓

- c 3.15 Sts now do the same for Sue. Tell Sts that they will hear the contestants asking Sue questions and they must underline the questions they hear. You might want to suggest that Sts underline her questions using a different color if they can.

Play the audio for Sts to listen and underline the questions. Play the audio again if necessary, pausing after each question, and then check answers.

EXTRA SUPPORT Tell Sts that the contestants ask Sue a total of seven questions.

Sue's questions about her job

- Do you work outside?
Do you work on the weekend?
Do you work with the public?
Do you get vacation time?
Do you work at night?
Do you earn a lot of money?
Do you like your job?

3.15

(script in Student Book on p.119)

Part 2

- P Now team, you have a minute to ask Sue about her job.
K Hello, Sue. Do you work outside?
S It depends. Outside and inside.
L Do you work on the weekend?
S Yes, I do.
D Do you work with the public?
S No, I don't.
K Do you get vacation time?
S No, I don't. I never get vacation time.
K Do you work at night?
S Sometimes. It depends.
L Do you earn a lot of money?
S No, nothing! I don't have a salary.
D Do you like your job?
S Yes, I do! I love it.
P That's time. OK, team...

Now play the audio again for Sts to listen and put a check, an X, or a D in Sue's column.

Check Sue's answers about her job.

Sue's answers about her job

- Do you work outside? D
Do you work on the weekend? ✓
Do you work with the public? X
Do you get vacation time? X
Do you work at night? D
Do you earn a lot of money? X
Do you like your job? ✓

- d Focus on the instructions and two examples. You might want to point out to Sts the position of sometimes before the verb.

Put Sts in pairs and get them to make sentences about Alex and Sue's jobs.

EXTRA SUPPORT Give Sts time to write their sentences.

Elicit the sentences about Alex from the class.

- Alex
...doesn't work in an office.
...sometimes works in the evening.
...works on a team.
...doesn't have special qualifications.
...doesn't speak foreign languages.
...travels on weekends.
...doesn't drive for his job.
...doesn't make things.
...wears special clothes.

Now give Sts 30 seconds to guess his job. Write the different ideas on the board.

Get feedback, but don't tell Sts if they're right or wrong.

Now elicit the sentences about Sue from the class.

Sue
...sometimes works outside.
...sometimes works at night.
...works on the weekend.
...doesn't work with the public.
...doesn't get vacation time.
...doesn't earn a lot of money / doesn't have a salary.
...loves her job.

Now give Sts 30 seconds to guess her job.

Get feedback, but don't tell Sts if they're right or wrong.

- e 3.16 Play the end of the show on the audio. Pause after they ask Are you a soccer player, Alex? and ask Sts what they think, before letting them hear his job. Then continue the audio until So, Sue, what do you do? and ask Sts what they think, before letting them hear Sue's job. Ask the class with a show of hands who had guessed correctly for each job.

Alex is a soccer player. Sue is a full-time mother.

3.16

P OK, team. So, what's Alex's job?

K OK, so he wears special clothes, he works with ten other people, he sometimes travels... Are you a soccer player, Alex?

Al Yes, I am.

P Good job! And Sue?

D Let's see. She works outside and inside. She works on the weekend. She doesn't earn any money. She doesn't get vacation time. But she likes her job! We give up. We can't think of any jobs with those conditions!

P So, Sue, what do you do?

S I'm a mom. A full-time mother!

EXTRA SUPPORT If there's time, you could get Sts to listen again to the audio with scripts 3.14 and 3.15 on pp.118–119, so they can see exactly what they understood / didn't understand. Translate / Explain any new words or phrases.

5 SPEAKING

- a Tell Sts they are now going to play the same game, His Job, Her Job, but as individuals, not couples. Put Sts in groups of four. Tell them to go to Vocabulary Bank Jobs on p.154 and each choose a job.

When they are ready, tell them they have two minutes to ask each person the questions in the chart in 4b. Get Sts to make notes of the answers to help them to guess the jobs.

When the time is up, tell Sts to guess the jobs.

Find out how many Sts guessed correctly.

- b Tell Sts to go to Vocabulary Bank Jobs on p.154 again, and this time, think of someone they know who has one of the jobs.

In the same groups, Sts first tell the others if they are thinking about a man or a woman. Then Sts take turns asking questions from the chart in the third person singular to find out what this person's job is.

EXTRA SUPPORT Demonstrate the activity by getting Sts to ask you the questions first.

Get Sts to write down their partners' answers to help them guess the jobs when time is up.

Get some feedback from various groups.

- G word order in questions
V question words
P sentence stress

Lesson plan

This lesson starts with a listening in which two characters, Becca and Dave, meet for the first time. This provides a context for asking a lot of questions to try to get to know somebody. Sts go on to look at the grammar of word order in questions, especially those beginning with question words. There is then a vocabulary stage, where Sts review and expand their knowledge of question words, and then in Pronunciation they practice the rhythm of questions. Sts have a Speaking activity where they practice asking each other a variety of questions, and the lesson ends with Writing as they learn to write a personal profile.

OPTIONAL LEAD-IN (BOOKS CLOSED)

Ask the class who has a dog (either their own or a family pet). Then ask Sts who have a dog what kind of dog it is and who usually takes it for a walk.

1 LISTENING identifying who's who

a 3.17 Books open. Focus on the instructions and the first illustration. Give Sts time to read the four names, and make sure they understand what they have to do. Point out that the first one (Becca is the woman) has been done for them.

Play the audio for Sts to listen and match the names to the people or the dogs.

Check answers.

EXTRA SUPPORT Read through the scripts and decide if you need to pre-teach any new vocabulary before Sts listen.

Barry is her dog. Dave is the man. Dolly is his dog.

Now ask Sts if they know any more information about the dogs.

Barry is a Labrador; he's two years old.
 Dolly is a fox terrier; she's two years old.

3.17

(script in Student Book on p.119)

B = Becca, D = Dave

- B He's beautiful. Is he a fox terrier? Sorry, he or she?
D She. Yes, she's a fox terrier. Her name's Dolly. And your dog?
B He's a Labrador.
D What's his name?
B Barry. Barry, come here!
D Dolly. Here. Stop it.
B I think Barry likes her.
D Yes! Sorry, I'm Dave. What's your name?
B Becca. Hi.
D Nice to meet you, Becca! How old is Barry?
B Uh...He's, uh, two. And Dolly?
D Uh...The same. Hey, Dolly! Come back!

b 3.18 Focus on the second illustration and establish that Becca and Dave go to a café. Tell Sts to cover the conversation with a piece of paper and listen to the conversation to find out what happens in the end. Play the audio for Sts to listen and complete the task. Check the answer.

Dave invites Becca to lunch.

3.18

- D It's really hot. Would you like a drink? Or an ice cream?
B Yes, why not? Let's go to the café.
D What kind of ice cream do you want?
B Um, an ice-cream bar if they have it.
D Here you are. One ice-cream bar.
B Thanks, Dave.
D Where do you live?
B I live near here, on Park Road. And you?
D I live across town, on Lake Street. What do you do, Becca?
B I'm a journalist.
D Really? How interesting! Do you work for a newspaper?
B No, for TV. What about you?
D I'm a teacher. I'm on vacation now.
B Me too. Oh! My ice cream.
D Dolly! Bad dog! I'm really sorry.
B That's OK.
D Do you want another ice-cream bar?
B No, thanks.
D Are you sure? I'm really sorry. Look, let's have lunch one day. I know a great place that's dog friendly. Are you free on Saturday?
B Oh, well, OK Yes. Thanks...

c Tell Sts to uncover the conversation, and give them a few minutes to read it.

EXTRA CHALLENGE Tell Sts, in pairs, to try to guess the missing words before they listen.

Play the audio again for Sts to complete the questions (or check their guesses). Play again if necessary.

Check answers.

- 2 What...want? 3 Where...live? 4 What...do 5 work 6 What 7 want

d 3.19 Focus on the Showing interest box and go through it with the class.

Tell Sts they are going to hear three sentences from Becca and Dave's conversation, and they must only repeat each phrase that shows interest.

Play the audio for Sts to listen and repeat the phrases.

3.19

- 1 B I'm a journalist.
D Really? (pause) How interesting! (pause)
- 2 D Do you work for a newspaper?
B No, for TV. What about you? (pause)
- 3 D I'm on vacation now.
B Me too. (pause)

Now repeat the activity, eliciting responses from individual Sts.

Tell Sts that they will be using these phrases later, in the Speaking activity.

e Put Sts in pairs and get them to read the conversation in c. If there's time, get them to change roles.

f 3.20 Focus on the instructions and give Sts some time to read the six sentences.

Play the audio for Sts to listen and complete the task. Play again if necessary.

Get Sts to compare with a partner, and then check answers.

1 B 2 R 3 D 4 D 5 B 6 R

3.20

(script in Student Book on p.119)

- B Hi, Dave.
D Hi, Becca. Hi, Barry! So nice to see you both again!
B What a cute restaurant. I really like it. And look at all the dogs.
D I know, right! It has good food, too...for people and for dogs!
B Mmm. Sit Barry. Good boy. Uh, where's Dolly?
D She isn't here. Uh, Becca, I need to tell you something. Dolly isn't my dog. She's my friend's dog. I sometimes help and take her for a walk.
B You don't have a dog?
D No. Uh...I don't like dogs very much. And my apartment's so small. I'm so sorry. I know you love dogs.
B Phew! Don't worry! Barry isn't my dog either! He's my sister's dog. I like dogs, but...in fact...I have two cats. How do you feel about cats?
D I love cats – in fact, I prefer cats to dogs! Let's sit down and order lunch.
B Great! So, what's good here?
D The spaghetti carbonara is fantastic – and so is the homemade chocolate ice cream!
B Yum! All for me this time!

EXTRA SUPPORT If there's time, you could get Sts to listen again to the three parts of the audio with the scripts in the main lesson and on p.119, so they can see exactly what they understood / didn't understand. Translate / Explain any new words or phrases.

g Focus on the question and make sure Sts understand it. Do this as a whole-class activity and elicit opinions. Say what you think, too. You could also ask Sts if they prefer cats or dogs.

2 GRAMMAR word order in questions a Focus on the instructions, and tell Sts to try to put the words in the correct order to make questions.

b 3.21 Play the audio for Sts to listen and check. Check answers.

3.21

- 1 How old is Barry?
- 2 What's his name?
- 3 Do you like it?
- 4 How do you feel about cats?

c Tell Sts to go to Grammar Bank 3C on p.128.

Grammar notes

Word order in English is less flexible than in many other languages, and this is especially true of questions. Sts often have problems remembering the position of the auxiliaries do and does in simple present questions. The acronyms ASI (auxiliary, subject, infinitive) and QuASI (question word, auxiliary, subject, infinitive) will help your Sts remember to use the correct word order in questions. Use the acronyms as a quick way of reminding them if they make mistakes.

Focus on the example sentences and play both audio 3.22 and 3.23 for Sts to listen and repeat. Then go through the rules with the class.

Now focus on the exercises for 3C on p.129. Sts do the exercises individually or in pairs.

Check answers, getting Sts to read the full sentences.

a

- 1 How many children do you have?
- 2 Is your job interesting?
- 3 What color is his car?
- 4 Where does your brother work?
- 5 Do you work with computers?
- 6 What kind of magazines do you read?
- 7 What does he do on the weekend?
- 8 Are you stressed in your job?
- 9 Where does your sister live?
- 10 How do you say that in English?

b

- 1 does...do 2 does she work 3 Does...like 4 does...do
- 5 Is he 6 Does...do 7 do you do

Tell Sts to go back to the main lesson 3C.

EXTRA SUPPORT If you think Sts need more practice, you may want to give them the Grammar photocopiable activity at this point.

3 VOCABULARY question words

a Focus on the question words and phrases, and questions 1–8. Point out that the first one (What) has been done for them.

Give Sts time to complete the questions.

b  3.24 Play the audio for Sts to listen and check.

Check answers.

See words in bold in script 3.24

3.24

- 1 What phone do you have?
I have a Samsung.
- 2 How many brothers and sisters do you have?
I have two sisters.
- 3 Which do you prefer, cats or dogs?
Cats, I think.
- 4 Where do you work?
In a restaurant near the river.
- 5 When do you have language classes?
On Mondays and Wednesdays.
- 6 What kind of music do you like?
I like pop and reggae.
- 7 Who's your favorite actor?
Michael B. Jordan.
- 8 Why do you like him?
Because he's a really good actor.

Now either put Sts in pairs to answer questions 1–3 or do it as a whole-class activity.

If Sts worked in pairs, check answers.

- 1 /h/
- 2 /w/
- 3 We use What...? when there's a large number of possibilities.
We use Which...? when there's a small number, often two.

4 PRONUNCIATION sentence stress

Pronunciation notes

Sts have already seen how within a word one syllable is stressed more strongly than the others. They also need to be aware that within a sentence, some words are stressed more strongly than others. Stressed words are usually "information" words, i.e., nouns, adjectives, verbs. Unstressed words are usually shorter words such as pronouns, articles, prepositions, and auxiliary verbs. This mixture of stressed and unstressed words is what gives English its rhythm.

a  3.25 Tell Sts that in sentences we stress the important words and that the words in big bold print in the four questions are important words and are stressed.

Play the audio for Sts just to listen to the four questions.

3.25

See questions in the Student Book on p.27

Now play the audio again for Sts to listen and repeat, copying the rhythm.

b Now put Sts in pairs, A and B. A asks the questions in 3a and B gives his / her own answers.

EXTRA SUPPORT Point out that in the first question they might need to change work to study.

EXTRA CHALLENGE Tell the Sts B to close their books, and get the Sts A to ask the questions in a different order.

Monitor and help as necessary. Then get Sts to change roles.

Get some feedback from the class.

5 SPEAKING

a Focus on the instructions with the class. Then focus on the prompts. Elicit that in the first, second, and third group they need to add do you between the question word or phrase and the verb, and in the fourth group, they need to add is / 's after Who or What.

Then elicit the questions from the first and second groups, e.g., Where do you live? Where do you work? What kind of movies do you like?, etc.

b Focus on the instructions. You could model the example conversation with a strong student. Remind Sts of the ways of showing interest that they saw earlier in the lesson, e.g., How interesting!

Put Sts in pairs, A and B, preferably with a student they don't usually work with. Sts interview each other.

! If you have an odd number of Sts in the class, have one group of three. Choose strong Sts who will have time to do the interview three times.

Get some feedback from the class.

EXTRA CHALLENGE Encourage the Sts who are asking the questions to ask extra questions if they can, e.g.,

A What car do you have?

B I have a Honda.

A What color is it? / Do you like it?, etc. (extra questions)

Encourage the Sts who are answering the questions to give extra information, e.g.,

A Where do you work?

B I work in a store. I'm a...

Complete the activity by asking various pairs what they have in common.

6 WRITING a personal profile

Tell Sts to go to Writing A personal profile on p.113.

a Focus on Jill's profile and give Sts time to read it.

Go through the different sections with Sts. Highlight and check the meaning and pronunciation of:

– occupation (= what they do, e.g., their job)

– interests (= hobbies)

Tell Sts to cover the profile and ask them questions about Jill, e.g., Where is she from? What does she do? What languages does she speak? What kind of music does she like?, etc.

Then ask Sts if they have similar interests to Jill.

b Focus on the and, but, or box and go through it with the class.

Get Sts to do the writing in class or assign it for homework.

c Remind Sts to check their profiles for mistakes, e.g., with capital letters or spelling, and the use of and, but, and or.

Function buying a coffee

Vocabulary telling the time

Lesson plan

In this lesson, Sts learn to tell the time and how to buy a coffee (or other drink) in a coffee shop or bar. The Rob and Jenny story develops. They meet at the hotel, and go to buy a take-out coffee. They then go to the office and Jenny meets Karen, the administrator, and Daniel, the boss.

OPTIONAL LEAD-IN (BOOKS CLOSED)

Before starting Episode 2, elicit what Sts can remember about Episode 1. Ask them Who's Rob? Where does he work/live? Who's Jenny? Where is she from?, etc.

Alternatively, you could play the last scene of Episode 1.

1 VOCABULARY

 telling the time

a Books open. Focus on the clock and the question. Elicit the answer It's nine o'clock and write it on the board. You may want to point out here that we often just say, e.g., The meeting is at nine (rather than at nine o'clock), but if someone asks you the time, it's more common to answer It's nine o'clock.

Note: there is no difference in exactness between It's nine and It's nine o'clock. If you want to emphasize an exact time, you need to add the word exactly, e.g., It's exactly nine o'clock.

b Tell Sts to go to Vocabulary Bank Time on p.157 and get them to do Part 1.

Focus on 1 Telling the time and get Sts to do a individually or in pairs.

3.26 Now focus on b. Play the audio for Sts to listen and check.

Check answers. You may also want to point out that people often leave out the a before quarter past and quarter to, e.g., It's (a) quarter to ten.

3.26

Time, 1 Telling the time

- 3 It's six-fifteen. / It's quarter after six.
5 It's six o'clock.
1 It's six forty-five. / It's quarter to seven.
8 It's six-ten. / It's ten after six.
7 It's six fifty-five. / It's five to seven.
4 It's six thirty-five. / It's twenty-five to seven.
2 It's six-thirty. / It's half past six.
9 It's three minutes after six.
6 It's six-twenty. / It's twenty after six.

Vocabulary notes

Highlight:

- that from 12 o'clock to half past (the right-hand side of the clock) all the times are expressed with after, and that from half past to 12 o'clock (the left-hand side) all the times are expressed with to.
- the pronunciation of half /hæf/ (highlighting the silent l) and quarter /'kwɔ:tə/.
/
- the origin of o'clock (originally "of the clock").

EXTRA SUPPORT Play the audio again and get Sts to repeat the times.

Now focus on the Time box and go through it with the class.

Finally, focus on the instructions for Activation. Get Sts to cover the phrases with a piece of paper and, in pairs, to point at the clocks and ask and say the times.

EXTRA SUPPORT If you think Sts need more practice, you may want to give them the Vocabulary photocopiable activity at this point.

c Put Sts in pairs, A and B, and tell them to go to Communication What's the time?, A on p.104, B on p.109.

Sit A and B face-to-face if possible. Go through the instructions with them carefully, and drill the question What's the time? (or What time is it?).

At the end of the activity, get Sts to compare their clocks to make sure they have drawn the right times.

Finally, elicit the time on some of the clocks from the class. Tell Sts to go back to the main lesson.

2 ROB AND JENNY MEET

a 3.27 Focus on the photo and elicit who the people are and where they are (Rob and Jenny in the hotel lobby). Then focus on the instructions and the question. Play the video / audio once the whole way through. Check the answer.

They go for a coffee.

3.27

R = Rob, J = Jenny

R Um...Jennifer?

J Rob?

R Yes, hello. Nice to meet you, Jennifer.

J Call me Jenny. Good to meet you, too.

R Welcome to London. Am I late?

J Um...just a little.

R What time is it?

J Nine-fifteen.

R I'm really sorry. The traffic is terrible today.

J No problem.

R How are you? How's the hotel?

J The hotel's very nice. But breakfast isn't great. I'd like a good cup of coffee. Not hotel coffee – real coffee.

R OK, let's get a coffee.

J Do I have time? I have a meeting at nine-thirty.

R With Daniel?

J Yes.

R Don't worry. We have lots of time – the office is very near. So, Jenny, where do you live in New York?

b Focus on questions 1–4 and go through them with Sts, eliciting / explaining new words, e.g., late.

Now play the video / audio again for Sts to watch or listen and complete the task.

Get Sts to compare with a partner, and then check answers.

- 1 Because the traffic is terrible.
- 2 Because the hotel coffee isn't great.
- 3 Because she has a meeting with Daniel.
- 4 Because they have lots of time. The office is very near.

3 BUYING A COFFEE

a Focus on the photo and ask where Rob and Jenny are (in a coffee shop). Then focus on the menu and check Sts understand all the items on it. You may want to point out that in coffee shops in the UK they now use the Italian words for different types of coffee, e.g., latte, cappuccino, etc.

Explain that regular means normal size, and that large is another word for big.

Elicit / Explain that although the prices are just numbers, as the coffee bar is in the UK the prices are in pounds and pence (3.00 = three pounds, 2.80 = two (pounds) eighty). Saying prices is practiced in more detail in Practical English 3.

EXTRA IDEA You could get Sts to practice in pairs like this:

A How much is a single espresso?

B Two (pounds) forty-five. How much is a regular cappuccino?, etc.

b 3.28 Focus on the task and on questions 1–3. Elicit / Explain that question 3, How much is it?, means What is the price?

Now either tell Sts to close their books and write the three questions on the board, or get Sts to focus on the questions.

Play the video / audio once the whole way through. Then play it again if necessary.

Get Sts to compare with a partner, and then check answers.

- 1 Jenny has a double espresso and Rob has a large latte.
- 2 Jenny doesn't have anything. Rob has a brownie and a croissant.
- 3 £12.45

3.28 3.29

B = barista, R = Rob, J = Jenny

B Can I help you?

R What would you like, Jenny? (repeat)

J An espresso, please. (repeat)

B Single or double?

J Double. (repeat)

R Can I have a latte, please? (repeat)

B Regular or large?

R Large. (repeat)

B To have here or take away?

R To take away. (repeat)

B Anything else?

J No, thanks. (repeat)

R A brownie for me, please...and a croissant... (repeat)

B OK.

R How much is that? (repeat)

B That's twelve forty-five, please.

R Sorry, how much? (repeat)

B Twelve forty-five. Thank you. And your change.

R Thanks. (repeat)

c Focus on the conversation in the chart. Elicit who says the You hear phrases (the barista) and who says the You say phrases (the customer, or here Rob and Jenny). These phrases will be useful for Sts if they need to order food or a drink. Point out the Glossary on the page. Barista is an imported Italian word.

Give Sts a minute to read through the conversation and to think about what the missing words might be. Then play the video / audio again, and get Sts to fill in the blanks. Play again if necessary.

Get Sts to compare with a partner, and then check answers.

- 1 help
- 2 Single
- 3 Regular
- 4 here
- 5 change

Go through the conversation line by line with Sts, helping them with any words or expressions they don't understand. Remind Sts that What would you like? is a common way of offering a drink to someone, and Can I have...? is a common way of asking for what you want. Highlight that to ask for a (total) price, we can say either How much is it? or How much is that?

- d 3.29 Now focus on the You say phrases and tell Sts they're going to watch or listen to the conversation again. They should repeat the You say phrases when they hear the beep. Encourage them to copy the rhythm and intonation.
- Play the video / audio, pausing if necessary for Sts to repeat the phrases.

3.29

Same as script 3.28 with repeat pauses

- e Put Sts in groups of three, A, B, and C. A is the barista. Get Sts to read the conversation aloud and then switch roles.
- f Now assign a role to each student in their groups and focus on the instructions.
- A keeps his / her book open and is the barista. B and C both close their books. B invites C to have a drink and something to eat.
- Elicit that A begins with Can I help you? and B then asks C What would you like?
- Sts now role-play the conversation. When they have finished, they switch roles.
- You could get a few groups to perform in front of the class.

4 FIRST DAY IN THE OFFICE

- a 3.30 Focus on the photo and ask Sts some questions, e.g., Where is Jenny now? Who do you think the other people are? (You may want to teach / review maybe and I think to encourage speculation).
- Go through questions 1–6.
- Now play the video / audio once for Sts just to watch or listen.
- Then play it again, pausing for Sts to answer the questions. Play it again if necessary.
- Get Sts to compare with a partner, and then check answers.

- 1 She is an administrator.
- 2 In Poland.
- 3 In Manhattan.
- 4 Yes, a sister in Brooklyn.
- 5 Tea, coffee, or water.
- 6 Twelve o'clock.

3.30

R = Rob, J = Jenny, K = Karen, D = Daniel

R Here we are. This is the office. And this is Karen.

J Hello, Karen.

R Karen, this is Jennifer Zielinski from the New York office.

K Hello, Jennifer.

J Nice to meet you.

R Karen is our administrator. We all depend on her.

K Don't listen to Rob.

R But it's true!

K Is this your first time in the UK, Jennifer?

J Yes, it is. But it isn't my first time in Europe. I have family in Poland.

K Really? And where do you live in New York?

J In Manhattan. Do you know New York?

K Yes. My sister lives in Brooklyn.

J I have family in Brooklyn, too. Where does your sister live?

D Jennifer!

J Daniel?

D How nice to meet you, at last. Would you like something to drink? Tea, coffee, water?

J Oh no, I'm fine, thanks.

D Great. Oh, Karen. What time is my next meeting?

K At twelve o'clock.

D That's good – we have time. OK, come into my office, Jennifer.

J Thank you.

D Talk to you later, Rob.

R Yeah. Sure.

EXTRA SUPPORT If there's time and you are using the video, you could get Sts to watch again with subtitles / showing the script, so they can see exactly what they understood / didn't understand. Translate / Explain any new words or phrases.

- b Focus on the Social English phrases and go through them with the class.
- In pairs, get Sts to decide who says them.
- c 3.31 Play the video / audio for Sts to watch or listen to the four phrases and check their answers to b.
- Check answers. If you know your Sts' L1, you could get them to translate the phrases.

1 R 2 K 3 D 4 D

3.31

See Social English phrases in the Student Book on p.29

- Now play the video / audio again, pausing after each phrase for Sts to watch or listen and repeat.
- d Focus on the instructions and make sure Sts understand what they have to do.
- Get Sts to compare with a partner, and then check answers.

A 3 B 4 C 2 D 1

Now put Sts in pairs and get them to practice the conversations.

Finally, focus on the CAN YOU...? questions and ask Sts if they feel confident they can now do these things. If they feel that they need more practice, tell them to go to Online Practice to watch the episode again and practice the language.

- G possessive 's, Whose...?
V family: sister, aunt, etc.
P /ʌ/, the letter o

Lesson plan

The main context for this lesson is pictures of people in the public eye who have been photographed with a member of their family or partner who is not well known. This provides a natural context for presenting the grammar of the possessive 's (e.g., Who is he? He's Brad Pitt's brother.) and the question word Whose...? Sts then learn the vocabulary of family members, which leads into a focus on the /ʌ/ sound, and the most common pronunciations of the letter o. The lesson ends with Sts listening to a woman showing her friend photos of members of her family, which Sts then do themselves.

Online Practice 4A

OPTIONAL LEAD-IN (BOOKS CLOSED) Draw a simple family tree on the board, preferably of your family, or a well-known family, showing two generations: mother / father + children, e.g.,

Ask Who's Alan? to elicit He's your father, and do the same with the other names to elicit mother / brother / sister. Use Alan and Marian to teach husband and wife.

Get Sts to spell the words to you and write them on the board. Model and drill pronunciation.

1 GRAMMAR possessive 's, Whose...?

- a Books open. Ask Sts Do you read magazines like People or Entertainment Weekly? What kind of people are in them? (Famous people and their families).

Focus on the title of the article and the photo. Ask the question about Doug to the class, but don't confirm any ideas yet. Then ask if they think it's good or bad to have a famous person in the family and elicit opinions.

- b Give Sts time to read the article and see if they still think their guess in a is correct or if they have changed their minds. Get them to answer the second question as well.

Check answers. You could ask Sts how they guessed while reading the article. Also find out if Sts know any information about Brad Pitt.

His brother is the actor Brad Pitt.
 Yes, he does.

Help with any new vocabulary.

- c Focus on the instructions. Tell Sts to think about the other person's age and appearance.

Now focus on the photos and give Sts time, in pairs, to read sentences 1–5 and choose a or b for each one. Remind them of the expressions I think... and Maybe...

- d  4.1 Play the audio for Sts to listen and check.

Check answers by eliciting full sentences and elicit / explain that 's = of, i.e., of Carey Mulligan. Ask Sts if they know the people. Some Sts may know that in fact Carey Mulligan's husband is famous in his own right (he is Marcus Mumford, lead singer of the band Mumford & Sons), and Maggie Gyllenhaal, Jake's sister, is also a well-known actress.

4.1

- 1 He's Carey Mulligan's husband.
- 2 She's Meryl Streep's daughter.
- 3 She's Jake Gyllenhaal's sister.
- 4 He's Will Smith's son.
- 5 He's Mary-Kate Olsen's husband.

- e Tell Sts to go to Grammar Bank 4A on p.130.

Grammar notes

Beginning Sts tend not to have too many problems with the possessive s being used in English with things / places, e.g., Harry's bar, and with people, e.g., Jane's brother. However, they may be less clear about not using it in phrases like The end of the movie or in compound noun phrases like bus stop (if this is an of construction in their L1).

Names that end in s

James's or James'? After names ending in s, you can add either 's or just an apostrophe. We teach the first form because it is more common and follows the basic rule. The pronunciation is /ɪz/, e.g., /dʒeɪmzɪz/.

-  4.2 Focus on the example sentences and play the audio for Sts to listen and repeat. Then go through the rules with the class.

Focus on the 's and Whose / Who's box and go through it with the class.

Now focus on the exercises for 4A on p.131. Sts do the exercises individually or in pairs. With a, go through the instructions with Sts first, to make sure they understand exactly what they have to do.

Check answers. For a, ask Sts for the answers, and then write the sentences on the board, so they can see where they have to put the apostrophes. Elicit each time whether the 's is the contraction of is or the possessive s.

1 They're Blake's cars. 2 It's Blake's wallet. 3 They're Ryan's magazines. 4 It's Blake's watch. 5 They're Ryan's glasses.

c

Tell Sts to go back to the main lesson 4A.

EXTRA SUPPORT If you think Sts need more practice, you may want to give them the Grammar photocopiable activity at this point.

f Ask Sts to focus on the things from the photos. Model and drill their pronunciation. Then tell Sts that they belong to the famous people in c.

Focus Sts' attention on the speech bubbles. Give Sts, in pairs, a few minutes to practice asking and answering the questions.

Check answers.

It's Jake Gyllenhaal's watch.
It's Carey Mulligan's bag.
They're Meryl Streep's glasses.
It's Mary-Kate Olsen's ring.

EXTRA IDEA Try to find some photos of famous people's relatives who your Sts will know. You could find these on the internet or in celebrity magazines. Ask who the people are.

2 VOCABULARY family

a Tell Sts to go to Vocabulary Bank The family on p.155.

Vocabulary notes

Highlight that in English, unlike in some other languages, we don't use the masculine word in the plural to refer to masculine and feminine family members, i.e., brothers only refers to males. For this reason, we usually ask, e.g., Do you have any brothers and sisters?

Focus on the instructions for a and the first family tree. Make sure that Sts realize that they have to number the people in relation to Richard.

Ask Sts Who is Gary? and elicit He's Richard's father. Then show them where to find the word father and point out that number 1 is in the box next to Gary.

Give Sts, in pairs, five minutes to write the numbers on the two family trees.

f Tell Sts they will need to use one of the words (cousin) twice.

Don't check answers at this stage.

Focus on b. Give Sts time to complete blanks 1–5. Don't check answers at this stage.

4.3 Now do c. Play the audio for Sts to listen and check answers to a and b.

Check answers.

4.3

The family

- a 7 John is Richard's grandfather.
- 8 Jennifer is Richard's grandmother.
- 2 Carol is Richard's mother.

1 Gary is Richard's father.

9 Sue is Richard's aunt.

10 Nick is Richard's uncle.

4 Kate is Richard's sister.

3 Steven is Richard's brother.

13 Hugh is Richard's cousin.

13 Sarah is Richard's cousin.

14 Emma is Richard's wife.

5 Chloe is Richard's daughter.

6 Jake is Richard's son.

12 Ruby is Richard's niece.

11 Oliver is Richard's nephew.

b 1 my father and my mother (pause) my parents

2 my wife's mother and father (pause) my parents-in-law

3 my grandfather and my grandmother (pause) my grandparents

4 my son and my daughter (pause) my children

5 a husband and wife (pause) a couple

Then either use the audio to drill the pronunciation of the sentences, or model and drill them yourself. Give further practice of any words your Sts find difficult to pronounce, e.g., cousin, daughter, niece, and nephew.

EXTRA SUPPORT You might want to get Sts just to repeat the family words.

Focus on the More family words box and go through it with the class.

EXTRA CHALLENGE You may also want to teach half-brother / -sister (someone who has the same mother as you but a different father, or the same father but a different mother).

Focus on Activation. Demonstrate by asking individual Sts, e.g., Who's Jennifer? (She's Richard's grandmother.). Then get Sts to continue in pairs, covering the words in a and b. Tell Sts to go back to the main lesson 4A.

EXTRA SUPPORT If you think Sts need more practice, you may want to give them the Vocabulary photocopiable activity at this point.

b Focus on the questions and point out that the first one (grandmother) has been done for them.

Give Sts two minutes to answer them in pairs.

Check answers.

2 uncle 3 niece 4 cousin 5 brother-in-law 6 nephew

3 PRONUNCIATION /ʌ/, the letter o

Pronunciation notes

The /ʌ/ sound

The most common spelling of this short sound is u between consonants, e.g., up, husband, sun, etc. However, o can also make this sound as in the family words mother, brother, etc., and also ou, e.g., young.

The letter o

Following on from the /ʌ/ sound, this exercise focuses on the two most common pronunciations of the letter o, /ɑ/ (e.g., clock) and /oʊ/ (e.g., phone), and two less common ones, /ʌ/ (e.g., up) and /u:/ (e.g., boot).

Highlight that clock and up are short sounds, boot is a long sound, and phone is a diphthong. For these sounds, you may want to help Sts by using the videos showing mouth positions, or by demonstrating the positions yourself.

- a 4.4 Focus on the sound picture (up) and play the audio for Sts just to listen to the sound and example words.

4.4

See sound and words in the Student Book on p.31

Now play the audio again for Sts to listen and repeat.

EXTRA SUPPORT If this sound is difficult for your Sts, it will help to show them the mouth position. You could model this yourself or use the Sound Bank videos on the Teacher Resource Center.

- b Focus on the Remember! box and go through it with the class. This exercise focuses on the two most common pronunciations of the letter o, /ɑ/ (e.g., not) and /oʊ/ (e.g., photo), and two less common ones, /ʌ/ (e.g., mother) and /u/ (e.g., two).

Focus on the sound pictures and elicit the four words and sounds, e.g., clock /ɑ/, phone /oʊ/, etc. Point out the four examples.

Give Sts two or three minutes to put the 11 words into the correct columns according to the pronunciation of the pink o. Encourage Sts to say the words out loud to themselves to help decide where to put them.

! Two of the words, i.e., doctor and London, have a second o in them, which is not pink. This is the schwa sound.

EXTRA SUPPORT To help Sts, you could tell them how many words go into each column (excluding the example): /ɑ/ has four, /oʊ/ has three, /ʌ/ has three, and /u/ has one.

- c 4.5 Get Sts to compare with a partner.

Play the audio for Sts to listen and check.

Elicit the answers onto the board.

4.5

clock /ɑ/	doctor, hot, job, model, stop
phone /oʊ/	don't, go, home, no
up /ʌ/	come, London, money, one boot /u/	do, who

Play the audio again, pausing after each word or column for Sts to listen and repeat.

- d Model the example conversations with a strong student or two.

Get Sts to practice the conversations in pairs.

Then get a few pairs to read out loud for the class.

4 LISTENING & SPEAKING identifying the main / supporting information

- a 4.6 Focus on the instructions and on the photos on Grace's phone. Now focus on the chart and tell Sts they need to listen to find out who Mark, Celia, and Miriam are in relation to Grace. Point out that the first one for Mark has been done for them (He's Grace's boyfriend).

Play the audio once or twice.

Check answers.

EXTRA SUPPORT Read through the script and decide if you need to pre-teach any new vocabulary before Sts listen.

Celia is Grace's sister. Miriam is Grace's sister-in-law.

4.6

(script in Student Book on p.119)

A = Anna, G = Grace

- A Who's that?
 G That's my boyfriend, Mark.
 A He's good-looking. How old is he?
 G Twenty-six.
 A What does he do?
 G He's a medical student. He finishes this year – I hope!
 A Where does he study?
 G At Indiana University School of Medicine
 A Does he like it?
 G Yes, he loves it. And this is my sister Celia and her kids.
 A Ah. She looks like you.
 G Yes, she does.
 A How old is she?
 G She's thirty-five.
 A How old are the children?
 G Carlos, the little one, is two, and Daniel, the older one's, uh, six, I think. They live in Chile, so I don't see them very often.
 A Is that another sister?
 G No, she's my sister-in-law, Miriam. She's married to my brother Tim.
 A What does Tim do?
 G He's a lawyer, and Miriam's a teacher.
 A How old are their children?
 G Alex is four and Helen's thirteen months now.
 A They're so cute!...So how about you and Mark? When's the wedding?
 G Wedding! No, thanks! I'm too young!

- b Focus on the instructions. Play the audio again, pausing after each person has been described, to give Sts time to write. Play again if necessary.

Get Sts to compare with a partner, and then check answers.

Mark: He is good-looking. He's 26. He's a medical student at Indiana University School of Medicine. He loves it.

Celia: She looks like Grace. She's 35. She has two sons. Carlos is two; Daniel is six. They live in Chile.

Miriam: She is married to Tim, Grace's brother. Tim is a lawyer; Miriam is a teacher. Their children are Helen, 13 months old, and Alex, four.

- c Focus on the instructions and the examples. If Sts have, e.g., their phones or tablets with them, ask them to show each other photos of friends or people in their family. They must ask each other three questions about each person. If not, they could write the names of some of their relatives and friends on a piece of paper. They exchange pieces of paper, and then A asks B three questions about each person.

They then change roles.

EXTRA SUPPORT Demonstrate by bringing in some photos of your family / friends. If possible, blow them up or project them onto the board, and then elicit questions from Sts.

- G prepositions of time (at, in, on) and place (at, in, to)
V daily routine: get up, get dressed, etc.
P linking

Lesson plan

This lesson is based on the daily routine of two real people with busy lives (Marjan Jahangiri is a professor of cardiac surgery in London, and the article about her appeared in The Sunday Times. Her son, Darius, is in his last year of high school.). Sts begin by learning verb phrases to talk about daily routines. There is then a pronunciation focus on linking, which will help Sts to understand spoken English. Sts then read about Marjan's day and listen to an interview with her son, and decide whose day they think is more tiring. This is followed by a grammar focus on prepositions of time and place, which are commonly used when we describe a typical day. The lesson ends with a Speaking activity where Sts ask each other about their typical weekdays, and they then write a description of their favorite day of the week.

! This lesson also reviews telling the time. This was taught at the beginning of Practical English Episode 2 on p.52. If you did not do this lesson, you will need to do this section first instead of the Optional lead-in.

OPTIONAL LEAD-IN (BOOKS CLOSED) Review telling the time. Draw a clock on the board and then draw different hands and ask Sts What time is it?

Ask Sts What time does this class start? and elicit the answer It starts at (X). Highlight that we use the preposition at when we say what time something happens.

1 VOCABULARY daily routine

a 4.7 Books open. Focus on the phrases and give Sts time to look at them.

Play the audio (sound effects), pausing after each one for Sts to guess which one it is. Point out that the first one (wake up) has been done for them.

Check answers. Model and drill the pronunciation of the phrases.

- 2 take a shower 3 get dressed 4 have a coffee / tea
 5 have breakfast 6 go to work / school

4.7

(sound effects of the following)

- 1 alarm clock ringing, groans, noises of someone waking up
- 2 somebody taking a shower
- 3 somebody opening closet, taking out shirt on hanger, putting it on
- 4 pouring a coffee, drinking
- 5 pouring cereal and milk, eating breakfast, etc.
- 6 banging front door, walking down drive, getting into car, car driving off

b Focus on the task and example. Demonstrate it yourself by using phrases 1–6 in a to tell the class your typical morning.

Then put Sts in pairs and get them to do the same.

Get feedback from some pairs to find out if they do things in the same order.

c Tell Sts to go to Vocabulary Bank Daily routine on p.156.

Vocabulary notes

Make sure Sts know the difference between go to work (= leave the house), get to work (= arrive at work), go home (= leave school / work and go to your house), and get home (= arrive home).

Focus on the names Busy Belinda and Chill Charlie, and get Sts to guess from the pictures what busy and chill mean. Model and drill pronunciation (/ˈbɪzi/ and /tʃɪl/). Then get Sts to do a individually or in pairs.

4.8 Now do b. Tell Sts that they will hear the answers in the order that Belinda and Charlie do the things, not in the order of the verbs. Play the audio for Sts to listen and check.

Check answers.

4.8

Daily routine

Busy Belinda

- 1 wake up at seven o'clock
- 2 take a shower
- 3 get dressed
- 4 put on make-up
- 5 have a coffee
- 6 go to work by bus
- 7 get to work
- 8 start work at eight-thirty
- 9 have lunch at work
- 10 finish work at six-thirty
- 11 go shopping
- 12 get home late
- 13 do the housework
- 14 have pizza for dinner
- 15 check emails
- 16 go to bed

Chill Charlie

- 17 get up at eight o'clock
- 18 shave
- 19 take the dog for a walk
- 20 have breakfast
- 21 walk to work
- 22 go home early

- 23 go to Spanish classes
- 24 see friends
- 25 make dinner
- 26 relax
- 27 take a bath
- 28 sleep for eight hours

Then either use the audio to drill the pronunciation of each verb / phrase, or model and drill them yourself. Give further practice of any words or phrases your Sts find difficult to pronounce.

Focus on the have box and go through it with the class.

Finally, focus on Activation and tell Sts they are now going to tell each other about Belinda and Charlie, and they must make full sentences, e.g., She wakes up at seven o'clock. Put Sts in pairs, A and B. Sts A should cover the verb phrases about Belinda and look at the pictures to see if they can remember the expressions. Sts B can look at the verb phrases and help if necessary. Sts then change roles, and Sts B do the same with Charlie.

Tell Sts to go back to the main lesson 4B.

EXTRA CHALLENGE Ask Sts if they are more like Busy Belinda or Chill Charlie and why.

EXTRA SUPPORT If you think Sts need more practice, you may want to give them the Vocabulary photocopiable activity at this point.

2 PRONUNCIATION linking

a 4.9 Focus on the Connected speech box and remind Sts about linking in spoken English (They saw it in 2C). Tell Sts they are going to hear five sentences, each read at natural speed. Point out that for each sentence they can see how many words there are.

Tell them the first time you play the audio they should just listen. Play the audio once.

4.9

- 1 He wakes up at eight.
- 2 She works in an office.
- 3 She has a coffee at eleven.
- 4 He has a lot of homework.
- 5 She has an interesting day.

Now play it again, pausing for Sts to write the five sentences. Play again if necessary.

Get Sts to compare with a partner, and then check answers by eliciting the sentences onto the board.

See sentences in script 4.9

b 4.10 This exercise practices sentence stress and rhythm. Focus on the sentences and tell Sts that the words in bigger bold print are the words that are stressed. Play the audio, pausing after each sentence for Sts to listen and repeat, copying the rhythm.

4.10

See sentences in the Student Book on p.32

In pairs, Sts practice the sentences, paying attention to linking and rhythm.

Get a few Sts to read some of the sentences aloud.

3 READING & LISTENING inferring feelings, understanding specific information

a Focus on the title of the article, Busy lives Mother...and Son, and the photos. Read the introduction about Marjan together and make sure Sts understand it all. Tell Sts they will now read about a typical (working) day in Marjan's life and then listen to an interview with Darius about a day in his life. Model and drill Marjan's name /'mɑ:dʒæn/.

Focus on the adjectives in the list and make sure Sts can remember what they mean.

Go through the Glossary and model and drill the pronunciation of the words and phrases, and make sure Sts understand their meaning.

Set Sts a time limit and tell them that all they have to do is find out how they think Marjan feels at the end of the day.

When the time limit is up, get feedback.

EXTRA SUPPORT Before Sts read the article the first time, check whether you need to pre-teach any vocabulary.

Suggested answer

Marjan probably feels (very) tired, but happy.

b Tell Sts they need to read the article again and then answer questions 1–8. Make sure Sts can remember what a 9–5 job is (They saw it in 3B).

Put Sts in pairs and tell them to read the article, then cover it and answer the questions with their partner.

Check answers.

- 1 Between 6:00 and 6:30 a.m.
- 2 She has meetings and lectures. She does operations.
- 3 At her desk
- 4 She has dinner with her son. She does research. She watches the news on TV. She plays the piano. Sometimes she does operations.
- 5 No. She works long hours, sometimes during the night, and she often works on weekends.
- 6 She sees her son a lot, but not her husband.
- 7 She plays the piano every day, late at night. She also goes to the hair stylist.
- 8 Yes, she loves it.

Help with any other new vocabulary. Model and drill the pronunciation of any tricky words.

EXTRA IDEA Write the following phrases from the article on the board and elicit the verbs:

- AWAY / AT HOME
- RESEARCH
- TO THE HAIR STYLIST
- A BREAK / A MEETING
- THE PIANO
- ON THE PHONE
- TIME WITH SOMEONE

- be away / at home
- do research
- go to the hairdresser
- have a break / a meeting
- play the piano
- speak on the phone
- spend time with someone

c 4.11 Focus on the photo of Darius and read the instructions. Point out the Glossary and go through it with the class. Model and drill the pronunciation of the words, especially choir /'kwaɪər/.

Give Sts a couple of minutes to read the information about Darius's day. Tell them to think about what the missing words / phrases could be. Point out that the first one (7:30) has been done for them.

Play the audio once for Sts just to listen. Then play it again for Sts to fill in the blanks, pausing if necessary to give them time to write. Play again if necessary.

Get Sts to compare with a partner, and then check answers.

EXTRA SUPPORT Read through the script and decide if you need to pre-teach any new vocabulary before Sts listen.

2 gets 3 four...five 4 school 5 1:45 6 go home
7 sings 8 Thursdays 9 plays 10 takes...shower
11 two...three 12 10:30

4.11

(script in Student Book on p.119)

I = interviewer, D = Darius

- I What time do you get up in the morning?
D I get up at about seven-thirty.
I How do you feel when you get up?
D I know seven-thirty isn't that early, but it's early for me and I usually feel tired and in a little bit of a bad mood.
I Do you have breakfast?
D Absolutely. I have cereal and milk, and some bread with honey or jam. I love honey!
I Do you walk to school?
D No, it's very far away. I go to school by Tube. I usually get to school about eight-twenty. I like to be early.
I What time does your first class start?
D It starts at nine. I have four or sometimes five classes before lunch.
I Where do you have lunch?
D I usually have lunch at school at about one o'clock. I know people usually say that school food is terrible, but actually at my school the food is really good.
I And after lunch?
D We start classes again at one forty-five. I usually have two or three classes in the afternoon.
I What time does school finish?
D At four-fifteen. But I don't go home then. I stay at school to do extra things – I study in the library or play music.
I What kind of music?
D Well, I sing in the school choir on Tuesdays, and on Thursdays, I play percussion in the orchestra. I love music, it's my main hobby.
I So what time do you usually get home?
D At about six o'clock.
I What's the first thing you do?
D I take a shower, and then I have dinner. And then, of course, homework.
I How much homework do you have?
D Two or three hours. It's my last year at school and I have my A levels this summer. I need to do really well to get into a good university.
I Do you watch TV in the evening?
D No, never. I don't have time. When I finish my homework I practice the piano and then I go to bed.
I What time do you go to bed?
D At about ten-thirty. I'm usually so tired I go to sleep right away. All I really do these days is study, eat, and sleep.
I So no social media or anything like that?
D Well...I do spend a little bit of time on Facebook. But not much, I promise!

EXTRA IDEA If there's time, you could get Sts to listen again with the script on p.119, so they can see exactly what they understood / didn't understand. Translate / Explain any new words or phrases.

d Finally, put Sts in pairs or small groups to discuss the questions. Make sure they know the meaning of the phrase to have something in common (= to be like somebody in a certain way or to have the same interests as somebody).

Elicit some feedback.

Marjan and Darius both have long days and work hard. They both like what they do.
Marjan is probably more tired. She has less time to relax, and has more responsibility.

EXTRA IDEA Ask the class if they think busy people are usually happy. Encourage them to try to say why (even if they make mistakes).

4 GRAMMAR prepositions of time and place

a Focus on the instructions and give Sts time to complete the sentences about Darius's day with a preposition.

b 4.12 Play the audio for Sts to listen and check. Check answers.

1 at 2 to 3 at 4 in 5 on

4.12

- 1 I get up at seven-thirty.
2 I usually go to school by Tube.
3 I have lunch at school.
4 I usually have two or three classes in the afternoon.
5 I sing in the school choir on Tuesdays.

c Tell Sts to go to Grammar Bank 4B on p.130.

Grammar notes

There are three main prepositions of time: at, in, on.

There are simple rules for in and on. The rules for at require a little bit more effort to remember because these include the exception at night.

Some uses are not yet practiced (in + months and year, on + dates) because Sts do not have this vocabulary yet, but they are focused on later when Sts learn dates in 6B.

Under prepositions of place, Sts focus on at or in, and to. The main goal is for Sts to be clear that at and in are used for position whereas to is used for movement. Sts also learn that in / at are often alternatives when talking about place, e.g., I was in a restaurant / at a restaurant last night. Sometimes there is a subtle difference between the two prepositions in this context, but it is not necessary to go into this at this level.

Focus on the example sentences and play both audio

4.13 and 4.14 for Sts to listen and repeat. Then go through the rules with the class.

Now focus on the exercises for 4B on p.131. Sts do the exercises individually or in pairs.

EXTRA SUPPORT You may want to focus on the rules for prepositions of time, and then do a, followed by the rules for prepositions of place and b.

Check answers, getting Sts to read the full sentences for b.

- a
1 in 2 on 3 in 4 at 5 at 6 on 7 on 8 in 9 in
- b
1 at 2 to 3 in 4 at 5 to 6 in 7 in 8 at 9 in 10 at

Tell Sts to go back to the main lesson 4B.

EXTRA SUPPORT If you think Sts need more practice, you may want to give them the Grammar photocopiable activity at this point.

d  4.15 Tell Sts they are going to hear some time phrases and they must repeat the time phrase with a preposition. Focus on the example.

Play the audio, pausing after each time phrase for Sts to listen and repeat with the correct preposition.

 4.15

- 1 the weekend (pause) on the weekend
- 2 the morning (pause) in the morning
- 3 seven o'clock (pause) at seven o'clock
- 4 Sunday (pause) on Sunday
- 5 night (pause) at night
- 6 the evening (pause) in the evening
- 7 midnight (pause) at midnight
- 8 the summer (pause) in the summer
- 9 Tuesday morning (pause) on Tuesday morning
- 10 December (pause) in December

Now repeat the activity, eliciting responses from individual Sts.

5 SPEAKING & WRITING

 an article

a Put Sts in pairs and tell them they are going to interview their partner. Stress that they are going to talk about a typical weekday (Monday to Friday).

Focus on the questions and elicit that Sts need to add do you each time there is a /.

Demonstrate the activity by getting Sts to ask you two or three questions. Remind Sts of the typical rhythm of questions, and encourage them not to stress do you, e.g., What time do you get up?

b Put Sts in pairs and get them to ask and answer the questions. Monitor and help, correcting especially any mistakes with the time and prepositions.

In their pairs, Sts decide what they have in common.

Get feedback from various pairs.

c Tell Sts to go to Writing An article on p.114.

The goal here is to give Sts practice describing habitual actions. Sts learn to recognize and use common connectors and common sequencers.

Focus on the title and elicit the meaning and pronunciation of favorite.

Now focus on a and give Sts time to read the article and answer questions 1–4.

Get Sts to compare with a partner, and then check answers.

- 1 Saturday, because it's the first day of the weekend.
- 2 I stay in bed until about 10:30. Then I usually go shopping with a friend.
- 3 I often have lunch at my mother's house, with her and my brother. After lunch I sometimes study from about 4:00 to 6:00.
- 4 I usually go out with my friends. We often go to the movies, and after that, we have a pizza or tacos.

EXTRA IDEA Ask a few Sts Is Cristina's Saturday like yours?

Now do b and go through the after and then box with the class. Highlight that:

- after and before are prepositions and opposites. They are used with a noun or a verb phrase: I always have a cup of coffee after lunch.
- then is used with a verb phrase. It can go at the beginning or in the middle of a sentence: I take a bath. Then I go to bed. I take a bath and then I go to bed.
- after that is an alternative to then. However, highlight that you can't use after to connect two clauses, e.g., NOT I get up, and after I have breakfast.

With a partner, Sts check they know the highlighted words in the article, and then they complete the six sentences.

Check answers.

- 1 Then 2 After 3 before 4 During, from, to 5 that
- 6 until

Focus on the task in c and the instructions. Elicit / Explain that the article has four paragraphs and each one describes one main idea. Give Sts a few minutes to make some notes for each paragraph.

In d, Sts write their article. They can do this in class if there is time or for homework. Monitor and help Sts, encouraging them to use the highlighted words from the article.

In e, Sts spend a few minutes checking their article and the use of the highlighted words.

Now do f and get Sts to exchange articles. They read each other's articles and try to find something in common.

Elicit some feedback from various pairs.

- G position of adverbs, expressions of frequency
V months, adverbs and expressions of frequency: minute, hour, etc.
P the letter h

Lesson plan

The topic of this lesson is lifestyle choices which may determine whether you have a longer or shorter life. Sts begin by learning the vocabulary for months and adverbs and expressions of frequency. A study carried out recently that investigates why American teenagers may not live as long as their parents provides the context for Sts to learn the word order for adverbs and expressions of frequency. Pronunciation focuses on the letter h. In the second half of the lesson, Sts read about the so-called “Blue Zones,” five places in the world that have a very high proportion of centenarians, and about the lifestyles in two of them, which they compare to their own country. The lesson ends with a video listening about a third one, Okinawa, in Japan.

1 VOCABULARY months, adverbs and expressions of frequency

- a  4.16 Books open. Focus on the months. In pairs, Sts complete the words.
 Play the audio for Sts to listen and check.
 Elicit the months onto the board.

See letters in bold in script 4.16

4.16

January February March April May June July August
 September October November December

- b Play the audio again for Sts to listen and repeat. Give further practice of any months your Sts find difficult to pronounce.
 Now ask the class which five months are stressed on the second syllable.

July, September, October, November, December

- c Tell the class the month of your birthday and write on the board MY BIRTHDAY IS IN...
 Now tell Sts in turn to say their birthday month in the same way, and find out if there is a month in which many Sts have their birthdays. Make sure they only say the month and not the date.

EXTRA IDEA Get Sts to do this as a mingle and ask each other When's your birthday? Find out if any Sts found someone born in the same month as them.

- d Tell Sts to go to Vocabulary Bank Time on p.157 and get them to do Parts 2 and 3.

Vocabulary notes

Highlight that once and twice are irregular forms. For all other numbers, we use a number + times, e.g., five times, ten times.

Focus on 2 Expressions of frequency and get Sts to do a individually or in pairs. Make sure Sts are clear about the meaning and pronunciation of How often...? (which is used when you want to ask someone about the frequency with which they do an activity) and every.

-  4.17 Now do b. Play the audio for Sts to listen and check.
 Check answers.

4.17

2 Expressions of frequency

1 every day 2 every week 3 every month 4 every year
5 once a week 6 twice a week 7 three times a week 8 four times a year

Now either use the audio to drill the pronunciation of the phrases, or model and drill them yourself. Give further practice of any words your Sts find difficult to pronounce. Focus on the instructions for Activation. Get Sts to cover the left-hand column with a piece of paper, leaving the rest visible to see if they can remember the expressions.
 Focus on 3 Adverbs of frequency and get Sts to do a individually or in pairs.

Vocabulary notes

If Sts don't have an exact equivalent in their L1, you may want to point out that these words don't have an exact meaning in terms of frequency – the meaning depends on the activity, e.g., in I often have fruit for breakfast, often probably means three times a week, whereas in I often travel abroad for work, often may mean once a month.

-  4.18 Now do b. Play the audio for Sts to listen and check.
 Check answers.

See letters in bold in script 4.18

4.18

3 Adverbs of frequency

- 1b I always get up at seven o'clock during the week. I start work at eight o'clock every day.
- 2a I often go to the movies after work. About seven or eight times a month.
- 3c I usually finish work at six o'clock. But on Fridays we stop at three o'clock.
- 4f I sometimes meet a friend for lunch. About once or twice a month.
- 5e I hardly ever go to the theater. Only once or twice a year.
- 6d I never have coffee. I don't like it.

Then either use the audio to drill the pronunciation of the sentences, or model and drill them yourself. Give further practice of any words your Sts find difficult to pronounce. Focus on the meaning of the six highlighted adverbs.

4.19 Focus on c and play the audio for Sts to listen and repeat the adverbs. Give further practice of any adverbs your Sts find difficult to pronounce.

4.19

See highlighted adverbs of frequency in the Student Book on p.157

Focus on the normally box and go through it with the class.

Finally, focus on the instructions for Activation. Get Sts to cover sentences 1–6 with a piece of paper, leaving a–f visible to see if they can remember the sentences and especially the adverbs of frequency.

Tell Sts to go back to the main lesson 4C.

2 GRAMMAR

position of adverbs, expressions of frequency

a Focus on the photo. Ask Sts how old they think the girl is, and elicit the meaning of teenagers (= young people between the ages of 13 and 19).

Focus on the text. You may want to pre-teach a screen (= the flat, square part of a television or computer, where you see pictures or words) and sugary (= containing a lot of sugar).

Read the introduction together and make sure Sts understand the phrase unhealthy lifestyles. Elicit the opposite of unhealthy.

Set a time limit for Sts to read the rest of the text.

Ask the class which situations they think are probably similar in their country and elicit opinions.

b Get Sts to read the text again, focusing on the position of the highlighted words, which all express frequency. They then circle the correct word in rules 1 and 2.

Check answers.

- 1 before a main verb, after the verb be 2 at the end of a phrase or sentence

c Tell Sts to go to Grammar Bank 4C on p.130.

Grammar notes

The usual position for adverbs of frequency is before the main verb, but after be. However, sometimes and usually can be used at the beginning of a sentence or clause for emphasis, e.g., Sometimes I wake up really early...

Similarly, the usual position for expressions of frequency is at the end of a sentence or verb phrase, but they are sometimes placed at the beginning for emphasis, e.g., Every day I check my emails first thing in the morning.

4.20 Focus on the example sentences and play the audio for Sts to listen and repeat. Then go through the rules with the class.

Now focus on the exercises for 4C on p.131. Sts do the exercises individually or in pairs.

Check answers, getting Sts to read the full sentences.

a

- 1 I always walk to work.
- 2 Do you usually wear glasses?
- 3 I'm hardly ever bored.
- 4 She sometimes does housework.
- 5 We hardly ever go to the movies.
- 6 Why are you always late?
- 7 My girlfriend is never stressed.
- 8 Does it often rain in December?

b

- 1 I am never late for class.
- 2 We hardly ever eat fast food.
- 3 What time do you usually finish work?
- 4 My parents don't often go out at night.
- 5 My brother is always hungry at lunchtime.
- 6 We don't always do our homework.
- 7 Do you usually drive to work?
- 8 Our teacher is hardly ever angry.

Tell Sts to go back to the main lesson 4C.

EXTRA SUPPORT If you think Sts need more practice, you may want to give them the Grammar photocopiable activity at this point.

d Tell Sts that they will now find out if they are going to live a short or long life, by answering a questionnaire. Tell them to go to Communication Short life, long life? on p.104.

Go through the instructions with Sts carefully. Put them in pairs. Give Sts A time to interview Sts B and to circle their partner's answers.

Now the pairs change roles, and Sts B interview Sts A and circle their answers.

When they have finished, they should calculate their partner's score and tell him / her the result.

Get feedback from the class, finding out who is going to live the longest.

Tell Sts to go back to the main lesson 4C.

3 PRONUNCIATION the letter h

Pronunciation notes

How difficult this sound is will depend on your Sts' L1 and you should spend more or less time here accordingly.

The main problem with the letter h is that in many languages it is silent at the beginning of a word. Highlight that in English it is almost always pronounced like the /h/ in hotel and How. There are very few exceptions. The only one that is relevant at this level is hour, but don't focus on this until after Sts have done b.

a 4.21 Focus on the sound picture (house) and sound /h/.

Play the audio for Sts just to listen to the sound and example words.

4.21

See sound and words in the Student Book on p.34

Now play the audio again for Sts to listen and repeat.

b 4.22 In pairs, Sts read the sentences aloud and try to find in which word the letter h is not pronounced.

Play the audio for Sts to listen and check.

Check the answer.

In the word hour the h is not pronounced.

4.22

See sentences in the Student Book on p.34

Now, in their pairs, Sts practice saying the sentences.

c Focus on the task and make sure Sts understand all the vocabulary in the verb phrases.

Demonstrate the activity first by making true sentences about yourself.

Sts should write true sentences about themselves, using the verb phrases and an adverb or expression of frequency.

EXTRA SUPPORT Elicit adverbs and expressions of frequency and write them on the board for Sts to refer to.

They then say their sentences to a partner.

EXTRA CHALLENGE Get Sts to make sentences orally with a partner, without writing them down first.

Get feedback, asking two or three pairs if they were similar or different.

4 READING & SPEAKING retelling the main information from a short text

a Focus on the photos and the title. Elicit / Explain the meaning of secret (= something you do not or must not tell other people).

Get Sts to read the text or read it aloud. Ask Sts to predict anything that they think the places might have in common. Elicit possible answers (e.g., their lifestyle, the weather, etc.). You might want to pre-teach diet (here meaning daily food).

Do the questions as a whole-class activity.

The "Blue Zones" are five places where many people live for a long time.

Alexis is 102 and María is 97.

If you think your Sts might be interested, you could tell them that "Blue Zones" were first identified in 2004 by National Geographic and a team of longevity researchers.

EXTRA IDEA If you have a world map in the class, get Sts to find the five "Blue Zones."

b Put Sts in pairs, A and B, and tell them to go to Communication, A Ikaria on p.104, B Nicoya on p.110.

Go through the instructions carefully. Make sure Sts understand the word(s) in the Glossary. You may want to point out that beans can also refer to the green variety.

Sit A and B face-to-face if possible. When they have finished reading their articles and have answered the questions, Sts B starts by describing life in Nicoya to Sts A. Tell them to try to use their own words.

When Sts B have finished, they change roles.

Sts then decide what the two places have in common.

Check answers. You could ask Sts if they would like to live in either Ikaria or Nicoya.

EXTRA SUPPORT Before Sts read their article, check whether you need to pre-teach any vocabulary.

People in both places spend a lot of time outside. They are very active; they walk everywhere. They eat beans. They don't eat much meat.

Tell Sts to go back to the main lesson 4C.

c Tell Sts to work with a partner and write words or phrases they can remember from their articles related to the two categories. Point out the two examples.

Check answers.

food and drink: potatoes, green vegetables, fish, sugar, herbal tea, rice, sweet potatoes, egg, cheese, meat, fruit (marañón), water physical exercise: exercise, work in their gardens, go to a gym, walk everywhere, ride horses

Help with any other new vocabulary. Model and drill the pronunciation of any tricky words.

5 VIDEO LISTENING comparing and contrasting

a Now tell Sts they are going to watch a documentary about a third Blue Zone, the island of Okinawa in Japan. Focus on the task and go through 1–8 with Sts. Elicit / Explain any new vocabulary, e.g., seaweed.

Play the video for Sts to watch or listen and mark each statement T (true) or F (false). Remind them that they don't need to correct the F sentences at this stage. Play the video again if necessary.

Check answers.

EXTRA SUPPORT Read through the script and decide if you need to pre-teach any new vocabulary before Sts watch or listen.

1 F 2 T 3 T 4 F 5 T 6 F 7 F 8 F

The island of Okinawa

Okinawa is an island about four hundred miles south of Japan. It is a beautiful island, with wonderful beaches and clear blue water. It also has more centenarians – people who are a hundred years old or more – than anywhere else in the world. What's more, they seem to age more slowly than other people. According to scientists, people there who are actually seventy often have the bodies of fifty-year-olds. Many of them are very healthy all through their lives.

What's their secret? Most people think it's because of their healthy lifestyle. They don't have big meals – they have a cultural habit called hara hachi, which means they always stop eating before they're full. They usually just have fish and vegetables, especially sweet potatoes, and they eat a lot of seaweed, which is one of the healthiest foods that there is.

But diet isn't the only reason why they live so long. The Okinawans are very active, and they often work in their gardens until they're eighty or more. Many of them also do t'ai chi or martial arts, every day. They have a good social life. They visit friends or family, and a lot of them belong to community centers. Some play the traditional Okinawan guitar, an instrument similar to a banjo.

The old people of Okinawa are very positive and happy with their lives. They aren't stressed, because they're never in a hurry. Their spiritual lives are important to them, especially the women, and many of them meditate every day.

In Okinawa, people say you're a child until you are fifty-five. And when you reach ninety-seven, your local town holds a special ceremony called kajimaya to celebrate the fact that now it's time to be young again, to be free of all responsibilities and to simply enjoy life.

b Now play the video again for Sts to correct the F sentences in a.

Get Sts to compare answers with a partner, and then check answers.

- 1 The island of Okinawa is south of Japan.
- 4 They eat fish.
- 6 They do t'ai chi or martial arts every day.
- 7 They are never in a hurry.
- 8 When they reach 97, they have a ceremony called kajimaya.

EXTRA SUPPORT If there's time, you could get Sts to watch again with subtitles / showing the script, so they can see exactly what they understood / didn't understand. Translate / Explain any new words or phrases.

c In pairs or small groups, Sts discuss the questions. Check the answer to the first question.

A healthy diet, a lot of exercise, a good social life

Elicit some answers to the other questions from the class.

EXTRA CHALLENGE Put Sts in pairs to answer the questions and then get feedback from various pairs.

Lesson plan

This lesson is based on TV shows like The X Factor, where amateur musicians compete in the hope of winning and becoming famous. The lesson starts with the introduction of more verb phrases. Then a picture story of a contestant waiting for her first audition (based on a real participant's blog) introduces Sts to sentences with can. Can is a very versatile verb in English and is used to express ability, possibility, permission, and to make requests. Sts will have met can for requests and permission in Practical English 1, and should already be familiar with the verb. The use of can for ability, presented here, along with the other uses, may be expressed by a different verb in your Sts' L1. In the second half of the lesson, special attention is given to the pronunciation of can and can't when stressed and unstressed. Sts then practice orally with a questionnaire.

OPTIONAL LEAD-IN (BOOKS CLOSED)

Review the uses of can that Sts have already met. Write on the board:

WHAT DO YOU SAY BEGINNING WITH CAN IF...?

- 1 YOU WANT A PHOTOCOPY
- 2 YOU'RE IN A CAFÉ AND YOU WANT A COKE
- 3 YOU WANT ANOTHER PERSON TO SIGN SOMETHING
- 4 YOU WANT ANOTHER PERSON TO OPEN THE WINDOW

Give Sts a few minutes to discuss in pairs. Check answers.

- 1 Can I have a photocopy, please?
- 2 Can I have a Coke, please?
- 3 Can you sign this, please?
- 4 Can you open the window, please?

Elicit / Explain that we often use Can I have...? to ask for something and Can you...? to ask another person to do something. Tell Sts that in this lesson they will learn other uses of can.

1 VOCABULARY verb phrases

- a Books open. Ask Sts to match the verbs in blue to the words / phrases in green.
 Check answers.

go to the gym, play the guitar, do yoga, watch TV, have a coffee, listen to music

- b Tell Sts to go to Vocabulary Bank More verb phrases on p.158 and get them to do a individually or in pairs. Many of these verbs may already be familiar to them.

Vocabulary notes

Highlight that it is more useful to remember complete phrases, e.g., meet a friend (instead of just meet).

Sts sometimes confuse forget and leave when talking about something they didn't bring with them. You may want to explain that with leave we always say the place where we left something, but not with forget, e.g., Don't forget your bag. Don't leave your bag in class.

- 🎧 5.1 Now do b. Play the audio for Sts to listen and check.

Check answers.

🎧 5.1

More verb phrases

- 3 buy a newspaper
- 2 call a taxi
- 1 dance the tango
- 24 draw a picture
- 7 find a parking space
- 8 forget somebody's name
- 11 give somebody flowers
- 14 hear a noise
- 16 help somebody
- 6 leave your bag on a train
- 19 look for your keys
- 20 meet a friend
- 21 paint a picture
- 9 remember somebody's name
- 23 run a race
- 25 see a movie
- 18 send a text message
- 13 sing a song
- 4 swim in the ocean
- 15 take a photo
- 12 talk to a friend
- 10 tell somebody a secret
- 5 try to do something difficult
- 17 use the internet
- 22 wait for a bus

Now either use the audio to drill the pronunciation of the phrases, or model and drill them yourself. Give further practice of any words or phrases your Sts find difficult to pronounce.

Focus on Activation. Get Sts to cover the verbs and use the photos to test themselves or their partner. Encourage them to say the complete phrase, i.e., verb + collocate.

Tell Sts to go back to the main lesson 5A.

EXTRA SUPPORT If you think Sts need more practice, you may want to give them the Vocabulary photocopiable activity at this point.

2 LISTENING focusing on practical information

a Do this as a whole-class activity. You could also tell Sts if you watch this kind of program and why (not).

b 5.2 Focus on the picture story and go through the instructions with Sts. Elicit / Explain the meaning of audition (= a short performance by an actor, a singer, etc., so that somebody can decide if they are suitable to be in a play, a concert, etc.).

You might want to pre-teach some vocabulary, e.g., nervous and It's your turn (= the time when you can or should do something).

Now tell Sts to look at the pictures and read the questions.

Play the audio for Sts to listen and answer the questions. If necessary, play the audio again, pausing after each question has been answered, and elicit the answer from the class.

Get Sts to compare with a partner, and then check answers.

EXTRA SUPPORT Read through the script and decide if you need to pre-teach any new vocabulary before Sts listen.

1 She needs ID. 2 Her passport 3 She waits with Amy.

5.2

(script in Student Book on p.119)

A = Amy, G = guard, O = organizer, F = friend, J = judge

A 12:30. In a long line outside the Conference Center in Portland.

G Remember, you need ID. You can't come in if you don't have ID.

A Here's my passport.

G Thanks. "Amy Jones." Yup, that's you! OK, come in. Next, please!

A 12:45. In the waiting area with 350 other singers!

O1 OK, Amy, sit here and wait until we call your name.

A Thanks.

O1 Are you here for the audition, too?

F No, I'm not. I'm Amy's friend. Can I wait with her?

O1 Yeah, sure.

F Thanks.

A Let's sit here. I'm so nervous...

O2 Mike Smith, Pat Jones, Tony Cash, come with me. This way.

A Good luck!

A 4:00. Three hours later! My turn at last!

O2 Amy Jones, Naomi Williams, Justin Elliot? Can you come with me, please? It's your turn now.

A Oh my goodness! It's my turn.

F Good luck, Amy! You can do it!

A Excuse me. Can my friend come with me?

O2 No, she can't. She can wait there. And you can't take your bag into the audition. Leave it with your friend.

A OK.

A 4:15. In the audition, with three judges. Really nervous!

J Amy...Jones? What's your song?

A One Day.

J We can't hear you. Is the microphone on?

A Sorry. Sorry. Can you hear me now?

J Yes, that's fine.

A My song's One Day.

J Can you start, please?

A Oh no! I can't remember the first line.

J Take your time.

A I'm OK now!

c 5.3 Tell Sts that they are going to hear Amy and two other contestants sing. They will then vote to see which of the three they want to win a place in the show.

Play the audio and pause it after each singer has finished. Ask Sts in pairs to give each singer a score out of ten.

5.3

Amy

Now ask Sts to vote (with a show of hands) for their favorite. Write the scores on the board.

d 5.4 Focus on the questions and play the audio.

Elicit what the judges said about each person and write it on the board.

Check answers, and see how many Sts agreed with the judges.

The judges think Amy is very good, Justin is terrible – he can't sing – and Naomi has a good voice, but doesn't have feeling. They want to see Amy on the show next week. Amy feels very happy.

5.4

J = judge, A = Amy

J1 Justin, Naomi, Amy, come and stand here. OK Amy. Very nervous at the beginning! But in the end, very good!

J2 Yes, a great performance. Well done.

J1 Justin. In a word... "terrible!"

J2 Justin, I'm sorry. You're good-looking, you move well, but you can't sing!

J1 Naomi. Uh...you're OK. You have a nice voice.

J2 Naomi, you have a good voice, but I can't hear the feeling.

J1 OK. Justin and Naomi – thank you very much, but no, thank you. Amy, congratulations! See you on the show next week.

A Fantastic! That's great. Thank you.

EXTRA SUPPORT If there's time, you could get Sts to listen again to 5.2 with the script on p.119, so they can see exactly what they understood / didn't understand. Translate / Explain any new words or phrases.

3 GRAMMAR can / can't

a Tell Sts to look at four sentences taken from Amy's story. Get them to match each one to its meaning and then to compare answers in pairs.

Check answers.

1 d 2 a 3 c 4 b

b Tell Sts to go to Grammar Bank 5A on p.132.

Grammar notes

Can is the first modal verb that Sts are introduced to.

Modal verbs, unlike normal verbs, do not add s in third person singular (he / she can, NOT he / she cans).

Questions are made by inverting the verb and subject, not with do / does, e.g., Can you come? NOT Do you can come?

Negatives are formed by adding n't (not), not with don't / doesn't, e.g., I can't swim NOT I don't can swim.

The usual form of a second verb after a modal verb is the base form. This can be hard to remember for many Sts who think they should use the infinitive (to be or not to be...), and adding to after can is a common error.

Although other languages may have an equivalent verb to can (= be possible / permitted), they probably do not use this same verb to also talk about ability (I can sing, I can play the piano), and would express this with an equivalent of know how to.

5.5 Focus on the example sentences and play the audio for Sts to listen and repeat. Then go through the rules with the class.

Now focus on the exercises for 5A on p.133. Sts do the exercises individually or in pairs.

Check answers, getting Sts to read the full sentences.

- a
- 1 can speak
  - 2 Can...help
  - 3 can't see
  - 4 Can...close
  - 5 Can...repeat
  - 6 can't park
  - 7 can't swim
  - 8 Can...use
- b
- 1 She can meet me after work.
  - 2 Can you open the door, please?
  - 3 My boyfriend can't ski.
  - 4 Can I use your car?
  - 5 You can't take photos here.

Tell Sts to go back to the main lesson 5A.

EXTRA SUPPORT If you think Sts need more practice, you may want to give them the Grammar photocopiable activity at this point.

4 PRONUNCIATION sentence stress

Pronunciation notes

There are two main pronunciation problems related to can / can't:

Can is usually unstressed = /kən/ in positive sentences like I can sing. Your Sts may find this difficult to hear and to say. If they stress can, the listener may think they are saying a negative sentence.

The negative can't is always stressed. Not stressing it can cause a communication problem (the listener may understand can, not can't). The pronunciation of this word varies among different groups of native English speakers. The standard pronunciation is /kænt/, but there are regional variations. The important thing for Sts is to make sure that they stress /kænt/ quite strongly.

- a 5.6 Focus on the conversations, which give examples of positive, negative, and question forms of can / can't. Remind Sts that the bigger words in the conversations are stressed, and the underlining shows stress within a word. Play the audio for Sts to listen to the three conversations.

5.6

See conversations in the Student Book on p.39

Now play the audio again, pausing after each sentence for Sts to try to copy the rhythm.

! If your own pronunciation of can / can't is different from what is on the audio, you may want to model the conversations yourself.

Get Sts to practice the conversations in pairs. Encourage them to stress the bigger words more strongly and say the other words more quickly and lightly.

- b 5.7 This exercise gives Sts practice in distinguishing between positive and negative can statements.

Focus on the instructions. Play the audio for Sts to hear the sentences. Elicit that can is unstressed and has a short sound, but can't is stressed and has a long sound.

5.7

See sentences in the Student Book on p.39

- c 5.8 Focus on the instructions. Play the audio at least twice.

Get Sts to compare with a partner, and then check answers by playing the audio again, stopping after each sentence, and asking Sts if it's positive or negative.

1 b 2 a 3 a 4 b 5 b 6 a

5.8

- 1 I can't sing.
- 2 She can dance very well.
- 3 He can cook.
- 4 I can't come to the meeting.
- 5 You can't park here.
- 6 I can drive.

EXTRA CHALLENGE As a follow-up, get Sts, in pairs, to write four can sentences each (two positive and two negative, in jumbled order). They take turns saying their sentences to each other as clearly as possible and decide if their partner has said a positive or negative sentence, e.g., A I can't cook. B Negative.

5 SPEAKING

- a Focus on the instructions and make sure Sts understand what they have to do. Point out what the numbers 1, 2, and 3 represent.

Focus on the title and elicit / explain the meaning of talent (= a natural ability to do something very well).

Read the introduction together and explain any vocabulary Sts might not know.

Put Sts in pairs and get them to interview each other. Remind them to mark their partner's answers in the questionnaire, not their own.

- b Now tell Sts to look at the answers their partner gave them and say what their talent is. Sts tell each other of any competitions or TV shows they can enter.

- c Put Sts in new pairs and tell them to look at their questionnaires and tell their new partner what they found out from their first partner.

Get some feedback from various pairs.

- G present continuous: be + verb + -ing
V noise: verbs and verb phrases: make a noise, etc.
P /ŋ/

Lesson plan

The first part of this lesson is based on an online forum about noisy family members and neighbors. Sts begin by learning new verbs and verb phrases and talk about noise problems in their families or with their neighbors. Then the present continuous (used for what is happening now or for temporary actions / situations) is presented through conversations between family members and noisy neighbors. Pronunciation focuses on the /ŋ/ sound, used in all present continuous endings, and Sts then do a “spot the differences” Speaking activity, where they practice the new grammar. The lesson ends with Sts listening to six conversations and guessing what the people are doing.

OPTIONAL LEAD-IN (BOOKS CLOSED)

Do something that makes a noise, e.g., put some music on very loudly, bang the desk, etc., and elicit / teach the word noise. Then elicit / teach the verb we use with noise, make a noise, and the adjective noisy.

Now elicit / teach the word neighbors (= people who live in the apartments / houses near you). Model and drill pronunciation /'neɪbəz/. Then give Sts in pairs a few minutes to think of three things noisy neighbors do.

Get feedback and write Sts' ideas on the board.

1 VOCABULARY & SPEAKING

noise: verbs and verb phrases

- a Books open. Focus on the instructions and, if you didn't do the Optional lead-in, teach / elicit the words neighbors and noisy. Model and drill pronunciation.

Now focus on the questions.

Get Sts to interview you first. Give as much (simple) information as you can to model the way you want Sts to answer the questions.

Sts interview each other in pairs or groups of three. Monitor and help with any new vocabulary they need.

Get some feedback about their family members and neighbors.

- b  5.9 Focus on the instructions and the forum, and give Sts a few minutes to read the kinds of noises that family members and noisy neighbors make. Get them to try to guess the meaning of the new verbs and verb phrases. Tell Sts they will hear eight sounds, each representing one of the problems, and they must write 1–8 as they hear them. Play the audio once the whole way through.

5.9

(sound effects of noisy neighbours / family)

- 1 couple next door arguing
- 2 neighbors' dog barking
- 3 baby in the next door apartment, crying
- 4 TV on very loud
- 5 next door noise of young children laughing/shouting and riding tricycles or some other rolly toy
- 6 people next door having noisy parties
- 7 learner practicing the piano
- 8 teenager playing loud music

Then play the audio again, pausing after each sound effect to elicit the answer. Make sure Sts understand the meaning of the new verbs and verb phrases. Model and drill pronunciation.

- 1 The couple next door argue a lot.
- 2 The neighbors' dog barks all day – and all night!
- 3 The baby in the apartment upstairs cries all the time.
- 4 The old people in the apartment next door have the TV on very loud – and their living room is next to my bedroom!
- 5 The people next door have young children who make a lot of noise.
- 6 The people next door often have noisy parties until 3:00 a.m.
- 7 My sister practices the piano for hours.
- 8 My son plays loud music in his room – awful music, too.

When you check My sister practices the piano for hours, elicit the names of some instruments that can be particularly irritating e.g., violin, drums (these will then be used later in the lesson). When you check My son plays loud music, elicit / explain that play here means putting on music on a device, e.g., a music system or tablet – he is not actually making the music himself.

- c Focus on the three questions and go through them. Get Sts to interview you first. Give as much (simple) information as you can to model the way you want Sts to answer the questions. Sts interview each other in pairs or groups of three. Monitor and help with any new vocabulary they need. Get some feedback.

2 GRAMMAR present continuous

a 5.10 Ask Sts to look at the picture of the houses and elicit ideas why Max and his mother are unhappy.

Tell Sts to cover the conversations in b with a piece of paper and listen to the audio.

Play the audio once and check answers.

Max is unhappy because he can't study. His family is making a lot of noise.

His mother is unhappy because of the noise from the neighbors' and their dog.

5.10

M = Max, L = Lucy, I = Isabel, P = Paul

1 M Hey, Lucy. I'm trying to study, and you're making too much noise.

L It isn't noise, it's Beethoven. I'm practicing – I have a school concert tomorrow. You can study downstairs.

M I can't, Jake's playing a video game.

L What about the kitchen?

M No, Mom's cooking dinner, and she's listening to the radio. It's impossible to work in this house!

2 I Paul! Come here.

P Yes, dear? What's the matter?

I What's happening next door? Why's their dog barking? I can't hear the radio.

P They're having a party in the yard.

I Not again! Can you go and talk to them?

P Yeah, OK. It's their second party in three weeks!

EXTRA SUPPORT Pause the audio after each conversation and elicit the problem.

b Now get Sts to uncover the conversations and focus on the verbs in the list. Give Sts a few minutes to read the conversations and the list.

EXTRA CHALLENGE Get Sts to fill in the blanks first and then listen and check their answers.

Then play the audio once or twice more for Sts to fill in the blanks.

Check answers.

EXTRA IDEA Get Sts, in pairs, to read the conversations out loud.

c 5.11 Focus on the question and elicit a few ideas.
Play the audio for Sts to listen and find out what happens.
Check the answer.

5.11

W Thanks. Would you like a drink?

P Actually, I want to talk to you about the noise.

W Sorry?

P The NOISE. It's very noisy.

W Yes. We're having a great time! Do you want a soda? Or a glass of iced tea?

P Oh, well, yes, OK. A soda, please.

W Here you are. Come and meet our friends. Hey, everyone, say hello to Paul. He's our neighbor.

All Hello, Paul.

P Hello.

W Do you want to dance, Paul?

d Ask Sts to read the two sentences and question, and complete them.

Check answers.

They're / are having a party next door.

Are they playing music?

No, they aren't playing music. They're talking.

e Ask Sts to read the rule and circle the correct option.

Check the answer. Elicit / Teach that we use this form of the verb (present continuous) for something that's happening now, at the moment of speaking. Give a few more examples, e.g., We're having class. I'm talking to you and you're listening.

f Tell Sts to go to Grammar Bank 5B on p.132.

Grammar notes

Sts don't usually find the form of the present continuous difficult (be + -ing form of the verb), but they may have problems using it correctly, especially if they do not have an equivalent form in their L1. A common mistake is to use the simple present, not present continuous, for things that are happening now / around now, or for temporary situations, e.g., Hello. What do you do here? I work at home this week.

The present continuous is contrasted with the simple present in the next lesson (5C).

The use of the present continuous to express future arrangements is presented in American English File Level 3.

Spelling rules for the -ing form

In the -ing form, remind Sts that verbs ending in y don't change the y for an i as they do in third person singular (e.g., study – studying NOT studing). Highlight also that there are a few exceptions to the rule about dropping the final e before adding -ing. These are be, and verbs ending in -ee, e.g., see and agree.

5.12 Focus on the example sentences and play the audio for Sts to listen and repeat. Then go through the rules with the class.

Now focus on the exercises for 5B on p.133. Sts do the exercises individually or in pairs.

Check answers, getting Sts to read the full sentences.

- a
- 1 What's she doing? She's crying.
  - 2 What are they doing? They're watching TV.
  - 3 What's he doing? He's playing basketball.
  - 4 What are they doing? They're singing.
  - 5 What's it doing? It's eating.
- b
- 1 'm staying
  - 2 are...doing
  - 3 'm looking for
  - 4 'm looking
  - 5 Are...living
  - 6 's...doing
  - 7 Is...studying
  - 8 's working
  - 9 isn't enjoying
  - 10 's looking for

Tell Sts to go back to the main lesson 5B.

EXTRA SUPPORT If you think Sts need more practice, you may want to give them the Grammar photocopiable activity at this point.

g 5.13 Focus on the task and example. Explain that if Sts don't know if it's a man or a woman, they should use Somebody. Point out that the first one (Somebody's cooking) has been done for them.

Now tell Sts to close their books and listen to eight sounds. They have to decide what they think is happening and write a sentence for each sound.

Play the audio once the whole way through for Sts just to listen. Then play it again, pausing after each sound effect, and give Sts, in pairs, time to write a sentence. Emphasize that they should write full sentences, not just the -ing form, e.g., It's raining.

Elicit answers, accepting all appropriate sentences. Get Sts to write their sentences on the board or to spell the verbs.

- 2 Somebody's sending messages / texting.
- 3 Somebody's taking a shower and singing.
- 4 It's raining.
- 5 Somebody's eating spaghetti.
- 6 Somebody's making a coffee.
- 7 Somebody's crying.
- 8 Somebody's doing the housework.

5.13
(sound effects of the following)

- 1 a person cooking
- 2 someone sending and receiving text messages
- 3 someone taking a shower and singing
- 4 heavy rain
- 5 someone eating pasta noisily
- 6 a coffee machine grinding, clunking, hot water pouring...
- 7 someone crying
- 8 sounds of vacuuming, dusting, wiping surfaces...

3 PRONUNCIATION & SPEAKING /ɪ/

a 5.14 Focus on the sound picture and elicit the word and sound (singer /ɪ/).

Now focus on the example words next to the sound picture, e.g., singing. Remind Sts that the pink letters are the same sound as the picture word.

Play the audio for Sts to listen to the sound and example words.

5.14

See sound and words in the Student Book on p.41

Now play the audio again for Sts to listen and repeat. Correct pronunciation and give further practice if necessary.

EXTRA SUPPORT If this sound is difficult for your Sts, it will help to show them the mouth position. You could model this yourself or use the the Sound Bank videos on the Teacher Resource Center.

b Focus on the instructions and the example.

Put Sts in pairs and tell them to look at the houses on pp.40–41 and ask and answer questions about the people.

c Put Sts in pairs, A and B, and tell them to go to Communication Spot the differences, A on p.105, B on p.110.

Go through the instructions with them carefully. Highlight that when we describe a picture, we use the present continuous for actions that are happening in the picture.

Sit A and B face-to-face if possible. A describes what is happening in apartments 1–4 and the yard on the left. B must say if there are any differences.

B now describes what is happening in apartments 5–8 and the yard on the right. A tells his / her partner if there are any differences.

When they have found all eight differences, tell them to compare pictures to see if they have correctly identified the differences.

Check by getting pairs to explain the differences, e.g.,

A In my picture, the woman in apartment 2 is painting the walls.

B In my picture, she's reading.

The yard on the left: In A two dogs are barking; in B there are no dogs.

Apartment 2: In A the woman is painting the wall; in B she is reading.

Apartment 3: In A the boy is playing the violin; in B he is playing the piano.

Apartment 4: In A the couple is watching TV; in B they are listening to the radio.

Apartment 6: In A the man is cooking; in B he is doing housework.

Apartment 7: In A the boy is listening to music; in B he is studying / doing his homework.

Apartment 8: In A the baby is crying; in B the baby is sleeping.

The yard on the right: In A the yard is empty; in B some people are having a party.

Tell Sts to go back to the main lesson 5B.

EXTRA IDEA For some personalization with the present continuous, write the names of five friends or family members on the board, e.g., MY MOTHER, DAVID (MY BROTHER), and explain who they are if necessary. Elicit from Sts the question What's (your mother) doing right now? and answer, e.g., I think she's (probably) having lunch. When Sts have asked about the other people, they do the same in pairs.

4 LISTENING figuring out a situation from context

a 5.15 Write WHAT'S THE WOMAN DOING? on the board and tell Sts that they need to listen to a conversation and answer this question.

Play the audio once the whole way through.

Check the answer.

EXTRA SUPPORT Read through the scripts and decide if you need to pre-teach any new vocabulary before Sts listen.

She's checking in at a hotel.

5.15

(script in Student Book on p.119)

- A Good afternoon. How can I help you?
B Hello. I have a reservation for two nights.
A Your name?
B Carter.
A Carter. Here we are. Can you sign here, please?...Here's your key card. You're in room 212, on the second floor.

b Tell Sts they will listen again and this time they must write down the words that helped them guess the answer.

Get Sts to compare with a partner, and then check answers.

reservation, two nights, sign here, key card, room 212, second floor

c 5.16 Tell Sts that they need to listen to five more conversations and say what the people are doing.

Play the audio once the whole way through. If necessary, play the audio again, pausing after each conversation to elicit the answer.

Check answers.

- 1 He's buying a coffee.
- 2 He's looking for his car keys.
- 3 They're waiting for a train.
- 4 She's taking a photo.
- 5 He's interviewing for a job. / She's interviewing a man for a job.

5.16

(script in Student Book on p.120)

- 1 A Can I help you?
B Yes, I'd like a latte, please.
A Regular or large?
B Large, please.
A To have here or to go?
B To have here.
A That's $3.40, please.
B Here you are. $3.40.
- 2 A Where are my car keys? I can't find them anywhere.
B I don't know. In your jacket pocket?
A No, they aren't there.
B How about on the hall table?
A No.
B Are you sure you don't have them?
A Absolutely sure.
B Look in the living room.
- 3 A Oh no, it's 20 minutes late.
B Is there a waiting room somewhere? It's really cold here on the platform.
A No, I don't think so.
B What time is it now?
A Six-fifteen. We can take the six-twenty, but it's a slow train.
B No, let's wait, then.
- 4 OK, come on everyone, out here. Stand together under the tree. OK! Are you ready? Carole, I can't see you. Can you stand next to Jim? OK, ready? Say cheese!
- 5 A ...So, Mr Bartlett, do you have any questions you'd like to ask?
B Uh, yes. On the website it says the hours are from 10:00 to 6:00. What about the weekends?
A The hours are 10:00 to 6:00 on the weekends too, but you get paid overtime on Sundays. Saturday counts as a normal day. But if you work on a Saturday, you have a weekday free. The contract says clearly five days a week, with possibilities of overtime.
B Oh, right.

d Tell Sts they will listen again and this time they must write down two words or phrases that helped them guess each answer.

Get Sts to compare with a partner, and then check answers.

Possible answers

- 1 latte, regular or large, here or to go, $3.40
- 2 Where are my car keys?, I can't find them, Look in the living room.
- 3 a waiting room, the platform, a slow train
- 4 stand together, Are you ready?, Say cheese!
- 5 the hours, overtime, work, the contract

EXTRA SUPPORT If there's time, you could get Sts to listen again with the scripts on pp.119–120, so they can see exactly what they understood / didn't understand. Translate / Explain any new words or phrases.

- G simple present or present continuous?
V the weather and seasons
P places in Chicago

Lesson plan

The main context of this lesson is Chicago – first its weather, and then some unusual tourist attractions. Many Sts who have not visited the US have the idea that Chicago is a windy city. Here they learn the real facts about its climate. Sts begin by learning basic vocabulary to talk about the weather, and listen to a travel guide describing typical Chicago weather. The Grammar (simple present or present continuous) is then presented through some messages between friends in different places around the world. Sts then read an online guide that recommends what to do in Chicago in different seasons. Pronunciation helps Sts pronounce and understand famous place names in Chicago, and the lesson finishes with writing, which deals with how to write posts about your vacation on a social networking site.

OPTIONAL LEAD-IN (BOOKS CLOSED)

Write CHICAGO on the board and teach / elicit the correct pronunciation (/tʃɪ'kɑɡoʊ/).

Tell Sts, in pairs, to write down three things they associate with Chicago, e.g., Wrigley Field, the Chicago Cubs, the Art Institute of Chicago, the Windy City, etc.

Write their suggestions on the board.

Ask Sts Have any of you visited Chicago? Which of these did you see? and get feedback.

1 VOCABULARY & LISTENING the weather and seasons

a Books open. Focus on the task and elicit / explain the meaning of weather forecast. Model and drill pronunciation. Check the meaning of temperature and model and drill pronunciation.

Give Sts time to answer the questions.

Check answers and elicit opinions in answer to Do you think it's typical weather for Chicago?

- 1 84 (degrees), 63 (degrees)
- 2 It's probably summer – it could be any month from May to September.
- 3 It's typical weather during this period. Chicago weather is very changeable.

b Tell Sts to go to Vocabulary Bank The weather and dates on p.159 and get them to do Part 1.

Vocabulary notes

Sts may find the question What's the weather like? confusing. Emphasize that the question means How is the weather?. In this question like is a preposition, not a verb. The weather in English is usually expressed by It's + adjective, e.g., It's windy. However with rain and snow, although the adjectives rainy and snowy exist, we use the verbs in the present continuous e.g., It's raining.

Focus on 1 The weather and the chart in a.

Get Sts to complete the chart individually or in pairs.

5.17 Now do b. Play the audio for Sts to listen and check.

Check answers.

5.17

The weather and the dates, 1 The weather

- 1 It's sunny.
- 2 It's hot.
- 3 It's cloudy.
- 4 It's raining.
- 5 It's windy.
- 6 It's foggy.
- 7 It's cold.
- 8 It's snowing.

Either use the audio to drill the pronunciation of the phrases, or model and drill them yourself. Give further practice of any words your Sts find difficult to pronounce.

Now focus on the Other adjectives for weather and Nouns and adjectives box and go through it with the class.

Now focus on c and get Sts, in pairs, to practice asking about the weather, using the pictures in the chart.

5.18 Focus on the pictures and words for the seasons in d and get Sts to match them.

Play the audio to check answers and drill pronunciation.

5.18

1 The weather

- 3 spring
- 1 summer
- 4 fall
- 2 winter

Finally, focus on Activation and elicit answers from the class.

Tell Sts to go back to the main lesson 5C.

EXTRA SUPPORT If you think Sts need more practice, you may want to give them the Vocabulary photocopiable activity at this point.

- c 5.19 Focus on the instructions. If you didn't do the Optional lead-in, ask Sts if they have been to Chicago, and if so, what the weather was like.
- Give Sts some time to read the five sentences.
- Elicit / Teach the word degrees (= a measurement of temperature), e.g., 78°F
- Play the audio once the whole way through for Sts to mark the sentences T (true) or F (false).
- Get Sts to compare their answers with a partner.
- Tell Sts they are going to listen to the travel guide again and this time they must correct the false sentences.
- Now play the audio again, pausing after each paragraph for Sts to correct the false ones. Play again if necessary.
- Check answers. Ask Sts if they were surprised by any of the information.

EXTRA SUPPORT Read through the script and decide if you need to pre-teach any new vocabulary before Sts listen.

- 1 T
- 2 T
- 3 F (It is often below freezing for weeks at a time in the winter.)
- 4 T
- 5 F (It's not always windy in Chicago.)

5.19

(script in Student Book on p. 120)

The best (or worst) thing about the weather in Chicago is that it's always changing. It can be very hot or very cold. In the summer, it's mostly sunny and sometimes cloudy, with temperatures of about 84 degrees. And of course, sometimes it rains.

In the winter, the temperature is usually between 29 and 14 degrees. It can be below freezing (32 degrees) for weeks at a time. Brrr! It snows about 38 inches a year.

In the spring and the fall, the weather is very changeable. You can have all four seasons in one week. It can be cold and snowing on Monday, cool and foggy on Tuesday, and warm and sunny on Wednesday. I always tell tourists to bring a winter coat, gloves, sunglasses, sandals, and an umbrella when they visit Chicago in the spring and the fall—that way they are prepared for any kind of weather!

But one thing that isn't always true about Chicago is the wind. Even though Chicago's nickname is "The Windy City," it's not always windy there. In fact, Boston, has more windy days a year than Chicago. Some people think Chicago's nickname is from politicians who talk too much!

EXTRA SUPPORT If there's time, you could get Sts to listen again with the script on p. 120, so they can see exactly what they understood / didn't understand. Translate / Explain any new words or phrases.

- d Get Sts, in pairs, to discuss the question, or do it as a whole-class activity.
- If Sts worked in pairs, elicit some answers from the class.

2 GRAMMAR simple present or present continuous?

- a Focus on the photos and messages. Tell Sts to read the messages and answer the questions.
- Check answers.

Tim is sad because he loves snow, but he lives in Miami and it never snows there.

Jane is sad because she is on vacation in Cancún, Mexico, but it's raining.

- b Tell Sts to read the messages again and focus on the highlighted verbs. In pairs, they should answer the two questions.
- Check answers.

We use the simple present to talk about things that are usually true.

We use the present continuous to talk about things that are happening now / at the moment.

EXTRA SUPPORT Draw two columns on the board, one for the simple present and the other the present continuous. Go through the messages with the class. After each highlighted verb, elicit whether it is the simple present or present continuous and write it in the correct column. Then ask Sts the two questions.

- c Tell Sts to go to Grammar Bank 5C on p. 132.

Grammar notes

There is a clear difference in use between the simple present and present continuous:

The simple present is used for habitual actions (things that are always true or that happen every day).

The present continuous is used for temporary actions, things happening now / at this moment, or around now.

The use of these two forms can cause problems either because Sts don't have the present continuous in their L1, or because English is "stricter" about using it when talking about now.

If you know your Sts' L1, contrast it with English to anticipate or correct errors.

Stative verbs, e.g., want, like, need, have (= possess), and know, are not usually used in the present continuous.

- 5.20 Focus on the example sentences and play the audio for Sts to listen and repeat. Then go through the rules and the information box with the class.

Focus on the What do you do? or What are you doing? box and go through it with the class.

Now focus on the exercises for 5C on p. 133. Sts do the exercises individually or in pairs.

Check answers, getting Sts to read the full sentences.

- a
- 1 He's playing
  - 2 Do your parents live, have
  - 3 do you go, needs
  - 4 is sleeping, doesn't usually sleep
- b
- 1 are...doing, 'm waiting
  - 2 Do...like, don't eat
  - 3 are having, have
  - 4 does...do, works

Tell Sts to go back to the main lesson 5C.

EXTRA SUPPORT If you think Sts need more practice, you may want to give them the Grammar photocopiable activity at this point.

- d Put Sts in pairs, A and B, and tell them to go to Communication What do you do? What are you doing now?, A on p.105, B on p.111.

Sit A and B face-to-face if possible. A asks B his / her questions and B answers. Stress that B needs to listen carefully as to which form A uses in the question, and to use this form in his / her answer.

When A has asked all his / her questions, they change roles.

Get some feedback from the class.

Tell Sts to go back to the main lesson 5C.

3 READING & SPEAKING finding specific information

- a Focus on the online guide and the photos, and if some of your Sts have been to Chicago, ask them if they recognize any of the places.

Focus on the task and make sure Sts understand what they have to do.

Now go through the Where can you...? questions. Elicit / Teach any vocabulary you think Sts might not know.

Set a time limit, e.g., five minutes, for Sts to read the guide to find the answers.

Get them to compare with a partner, and then check answers.

EXTRA SUPPORT Before Sts read the guide the first time, check whether you need to pre-teach any vocabulary.

1 CR 2 OAT 3 CR 4 AIC 5 CM 6 OAT 7 CM
8 AIC

- b Tell Sts to read the guide again and complete the nouns or noun phrases used with adjectives 1–7. Point out that the first one has been done for them (see text 1 about the Chicago Riverwalk).

Check answers.

2 place, cafés (text 2, text 4) 3 atmosphere (text 3)
4 places (text 3) 5 weather (text 3) 6 museums (text 4)
7 collections (text 4)

Help with any other new vocabulary. Model and drill the pronunciation of any tricky words.

- c In pairs, Sts discuss the questions. If you are from a different town than your Sts, you might want to tell them about your town first.

Get some feedback from various pairs.

4 PRONUNCIATION places in Chicago

- a  5.21 Focus on the instructions and the place names. Tell Sts that it can be very useful to be able to pronounce them correctly, for example if they want to ask for directions, get a taxi, or buy a bus or subway ticket. Play the audio for Sts just to listen.

5.21

See place names in the Student Book on p.43

Then play the audio again, pausing after each place to give Sts time to underline the stress.

Check answers, getting Sts to say the words out loud.

Highlight the pronunciation of Thalia /'θɔːliə/, Humboldt /'hʌmbɔːlt/ and Wrigley /'rɪɡli/.

Wrigley Field Millennium Park
the Magnificent Mile Adler Planetarium
Buckingham Fountain Navy Pier Thalia Hall
Humboldt Park Soldier Field Skydeck Chicago

- b Now play the audio again and get Sts to repeat the places. Ask Sts what they know about the places, and what you can see and do there.

- c Focus on the instructions and point out the questions each person asks. Make sure Sts understand them, e.g., Is it far?.

Put Sts in pairs and get them to role-play a short conversation with a partner.

Make sure they change roles.

Get a few pairs to perform in front of the class.

5 WRITING posting on social media

- a Focus on the questions and elicit the meaning of social media (= communication with people who share your interests, using a website or other service on the internet). Then elicit answers from the class (or get Sts to answer the question in pairs and then get feedback from the class). Elicit the names of websites that are popular in your Sts' country.

- b Tell Sts to go to Writing Posting on social media on p.115.

Focus on the instructions in a. Give Sts a few minutes to read posts 1–5 and match them to photos A–E.

Check answers.

1 E 2 B 3 C 4 D 5 A

Now focus on b and tell Sts to imagine that they are either in their country or in a different country. Point out that they must write four posts of about 30 words each.

Sts could do c in class or for homework. Remind them of the word count.

Focus on d and remind Sts to read through their writing and check it for mistakes before they hand it in.

Function buying clothes

Vocabulary clothes

Lesson plan

In this third Practical English lesson, Sts learn some basic clothes vocabulary and some key phrases for buying clothes in English. The story develops: Jenny spills Rob's coffee over his shirt, so he has to buy a new one. While he is looking for a new shirt, Jenny gets a call from somebody named Eddie. Rob comes out of the store and hears the end of her conversation, and wonders who Eddie is. When Jenny sees the shirt he has chosen, she insists he goes back to change it.

Alternatively, you could play the last scene of Episode 2.

1 VOCABULARY clothes

a Books open. Focus on the task and get Sts to match the words and photos.

Get Sts to compare with a partner.

b 5.22 Play the audio for Sts to listen and check. Check answers.

5.22

7 a jacket

5 a shirt

2 a T-shirt

6 a skirt

3 shoes

4 a sweater

8 pants

Focus Sts' attention on the phonetics next to each word. Now play the audio again, pausing after each word for Sts to repeat.

Ask Sts why they think it's a jacket, a shirt, a T-shirt, a skirt, a sweater (with article) but jeans, shoes, pants (no article), and elicit that it's because the latter are plural.

c Tell Sts to cover the words, look at the photos, and test each other in pairs.

2 MEETING ON THE STREET

a 5.23 Focus on the photos and elicit what is happening.

Focus on the question and then play the video / audio once the whole way through for Sts to see if their guesses were correct and to see what problem Rob has.

Check the answer.

Rob spills the coffee down his shirt.

5.23

R = Rob, J = Jenny

R Hey, Jenny!

J Oh, hi, Rob. Is that coffee for me?

R Yes. A double espresso.

J Oh wow, thanks. That's really nice of you.

R No problem. Do you have a meeting with Daniel?

J Yes, another meeting. And you?

R I'm going to the office, too. I have an interview in twenty minutes.

J Oh really? With who?

R A theater director.

J Sounds interesting.

R What time is your meeting with Daniel?

J At half past nine.

R Ugh!

J Oh no. Are you OK? I'm so sorry!

R I'm fine!

J I'm really sorry. You can't do an interview in that shirt.

R Don't worry, there's a clothes shop over there. I can buy a new one.

J OK. I can help you choose one. Oh, that's my phone. Sorry, I need to answer this. See you in there.

R OK.

b Focus on sentences 1–7 and give Sts time to read them and think about what the missing words might be.

Then play the video / audio again, pausing if necessary for Sts to fill in the blanks.

Get them to compare with a partner. Play the video / audio again if necessary.

Check answers.

1 double espresso 2 Daniel 3 20 4 thirty 5 shirt

EXTRA SUPPORT If there's time and you are using the video, you could get Sts to watch again with subtitles / showing the script, so they can see exactly what they understood / didn't understand. Translate / Explain any new words or phrases.

- c 5.24 Focus on the Apologizing box and go through it with the class. Elicit that I'm so sorry / I'm really sorry are stronger than I'm sorry. Point out that the three responses are interchangeable.
Play the video / audio once for Sts to watch or listen to the phrases.

5.24
See script in the Student Book on p.44

- Now play it again, pausing after each apology and response for Sts to repeat.
- d Put Sts in pairs. Get them to cover the box (or close their books). Tell them to pretend to knock each other's book or pen off the table, and then apologize.

3 BUYING CLOTHES

- a 5.25 Focus on the photo and ask Sts some questions, e.g., Where is Rob? Who is he talking to?, etc.
Now focus on the Saying prices and Sizes box and go through it with Sts.
Either tell Sts to close their books and write the three questions on the board, or get Sts to focus on the questions.
Play the video / audio once the whole way through and then check answers.

1 Medium 2 Yes, he does. 3 £44.99

5.25 5.26
S = shop assistant, R = Rob

- S Can I help you?
R Yes, what size is this shirt? (repeat)
S Let's see. It's a small. What size do you need?
R A medium. (repeat)
S This is a medium.
R Thanks. (repeat) Where can I try it on? (repeat)
S The changing rooms are over there.
R Thank you. (repeat)
S How is it?
R It's fine. (repeat) How much is it? (repeat)
S It's forty-four pounds ninety-nine.

- b Focus on the conversation in the chart. Elicit who says the You hear phrases (the salesperson) and who says the You say phrases (the customer, here Rob). These phrases will be useful for Sts if they want to buy clothes.
Give Sts a minute to read through the conversation and think what the missing words might be. Then play the video / audio again, and get Sts to fill in the blanks. Play again if necessary.
Get Sts to compare with a partner, and then check answers.

1 help 2 size 3 medium 4 rooms 5 How

Go through the conversation line by line with Sts, helping them with any words or expressions they don't understand. You may want to highlight the meaning of the phrasal verb try on.

- c 5.26 Now focus on the You say phrases and tell Sts they're going to hear the conversation again. They should repeat the You say phrases when they hear the beep. Encourage them to copy the rhythm and intonation.
Play the video / audio, pausing if necessary for Sts to repeat the phrases.

5.26
Same as script 5.25 with repeat pauses

- d Focus on the information box and make sure Sts understand it. The meaning of this / these (for things within reach) and that / those (for things out of our reach, or far away) is easier to demonstrate than it is to explain. They can be determiners (this book) or pronouns (What's this?).
Now put Sts in pairs, A and B. A is the salesperson. Get Sts to read the conversation aloud, and then change roles.
- e Focus on the photos of clothes at the bottom of the page. Elicit what they are and how much they are.
Tell Sts they are now going to do a roleplay. A is the salesperson and B the customer. A keeps his / her book open and B should quickly choose what he / she wants to buy (i.e., a T-shirt, a jacket, or jeans) before closing his / her book.
Ask some individual Bs What do you want to buy? and elicit their first sentences, e.g., What size is this T-shirt / jacket? or What size are these jeans?
Sts now role-play the conversation. Monitor and help.
Then get Sts to switch roles.
You could get a few pairs to perform in front of the class.

4 JENNY'S ON THE PHONE

- a 5.27 Focus on the photo and ask Sts What do you think of Rob's shirt?.
Focus on sentences 1–6 and give Sts time to read them. Then play the video / audio once the whole way through for Sts to mark the sentences T (true) or F (false). Play again if necessary.
Get Sts to compare with a partner, and then check answers. Make it clear that they don't need to correct the false sentences yet.

1 T 2 F 3 T 4 T 5 F 6 F

5.27

E = Eddie, J = Jenny, R = Rob

- E So, Jenny, what do you think of London?
 J I love it, Eddie! It's so cool!
 E What about the people in the office?
 J They're really nice. And they're very polite!
 E What are you doing right now? You aren't in the office. I can hear traffic.
 J Right now? I am standing outside a men's clothing store.
 E You're what?
 J I'm waiting for Rob...
 E Who's Rob? Do you have a new boyfriend already?
 J Don't be silly. He's just a guy from the office. He's buying a new shirt.
 E Wait a minute. So you're waiting for a guy named Rob outside a men's clothing store...?
 J Stop it. I don't have time to explain it all now. Oh, here he is now. I have to go.
 E OK. Have fun!
 J Bye Eddie. Love you.
 R So, what do you think?
 J You cannot be serious!
 R What's wrong? You don't like my new shirt?
 J No way! You can't wear that to an interview! Come on, let's go back into the store and change it.
 R OK.

- b Play the video / audio again, so Sts can watch or listen and correct the false sentences.
 Get Sts to compare with a partner, and then check answers.

- 2 F (She says "I love it!")
 5 F (He says "Do you have a new boyfriend already?")
 6 F (She says "You can't wear that...")

EXTRA SUPPORT If there's time and you are using the video, you could get Sts to watch again with subtitles / showing the script, so they can see exactly what they understood / didn't understand. Translate / Explain any new words or phrases.

- c Focus on the Social English phrases and go through them with the class.
 Then focus on the American and British English box about shop and store and times.
 In pairs, get Sts to decide who says the phrases.

- d 5.28 Play the video / audio for Sts to watch or listen to the seven phrases and check their answers to c.
 Check answers. If you know your Sts' L1, you could get them to translate the phrases.

- 1 J 2 J 3 E 4 J 5 E 6 R 7 J

5.28

See Social English phrases in the Student Book on p.45

Now play the video / audio again, pausing after each phrase, for Sts to watch or listen and repeat.

- e Focus on the instructions and make sure Sts understand what they have to do.
 Get Sts to compare with a partner, and then check answers.

- A 6 B 2 C 1 D 5 E 3 F 7 G 4

Now put Sts in pairs and get them to practice the conversations.

Finally, focus on the CAN YOU...? questions and ask Sts if they feel confident they can now do these things. If they feel that they need more practice, tell them to go to Online Practice to watch the episode again and practice the language.

- G object pronouns: me, you, him, etc.
V words in a story
P /aɪ/, /ɪ/, and /i/

Lesson plan

The goal of this lesson, apart from its grammar and lexical objectives, is to encourage Sts to begin reading, as this is a great way to consolidate and expand their knowledge of English. Sts are advised to read "Graded Readers" (easy to read books that have been simplified according to level). Sts first look at people's different reading habits and in Communication they talk about their own general reading habits. Then object pronouns (me, you, him, etc.) are presented through Part 1 of a traditional North African story. In the second part of the lesson, Sts read and listen to Part 2 of the story, and then listen to the last part, getting more practice with pronouns and possessive adjectives. This is followed by Vocabulary, where the focus is on learning words through reading. Sts then look at three sounds (/aɪ/, /ɪ/, and /i/) in Pronunciation, which will enable them to do the speaking better. Finally, Sts retell the story, each in the role of one of the two main characters.

OPTIONAL LEAD-IN (BOOKS CLOSED)

Write THINGS PEOPLE READ on the board and elicit words from the class, e.g., books, magazines, Kindles, iPads, websites, etc. Get Sts to spell the words and drill the pronunciation.

1 SPEAKING

- a Books open. Focus on the questions and make sure Sts understand on screen (= on a computer, laptop, tablet, etc.). First, answer the questions yourself, and then elicit answers from the class. You could get a show of hands to see if the majority prefer reading on paper or on screen.
- b Tell Sts to go to Communication Reading in English on p.105. Focus on the questions and make sure all the vocabulary is clear to Sts, e.g., subtitles (= words at the bottom of a movie or TV program that tell you what people are saying), etc. Set a time limit for Sts to interview each other. Get some feedback from various pairs.

Finally, focus on the Reading in English box and go through it with the class. Point out that many graded readers come with audio and some are available as e-books, so that they can listen and read at the same time to help them with understanding and pronunciation.

Tell Sts to go back to the main lesson 6A.

EXTRA IDEA If you have a school library, get Sts to take a book out and start reading. Put up a chart in your classroom, so that Sts can write down the name of the book they're reading, and you can keep track of how many they read. If your school doesn't have a library, you could create a class library by getting each student to buy one Graded Reader (either a Starter (A1) or Stage 1 (A2/B1)) – they are relatively inexpensive. They then exchange books with each other.

2 READING

- a  6.1 Sts are going to read and listen to a traditional story called The Glass Bottle.

Focus on questions 1–5 and highlight the pronunciation of the names (Hassan /hʌsən/ and Walid /wəlɪd/) and the meaning of valuable (= worth a lot of money).

Now focus on Part 1 and play the audio once the whole way through for Sts to read and listen to the story.

Then put Sts in pairs and give them some time to answer the questions.

Check answers.

EXTRA SUPPORT Before Sts read the story the first time, check whether you need to pre-teach any vocabulary, but not the words in b.

- 1 Hassan and Walid are brothers. They live in a small house in the desert.
- 2 They're very poor, and they don't have anything. Every day is the same.
- 3 Hassan works, but Walid doesn't.
- 4 She has a ring. She doesn't want to sell it because it was her husband's ring.
- 5 Because he wants to help his mother.

6.1

See Part 1 of The Glass Bottle in the Student Book on p.46

- b Now focus on the words in the list and get Sts to match them to the pictures.

Check answers and model and drill pronunciation.

- 1 a desert 2 mountains 3 a field 4 the sky

Help with any other new vocabulary. Model and drill the pronunciation of any tricky words.

- c Give Sts time to read Part 1 again.

Now get Sts to cover the text and either elicit from the class who and what they can see in the picture on this page, or get them to describe it in pairs and get feedback. Then tell Sts that they will find out the rest of the story later.

3 GRAMMAR object pronouns

a Focus on the highlighted words in Part 1 and the example. Explain that the highlighted words are object pronouns, and we use them (like subject pronouns he, she, etc.) because we don't want to repeat a name or a noun. Then give Sts a few minutes in pairs to write the relevant name or noun.

Check answers.

it = the ring
him = Hassan and Walid's father her = Hassan and Walid's mother

b Tell Sts to go to Grammar Bank 6A on p.134.

Grammar notes

Sts will be familiar with some examples of object pronouns in phrases like I love you or Excuse me.

The main problems they may have will be with word order and mixing up subject and object pronouns, e.g., I spoke to she.

You could point out that the object pronoun me is used instead of the subject pronoun I to answer the question Who?, e.g., A Who wants a cup of coffee? B Me! (NOT I).

④ 6.2 Focus on the example sentences and play the audio for Sts to listen and repeat. Then go through the rules with the class.

Focus on the Object pronouns after prepositions box and go through it with the class.

Now focus on the exercises for 6A on p.135. Sts do the exercises individually or in pairs.

Check answers, getting Sts to read the full sentences.

a 1 it 2 him 3 them 4 us 5 her 6 them
b 1 She, it, her, us 2 They, me, them, I 3 him, her, she, him
4 He, them, them, they, me 5 he, them, it

Tell Sts to go back to the main lesson 6A.

EXTRA SUPPORT If you think Sts need more practice, you may want to give them the Grammar photocopiable activity at this point.

c ④ 6.3 Focus on the example and tell Sts they are going to hear ten sentences and each time they must repeat the sentence changing the object (name, person, or thing) to a pronoun.

Play the audio, pausing after each sentence, and elicit a response from the whole class.

④ 6.3

- 1 I like Anna. (pause) I like her.
- 2 I know your husband. (pause) I know him.
- 3 Can you help Jane and me? (pause) Can you help us?
- 4 I want to speak to David and Sally. (pause) I want to speak to them.
- 5 I love this song. (pause) I love it.
- 6 I live near Catherine and Richard. (pause) I live near them.
- 7 Wait for my brother and me! (pause) Wait for us!
- 8 I don't like these shoes. (pause) I don't like them.
- 9 Do you work with Suzanna? (pause) Do you work with her?
- 10 I see Jack every day. (pause) I see him every day.

Now repeat the activity, eliciting responses from individual Sts.

EXTRA SUPPORT When you play the audio the first time, stop it after each pause. Elicit the object, e.g., in 1 Anna, then elicit the object pronoun, e.g. her, and finally elicit the whole sentence, e.g., I like her. Repeat with the other sentences. Then play the audio again for Sts to produce the sentences with object pronouns more quickly.

4 READING & LISTENING retelling a story

a ④ 6.4 Before Sts read and listen to Part 2, elicit the main details of Part 1 by asking them questions, e.g., What are the brothers' names? Where do they live? Are they rich?, etc. Now ask Sts what they think happens next and elicit ideas. Give Sts time to read questions 1–8, making sure they understand palace (= the official home of a king or queen) and plan (= something you have decided to do and how you are going to do it).

Now focus on Part 2 and play the audio once the whole way through for Sts to read and listen to the story.

Then put Sts in pairs and give them some time to answer the questions.

Check answers.

EXTRA SUPPORT Read through the scripts and decide if you need to pre-teach any new vocabulary before Sts listen.

- 1 He walks through the mountains.
- 2 The prince welcomes him and gives him food, drink, and a bed.
- 3 The windows have no glass.
- 4 His empty water bottle.
- 5 Because he doesn't know what glass is.
- 6 A box (with 100 gold coins).
- 7 Because now they can buy food and clothes.
- 8 Walid wants to give the prince his mother's ring, and get 1,000 gold coins.

④ 6.4

See Part 2 of The Glass Bottle in the Student Book on p.47

Help with any other new vocabulary. Model and drill the pronunciation of any tricky words.

EXTRA SUPPORT Go through the story line by line with Sts, eliciting guesses for the meaning of any vocabulary that they don't know.

b Before Sts read Part 2 again, go through the Pronouns and possessive adjectives box with the class.

Now tell Sts to re-read Part 2 and, in pairs, decide what or who the highlighted pronouns and possessive adjectives refer to. Point out that the first one has been done for them. Check answers.

- 2 Hassan 3 Hassan's 4 the glass bottle 5 the prince
- 6 the prince 7 the box 8 Hassan and Walid's 9 Hassan
- 10 Hassan, Walid, and their mother 11 Walid 12 his / their mother's c ④ 6.5 Do this as a whole-class activity and elicit ideas.

Play the audio for Sts to listen to Part 3 to find out what happens.

Check the answer.

Walid goes to the palace. He gives the prince the silver ring. The prince gives him a box, but when he gets home and opens it, inside is the glass bottle.

6.5

Part 3

Walid walks for five days through the mountains. The sun shines, and at night it's very cold. Then, one evening, he finds the palace. The prince welcomes him and gives him food and drink, and a comfortable bed. But Walid can't sleep. He's thinking about the one thousand gold coins.

The next morning he says to the prince, "I want to say thank you to you. Please have this silver ring. It's my mother's."

The prince is very happy. "This is a beautiful ring," he says. "Thank you. Let me give you something in return."

He gives Walid a box. "Don't open this until you get home," he says. "Be careful with it. It's very, very valuable."

Walid runs through the mountains, and after three days he arrives home.

"Where's my silver ring?" shouts his mother.

"Don't worry about your ring!" says Walid. "Look at this!"

Hassan and their mother watch as he opens the box. Inside he finds...the glass bottle.

EXTRA CHALLENGE You could ask Sts what they think the moral of the story is, and elicit some ideas.

Possible morals

Don't ask for more than you need.

Different things are important to different people.

Be happy when you have enough.

EXTRA SUPPORT If there's time, you could get Sts to listen again with the scripts in the main lesson and on p.120, so they can see exactly what they understood / didn't understand. Translate / Explain any new words or phrases.

5 VOCABULARY

 words in a story

a Focus on the task and make sure Sts understand the four column headings. Point out the two examples.
Give Sts time to put the words in the correct columns.

b 6.6 Play the audio for Sts to listen and check.
Check answers.

6.6

adjectives comfortable, strange, surprised, valuable verbs arrive, decide, leave, sell

nouns desert, mountain, palace, village

prepositions inside, into, through, towards

Either use the audio to drill the pronunciation of the words, or model and drill them yourself. Give further practice of any words your Sts find difficult to pronounce.

6 PRONUNCIATION

 /aɪ/, /ɪ/, and /i/

Pronunciation notes

This pronunciation exercise focuses on a small but significant difference between two similar but very common sounds /ɪ/, /i/ as well as /aɪ/, all of which occur in subject and object pronouns. Depending on their L1, Sts may find the difference between /ɪ/ and /i/ very difficult to hear and to produce. It is important to encourage beginning Sts when they do these kinds of pronunciation exercises. Reassure them that this difference is small and that with time and practice they will be able to differentiate and make these sounds.

a 6.7 Focus on the sound pictures and the words (bike, fish, and tree). Tell Sts that these sounds can seem quite similar, but one difference is that fish is a short sound and tree is a long sound, and bike is a diphthong (= has two vowel sounds).

Tell Sts to match each group of words to one of the sound pictures. Remind them that it is easier if they say the words aloud.

Play the audio for Sts to listen and check. Encourage Sts to see the sound-spelling relationship, i.e., that the fish sound here is always the letter i, usually between consonants; the tree sound here is always e, ee, or ea.

Check answers.

1 fish /ɪ/ 2 tree /i/ 3 bike /aɪ/

6.7

fish /ɪ/ him, it, his, ring, sit, kiss tree /i/ he, she, me, meet, read, leave bike /aɪ/ my, I, buy, sky, nice, high

EXTRA SUPPORT If these sounds are difficult for your Sts, it will help to show them the mouth position. You could model this yourself or use the Sound Bank videos on the Teacher Resource Center.

b 6.8 This exercise gives Sts practice in distinguishing between the sounds.

Play the audio for Sts just to listen.

6.8

See list of words in the Student Book on p.47

c 6.9 Focus on the instructions. Play the audio at least twice.

Get Sts to compare with a partner, and then check answers by playing the audio again, stopping after each pair of words.

1 b 2 b 3 a 4 a 5 b 6 a

6.9

1 his 2 my 3 it 4 leave 5 keys 6 we d Put Sts in pairs to practice saying sentences 1–5.

EXTRA SUPPORT Read each sentence and get Sts to listen and repeat. Then put Sts in pairs and get them to practice saying the sentences.

7 SPEAKING

Focus on the task and make sure Sts understand what they have to do.

Tell Sts to close their books and put them in pairs, A and B. Sts B role is harder, as Sts have only listened to this part of the story, rather than reading it. For this reason, it's a good idea for stronger Sts to take the B role.

Give Sts time to prepare their stories.

Sts A start. Monitor and help.

When Sts A have finished, Sts B should start telling their story.

- G like + (verb + -ing)
V the date, ordinal numbers
P /ð/ and /θ/, saying the date

Lesson plan

The main vocabulary focus in this lesson is how to say the date, and the lesson starts with Sts reviewing the months, and then learning ordinal numbers. This is followed by a Listening on identifying ordinal numbers. Sts then read an online forum where readers answer questions about their favorite month, day of the week, and time of the day. Sts then focus on the grammar, like, love, etc. + the -ing form, and talk about what free-time activities they like and dislike. The lesson ends with Sts interviewing each other about their favorite or least favorite month / day / week, and then writing about their own favorite times.

OPTIONAL LEAD-IN (BOOKS CLOSED)

Write the question WHAT'S THE DATE TODAY? on the board. Elicit / Teach the answer and write it on the board like this, e.g., April 6th, 2019. Elicit / Teach that th indicates an ordinal number (here sixth). Sts will practice this in more detail in Vocabulary. You may want to explain that the date can also be written April 6, 2019 (without th).

Draw a face and a speech bubble on the board and write in the bubble: The sixth of April twenty nineteen. Explain that this is the way the date is said in English. Highlight the use of the /ðə/ and of /əv/, and model and drill pronunciation.

1 VOCABULARY & PRONUNCIATION

the date, /ð/ and /θ/

- a Books open. Focus on the task and do it as a whole-class activity. If you have more than 12 Sts, go back to January with the 13th and start again. Give further practice of any months your Sts find difficult to pronounce.

EXTRA SUPPORT Write the first letter of each month on the board and elicit them from the whole class.

- b Tell Sts to go to Vocabulary Bank The weather and dates on p.159 and get them to do Part 2.

Vocabulary notes

Although the date can be said in two ways, e.g., April sixth or the sixth of April, we have focused on the former, which is more common, as it is easier for Sts just to learn one form.

Focus on 2 Ordinal numbers and the date and look at a which introduces ordinal numbers. Focus on the first four, and show Sts how the last two letters of the word (st, nd, rd, and th) are written after the numeral to make it an ordinal number.

Get Sts to complete the missing numbers and words, and then compare with a partner.

- 6.10 Now do b. Play the audio for Sts to listen and check.

Check answers.

1 Ordinal numbers and the date

first, second, third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh, eighth, ninth, tenth, eleventh, twelfth, thirteenth, fourteenth, twentieth, twenty-first, twenty-second, twenty-third, twenty-fourth, thirtieth, thirty-first

Now either use the audio to drill the pronunciation of the numbers, or model and drill them yourself. Give further practice of any numbers your Sts find difficult to pronounce. When Sts go back to the main lesson, there will be further practice of the more tricky ordinal numbers.

In c Sts focus on the way dates are written and spoken. Focus on the Writing and saying the date box and go through the We write and We say section. Highlight that the words the and of are said, but not written.

Then go through the Prepositions with years, months, and dates section and stress that we use in followed by a year or a month and on followed by a day of the week or a date.

Finally, go through the Saying years section.

Vocabulary notes

Highlight to Sts that the years between 2000 and 2009 have to be said two thousand and (three)... and from 2010 onwards, it's also common to say twenty (nineteen).

Now focus on Activation and get Sts to tell you what the date is today and tomorrow.

Tell Sts to go back to the main lesson 6B.

EXTRA SUPPORT If you think Sts need more practice, you may want to give them the Vocabulary photocopyable activity at this point.

Pronunciation notes

/ð/ and /θ/

Sts should be aware by now of the small difference between these two sounds as they occur in so many common words. Here they get some extra practice to help them to hear the difference and produce the two sounds.

c  6.11 Focus on the two sound pictures, mother /ð/ and thumb /θ/.

Play the audio for Sts just to listen to the two sounds and example words.

6.11

See sounds and words in the Student Book on p.48

Encourage Sts to try to approximate the th sound as far as possible and to hear the difference between the voiced sound /ð/ and the unvoiced sound /θ/ although they may find this quite difficult. Now play the audio again for Sts to listen and repeat.

EXTRA SUPPORT If these sounds are difficult for your Sts, it will help to show them the mouth position. You could model this yourself or use the Sound Bank videos on the Teacher Resource Center.

d  6.12 Before playing the audio, focus on the Ordinal numbers box and go through it with the class.

Now play the audio, pausing after each ordinal number for Sts to listen and repeat.

6.12

See ordinal numbers in the Student Book on p.48

Then give Sts a few minutes to practice saying the ordinal numbers on their own.

e  6.13 Give Sts a few minutes in pairs to try saying the dates.

Play the audio for Sts to listen and check.

6.13

March first or the first of March   November second or the second of November   May third or the third of May   June fourth or the fourth of June   January fifth or the fifth of January   July sixth or the sixth of July   September twelfth or the twelfth of September   October seventeenth or the seventeenth of October   August twentieth or the twentieth of August   February twenty-third or the twenty-third of February   April twenty-eighth or the twenty-eighth of April   December thirty-first or the thirty-first of December

EXTRA CHALLENGE First, elicit the answers from the class and then play the audio for Sts to listen and check.

f Now play the audio again for Sts to listen and repeat each date. Make sure they copy the rhythm and stress the ordinal number and month.

EXTRA IDEA Get Sts to mingle and ask When's your birthday?. They did this in 4C with months, but not saying the actual date. Get feedback by asking if anyone found someone with exactly or nearly the same birthday.

g Do these questions as a whole-class activity if Sts are from the same place. If they are from different countries, do it in pairs and get feedback.

2 LISTENING making connections

a  6.14 Tell Sts that they are going to listen to five conversations and they need to circle the ordinal number they hear.

EXTRA SUPPORT Elicit all the ordinal numbers in the chart before Sts listen.

Play the audio, pausing after each conversation to give Sts time to circle their answer.

Check answers.

EXTRA SUPPORT Read through the script and decide if you need to pre-teach any new vocabulary before Sts listen.

1 21st   2 30th   3 5th   4 53rd   5 6th

6.14

(script in Student Book on p.120)

- 1 A Hi, Kim. Listen, do you want come to the theater this Saturday?
B Saturday? I can't – it's my brother's 21st birthday! We're having a big party at my parents' house.
A Oh, that sounds great! Have a wonderful time – and say "Happy Birthday" from me!
- 2 A Are you in the office next week?
B No, I'm on vacation.
A Where are you going?
B Australia!
A Lucky you! When do you get back?
B On the thirtieth.
A Wow! That's a long vacation.
B Yeah, three weeks! I can't wait.
- 3 A You drink a lot of coffee!
B Yes, this is my fifth this morning.
A It's not good for you, you know.
B I know, but I can't wake up without it.
- 4 A Where's the restaurant?
B It's not far. It's on the corner of Park Avenue and 53rd.
A Great. See you there at 7:30.
- 5 A Good morning. I'm here to see Maria Diaz. My name's Brian Sanders.
B Just a moment, sir, I'll call her... Hi, Maria. There's a Mr. Sanders here to see you...OK, sir. Could you sign in here? Great. You can go right up. She's on the sixth floor. The elevators are over there.
A Thank you.

b Now tell Sts they are going to listen to each conversation again and this time they need to match the ordinal number they hear to one of the things in the list. Play the audio again, pausing after each conversation. Get Sts to compare with a partner, and then check answers.

- 1 21st: a birthday   2 30th: a date   3 5th: a drink   4 53rd: a street
5 6th: a floor

3 READING

a Focus on the first part of the text – the introduction on the forum. Elicit / Teach the meaning of the happiest and the most depressing. If you are teaching in the southern hemisphere, highlight that the psychologist is talking about the US, where the months referred to (January and June) fall in different seasons.

Set a time limit for Sts to read the introduction and answer the two questions.

Get Sts to compare with a partner, and then check answers. (Sts will focus on superlatives in 10A; this is just a preview). Then get Sts to tell you the reasons for this.

EXTRA SUPPORT Before Sts read the article, check whether you need to pre-teach any vocabulary, but not the adjectives in c.

The second Friday in July is the happiest day of the year. This is because it's summer, it's warm, the evenings are light, and it's the day before a weekend.

The third Monday in January is the most depressing day of the year. The reasons are because it's winter, the weather is gray and cold, the days are dark, and Monday is the first day of the working week.

Ask Sts if they think these dates / times might also be the most depressing / happiest in their country, and if not, which are (they will almost certainly not be the same dates for people who live in the southern hemisphere).

b Now focus on the comments. Elicit / Explain that the happy face emojis go with comments about people's favorite months, days, and times, and the sad face ones with people's least favorite.

Focus on the months, days, and times in the list, and give Sts time to complete the comments with them.

Get Sts to compare with a partner, and then check answers.

- 1 June   2 December   3 October   4 February   5 Monday
6 Saturday   7 Sunday   8 Friday   9 9:00 a.m.   10 7:45 p.m.
11 6:30 a.m.   12 5:30 p.m.

EXTRA SUPPORT Before Sts start, elicit from the class the answer to the first one.

c Tell Sts to look at the highlighted adjectives, and in pairs use the context to figure out if they are positive or negative.

Positive light, fun, festive, favorite

Negative sad, cold, least favorite, tired, dirty

Check that Sts understand depressing (= makes you feel very unhappy) and festive (= typical of a special event or celebration).

Help with any other new vocabulary. Model and drill the pronunciation of any tricky words.

4 GRAMMAR like + (verb + -ing)

a Focus on the faces and the five verb phrases. Give Sts a minute to complete the chart in pairs.

Check answers by quickly drawing each emoticon on the board and eliciting the phrases. Explain that don't mind is a "neutral" answer, e.g., I don't mind cooking = I don't especially like cooking, but it isn't a problem for me.

	I love
	I like
	I don't mind
	I don't like
	I hate

b Tell Sts to complete sentences 1–5 from the forum comments.

Check answers.

- 1 celebrating   2 sitting   3 working   4 thinking   5 getting

Now read the question together and elicit the answer.

The form of a verb after love, like, etc. is the -ing form, the same form that is used after be in the present continuous.

c Tell Sts to go to Grammar Bank 6B on p.134.

Grammar notes

like + (verb + -ing)

When another verb follows love, like, don't mind, don't like, and hate, the -ing form is usually used, e.g., buying, going, not the base form, e.g., NOT Have buy clothes.

The infinitive is also possible after like, love, and hate in certain circumstances, but it may be confusing for Sts and it's probably best to avoid it at this stage.

Sts may find it strange that in English we use the same verb to say I love you and I love shopping (or I hate him and I hate getting up early). Highlight that love and hate are used for strong likes and dislikes, not just for emotional feelings for people.

Spelling rules

Sts focused on these when they learned the present continuous in 5B and 5C, but it is worth reminding them, e.g., that verbs ending in y don't change the y for an i as they do in the third person singular (e.g., study – studying NOT studing), and about the double consonant in, e.g., swimming.

6.15 Focus on the example sentences and play the audio for Sts to listen and repeat. Then go through the rules with the class.

Now focus on the exercises for 6B on p.135. Sts do a individually or in pairs.

Check answers. When you check the -ing forms also check that Sts remember the meaning of the verbs.

a

verb + -ing	verb ending in e	double consonant cooking	dancing	getting eating	having	running
sleeping	writing	stopping
studying		swimming

Sts now do b. Remind them that they have to add -ing to the verbs, e.g., working, to make the sentences.

Check answers, getting Sts to read the full sentences.

b

- 1 He loves going to the movies.
- 2 He likes taking the dog for a walk.
- 3 He likes listening to music.
- 4 He doesn't mind doing housework.
- 5 He doesn't mind working in an office.
- 6 He doesn't like watching soccer on TV.
- 7 He doesn't like reading novels.
- 8 He hates having lunch with his parents.
- 9 He hates wearing a tie.

Tell Sts to go back to the main lesson 6B.

EXTRA SUPPORT If you think Sts need more practice, you may want to give them the Grammar photocopiable activity at this point.

d Focus on the task and make sure Sts understand all the verb phrases.

Put Sts in pairs and get them to tell each other what they love, like, etc.

EXTRA SUPPORT Draw the smiley faces from 4a on the board and elicit the verbs, love, like, etc. Give Sts time to write a few sentences before putting them in pairs to tell their partner about themselves.

Find out if any pairs felt the same about some of the verb phrases.

5 SPEAKING & WRITING

a Focus on the questions and point out the example.

Now give Sts time to think about their answers.

Put Sts in pairs and get them to interview each other.

Monitor and help while Sts are interviewing each other. Make sure they change roles.

Then get Sts to discuss in their pairs if they are similar or different.

Finally, get some feedback from various pairs.

b Using their answers in a, Sts now write their own positive comments (beginning "My favorite...") and negative comments (beginning "My least favorite...") for each of the three sections of the forum.

If you want Sts to add photos and drawings, you might like to assign the task as homework.

- G review: be or do?
V music
P /y/, giving opinions

Lesson plan

This lesson, the last of the first half of the book, uses the topic of music to review the uses of be and do. First, Sts focus on the vocabulary of musical instruments and musicians. Sts then interview each other with a music questionnaire to find out about their partner's musical tastes and habits. After reviewing the grammar, there is a pronunciation focus on the /y/ sound, including the "hidden" /y/, e.g., in music, and Sts also look at the stress on words when giving opinions. Sts then listen to a program about a street performer in London. The lesson finishes with a visit to the Writing section to learn how to write an informal email.

OPTIONAL LEAD-IN (BOOKS CLOSED)

Write on the board the names of some musicians who are popular in your Sts' country. Then elicit the musical instrument they play and write it next to each name.

1 VOCABULARY music

- a Books open. Focus on the list of musical instruments. Tell Sts to first match the word to the photo and then write the word next to the correct number in the instruments column. Point out that the first one (accordion) has been done for them.

! Don't ask Sts if they play a musical instrument yet as they will be doing this later in the lesson.

- b 6.16 Play the audio for Sts to listen and check.
Check answers. Give further practice of words your Sts find difficult to pronounce.

6.16

1 accordion 2 bass 3 violin 4 guitar 5 piano
6 drums 7 keyboard 8 trumpet 9 saxophone

EXTRA SUPPORT Write the words on the board for the next activity.

- c 6.17 Play the audio for Sts to listen and complete the musicians column.

EXTRA CHALLENGE Get Sts to guess the words for musicians before they listen. Then play the audio for them to listen and check.

Check answers, eliciting the words onto the board. Elicit from Sts how the words for musicians are formed (we usually add -ist to a musical instrument to make the musician, e.g., violin > violinist; we sometimes add -er, e.g., drum > drummer; with a few instruments we say instrument + player, e.g., keyboard > keyboard player).

6.17

- 1 accordion – accordionist
- 2 bass – bass player
- 3 violin – violinist
- 4 guitar – guitarist
- 5 piano – pianist
- 6 drums – drummer
- 7 keyboard – keyboard player
- 8 trumpet – trumpeter
- 9 saxophone – saxophonist

EXTRA SUPPORT Leave the words on the board for the next activity.

- d Play the audio again and tell Sts to underline the stressed syllables in the words for musicians.

Check answers, by underlining the stress in the words on the board. Give further practice of words your Sts find difficult to pronounce.

Now get Sts to compare the words in both columns and ask them when the stress is different.

piano / pianist have different stress.

- e 6.18 Tell Sts they are going to hear nine short pieces of instrumental music and they must say the name of the instrument being played and the musician. Get them to cover the chart or close their books.

Play the audio, pausing after each extract to elicit the words.

- 1 piano – pianist 2 saxophone – saxophonist 3 accordion – accordionist 4 drums – drummer 5 keyboard – keyboard player 6 bass – bass player 7 violin – violinist 8 trumpet – trumpeter 9 guitar – guitarist

6.18

(sound effects of musical instruments)

- 1 classical piano
- 2 jazz saxophone
- 3 an accordion
- 4 drums in a rock band
- 5 electric keyboard
- 6 electric bass guitar
- 7 classical violin
- 8 classical trumpet
- 9 acoustic not classical guitar

f Do this as a whole-class activity. You could demonstrate the activity by telling the class if you play an instrument and how well you play it.

2 GRAMMAR review: be or do?

a Get Sts to read the five sentences and circle the correct options.

Get Sts to compare with a partner, and then check answers.

- 1 do you 2 I don't 3 isn't 4 Do you 5 is

b Tell Sts to go to Grammar Bank 6C on p.134.

Grammar notes

In this first half of the book, Sts have learned to use the verb be, the simple present, and the present continuous. For many Sts, the use of do and does in questions and negatives in the simple present takes some getting used to, and as a result there is sometimes a tendency to overuse them. Sts sometimes forget that be, both as a main verb and as an auxiliary, does not form questions and negatives in the same way, but simply by inverting the subject and verb or adding not.

Focus on the example sentences and play both audio 6.19 and 6.20 for Sts to listen and repeat. Then go through the rules with the class.

Now focus on the exercises for 6C on p.135. Sts do the exercises individually or in pairs.

Check answers, getting Sts to read the full sentences.

a

Are you...?	Do you...?
hungry	have a car
listening to me	know those people stressed	like classical music
tired	live downtown waiting for a friend	speak Russian

b

- 1 's, 's 2 Do, don't 3 Does, doesn't 4 are, 'm 5 Does, 's
6 Are, 're 7 is, doesn't 8 Are, 'm

Tell Sts to go back to the main lesson 6C.

EXTRA SUPPORT If you think Sts need more practice, you may want to give them the Grammar photocopiable activity at this point.

c 6.21 Focus on the instructions and the examples in the speech bubbles. Explain to Sts that they are going to hear a sentence and they must turn it into a question. Play the audio, pausing after each sentence, and elicit a response from the whole class.

6.21

- 1 She's American. (pause) Is she American?
- 2 He plays the piano. (pause) Does he play the piano?
- 3 You like music. (pause) Do you like music?
- 4 Anna's taking a shower. (pause) Is Anna taking a shower?
- 5 You're tired. (pause) Are you tired?
- 6 She lives near here. (pause) Does she live near here?
- 7 I'm late. (pause) Am I late?
- 8 The train arrives at six o'clock. (pause) Does the train arrive at six o'clock?

Now repeat the activity, eliciting responses from individual Sts.

3 SPEAKING

Focus on the My music questionnaire and go through it with Sts, making sure they know the different types of music in 1. You might want to elicit / explain the meaning of a concert (= a public performance of music). Model and drill pronunciation, /'kɒnsərt/. Make sure Sts understand and can pronounce download /'daʊnləʊd/ and lyrics /'lɪrɪks/.

Monitor and help with vocabulary while Sts think about their answers.

Now put Sts in pairs and get them to interview each other. Encourage them to ask for and give more information where possible. You could demonstrate by asking individual Sts some of the questions.

Monitor and correct.

When time is up, focus on the question Do you have similar musical tastes and habits? and elicit some answers.

4 PRONUNCIATION /y/, giving opinions

Pronunciation notes

/y/

y at the beginning of a word is always pronounced /y/, e.g., yes.

Some words containing u or ew also have a "hidden" /y/ sound, e.g., music, few, January, etc.

Giving opinions

When we give our opinion, we give extra stress to the "opinion" word, e.g., He's fantastic.

- a 6.22 Play the audio for Sts just to listen to the two sounds and example words.

6.22

See sounds and words in the Student Book on p.51

Focus on the Hidden /y/ sound box and go through it with the class.

Now play the audio again for Sts to listen and repeat.

EXTRA SUPPORT If these sounds are difficult for your Sts, it will help to show them the mouth position. You could model this yourself or use the Sound Bank videos on the Teacher Resource Center.

- b 6.23 Focus on the task. Point out that Sts will hear phrases and not sentences.
Play the audio, pausing after each phrase to give Sts time to write it down.
Check answers.

6.23

- 1 a yellow uniform
- 2 a young musician
- 3 you look beautiful
- 4 your yoga teacher
- 5 January of next year

In pairs, get Sts to practice saying the phrases.

- c 6.24 Focus on the sentences and remind Sts that the words in bigger font are stressed and the underlining shows the extra stress. Point out that the words in blue here are the “opinion” words and that we give them extra stress.
Play the audio once for Sts just to listen to the sentences and rhythm.

6.24

See sentences in the Student Book on p.51

Now play the audio again, pausing after each sentence for Sts to listen and repeat.

In pairs, get Sts to practice saying the sentences.

- d Focus on the instructions and give Sts time to write the names of two male musicians, two female, and two bands – one that they love and one that they hate.
Tell Sts they are going to ask their partner’s opinion of the musicians and bands they have written down. Model and drill the question What do you think of...?
Demonstrate the activity by asking Sts their opinion of a male musician, a female musician, and a band that you either love or hate, and elicit responses. Remind Sts that they will need to use an object pronoun in their answer after the verb (e.g., I like him, her, or them.) or a subject pronoun after I think (e.g., I think he’s / she’s / they’re great.).
Put Sts in pairs and get them to ask and answer the questions. Encourage them to add sentences like those in c to give their opinions and to ask for and give more information where possible. Monitor, checking Sts are using the right pronouns and adding extra stress correctly. Find out from various pairs if they have the same taste in music.

5 VIDEO LISTENING understanding specific information

- a Read the definition of street performer/busker together and model and drill pronunciation.

Now do the questions as a whole-class activity.

- b Now tell Sts they are going to watch a documentary about busking in London, and about a professional street performer called Charlotte Campbell.

Focus on the question and play the video for Sts to watch or listen.

Get Sts to compare with a partner, and then check the answer.

EXTRA SUPPORT Read through the script and decide if you need to pre-teach any new vocabulary before Sts watch. You may want to check that Sts know what Waterloo (= a major London train station) and the London Eye are (= a popular tourist attraction on the South Bank).

Yes, Charlotte likes her job.

A London busker

This is Charlotte Campbell. She’s 25 and she’s a street performer, also known as a busker. Charlotte plays the guitar and sings on the South Bank in London. Today, she’s busking near the London Eye.

“On a typical day when I’m going busking, I get the train to Waterloo and I walk to the London Eye. I start at about eleven o’clock and I play until one. Then I take a lunch break. And sometimes I stay until six or seven p.m., but in the winter when it gets dark, I go home a little earlier.”

You can find buskers everywhere – on the streets, in shopping malls, outside restaurants, and in the parks of most big cities. In some cities, you can also listen to music while you’re on the subway. Buskers play or sing all kinds of different music – opera, jazz, pop, and folk.

“I like music that’s on the radio, Ed Sheeran and things like that, and some older music from the 60s, like the Beatles.”

But busking isn’t always easy. Most big cities are busy and there are lots of buskers, which means you can’t just play music wherever you like.

“You need to get a permit to busk in London, and pass an audition, but when you do, there’s a really nice community and busking in London becomes easy.”

So buskers like Charlotte have to choose an area in the city to sing and play in. They share this area with other buskers and sometimes they have to wait for the other buskers to finish.

Charlotte lives in Brixton, in South London. In her apartment, she writes her own songs and practices.

“I love writing songs. I love writing my own music.”

For Charlotte, there are good and bad things about life as a busker. “I like meeting new people and sharing” my music with a new audience. “I don’t like it when it gets cold.”

EXTRA IDEA Ask Sts what musicians apart from Charlotte they saw busking.

Two saxophonists, a drummer, folk musicians, and an opera singer

- c Focus on 1–6 and go through them with Sts.
Now play the video again for Sts to mark the sentences T (true) or F (false).
Get Sts to compare with a partner, and then check answers.

- 1 F (She takes a lunch break at 1:00, and she sometimes plays until 6:00 or 7:00 p.m.)
- 2 F (Buskers play all kinds of different music – opera, jazz, pop, and folk.)
- 3 T
- 4 T
- 5 F (She writes her own songs.)
- 6 T

Elicit why the F sentences are false.

EXTRA SUPPORT If there's time, you could get Sts to watch again with subtitles / showing the script, so they can see exactly what they understood / didn't understand. Translate / Explain any new words or phrases.

- d Finally, focus on the questions and do them as a whole-class activity.

EXTRA IDEA When Charlotte sings her song Streets of London at the end of the video, you could get Sts to write down some of the lyrics as they listen:

Ba-baa, ba-baa, there's music on the streets of London
Ba-baa, ba-baa, there's music in my heart
Ba-baa, ba-baa, there's music on the streets of London
That's where we are, that's where we are.

Ah-hoo, yeah I get lonely
Ah-hoo, yeah I get cold
Ah-hoo, I get tired, oh so tired
But I'll never sell my soul.

Ah-hoo, from Piccadilly
Ah-hoo, to Leicester Square
Oh I gave my heart to London
And you'll always find me there.

6 WRITING an informal email

Here Sts consolidate the language they have learned so far through writing about themselves, and learn the conventions for writing an informal email. Sts will learn how to write a more formal email in 10B.

Tell Sts to go to Writing An informal email on p.115.

- a Focus on the title and elicit / explain the meaning of informal (= friendly). Elicit / Teach the opposite formal and explain that this is more serious, e.g., a business letter / email.

Focus on the information box at the bottom of the page and make sure Sts understand the meaning of pen pal.

Then focus on the beginning of the email. Elicit / Teach the meaning of the headings From, To, and Subject.

Give Sts time to read the email. Tell them not to worry about the spelling mistakes.

Elicit who Sts think Stefan is.

Stefan is Carmen's pen pal. She is writing to him to practice her English.

- b Tell Sts to cover the email or close their books and elicit the information Carmen gives about herself in each paragraph.
Check answers.

Personal information: She's 19. She's from Mendoza in Argentina. She's a receptionist at a hotel. She's studying English for her job.

Family: She lives with her parents and her brother and sister. Her father is an architect and her mother works in a clothing store. Her brother and sister are at school.

Free time: She doesn't have much free time. She usually goes shopping on her day off. In the evening, she likes seeing friends or listening to music.

- c Individually or in pairs, Sts correct the six spelling mistakes.
Check answers, by eliciting the words onto the board.

1 studying 2 because 3 architect 4 usually 5 shopping
6 friends

- d Focus on the instructions and go through the Informal emails box with the class. Tell Sts that you can also begin an email with Dear, but Hi is more informal. Contractions are common in informal language. Finally, focus on the end of the email. Elicit / Teach the meaning of Please write soon and Best wishes, and tell Sts they are useful expressions to put at the end of an email to a friend.
Sts now make notes for their own email.

- e Using their notes from d, Sts now write their email. Either give Sts at least 15 minutes to write the email in class, or assign it for homework.

! Tell Sts to organize their email in paragraphs like in the model email.

- f If Sts do the writing in class, give them time to check their emails for mistakes. They could then exchange them with a partner and read each other's emails, before you collect them.

EXTRA IDEA If you know any good websites for Sts to find their own pen pals, now would be an ideal time to tell Sts about them.

For instructions on how to use these pages see p.39.

- G simple past of be: was / were
V word formation: write > writer
P sentence stress

Lesson plan

This lesson uses the context of self-portraits and selfies to introduce and practice the simple past of the verb be (was / were). The Grammar is presented through an audio guide talking about Vincent van Gogh. Pronunciation gets Sts to focus on sentence stress in simple past sentences and questions with was and were. The Reading picks up the topic of self-portraits of famous people and then moves onto word formation, e.g., music – musician. In Speaking, Sts discuss whether or not they take selfies, and talk about selfies and photos on their phones.

OPTIONAL LEAD-IN (BOOKS CLOSED)

Start to draw a picture of yourself on the board. Ask Sts who they think it is, and keep adding details until they realize that it's you. Teach the word self-portrait and ask Sts if they think it looks like you.

1 GRAMMAR simple past of be

- a Books open. Focus on the title and elicit / teach the meaning of selfie (= a photo that you take of yourself). Ask Sts if they like taking selfies to elicit yes / no answers. Sts will be discussing this in more detail in Speaking.
 If you haven't done the Optional lead-in, elicit / teach the meaning of portrait (= a painting of a person). Model and drill pronunciation /'pɔ:trət/. Now elicit the meaning of self-portrait.
 Now focus on the portrait and the three questions. Put Sts in pairs to discuss them.
 Elicit some ideas, but don't tell Sts if they are right or not.
- b 7.1 Play the audio for Sts to listen and check. Tell Sts to just listen for the answers to questions 1 and 2 in a.
 Check answers. Elicit opinions for question 3. You could tell Sts what you think of his paintings.

1 Vincent van Gogh 2 He is 35 years old.

7.1

(script in Student Book on p.120)

This painting is a self-portrait by the Dutch painter Vincent van Gogh.

Van Gogh was born in the Netherlands on March 30th, 1853. His parents weren't poor – his father was a church minister, and his mother was an artist. Van Gogh's first job was in his uncle's company, selling paintings, but later he was a teacher, and finally a painter. We only really know what he looked like because of his many self-portraits. Only three photographs of him exist, and they are all from when he was young.

This portrait is from his time in Arles in the south of France, in 1888, when he was 35. He was very poor, but he was happy because of the beautiful light and colors there. This portrait was a present for his friend, the painter Paul Gauguin. Gauguin and van Gogh were together in Arles for a month. Van Gogh was not strong mentally, and the relationship between them was difficult. After a big fight, van Gogh cut off his ear, and was in a mental hospital for some time. He died on July 29th, 1890. He was only 37 years old. His paintings weren't popular during his lifetime and he was never rich or famous. But today people think that Vincent van Gogh is one of the greatest painters in the world, and his paintings, like Sunflowers, and The Starry Night, sell for millions of dollars.

EXTRA IDEA If you have an interactive whiteboard connected to the internet, you could show Sts some of van Gogh's paintings, especially Sunflowers and The Starry Night since they are mentioned in the audio.

- c Focus on questions 1–8. Give Sts time to read all the questions and options and make sure they understand all the vocabulary, e.g., a present, complicated, died, unpopular. Play the audio again for Sts to listen and complete the task. Get Sts to compare with a partner, and then check answers.

1 b 2 c 3 a 4 c 5 c 6 b 7 b 8 a

- d Give Sts time to complete the chart with the highlighted verbs.

Check answers, and model and drill pronunciation, /wəz/, /wɜ:/, /'wɒznt/, /wɜ:nt/.

was were wasn't weren't

- e Tell Sts to go to Grammar Bank 7A on p.136.

Grammar notes

was is the past of am and is, and were of are.

was and were are used to talk about both recent and distant completed actions in the past, e.g., I was tired this morning. Caesar was a Roman Emperor.

was and were are used exactly like is and are, i.e., they are inverted to make questions (he was > was he?) and not (n't) is added to make negatives (wasn't, weren't).

We use the passive construction was born to talk about the time and place of our birth.

7.2 Focus on the example sentences and play the audio for Sts to listen and repeat. Then go through the rules with the class.

Now focus on the exercises for 7A on p.137. Sts do the exercises individually or in pairs.

Check answers, getting Sts to read the full sentences.

- a
1 She was 2 were you 3 I was 4 Was it 5 It wasn't 6 They weren't 7 We were 8 They were 9 We weren't 10 I wasn't
- b
1 were 2 Was 3 wasn't 4 was 5 Were 6 were 7 was 8 was 9 Were 10 weren't 11 was 12 was

Tell Sts to go back to the main lesson 7A.

EXTRA SUPPORT If you think Sts need more practice, you may want to give them the Grammar photocopiable activity at this point.

2 PRONUNCIATION sentence stress

Pronunciation notes

was and were have two different pronunciations depending on whether they are stressed or not (i.e., they can have either a strong or weak pronunciation).

was and were tend to have a weak pronunciation in positive sentences and questions: I was /wəz/ born in 1990. They were /wɜː/ famous. Was /wəz/ it expensive? The vowel sound in both words, as in most weak forms, is the schwa.

was / wasn't and were / weren't have a strong pronunciation in short answers and negative sentences: Yes, I was /wʌz/, No, I wasn't /'wʌznt/, Yes, we were /wɜː/, No, we weren't /wɜːnt/.

As pronunciation of strong and weak forms tends to occur quite naturally when there is good sentence stress and rhythm, it is best to concentrate your efforts on this (as in 2a).

a 7.3 Focus on the sentences and remind Sts that the words in larger font are stressed and that the underlining shows the stress within a word.

Play the audio once for Sts just to listen.

7.3

See sentences in the Student Book on p.54

Now play it again, pausing after each sentence for Sts to listen and repeat, copying the rhythm. Give further practice as necessary.

b 7.4 Tell Sts they are going to hear some sentences and questions in the simple present and they must say them in the simple past. Focus on the example, and highlight that the rhythm of the simple past sentence is the same as the simple present sentence, e.g., I'm at home, I was at home.

Play the audio, pausing after each sentence / question, and elicit the simple past version from the whole class.

7.4

- 1 I'm at home. (pause) I was at home.
- 2 He's American. (pause) He was American.
- 3 They aren't famous. (pause) They weren't famous.
- 4 It's very cheap. (pause) It was very cheap.
- 5 Where are they? (pause) Where were they?
- 6 Is she an actress? (pause) Was she an actress?
- 7 You're right. (pause) You were right.
- 8 What's his name? (pause) What was his name?
- 9 She isn't happy. (pause) She wasn't happy.
- 10 Are they tired? (pause) Were they tired?

Now repeat the activity, eliciting responses from individual Sts.

3 READING understanding the order of life events

a Focus on the self-portraits and photos on p.55 and ask Sts if they know any of the three people (They may know one or two, e.g., the singer Adele). Elicit anything they know, and tell them they are going to find out more about them when they read the texts.

Now ask the question to the class to elicit some opinions.

b Focus on the biographies and the events for each person and tell Sts that they need to number the events in the correct order.

Give Sts time to read the biographies and number the events.

Get Sts to compare with a partner, and then check answers.

EXTRA SUPPORT Before Sts read the biographies the first time, check whether you need to pre-teach any vocabulary.

Kurt Vonnegut

- 1 He was a soldier.
- 2 Slaughterhouse-Five was a bestseller.
- 3 He was a painter.

Billy Dee Williams

- 1 He was an art student.
- 2 He was in his first movie.
- 3 He was very successful as an actor.

Adele

- 1 She wasn't very interested in schoolwork.
- 2 She was a student with singer Jessie J.
- 3 19 was a bestseller.

Help with any other new vocabulary. Model and drill the pronunciation of any tricky words.

c Give Sts time to read the biographies again.

Put Sts in pairs and get them to cover the biographies or close their books. Together they see how much they can remember about each person.

Elicit from the class as much information as possible about each person.

EXTRA SUPPORT Put Sts in small groups of three. Each student sees how much they can remember about one of the biographies while the other two Sts look at the biography and help if necessary.

d Do this as a whole-class activity. You could also tell the class which of the self-portraits you like the most and why.

EXTRA IDEA Ask the class if they know any other famous self-portraits and if they like them.

4 VOCABULARY word formation

a Give Sts a few minutes to find the words in the biographies, or get them to guess first and then check with the texts.

Check answers, modeling the pronunciation and getting Sts to underline the stress.

1 writer 2 actor 3 singer 4 painter

Focus on the Word building box about professions and go through it with the class. Point out that to make the word for a person (e.g., writer) you add the letters -(e)r or -or to a verb and -ist or -ian to a noun. You might also want to point out that sometimes with nouns you have to make more changes, e.g., science – scientist (the ce disappears and a t is added).

b Tell Sts to first look at the group of words and decide if they are verbs or nouns. Then they should write the words for the jobs.

Get Sts to compare answers with a partner.

EXTRA SUPPORT You could first ask Sts to tell you whether group 1 is verbs or nouns (They are verbs). Then give Sts some time to add the correct ending. Then do the same for group 2.

c  7.5 Play the audio for Sts to listen and check answers to b. Pause the audio after each word and get Sts to spell the endings to you. Write the answers on the board.

1 verbs; composer, dancer, director, inventor
2 nouns; artist, novelist, politician, scientist

7.5

1 composer, dancer, director, inventor
2 artist, novelist, politician, scientist

Now play the audio again and this time Sts should underline the stress.

Check answers by underlining the stress in the words on the board.

1 composer, dancer, director, inventor
2 artist, novelist, politician, scientist

Finally, in pairs, Sts practice saying the words. If you think they need more practice, you could play the audio again for them to listen and repeat the words.

EXTRA IDEA Test Sts' memory by getting them to cover the words in a and b and then saying the noun / verb as a prompt, e.g.,

T art

Sts artist.

EXTRA CHALLENGE Elicit a famous name(s) for each of the professions in a and b (preferably a dead person). Elicit a full sentence for one, e.g., (X) was a famous writer.

d Focus on the words Alive and Dead in the circles. Elicit / Teach that they are opposites. Get Sts to write four names of famous people in each circle.

Put Sts in pairs and get them to ask and answer questions about the names using either Who is / Who's...? or Who was...? depending on whether the person is alive or dead.

EXTRA SUPPORT Demonstrate the activity by copying the circles on the board and writing the names of two people in each, and eliciting the questions from Sts.

5 SPEAKING

If you haven't already focused on the title of the lesson, focus on the initial question and elicit the meaning of selfie. Point out the two possible answers, Yes and No. If you have some selfies on your phone, you could show the class.

Put Sts in pairs and get them to ask each other the questions. Encourage them to take their phones out and show their partner some of their selfies or other photos.

EXTRA SUPPORT Give Sts time to think about their answers before putting them in pairs. Monitor and help.

Get some feedback from various pairs. With a show of hands, find out how many Sts take selfies.

- G simple past: regular verbs
V past time expressions: three years ago, last week, etc.
P -ed endings

Lesson plan

Simple past regular verbs are introduced in this lesson. The context is provided by two true stories of people having a problem with a flight. The lesson begins with a Reading about someone needing to change the last name on their ticket, and then Sts listen to a story about two people having a problem while they are on the plane. These are used to present the simple past of regular verbs. Then there is a focus on the pronunciation of -ed endings. Vocabulary introduces past time expressions, and Grammar, Vocabulary, and Pronunciation are put together in the final Speaking activity.

OPTIONAL LEAD-IN (BOOKS CLOSED)

Ask Sts Do you have a passport, an ID card, or both? What information is in it?

Write ideas on the board, e.g.:

FIRST NAME	MIDDLE NAME(S)
LAST NAME	NATIONALITY
DATE OF BIRTH	PLACE OF BIRTH

Explain that the first part of the lesson is about somebody who wanted to change something in their passport.

1 READING & LISTENING predicting the order of events from existing knowledge

- a Books open. Tell Sts that they are going to read and listen to two true stories. Focus on the task and make sure Sts know what a flight is. Model and drill pronunciation. Now go through questions 1–3 and check Sts know to fly, to book a ticket, and a booking. Give Sts time to read the beginning of the story and answer the questions. Get Sts to compare with a partner, and then check answers for 1 and 2. Elicit / Explain that stepfather = a man who has married your mother, but who is not your father.

EXTRA SUPPORT Before Sts read the story, check whether you need to pre-teach any vocabulary.

- 1 They wanted to fly to Ibiza from Manchester.
- 2 India's stepfather

Finally, elicit some ideas for question 3.

- b Now tell Sts they are going to read the second part of the story and they have to put it in order. Point out that the first paragraph (B) has been numbered for them.

Give Sts time to order the rest of the paragraphs.

Get Sts to compare with a partner, and then check answers.

2 D 3 E 4 C 5 A 6 F

Help with any other new vocabulary. Model and drill the pronunciation of any tricky words.

- c Do this as a whole-class activity and elicit different opinions.
- d Focus on the task and give Sts time to order the sentences. Point out that the first one (C) has been done for them. Get Sts to compare with a partner.
- e  7.6 Tell Sts they are now going to hear the first part of the story, not just the sentences in d, and they must listen and check their answers. Play the audio and then check answers.

EXTRA SUPPORT Read through the scripts and decide if you need to pre-teach any new vocabulary before Sts listen.

7.6

(script in Student Book on p.120)

Edward Gamson lives in Washington, D.C. A few years ago, he and his friend Lowell decided to go on vacation to Granada in Spain. Edward wanted to visit the Alhambra, a famous palace. They researched flights online and booked tickets for the two of them. Their tickets were expensive, but Edward decided to spend extra money on first-class seats. On the day of their flight, they arrived at Dulles Airport and parked their car in the long-term parking lot. Edward and Lowell checked in for the first part of their trip. They traveled safely to London, changed planes at Heathrow Airport, and settled into their second flight. Twenty minutes into the flight, Lowell looked at Edward with surprise.

- f  7.7 Before Sts listen to the rest of the story, ask them what they think might be the problem. Elicit some ideas. Play the audio for Sts to hear the end of the story. Check the answer.

They booked their flights for the wrong city—the island of Grenada in the Caribbean/West Indies, instead of the city of Granada in Spain.

7.7

(script in Student Book on p.120)

L = Lowell, E = Edward, F = Flight Attendant

- L Edward, I think we're going west and not south to Granada.
 E Hmm. Let's ask the flight attendant. Excuse me, why aren't we going south to Spain?
 F Spain? We're not going to Spain. We're going to Grenada, the island in the Caribbean.
 E The Caribbean? But I booked tickets to Granada, Spain.
 F Let me check your ticket. Oh, I see. I'm really sorry, but your ticket isn't for Granada, Spain. It's for Grenada, in the West Indies.
 E No, it can't be.
 F I'm very sorry, but it is. Look, it clearly says Grenada—it's spelled correctly.
 L I don't believe it. Edward, did you check the airport when you booked?
 E Well, no, I didn't. I was in vacation mode and I didn't think about it.
 L Ugh! What are we going to do?
 F When we land, you need to book new tickets to fly from Grenada in the Caribbean to Granada in Spain.

EXTRA SUPPORT If there's time, you could get Sts to listen again with the scripts on p.120, so they can see exactly what they understood / didn't understand. Translate / Explain any new words or phrases.

g Make sure Sts understand the question.

Do this as a whole-class activity. First, elicit some opinions for the first story about Adam and India, and then elicit some opinions about Edward and Lowell's story. Ask Sts if they know anyone who had a problem when they booked flights online.

2 GRAMMAR simple past: regular verbs

a Tell Sts to read 1b again and find the four past tense verbs. Make sure they know the meaning of reply. Elicit the answers onto the board.

1 asked 2 decided 3 replied 4 didn't want

b 7.8 Now tell Sts to look at the question taken from the second story.

Play the audio for Sts to listen and fill in the blank. Check the answer.

did

7.8

- L I don't believe it. Edward, did you check the airport when you booked?
 E Well, no, I didn't.

c Tell Sts to go to Grammar Bank 7B on p.136.

Grammar notes

It is important to emphasize that the simple past is used for completed actions in the past, both distant and recent and that happened once or more than once. The form of regular simple past verbs is very easy. The main problem Sts have is the pronunciation, and remembering to use the base form, not the -ed form, after did / didn't.

7.9 Focus on the example sentences and play the audio for Sts to listen and repeat. Then go through the rules with the class. You may want to point out here that the e is not normally pronounced in -ed endings unless there is a t or a d before it. This will be focused on more fully in Pronunciation.

Now focus on the exercises for 7B on p.137. Sts do the exercises individually or in pairs.

Check answers, getting Sts to read the full sentences. Correct any mispronunciation of the -ed ending. Get Sts to spell the verbs to you and write them on the board.

a

- 1 I studied English
- 2 Did you listen to the news
- 3 He didn't cook
- 4 Did she play sports
- 5 They worked late
- 6 She traveled a lot
- 7 Jack worked in New York
- 8 I called my parents
- 9 We didn't live in France
- 10 Anna asked a lot of questions

b

- 1 didn't call
- 2 Did...cry
- 3 played
- 4 didn't listen
- 5 Did...dance
- 6 booked

Tell Sts to go back to the main lesson 7B.

EXTRA SUPPORT If you think Sts need more practice, you may want to give them the Grammar photocopiable activity at this point.

d Focus on the instructions and questionnaire, and explain the activity. Sts need to find a person who did each of the activities in the questionnaire yesterday. Elicit that Sts need to make the sentences into questions by adding Did you... and then putting the verb in the infinitive, e.g., Did you watch soccer on TV yesterday?

Tell Sts they are going to move around the classroom asking questions in the simple past to find out if people did the activities mentioned. If someone says yes, they should write that person's name on the line on the left. Focus on the speech bubbles and demonstrate the activity by asking the first question until someone says yes and then mime that you are writing down their name.

EXTRA SUPPORT Before starting the activity, you could get Sts to ask you all the questions first, making sure they don't say, e.g., Did you watched soccer on TV yesterday? Give simple answers that they can understand.

With a large class, divide Sts into two separate groups.

Get Sts to stand up and move around the class asking questions. Stop the activity when someone gets a name for each statement or when you think Sts have had enough practice, and get some feedback from the class.

3 PRONUNCIATION -ed endingsPronunciation notes

The regular simple past ending (-ed) can be pronounced in three different ways:

- 1 -ed is pronounced /t/ after verbs ending in these unvoiced sounds: /k/, /p/, /t/, /s/, /f/, /tʃ/, e.g., cooked, booked, laughed, missed, relaxed, stopped, washed, watched.
- 2 After voiced endings (all other consonant sounds except /d/ and /t/) -ed is pronounced /d/, e.g., arrived, called, changed, showed. This is the biggest group. Verbs that end with consonant + y, e.g., study, carry, also belong to this group because the sound added is /d/.

3 After verbs ending in /d/ or /t/ the pronunciation of -ed is /ɪd/, e.g., wanted, chatted, needed, decided. This group is very small.

In practice, the difference between 1 and 2 is very small and can only be appreciated when a verb is said in isolation or is followed by a word beginning with a vowel (e.g., I liked it).

However, the difference between 3 and the other two is significant (it is an extra syllable) and many Sts tend to pronounce all simple past verbs in this way, e.g., /'laɪkɪd/, /'stɔːpɪd/, etc.

Voiced and unvoiced consonants

- Voiced consonant sounds are made by vibrating the vocal chords, e.g., /b/, /l/, /m/, /v/, etc. Unvoiced consonant sounds are made without vibration in the throat, e.g., /p/, /k/, /t/, /s/, etc.
- You can demonstrate this to Sts by getting them to hold their hands against their throats. For voiced sounds, they should feel a vibration in their throat, but not for unvoiced sounds.

a 7.10 Focus on the Simple past regular verbs box and go through it with the class. Elicit / Explain that there are three different ways of pronouncing -ed. Two are similar (/d/ and /t/), but the third /ɪd/ is very different.

Focus on the phonetics that show the three different pronunciations of -ed (/d/, /t/, and /ɪd/). Then look at the sentences for each pronunciation and play the audio once. Tell Sts to listen and concentrate on how the -ed is pronounced.

7.10

See chart in the Student Book on p.57

Now play the audio again, pausing after each sentence for Sts to listen and repeat.

Ask Sts the question In which group do you pronounce the "e" in "ed"? (group 3).

Tell Sts to look at the spelling of the verbs in group 3, and see what letters come before the -ed (d or t). Explain / Demonstrate that it would be impossible to pronounce another /d/ or /t/ after a d or a t. For that reason an extra syllable is added, which is why the pronunciation here is /ɪd/. Emphasize that this group of verbs is very small.

Highlight that the most important rule to remember is not to pronounce the e in -ed (unless it comes after a t or d).

b 7.11 Tell Sts to look at the verbs in the list and circle the ones that have the /ɪd/ sound in the simple past. Remind Sts that an exercise like this is easier if they say the verbs aloud.

Play the audio for Sts to listen and check.

Check answers.

ended, painted, started

7.11

See list of verbs in the Student Book on p.57

EXTRA CHALLENGE Get Sts to look at all the verbs again and then to try and put them in the appropriate columns in a.

Play the audio for them to check.

/d/ lived, played, traveled /t/ asked, cooked, finished, liked, stopped, watched, worked /ɪd/ ended, painted, started

c 7.12 Focus on the speech bubble and explain to Sts that they are going to hear some verb phrases and they must make either a positive sentence or a negative one depending on what they really did yesterday.

Play the audio, pausing after each verb phrase. Elicit sentences from a few Sts before moving on to the next phrase.

7.12

- 1 play tennis
- 2 travel by train
- 3 cook dinner
- 4 wait for a bus
- 5 play the guitar
- 6 study English
- 7 watch TV
- 8 listen to music

4 VOCABULARY & SPEAKING

 past time expressions

a Write a true sentence about yourself in the past with a regular verb, e.g., I started teaching English in 1999. Then write underneath it I started teaching English (x) years ago, and elicit the meaning of ago. Model and drill pronunciation.

Focus on the past time expressions, and explain that Sts must number them from the most recent (five minutes ago) to the most distant (in 2017). Give Sts time to do the activity and get them to check their order with a partner.

b 7.13 Go through the Past time expressions box with the class and highlight that in time expressions with last (e.g., last week) the definite article the is not used. Also explain that we say last night NOT yesterday night.

Play the audio for Sts to listen and check.

Check answers.

7.13

- 1 five minutes ago
- 2 last night
- 3 yesterday morning
- 4 the day before yesterday
- 5 three days ago
- 6 last week
- 7 last month
- 8 last summer
- 9 a year ago
- 10 in 2017

Now play the audio again for Sts to listen and repeat.

c Focus on the instructions and the sentences. Make sure Sts understand the question When was the last time?. Give Sts time to write a time expression for each activity.

d Tell Sts they will now tell each other when they did each activity. Focus on the example.

Put Sts in pairs and set a time limit.

Monitor and help. Make sure Sts switch roles.

Get some feedback by getting individual Sts to tell you an activity they did and asking a few extra questions.

Lesson plan

The topic of this lesson is New Year's Eve. Three blogs about memorable New Year's Eves (good and bad!) provide the context for the introduction of simple past irregular verbs. The vocabulary focus is common collocations of the key verbs go, have, and get (e.g., go out, get home, etc.). Then Sts listen to a fourth person talking about a memorable New Year's Eve in Brazil. Sts then work on the stress pattern in Wh- questions in the simple past, which prepares them for the final Speaking and Writing activity, where Sts ask each other about a memorable New Year's Eve and then write about it.

OPTIONAL LEAD-IN (BOOKS CLOSED)

Write on the board DECEMBER 31ST, JANUARY 1ST. Ask Sts if they know what these days are called in English, and elicit New Year's Eve and New Year's Day.

Ask Sts what they usually do on New Year's Eve.

1 READING

- a Books open. Focus on the photos and the questions. If you didn't do the Optional lead-in, elicit when New Year's Eve is (December 31st). Elicit answers to the second question. If you don't come from the same country as your Sts, tell them if New Year's Eve is an important occasion in your country.
- b Focus on the task and make sure Sts understand the three options.
 You may want to pre-teach the past of go (went), midnight, and an elevator to help Sts understand the stories.
 Give Sts time to read all three stories.
 Check answers.

EXTRA SUPPORT Before Sts read the stories the first time, check whether you need to pre-teach any vocabulary.

Jenny had a great evening. Andy had an OK evening. Mina had a terrible evening.

- c Focus on the task and the six sentences. You might want to check Sts know the meaning of alone.

Give Sts time to read the stories again and complete the six sentences with an initial.

Check answers.

1 J 2 A 3 M 4 A 5 M 6 J

Help with any other new vocabulary. Model and drill the pronunciation of any tricky words.

- d If your Sts come from the same country, do this as a whole-class activity. If your Sts come from different countries, put them in pairs or small groups to discuss the questions.

EXTRA SUPPORT If Sts come from different countries, give them time to make notes about New Year's Eve celebrations in their country. Monitor and help with vocabulary.

Get some feedback from various pairs / groups. If you don't come from the same country as your Sts, tell them how people celebrate New Year's Eve in your country.

2 GRAMMAR simple past: irregular verbs

- a Focus on the 15 base forms and check Sts remember their meaning. Then put Sts in pairs and give them a few minutes to find the simple past forms in the stories. Point out that the first one (bought) has been done for them. Encourage Sts to use the phonetics to help them.
- b 7.14 Write the infinitives on the board. Play the audio, pausing after each verb to check answers. Get Sts to spell the verbs to you and write the simple pasts on the board next to the base forms.

See verbs in bold in script 7.14

Focus on the phonetics and tell Sts to listen to the pronunciation. Play the audio again, pausing after each base form and past tense for Sts to repeat them. Give more practice as necessary, getting Sts to repeat after you or after the audio.

EXTRA CHALLENGE Focus on the phonetics and elicit the pronunciation of the verbs before playing the audio.

Get Sts to cover the simple past verb and see if they can remember it, uncovering them one by one to check their answers.

c Tell Sts to go to Grammar Bank 7C on p.136.

Grammar notes

The vast majority of verbs in the past are regular. However, a small number of verbs (several of which are very common) are irregular in the simple past. These verbs don't add -ed in the past, they change their form. This change can be just one or two letters, e.g., wear > wore, or can be a completely new word, e.g., go > went. Some verbs don't change their form, e.g., cost, put, etc. The verb read is spelled the same, but pronounced differently.

Irregular verbs are only irregular in the affirmative. In questions and negatives, as with regular verbs, the infinitive is used after did / didn't.

There is a list of the most common irregular verbs on p.165 of the Student Book.

🔊 7.15 Focus on the example sentences and play the audio for Sts to listen and repeat. Then go through the rules with the class.

Focus on the can / could box and go through it with the class.

Now focus on the exercises for 7C on p.137. Sts do the exercises individually or in pairs.

📌 Monitor while Sts are doing the exercises. If you see they are having problems with word order in c, remind them of QuASI and ASI (see p.50 of this book).

Check answers, getting Sts to read the full sentences.

a

- 1 She didn't wear a red dress. She wore a blue dress.
- 2 I didn't come home early. I came home late.
- 3 We didn't go by train. We went by bus.
- 4 He didn't say hello. He said goodbye.
- 5 You didn't have a sandwich. You had a salad.
- 6 He didn't know her last name. He knew her first name.

b

- 1 had 2 took 3 were 4 went 5 could 6 had 7 got 8 felt 9 were

c

- 1 did you wear 2 did she buy 3 did you get home

Tell Sts to go back to the main lesson 7C.

EXTRA SUPPORT If you think Sts need more practice, you may want to give them the Grammar photocopiable activity at this point.

3 VOCABULARY go, have, get

a Focus on the three verbs in the heading and elicit the simple past (went, had, got).

Give Sts a minute to decide which verb goes in each blank.

Check answers.

- 1 went 2 had 3 got 4 had 5 went 6 got

b Tell Sts to go to Vocabulary Bank go, have, get on p.160 and get them to do a individually or in pairs.

Vocabulary notes

You may want to tell Sts that get is one of the most common verbs in English partly because it has many different meanings. The most common are buy (as in get a newspaper), receive (as in get an email), arrive (as in get home) and take (as in get a taxi).

Remind Sts that go home = go to your house, get home = arrive at your house.

🔊 7.16 Now do b. Play the audio for Sts to listen and check.

Check answers.

🔊 7.16

go

- 8 go by bus

Then either use the audio to drill the pronunciation of the phrases, or model and drill them yourself. Give further practice of any words or phrases your Sts find difficult to pronounce.

Focus on c. Get Sts to cover the verb phrases and use the photos to test themselves or each other. Encourage them to say the complete phrase.

For Activation, put Sts in pairs and get them to take turns saying five things they did the previous day and five the previous week. All the sentences should include went, had, or got. Get some feedback.

Tell Sts to go back to the main lesson 7C.

EXTRA SUPPORT If you think Sts need more practice, you may want to give them the Vocabulary photocopiable activity at this point.

4 LISTENING understanding extra information

- a 7.17 Focus on the photo and the task. Elicit / Teach the meaning and pronunciation of memorable /'mɛməərəbl/ (= easy to remember because it is special). Tell Sts to close their books, relax, and listen, and just focus on where Denisa was at midnight.
Play the audio once, and elicit the answer.

EXTRA SUPPORT Read through the script and decide if you need to pre-teach any new vocabulary before Sts listen.

Denisa was on the beach in Rio de Janeiro, in Brazil.

7.17

(script in Student Book on p.120)

F = friend, D = Denisa

- F What was your best ever New Year's Eve? One you always remember?
D Oh, definitely 2014, when I was in Rio.
F Who were you with?
D I was with my boyfriend Marcelo, who's Brazilian.
F Why was it so special?
D Well, Brazil has special traditions for New Year's Eve, and they were all new for me. For example, it's a Brazilian tradition to wear white clothes for New Year's Eve because white is a symbol of peace, so I wore a beautiful white dress, which Marcelo's mother bought me. I have a photo somewhere on my phone. Yes, here, look!
F How pretty. So what did you do?
D Uh, let me think. Well, first we had a typical New Year's Eve dinner with Marcelo's family. And then, I guess it was about ten, we got a bus to Copacabana.
F What was the atmosphere like there?
D Oh, it was amazing! The streets were already full of people. We went to a show at a place near the beach. It was great, and we danced samba.
F Wow. Were you there at midnight?
D No, no. When we saw it was almost midnight, we went to the beach, and the typical countdown started, you know – ten, nine, eight... Happy New Year! Everywhere we heard the sound of people celebrating, and we watched the wonderful fireworks.
F It sounds great. What did people do when the fireworks finished?
D Most people went to other parties, or they went home.
F And what about you?
D We decided to go to a different beach, a beach called Praia do Arpoador, and we took our first swim of the new year. It was magical.

- b Focus on the people and things in 1–8, and make sure Sts understand them.
Give Sts time in pairs or individually to see what they can remember.
- c Play the audio again for Sts to listen and check. Play it again if necessary, pausing after she mentions each person or thing.
Check answers.

- 1 Marcelo – is her Brazilian boyfriend.
- 2 She wore white clothes because it's a Brazilian tradition.
- 3 Marcelo's mother bought the dress.
- 4 They had a typical dinner with Marcelo's family.
- 5 They got a bus to Copacabana.
- 6 They went to a show at a place near the beach and danced samba.
- 7 When it was almost midnight, they went to the beach and watched fireworks.
- 8 They took their first swim of the New Year at another beach called Praia do Arpoador.

EXTRA SUPPORT If there's time, you could get Sts to listen again with the script on p.120, so they can see exactly what they understood / didn't understand. Translate / Explain any new words or phrases.

- d Do the questions as a whole-class activity. You could also tell Sts whether you would like to spend New Year's Eve in Rio, and if not where.

5 PRONUNCIATION sentence stress

- a Go through the instructions and focus on the questions.
Give Sts time in pairs or individually to complete the questions.
Check answers.

1 was 2 were 3 were you 4 did you 5 did you 6 did you 7 did you 8 did you 9 was 10 did you 11 Did you

- b 7.18 Play the audio once for Sts just to listen and focus on the rhythm.

7.18

- 1 What year was it?
- 2 Where were you?
- 3 Who were you with?
- 4 Where did you have dinner?
- 5 What did you wear?
- 6 What did you do before midnight?
- 7 What did you do at midnight?
- 8 What did you do after midnight?
- 9 How was the weather?
- 10 What time did you go to bed?
- 11 Did you have a good time?

Now play the audio again, pausing after each question for Sts to listen and repeat, trying to copy the rhythm.

6 SPEAKING & WRITING

- a Give Sts a few minutes individually to think about their own answers to the questions in 5a. Help with any new vocabulary they might need.

EXTRA IDEA If your Sts don't celebrate New Year's Eve, they could discuss and write about another important event, such as a wedding or a special night out.

- b Put Sts in pairs. Get Sts A to give Sts B a complete "interview" and then switch roles. Monitor the interviews, encouraging Sts to ask their questions with good sentence stress and rhythm. Help with any new vocabulary that Sts need and correct as necessary.

EXTRA IDEA Get Sts to interview you about a memorable New Year's Eve before they interview each other.

Get feedback, asking a few pairs whose night was more memorable / fun / interesting, etc.

- c Sts now write an article similar to the ones they read in 1. Tell them they need to answer all the questions in 5a and they should look back at Mina's, Jenny's, and Andy's memorable New Year's Eves in 1 to help them.
Once Sts have finished, they should spend a few minutes checking their story, before handing it to another student to read or to you.

Function asking for directions

Vocabulary directions

Lesson plan

In this lesson, Sts get practice with directions. The focus is more on asking for and understanding directions than on giving them, as this is a difficult skill to perform at this level. Rob and Jenny have a free morning, and Rob plans to rent bikes and show Jenny some of London. But then Daniel calls and asks Rob to interview an artist at the Tate Modern. Jenny agrees to meet Rob at the gallery and ventures into London on her own and gets lost.

OPTIONAL LEAD-IN (BOOKS CLOSED)

Before starting Episode 4, elicit what Sts can remember about Episode 3, e.g., ask them What happens when Rob and Jenny meet on the street? What does Rob buy? Does Jenny like it? Who does Jenny talk to on the phone when Rob's in the store?, etc.

Alternatively, you could play the last scene of Episode 3.

1 A FREE MORNING

a 7.19 Books open. Focus on the photos and elicit what Sts think is happening. Don't tell them if they are right or not yet.

Now focus on the question and play the video / audio once the whole way through for Sts to check their ideas.

Check the answer.

Rob and Jenny want to go sightseeing, but Daniel calls Rob and asks him to do an interview that morning.

7.19

R = Rob, J = Jenny, D = Daniel

R So, Jenny, we have a free morning. What do you want to do?

J Well, you're the expert on London life! What do you suggest?

R Well, we can go cycling.

J I don't have a bike.

R We can rent bikes. It's easy.

J That's cool.

R OK, great. So we can cycle through the parks, and you can see a bit of London. Oh, hang on. Uh oh. It's Daniel. Daniel, hi!

D Hi, Rob. You need to do an interview this morning with an artist. He's at the Tate Modern.

R Can I do the interview on Monday?

D Sorry, he can only do this morning.

R OK, send me the details.

D Thank you very much, Rob.

R I'm sorry.

J That's OK, I understand. Work is work!

R But I can meet you later, outside the Tate Modern. It's on the South Bank.

J I can find it. I have a map, I can cycle there.

R Let's meet at twelve o'clock then.

J Great.

b Focus on sentences 1–6 and give Sts time to read them and think what the missing information might be.

Before Sts watch or listen again, focus on the Glossary. You could tell Sts that the official name is "Tate Modern" but a lot of people call it "the Tate Modern." You could also tell Sts that the Tate Modern is London's most important gallery of modern art. It was created in 2000 from an old building, which used to be a power station. If they would like more information, see www.tate.org.uk/visit/tate-modern.

Play the video / audio again the whole way through, pausing if necessary for Sts to fill in the blanks.

Get Sts to compare with a partner, and play again if necessary.

Check answers.

1 cycling 2 rent 3 Daniel, Rob 4 artist 5 Monday
6 twelve

EXTRA SUPPORT If there's time and you are using the video, you could get Sts to watch again with subtitles / showing the script, so they can see exactly what they understood / didn't understand. Translate / Explain any new words or phrases.

2 VOCABULARY directions

- a Focus on the phrases and pictures and get Sts to match them.
Get Sts to compare with a partner.
- b 7.20 Play the audio for Sts to listen and check.
Check answers.

7.20

- 3 on the corner
1 at the traffic lights
9 go straight ahead
6 go past the church
8 at the end of the street
5 a bridge
7 across from
2 turn left
4 turn right

Play the audio again, pausing after each phrase for Sts to repeat. Give further practice of the phrases your Sts find difficult to pronounce.

- c Tell Sts to cover the phrases and use the pictures to test themselves or a partner.

3 ASKING FOR DIRECTIONS

- a 7.21 Focus on the instructions and the map. Make sure Sts can see where Jenny is.
Tell Sts that they are going to hear Jenny asking for directions and they need to listen to the directions and try to mark the Tate Modern on the map. Play the video / audio at least twice.
Get Sts to compare with a partner, and then check that they have marked the right building.

i The map in the Student Book has been adapted and is impressionistic rather than strictly accurate.

It's B.

7.21 7.22

J = Jenny, P = passer-by

- J Excuse me, please. (repeat) Where's the Tate Modern? (repeat)
P1 Sorry, I don't live here.
J Excuse me. Is the Tate Modern near here? (repeat)
P2 The Tate Modern? It's near here, but I don't know exactly where. Sorry.
J Thank you. (repeat)
J Excuse me. Can you tell me the way to the Tate Modern, please? (repeat)
P3 Yes, of course. Go straight on. Go past the church, then turn left at the traffic lights. And it's at the end of the street.
J Sorry, could you say that again, please? (repeat)
P3 Yes, go straight on. Go past the church, and then turn left at the traffic lights. And it's at the end of the street. You can't miss it!
J Thank you. (repeat)

Now check how many people she asks.

She asks three people.

- b Now focus on the conversation in the chart. Elicit that You say is what Jenny says and the You hear phrases are said by three different people in the street, who she asks for directions. The You say phrases will be useful for Sts if they need to ask for directions.

Give Sts a minute to read through the conversation and think what the missing words might be. Then play the video / audio again, and get Sts to fill in the blanks. Play again if necessary.

Get Sts to compare with a partner, and then check answers.

1 Sorry 2 where 3 past 4 left 5 miss

Go through the conversation line by line with Sts, helping them with any words or expressions they don't understand. Highlight that Can you tell me the way to... please? is the typical question to ask for directions.

- c 7.22 Now focus on the You say phrases and tell Sts they're going to hear the conversation again. They should repeat the You say phrases when they hear the beep. Encourage them to copy the rhythm and intonation.
Play the video / audio, pausing if necessary for Sts to repeat the phrases.

7.22

Same as script 7.21 with repeat pauses

- d Put Sts in pairs, A and B. A is Jenny and B plays the parts of all the passers-by. Get Sts to read the conversation aloud, and then switch roles.
Focus on the Can you...? or Could you...? box and go through it with the class.
- e In pairs, Sts role-play asking for and giving simple directions using the map on p.60. Go through the instructions with Sts, making sure they starts where Jenny is on the map. Sts A starts saying Excuse me. Where's...?
Monitor and help with any issues relating to directions. Make sure Sts switch roles.

EXTRA SUPPORT Demonstrate the activity by getting a confident student to ask you for directions to somewhere on the map.

EXTRA IDEA Give Sts clear directions from the school to a nearby restaurant, store, or landmark, and see if they can figure out where it is.

4 JENNY AND ROB GO SIGHTSEEING

a  7.23 Focus on the photo and ask Sts some questions, e.g., Where are Rob and Jenny? What's happening?, etc.

Tell Sts that they are on the bank of the River Thames in central London, outside the Tate Modern.

Focus on sentences 1–6 and go through them with Sts. Tell Sts that the Millennium Bridge is a bridge over the Thames, which was built to celebrate the year 2000. Check Sts understand gift shop, the top floor, and power station.

Then play the video / audio for Sts to choose the correct option.

Get Sts to compare with a partner, and then check answers.

1 The Millennium 2 100 3 Shakespeare 4 can't 5 restaurant 6 power

7.23

R = Rob, J = Jenny, D = Daniel

R Sorry about the weather.

J Yeah... but what a view! It's a great bridge, too.

R It's the Millennium Bridge. It's not for cars, only for people. It was the first new bridge over the Thames in 100 years.

J You sound like a tour guide!

R Sorry... I interviewed the architect last year. So what would you like to visit?

J What is there to see?

R Well, we could see the Tate Modern first as we're here, and then we could go to the Globe Theatre. Do you like Shakespeare?

J Not really. I studied too much Shakespeare in college. It's Daniel. Sorry. Hi, Daniel.

D Hi, Jennifer. How's your free day? Are you enjoying London?

J Absolutely. It's fantastic.

D Listen, I have some free time today. Would you like to meet for lunch?

J That's really nice of you, Daniel, but I'm sorry, I can't. I'm really far away from the office right now.

D That's OK. No problem. Maybe another time?

J Definitely. Bye.

R What did he want? Anything important?

J Not at all. Hey, let's go inside the Tate Modern now.

R Yes, of course. There's a great restaurant on the top floor. The view is fantastic. The Tate Modern was a power station until 1981. Did you know that?

J I didn't. Do you know anything else about the Tate Modern?

R Thank you for asking, I know a lot about it actually...

EXTRA SUPPORT If there's time and you are using the video, you could get Sts to watch again with subtitles / showing the script, so they can see exactly what they understood / didn't understand. Translate / Explain any new words or phrases.

b Focus on the Social English phrases and go through them with the class.

In pairs, get Sts to decide who says them.

c  7.24 Play the video / audio for Sts to listen to the eight phrases and check.

Check answers. If you know your Sts' L1, you could get them to translate the phrases.

1 J 2 R 3 J 4 R 5 D 6 J 7 D 8 R

7.24

See Social English phrases in the Student Book on p.61

Now play the video / audio again, pausing after each phrase for Sts to watch or listen and repeat.

d Focus on the instructions and make sure Sts understand what they have to do.

Get Sts to compare with a partner, and then check answers.

A 4 B 2 C 7 D 5 E 1 F 8 G 3 H 6

Now put Sts in pairs and get them to practice the conversations.

Finally, focus on the CAN YOU...? questions and ask Sts if they feel confident they can now do these things. If they feel that they need more practice, tell them to go to Online Practice to watch the episode again and practice the language.

- G simple past: regular and irregular
V irregular verbs
P simple past verbs

Lesson plan

The goal of this lesson is to review all forms of the simple past, regular and irregular, through the context of a murder story. The lesson begins with a description of the story, which introduces the characters and several new past forms of irregular verbs. A pronunciation focus then reviews the pronunciation of irregular and regular past forms. Sts then hear more of the story, this time on audio, as part of a TV adaptation, when the inspector interviews the suspects. Sts decide who they think the murderer was before hearing what actually happened. This part of the lesson will work best if you can generate and maintain suspense, so that Sts want to find out who the murderer was. After the murder story, there is a grammar focus pulling together and reviewing the simple past. The lesson finishes with an extended Speaking activity where Sts role-play trying to break down the alibi of a robbery suspect.

OPTIONAL LEAD-IN (BOOKS CLOSED)

Write DETECTIVE NOVELS AND TV SERIES on the board and elicit names from Sts.

Now ask Sts What usually happens in these books or series? (A murder), How do the police or detectives find out who the murderer is? (They question everyone and look for evidence), etc.

Then get Sts, in pairs, to ask each other which of the novels or TV series they like.

Finally, tell Sts that they are going to read and listen to a murder mystery.

1 READING

a Books open. Focus on the photo of the house and ask Sts a few questions, e.g., What is it? How old do you think it is? Where do you think it is? and elicit ideas / suggestions. Elicit / Explain what a country house is.

Then focus on the task, explaining the meaning and pronunciation of murder /'mɜːdər/, victim /'vɪktɪm/, and a suspect /'sʌspekt/.

Focus on the photos of the victim and suspects, and give Sts a few minutes to read the information about the murder.

Focus on the speech bubbles and get Sts to cover the text and practice saying, in pairs, who everybody is in relation to Jeremy, e.g., Who's Claudia? (She's Jeremy's secretary). This will help Sts to remember who's who as they read / listen to the story, and also reviews the use of the possessive 's.

EXTRA SUPPORT In their pairs, A covers the text and B looks at the text to help A. They then switch roles.

Ask a few comprehension questions, e.g., On what day does the story take place? (On June 23rd), Who is the main character and murder victim? (Jeremy Travers), Why was June 22nd an important day for him? (It was his birthday), What did he do that night? (He had dinner with his wife, his daughter, and two guests).

Ask Sts Who do you think the murderer is? and elicit ideas / suggestions.

b 8.1 Now focus on the story, and tell Sts that they are going to read the story and listen to it at the same time. Play the audio for Sts to read and listen. Then set a time limit and get Sts, in pairs, to re-read the story and mark sentences 1–7 T (true) or F (false). They must also correct the false ones.

Check answers, getting Sts to say why the F sentences are false.

EXTRA SUPPORT Before Sts read the story, check whether you need to pre-teach any vocabulary.

- 1 F (Somebody killed Jeremy between midnight and 7:00 a.m.)
- 2 F (The inspector questioned Amanda in the library.)
- 3 T
- 4 F (Amanda and Jeremy slept in different rooms.)
- 5 F (Somebody opened and closed Jeremy's door.)
- 6 F (Amanda got up at about 7:15.)
- 7 T

8.1

See story in the Student Book on p.62

Help with any other new vocabulary, e.g., mustache, library (contrast it with bookshop), and asleep, but leave the new irregular verbs since Sts are about to focus on them. Model and drill the pronunciation of any tricky words.

2 PRONUNCIATION simple past verbs

a Focus Sts' attention on the instructions and on the highlighted irregular verbs in the story. Point out that the first three have been done for them.

In pairs, Sts write the base forms – tell them that the context will help them to guess the ones they don't know.

b 8.2 Play the audio for Sts to listen and check.

Check answers. Model and drill the pronunciation. Pay particular attention to said /sɛd/, which has an unexpected pronunciation, and read /rɛd/, which is spelled but not pronounced like the base form.

8.2

1	be	was
2	be	were
3	come	came
4	say	said
5	speak	spoke
6	sit	sat
7	go	went
8	sleep	slept
9	see	saw
10	hear	heard
11	think	thought
12	read	read
13	get up	got up
14	have	had
15	take	took
16	find	found

Now play the audio again for Sts to listen and repeat.

c 8.3 Remind Sts how regular simple past verbs end (-ed) – see Pronunciation notes in 7B on pp.96–97. Get them to underline the nine regular simple past verbs in the story.

Play the audio for Sts to listen and check.

Check answers, getting Sts to say how they think the endings are pronounced.

/d/ arrived, died, killed, followed, opened, closed
/t/ looked, finished
/ɪd/ hated

8.3

arrived	Detective Granger arrived.
died	Mr. Travers died.
killed	Somebody killed him.
looked	He looked at them.
followed	She followed him.
finished	We finished dinner.
opened	The door opened.
closed	The door closed.
hated	I hated him.

Tell Sts that the phrases they hear aren't exactly the same as the phrases in the story, so they must listen and repeat the phrases carefully. Now play the audio again for Sts to listen and repeat. Give Sts more practice if necessary.

EXTRA CHALLENGE Get Sts to predict how the -ed is pronounced for each verb, /d/, /t/ or /ɪd/. Then play the audio for them to check.

3 LISTENING taking notes and comparing information

a 8.4, 8.5, 8.6 Focus on the chart and elicit / explain the meaning of  motive. Highlight that the names at the top are all the suspects in the murder mystery. Elicit from Sts that Amanda is Jeremy's wife, and point out to Sts that her answers to the detective's questions have been written in the chart. Explain that Sts are now going to hear the detective interview the other three suspects, Barbara, Gordon, and Claudia. Sts have to complete the chart.

Ask Who's Barbara? (Jeremy's daughter). Then play audio

8.4 twice for Sts to complete the chart. Get Sts to compare their answers with a partner between each listening.

EXTRA SUPPORT Read through the scripts and decide if you need to pre-teach any new vocabulary before Sts listen.

8.4

(script in Student Book on p.121)

N = narrator, D = detective, B = Barbara

N Then the detective questioned Barbara Travers.

D What did you do after dinner yesterday evening?

B After dinner? I played cards with Gordon, and then I went to bed.

D What time was that?

B It was about eleven-thirty. I remember, I looked at my watch.

D Did you hear anything in your father's room?

B No. I didn't hear anything.

D Miss Travers, did you have any problems with your father?

B No, I didn't have any problems with him at all. Daddy was a wonderful man and...a wonderful father. I'm sorry, Detective.

D Don't worry, Miss Travers. No more questions.

Ask Who's Gordon? (Jeremy's business partner). Then play audio 8.5 twice for Sts to complete the chart. Again, get Sts to compare their answers with a partner between each listening.

8.5

(script in Student Book on p.121)

N = narrator, D = Detective, G = Gordon

N Next the detective questioned Gordon Summers.

D What did you do after dinner, Gordon?

G I played cards with Barbara. Then she went to bed.

D Did you go to bed then?

G No. I stayed in the living room and I had a cup of tea. Then I went to bed.

D What time was that?

G I don't remember exactly. I didn't look at the time.

D Did you hear anything during the night?

G No, I didn't. I was very tired. I slept very well.

D You and Mr. Travers were business partners, weren't you?

G Yes, that's right.

D And it's a very good business, I understand.

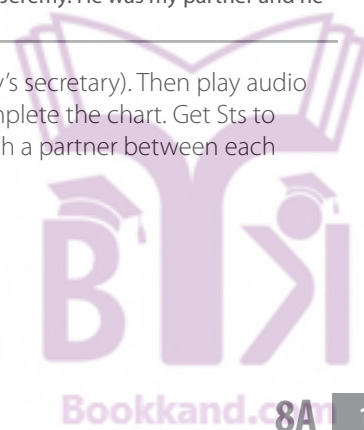

G Yes, Detective, it is.

D And now it's your business.

G Listen, Detective, I did not kill Jeremy. He was my partner and he was my friend.

Ask Who's Claudia? (Jeremy's secretary). Then play audio

8.6 twice for Sts to complete the chart. Get Sts to compare their answers with a partner between each listening.

8.6

(script in Student Book on p.121)

N = narrator, D = Detective, C = Claudia

N Finally, the detective questioned Claudia Pasquale.

D What did you do yesterday evening, after dinner?

C I went to my room and I took a bath and I went to bed.

D What time was that?

C About eleven o'clock.

D Did you hear anything?

C Yes, I heard somebody go into Jeremy's room. It was about twelve o'clock.

D Who was it?

C It was Amanda, his wife.

D Are you sure? Did you see her?

C Well no, I didn't see her. But I'm sure it was Amanda.

D You were Mr. Travers's secretary, Claudia.

C Yes, I was.

D Were you just his secretary?

C What do you mean?

D Were you in love with Mr. Travers?

C No, I wasn't.

D The truth, please, Claudia.

C Fine, Detective. Yes, I was in love with him and he said he was in love with me. He said he wanted to leave his wife – Amanda – and marry me. I was stupid. I believed him. But he didn't leave her. He used me, Detective! I was very angry with him.

D Did you kill him?

C No, Detective, I loved Jeremy.

b Now get Sts to compare charts in pairs.

Check answers. You could copy these onto the board.

Barbara

She played cards with Gordon.

About 11:30.

No.

No motive – she loved him.

Gordon

He played cards with Barbara. Then he stayed in the living room and had a cup of tea.

He doesn't remember.

No.

He wanted the business for himself.

Claudia

She went to her room and took a bath.

About 11:00.

She heard somebody go into Jeremy's room at about 12:00. She thinks it was Amanda, but she didn't see her.

She was in love with Jeremy, but Jeremy didn't leave his wife, Amanda.

Tell Sts to look at their completed charts again and, in pairs, decide who they think the murderer is (they don't have to agree).

Write the names of the four suspects on the board, and get a show of hands for each suspect. Elicit a few reasons for each suspect.

c 8.7 Play the audio for Sts to see if they were right.

Pause the audio after Amanda says Dinner everybody, and ask comprehension questions, e.g., What happened before dinner? What did Gordon tell Jeremy?, etc., to make sure Sts are following the story.

Now play the last part. Repeat it from the beginning if Sts want to hear it again.

Elicit who the murderer is and why he / she killed Mr. Travers.

The murderer was Gordon. He killed Jeremy because he wanted to marry Barbara. He says he was in love with her, but he probably wanted to marry her because her father was rich. Jeremy said that he couldn't. He said, "If you marry Barbara, all my money goes to Claudia."

8.7

N = narrator, G = Gordon, J = Jeremy, A = Amanda

N Before dinner, Gordon met with Jeremy in the library.

G Happy Birthday, Jeremy.

J Ah, thanks, Gordon.

G Listen, Jeremy, I want to talk to you about Barbara.

J Barbara? What's the problem?

G It's not exactly a problem. I'm in love with her, and I want to marry her.

J Marry Barbara? Marry my daughter! Are you crazy? Never! You don't love Barbara. You only want her money!

G That's not true, Jeremy. I love her.

J Listen to me. If you marry Barbara, when I die all my money goes to Claudia.

G To Claudia? To your secretary?

J Yes.

G Is that your last word, Jeremy?

J Yes, it is.

A Dinner, everybody!

N At midnight, Gordon was in the living room. He finished his tea and went upstairs.

J Who is it? Gordon? What are you...

EXTRA SUPPORT Finally, you could play the three interviews again and get Sts to listen and read the scripts on p.121, so they can see exactly what they understood / didn't understand. Translate / Explain any new words or phrases.

4 GRAMMAR & VOCABULARY

simple past: regular and irregular

- a Tell Sts to cover the story and look at the eight verbs in the list. They must first mark the verbs regular or irregular in the simple past, and then write the positive and negative form. Point out that the first one (arrived, didn't arrive) has been done for them.

EXTRA SUPPORT Before playing the audio, elicit whether the verbs are regular or irregular.

regular	arrive, close, hate, kill
irregular	come, sit, sleep, speak

- b 8.8 Play the audio for Sts to listen and check. Check answers.

8.8
arrive	arrived	didn't arrive close	closed	didn't close
come	came	didn't come
hate	hated	didn't hate
kill	killed	didn't kill
sit	sat	didn't sit
sleep	slept	didn't sleep
speak	spoke	didn't speak

- c Tell Sts to go to Grammar Bank 8A on p.138.

Grammar notes

This Grammar Bank reference section is purely review, and reminds Sts how to form the past tense with regular and irregular verbs using the auxiliaries did / didn't.

It also reminds Sts that was / were is the past of be and that questions are formed by inverting the subject and verb, and negatives are made by adding not, e.g., wasn't.

- 8.9 Focus on the example sentences and play the audio for Sts to listen and repeat. Then go through the rules with the class.

Now focus on the exercises for 8A on p.139. Sts do the exercises individually or in pairs.

Check answers, getting Sts to read the full sentences.

a	1 was	2 were	3 did...do	4 watched	5 had	6 weren't
	7 went	8 did...go	9 Did...hear	10 didn't hear
b	1 slept	2 heard	3 couldn't	4 read	5 arrived	6 saw
	7 sat	8 didn't want

Tell Sts to go back to the main lesson 8A.

EXTRA SUPPORT If you think Sts need more practice, you may want to give them the Grammar photocopiable activity at this point.

- d Now tell Sts to go to Irregular verbs on p.165. Tell Sts that this is their reference list of irregular verbs. Explain that there are three columns, because irregular verbs also have irregular past participles, but that for now, they should just concentrate on the first two columns.

You could go through them one by one, eliciting / teaching the meaning of any new ones, and getting Sts to check off the ones they already know. Tell them to choose three new verbs to learn, and tell them they should try to learn at least three more new ones every week.

Tell Sts to go back to the main lesson 8A.

5 SPEAKING

! This activity will take at least 15–20 minutes. If you don't have time now, do it in the next class.

Put Sts into groups of four, and then into pairs. Assign two the role of A (police officers) and two the role of B (friends / suspects). If you have odd numbers, have extra As (i.e., three police officers and two suspects).

Tell Sts to go to Communication Police interview, A on p.106, B on p.111.

Go through the instructions with Sts carefully. Then give at least five minutes for Sts A to look at the police interview form and prepare their questions. Tell them to think of more questions. At the same time, Sts B prepare their alibis by working out where they were the previous night.

When they are ready, re-divide the groups of four so that each A is with a different B. If possible, tell Sts A to take their suspects to different ends of the classroom to be interviewed. (It doesn't matter if they are near other police officers / suspects, they should just not be near their own "partner.")

Allow at least five minutes for the interviews, making sure the police officers take notes.

When the interviews are over, get the police officers (Sts A) to compare the two friends' (Sts B) alibis. If they are identical, Sts B are innocent. If there are any differences, they are guilty.

Find out, with a show of hands, how many "suspects" were found guilty.

G there is / there are, some / any + plural nouns

V the house: living room, sofa, etc.

P /ɛr/ and /ɪr/

Lesson plan

This lesson links back to the murder story in 8A. Many years later, a young couple who are looking for a house to rent are shown around Jeremy Travers's house by Barbara, his daughter, who is now quite elderly. It is only after they have decided to rent it that they discover the house has a dark secret: someone was murdered there. The lesson begins with a vocabulary focus on house and furniture vocabulary. Sts then listen to a conversation between Barbara and the young couple as she shows them around the Travers family's old house, now for rent. Sts then hear how Kim is reluctant to rent the house, but she is talked into it by her husband, and finally how when they go to celebrate at the local restaurant, they hear the true story of the house. Sts then focus on the grammar in the conversations, and the use of there is and there are. The pronunciation focus is on /ɛr/ and /ɪr/, which prepares Sts for a Speaking activity in which Sts describe where they live. Finally, they go to the Writing section and write a description of their house or apartment.

Online Practice 8A

OPTIONAL LEAD-IN (BOOKS CLOSED)

Write on the board:

IMAGINE THAT YOU WANT TO RENT AN APARTMENT IN (Sts' city).

WHAT THINGS ARE IMPORTANT TO YOU? (e.g., location, rent, etc.)

HOW WOULD YOU LOOK FOR THE APARTMENT?

Put Sts in pairs to discuss the questions.

1 VOCABULARY the house

a Books open. Focus on the advertisement and elicit the meaning of advertisement, to rent, and low price. Model and drill the pronunciation of advertisement /ædvər'taɪzmənt/.

! You could elicit / tell Sts that the house is the same house as in 8A (but more than 50 years later). Alternatively, you could say nothing, and wait for Sts to realize as the lesson develops.

Then focus on the questions and elicit responses.

Get ideas / feedback from a few Sts.

b Get Sts to cover the advertisement, and elicit what they can remember about the house.

Possible answer

It's in the country. It's very quiet. It has six bedrooms, four bathrooms, and a large back yard. It's five miles from town. It isn't expensive.

c Focus on the instructions and give Sts a few minutes to brainstorm with a partner.

Write all the words on the board and drill pronunciation.

d Tell Sts to go to Vocabulary Bank The house on p.161, and get them to do 1 Rooms, 2 Parts of a house, and 3 Things in a room individually or in pairs.

Vocabulary notes

Highlight that:

- a wardrobe is in a bedroom and for keeping clothes, but a cupboard can be anywhere e.g., in kitchen or a living room, and you can keep anything in it.

- we use a light to refer to a ceiling light, and lamp for all other types, e.g., a floor lamp, a table lamp.

8.10 Now do b. Play the audio for Sts to listen to all three sections and check. Check answers.

8.10

The house

1 Rooms

- 3 a bathroom
- 1 a bedroom
- 8 a dining room
- 5 a garage
- 7 a hall
- 9 a kitchen
- 2 a living room
- 4 a study / an office
- 6 a yard

2 Parts of a house

- 11 a balcony
- 10 a ceiling
- 14 a floor
- 13 stairs
- 12 a wall

3 Things in a room

- 23 an armchair
- 25 a bath tub
- 19 a bed
- 30 a cupboard
- 33 a dishwasher
- 22 a fireplace
- 18 a light
- 29 a microwave
- 21 a mirror
- 16 a plant
- 28 a refrigerator / a fridge
- 27 a rug
- 26 a shelf
- 24 a shower
- 20 a sofa / a couch
- 32 a stove
- 15 a toilet
- 17 a wardrobe
- 31 a washing machine

Then either use the audio to drill the pronunciation of the words, or model and drill them yourself. Give further practice of any words Sts find difficult to pronounce. Now focus on the Heat and central air conditioning box and go through it with the class.

In Activation, get Sts to cover the words and use the pictures to test themselves or a partner.

Tell Sts to go back to the main lesson 8B.

EXTRA SUPPORT If you think Sts need more practice, you may want to give them the Vocabulary photocopiable activity at this point.

2 LISTENING using evidence to predict outcome

a 8.11 Focus on the photo and instructions. Elicit that the older woman is showing the young couple the house because they are thinking of renting it.

Now tell Sts to close their books or to cover the conversation and listen for the answer to Which three rooms in the house do they go into? Stress that Sts should listen to find out which rooms they actually go into, not which ones they mention.

Play the audio once, and check answers.

EXTRA SUPPORT Read through the scripts and decide if you need to pre-teach any new vocabulary before Sts listen.

They go into the living room, the library, and the kitchen.

8.11

K = Kim, L = Leo, B = Barbara

K The yard's wonderful. I love it.

L Is there a garage?

B Oh yes, there's a big garage over there.

K You lived in this house, is that right, Mrs...?

B Miss Travers. But call me Barbara, dear. Yes, I lived here. A long time ago. Now I live in town. Let's go inside the house...

This is the living room. It's a lovely room – very light. And this is the library...

L Wow! There's a library, Kim!

K I love the furniture, the old sofa, the armchairs, the fireplace...

B And this is the kitchen. As you can see, it's very big.

K Is there a dishwasher?

B No, there isn't. It's an old house.

L Never mind. I think it's nice. Is there a bathroom downstairs?

B Yes, there's one downstairs and there are three upstairs.

K Are there any neighbors with children?

B No, there aren't any neighbors near here. But there are some families with children in town.

K That's great. We have two children.

B Very nice, dear. Now let's go upstairs...

b Tell Sts to open their books or uncover the conversation, and focus on the fill-in-the-blank conversation. Point out that the first one (garage) has been done for them. Play the audio again for Sts to fill in the blanks. Play again if necessary.

EXTRA SUPPORT You could give Sts time to read through the conversation and think about what the missing words could be before you play the audio.

Get Sts to compare with a partner, and then check answers.

2 living room 3 fireplace 4 kitchen 5 bathroom
6 downstairs 7 neighbors 8 upstairs

Go through the conversation, making sure Sts understand it. They should be able to understand the examples of there is / are from the context. Tell Sts that this structure will be focused on in Grammar. Elicit / Teach the meaning and pronunciation of furniture /'fɜːnɪtʃər/, and point out that it is singular, but has a plural meaning.

c 8.12 Tell Sts that Barbara and the couple now go upstairs. Focus on the questions. Then play the audio twice.

Get Sts to compare with a partner, and then check answers.

She says the bedroom is cold.
It was Barbara's father's bedroom (Jeremy Travers).
Yes, they do.

8.12

(script in Student Book on p.121)

B Let's go upstairs. Follow me... Be careful. The ceiling is very low here.

L It's a very old house.

B Yes, the house is 300 old. My family lived here for nearly eighty years. There are six bedrooms. This was my father's bedroom.

K Is there heat in the house?

B Yes, there is. Why do you ask? Are you cold?

K Yes, it's very cold in here.

L That's because we're from California.

B Let's go and see the other bedrooms.

L Yes, of course.

***

L Well, what do you think, Kim? I love it! Don't you?

K I'm not sure. There's something about the house I don't like.

L Kim, it's perfect for the kids. Think of the yard. And it's a real, authentic country house. What do you say?

K I guess so. If you're sure.

L I am sure! Miss...uh, Barbara. We want it. We want to rent the house.

B Excellent.

L When can we move in?

B As soon as you like.

Ask a few more comprehension questions, e.g., How old is the house? (300 years old), Is there heat in the house? (yes), etc.

Finally, ask Sts if Kim and Leo decide to rent the house.

She says the bedroom is cold.
It was Barbara's father's bedroom (Jeremy Travers).
Yes, they do

d 8.13 Focus on the photo and ask Where are Kim and Leo? (In a restaurant, near the house they just rented). Go through the instructions and make sure Sts understand this is not a conversation, but extracts from a conversation.

Play the audio for Sts to listen and fill in the blanks.

Get Sts to compare with a partner, and then check answers. Play the audio again if necessary.

1 house 2 wrong 3 thought 4 tell 5 what 6 horrible

8.13

- 1 Kim Well, here's our new house.
 2 Leo Is something wrong?
 3 Barman Some people thought that she was the one that did it.
 4 Barman Didn't she tell you?
 5 Kim Tell us what?
 6 Kim Oh, how horrible!

Focus on the question What do you think they find out? and elicit ideas from Sts, but don't tell them if they're right yet.

8.14 Focus on the task and make sure Sts understand the question.

Play the audio at least twice for Sts to listen and answer the questions.

Get Sts to compare with a partner, and then check answers. Play the audio again if necessary.

They decide not to rent the house. They don't want to live in a house where somebody was murdered.

8.14

(script in Student Book on p.121)

L = Leo, K = Kim, W = waiter

- L Hello.
 W Good evening, sir, madam. What can I get you?
 K How about a coffee? I'm still cold.
 W Yes, madam. And you, sir?
 L You know, I'm cold, too. I'll also have a coffee, thanks.
 W Here you are!
 L Well, here's to our new house!
 K Yes!
 W You're new around here, aren't you?
 L Yes, that's right.
 K We just rented the big house on Darwin Road.
 W Which house? The Travers family's house?
 L Yes.
 W Oh.
 L Is something wrong?
 W Who showed you the house?
 K Barbara. The old lady who lived there before.
 W Ah, Barbara. Old Mr. Travers's daughter. Some people thought that she was the one who did it.
 K The one who did what? What happened?
 W Didn't she tell you?
 L Tell us what?
 W About the murder.
 L & K Murder?
 W Yes, Mr. Travers was murdered in that house in 1965...in his bed.
 K Oh, how horrible!
 W The man who killed Mr. Travers was Barbara's lover. The family never lived there again. They tried to sell the house, but nobody wanted to buy it. Not after a murder. That's why that house is always rented. Barbara never married, of course.
 L Kim?
 K Yes?
 L Are you thinking what I'm thinking?
 K Yes - I don't want to live in a house where somebody was murdered. Come on. Let's go.
 W Hey, hey, your coffee! You didn't drink your coffee... Ah, well.

Ask a few more comprehension questions, e.g., Are Leo and Kim from the town? (No), Why do the Travers family always rent out the house? (Because nobody wants to buy it), Does Kim finish her coffee? (No).

Finally, ask Sts if they would rent a house where somebody was murdered.

EXTRA SUPPORT If there's time, you could get Sts to listen again to the three parts of the audio with the scripts in the main lesson and on p.121, so they can see exactly what they understood / didn't understand. Translate / Explain any new words or phrases.

3 GRAMMAR there is / there are, some / any + plural nouns

a Put Sts into groups of three and get them to practice the conversation in 2b.

When they have finished, tell them to focus on the chart and complete it.

Check answers.

singular	plural
<input type="checkbox"/> There's a library.	There are some families...
<input type="checkbox"/> There isn't a dishwasher.	There aren't any neighbors.
<input type="checkbox"/> Is there a garage?	Are there any neighbors?

b Give Sts some time to look at the question and discuss it in pairs.

Check answers.

Three is a specific number. Some means "more than one," but isn't a specific number.

c Tell Sts to go to Grammar Bank 8B on p.138.

Grammar notes*there is / there are

Some Sts tend to always use there is for both singular and plural nouns because in their language there is only one form. They may also confuse There is / are and It is / They are.

some and any

Some and any are indefinite articles used here with plural countable nouns. For simplicity's sake, some is taught here as only being used in positive sentences, however (as will later be pointed out in Grammar Bank 9A), it can also be used in questions, and especially in requests, e.g., Do you want some cookies? Can we have some more chairs?

Some and any with uncountable nouns is presented in 9A.

8.15 Focus on the example sentences and play the audio for Sts to listen and repeat. Then go through the rules with the class.

Focus on the There is / There are or It is / They are? box and go through it with the class.

Now focus on the exercises for 8B on p.139. Sts do the exercises individually or in pairs.

Check answers, getting Sts to read the full sentences.

a

- 1 Are there 2 Is there 3 There are 4 There's 5 There are 6 Is there 7 Are there 8 Is there 9 There's 10 Are there

b

- 1 There's a table in the kitchen.
2 Is there a fireplace in the living room?
3 There aren't any plants in my apartment.
4 Are there any people in the yard?
5 There are some pictures in my bedroom.
6 There isn't a TV in the kitchen.
7 There's a computer in the study.
8 There aren't any cupboards in the dining room.
9 Is there a bath tub in the bathroom?
10 There isn't a light in the garage.

Tell Sts to go back to the main lesson 8B.

EXTRA SUPPORT If you think Sts need more practice, you may want to give them the Grammar photocopyable activity at this point.

- d Put Sts in pairs, A and B, and tell them to go to Communication Is there...? Are there...?, A on p.106, B on p.111.

Go through the instructions with them carefully, and focus on the two questions (Is there a...? and Are there any...?). Tell Sts they have to ask these questions for items 1–6. Point out the four possible answers, and tell Sts to give as much information as they can when answering.

Sit A and B face-to-face if possible. A asks his / her questions to B. Then they switch roles.

Get feedback from various pairs.

Tell Sts to go back to the main lesson 8B.

4 PRONUNCIATION /ɛɪ/ and /ɪr/

- a 8.16 Focus on the two sound pictures chair /ɛɪ/ and ear /ɪr/.

Play the audio for Sts just to listen to the two sounds and example words.

8.16

See words and sounds in the Student Book on p.65

Now play the audio again for Sts to listen and repeat.

- b Get Sts to look at the words in the list and to decide which sound they go with in the chart in a. Remind Sts to say the words aloud to themselves and then write them in the correct row.
- c 8.17 Play the audio for Sts to listen and check. Check answers.

8.17

chair /ɛɪ/ there, careful, wear, they're, stairs, where ear /ɪr/ here, dear, near, we're, hear

Now play the audio again, pausing after each word for Sts to listen and repeat.

Ask Sts which three pairs of words are pronounced exactly the same.

there they're here hear wear where

EXTRA SUPPORT If these sounds are difficult for your Sts, it will help to show them the mouth position. You could model this yourself or use the Sound Bank videos on the Teacher Resource Center.

- d 8.18 Tell Sts they are going to hear six sentences or questions and they need to write them.

Play the audio, pausing after each one to give Sts time to write it down.

Check answers.

8.18

- 1 Here you are.
2 I can't hear you.
3 Where's the kitchen?
4 She always wears pants.
5 Is there a washing machine?
6 They're from America.

5 SPEAKING

- a Tell Sts that they are going to do a role play between someone who wants to rent a house or apartment and the person who owns it.
Put Sts into pairs, A and B. Tell Sts A they want to rent a place and must ask Sts B the questions in the book. Tell Sts B to imagine they want to rent out the house or apartment that they live in to Sts A, and must answer A's questions.
Now get Sts to interview each other. Monitor and help. Make sure they switch roles.
- b Focus on the instructions. To demonstrate, quickly sketch a basic plan of your living room on the board, and describe it to the class (you don't need to draw everything, just the main pieces of furniture).
Sts do the same in pairs. Monitor and help Sts with any other vocabulary they need.

6 WRITING describing your home

Tell Sts to go to Writing Describing your home on p.116.

- a Focus on the task. Give Sts a few minutes to read the website.

Ask the class Would you like to stay in the apartment in Hermosa Beach? Why (not)? and elicit some answers.

- b Now tell Sts to read the description of the apartment again and number the information in the correct order.

Check answers, making sure Sts understand all the vocabulary.

- 1 Where it is
- 2 What floor the apartment is on
- 3 What rooms there are
- 4 Details about some of the rooms
- 5 What you can see from the apartment
- 6 What places or services there are nearby
- 7 How far it is from downtown Los Angeles

- c Now tell Sts to look for the adjectives the writer used to describe 1–4.

Check answers.

- 1 quiet 2 light, pretty, small 3 great 4 beautiful

- d Focus on the information box about so and go through it with the class.

Tell Sts they are now going to advertise their house or apartment on the website. First, they should make notes about their house / apartment using the seven topics in b.

- e When Sts have finished their notes, get them to write the full description.

- f Sts read their descriptions, looking for mistakes, and then show it to another student.

Get some feedback from various pairs. Did they find anything that was the same in their descriptions?

- G there was / there were
V prepositions: place and movement
P silent letters

Lesson plan

This lesson is based on real information about a hotel in Los Angeles that is said to be haunted. An article about the hotel provides a context for Sts to practice there was / there were and prepositions of place and movement. The lesson begins with Sts reading the article and listening to two guests describing their experiences of staying near room 924, where the ghosts are said to appear – this provides the context for the grammar presentation of there was / there were. It then leads into a vocabulary focus on more prepositions of place and movement (Sts have already focused on simple ones, e.g., in, on, under, and to). Pronunciation focuses on silent letters in words like ghost and guest. Then Sts do a Speaking activity in which the Grammar and Vocabulary are practiced. The lesson finishes with a video listening about Portchester Castle.

OPTIONAL LEAD-IN (BOOKS CLOSED)

Play the Long sentence game to review there is and furniture. You begin the game. Say In my living room, there's a sofa. Then choose a student to continue. He / She must repeat your sentence, and add one more piece of furniture, e.g., In my living room, there's a sofa and two armchairs. Now point to another student, who must continue, repeating the sentence and adding to it, e.g., In my living room, there's a sofa, two armchairs, and a table. After all the Sts have added their words, see if the whole class can repeat the list from memory.

1 READING & LISTENING identifying paragraph topics

- a Books open. Focus on the task, making sure Sts know the meaning of ghost (= the form of a dead person that a living person thinks he / she sees) and haunted (= if a place is haunted, people think there are ghosts there). Elicit answers. You could start the activity by telling Sts whether or not you believe in ghosts.
- b Focus on the photos and tell Sts that this is a real hotel in Los Angeles. Now focus on the instructions, and give Sts time to read the article.

EXTRA CHALLENGE Put Sts in pairs and get them to discuss what each of the three paragraphs is about. Elicit answers.

Paragraph 1 is about the history of the hotel and famous people who stayed there.
 Paragraph 2 is about the hotel's ghosts, and the rooms that they haunt.
 Paragraph 3 is about the experiences of a partygoer at an Oscars viewing party held in the hotel.

Put Sts in pairs and get them to answer questions 1–5. Check answers.

EXTRA SUPPORT Before Sts read the article, check whether you need to pre-teach any vocabulary.

- 1 Marilyn Monroe, F. Scott Fitzgerald, Prince
- 2 Catch Me If You Can
- 3 Marilyn Monroe
- 4 He pats their backs.
- 5 He was in the hotel's ballroom and it was ten degrees colder in one spot.

- c  8.19 Focus on the question and make sure Sts know the meaning of guest. Model and drill pronunciation. Play the audio for Sts to listen and answer the question. Check the answer.

EXTRA SUPPORT Read through the script and decide if you need to pre-teach any new vocabulary before Sts listen.

No, but they both heard strange noises.

8.19

(script in Student Book on p.121)

- 1 We stayed at The Roosevelt Hollywood for two nights. It's a really nice place — a very elegant, very LA hotel. The service, atmosphere, and room were excellent and we really enjoyed our stay. But we had a really strange experience. On the first night, we woke up at 3:30 in the morning. There was a strange noise outside our door, like someone softly playing a trumpet. To tell you the truth, we were a little bit frightened. Why would someone play the trumpet in the middle of the night? Then we thought that it was probably another guest in the hall, and maybe they were listening to music on their cell phone or something, and we went back to sleep. But on the second night, the same exact thing happened. So we just thought, strange, maybe it's because it's an old hotel and the walls are thin. But when we got home, we told the story to a friend, and he told us that The Roosevelt Hollywood is haunted. We looked on the internet, and we read that people say that room 924 has a ghost! And our room was 922, the next room! We sent an email to The Roosevelt Hollywood and told them about it and they sent us some really interesting information about the ghost stories. We'd really like to stay in this fantastic hotel again, but maybe not in room 924!
- 2 I stayed at The Roosevelt Hollywood in May of last year with my husband. It's a beautiful hotel, with a great location. It's right on Hollywood Boulevard. We were in a room on the eighth floor. We knew that people said there were ghosts, and we knew about room 924, but we weren't worried at all. We had a nice meal at a nearby restaurant and then we went to bed. But in the middle of the night — about 3:00 in the morning — we suddenly woke up and we could hear loud noises from the room above us. They were really loud noises — like people were dropping their heavy suitcases on the floor. Anyway, after two or three minutes, the noises stopped and we went back to sleep. There weren't any more strange noises, and we slept for the rest of the night. The next morning, we went to reception and said, "We slept very poorly last night — the people in the room above us made so much noise." The man at reception asked for our room number and said, "Let me check." He looked on the computer and he said, "The room above you is empty." So I said, "Are you sure?" And he said, "Yes. The room above yours is room 924. There wasn't anybody in that room last night." We checked out of the hotel the same morning. Never again!

- d Focus on the task. Give Sts time to read 1–8, and make sure they understand all the vocabulary.
Play the audio again for Sts to listen and complete the task.
Check answers (M = The man, W = The woman).

1 W 2 M/W 3 M/W 4 M 5 W 6 M 7 W 8 W

- e Focus on the task and give Sts time to complete the verb phrases.

EXTRA SUPPORT Before Sts fill in the blanks, elicit the base form of the five verbs, e.g., got – get. Now tell Sts, in pairs, to read the article again and fill in the blanks. When they find one of the verb phrases, they should discuss its meaning.

EXTRA CHALLENGE Get Sts to fill in the blanks without looking at the article. Then put Sts in pairs and get them to compare answers and discuss what each verb phrase means.

Check answers, getting Sts to explain each verb phrase.

- |                      |                                 |

| 4 checked out | paid your bill and left         |

Help with any other new vocabulary. Model and drill the pronunciation of any tricky words.

EXTRA SUPPORT If there's time, you could get Sts to listen again with the script on p.121, so they can see exactly what they understood / didn't understand. Translate / Explain any new words or phrases.

- f Do this as a whole-class activity. You could tell the class whether you would like to stay there.

2 GRAMMAR there was / there were

- a 8.20 Focus on the four sentences and get Sts to complete them.
Play the audio for Sts to listen and check.
Check answers.

- |   |         |
|---|---------|
| 1 | was     |
| 2 | weren't |

8.20

- There was a strange noise outside our door.
- There weren't any more strange noises.
- We knew that people said there were ghosts.
- There wasn't anybody in that room last night.

- b Tell Sts to go to Grammar Bank 8C on p.138.

Grammar notes

There is / are can be used in any tense simply by changing the form of be, thus the past is there was / were.

Although it works in exactly the same way as there is / are, Sts have a tendency to forget the plural form there were.

- 8.21 Focus on the example sentences and play the audio for Sts to listen and repeat. Then go through the rules.

Now focus on the exercises for 8C on p.139. Sts do the exercises individually or in pairs.

Check answers, getting Sts to read the full sentences.

- |   |                     |                     |                   |             |

Tell Sts to go back to the main lesson 8C.

EXTRA SUPPORT If you think Sts need more practice, you may want to give them the Grammar photocopiable activity at this point.

3 VOCABULARY

prepositions: place and movement

- a Get Sts to complete the two sentences with prepositions. Check answers.

1 in 2 through

EXTRA SUPPORT Demonstrate the meaning of the prepositions using, e.g., a chair in the classroom.

- b Tell Sts to go to Vocabulary Bank Prepositions on p.162.

Vocabulary notes

Highlight the difference between in (= inside an enclosed space, e.g., in a drawer) and on (= touching an external surface, e.g., on the wall), and between across from (= face-to-face) and in front of demonstrating with objects / people in the classroom.

Focus on 1 Place and get Sts to do a individually or in pairs.

- 🔊 8.22 Now do b. Play the audio for Sts to listen and check. Check answers.

🔊 8.22

Prepositions, 1 Place

8 across from 6 next to 4 over

Then either use the audio to drill the pronunciation of the prepositions, or model and drill them yourself.

EXTRA IDEA Give more practice with the prepositions by asking questions about things / people in the classroom.

Now focus on the example in Activation. Sts cover the prepositions and test each other in pairs by pointing to pictures and asking Where's the ghost?

Go through the above and below box with the class.

Focus on 2 Movement and get Sts to do a individually.

Vocabulary notes

Highlight that with into and out of, if we use them without a place, we just use in and out, e.g., Come in. Come into the yard. Go out. Go out of the room.

- 🔊 8.23 Now do b. Play the audio for Sts to listen and check. Check answers.

🔊 8.23

2 Movement

Then either use the audio to drill the pronunciation of the prepositions, or model and drill them yourself.

Now focus on the example in Activation. Sts cover the prepositions and test each other in pairs by pointing to pictures and asking Where's the ghost going?

Tell Sts to go back to the main lesson 8C.

EXTRA SUPPORT If you think Sts need more practice, you may want to give them the Vocabulary photocopiable activity at this point.

4 PRONUNCIATION

silent letters

Pronunciation notes

Encourage and help Sts to cross out silent letters when they learn new words, like this: listen.

Emphasize that if Sts can recognize the phonetic transcriptions next to words in the dictionary, this will help them to identify silent letters.

- a 🔊 8.24 Go through the Silent letters box, and elicit the pronunciation of ghost, so Sts can hear the h isn't pronounced. Point out the phonetics also make this clear. Get Sts to say the words aloud to themselves to help them decide which they think is the silent letter in each word, and then cross it out. Meanwhile write the words on the board to help check answers.

Play the audio for Sts to listen and check.

Check answers by eliciting which letter is silent and crossing it out (the silent letters are in red below).

🔊 8.24

listen talk what write

Highlight that in words that begin with kn- (e.g., knee) or wr- (e.g., wrong), the k and the w are always silent.

EXTRA IDEA If Sts have dictionaries, you could get them to check their answers with the phonetics in their dictionary. This will help build their confidence in dictionary use.

- b Get Sts to practice saying the words.

5 SPEAKING

Put Sts in pairs, A and B, and tell them to go to Communication A haunted room, A on p.106, B on p.111.

Give Sts one minute to look at the photo. Then focus on the questions, and elicit that they start with Was there...? for singular nouns and Were there...? for plural nouns.

EXTRA SUPPORT You could get Sts to write the questions.

Get Sts to sit face-to-face if possible. A (book open) asks his / her questions to B (book closed), who has to answer. Then they switch roles.

Get feedback. Who had the most correct answers, A or B? Tell Sts to go back to the main lesson 8C.

6 VIDEO LISTENING

- a Tell Sts they are going to watch a documentary about Portchester Castle and its ghosts. Portchester Castle is on the south coast of England, near Portsmouth. Focus on the question and play the video for Sts to watch. Play it again if necessary. Get Sts to compare with a partner, and then check the answer.

EXTRA SUPPORT Read through the script and decide if you need to pre-teach any new vocabulary before Sts watch.

Two of the four ghosts are frightening.

A haunted castle

Hi, I'm Ned. Welcome to Portchester Castle. Portchester Castle is over one thousand seven hundred years old. It's near Portsmouth, a city on the south coast of England. The castle is part of English Heritage. English Heritage is a charity, which manages over four hundred old buildings and monuments in England.

With so many old buildings, there are also lots of reports of ghosts. And ghosts are sometimes a problem for staff and visitors at English Heritage. In fact, some staff members decided to leave their jobs because of the ghosts. I've come here to Portchester to find out more about reports of not one, but four ghosts! And many of the ghosts come from different times in Portchester's long history. Portchester Castle dates back to Roman Britain; the Romans built the original castle here in the year two hundred and ninety. The first ghost report also comes from Roman times. Visitors report that they see the ghost of a Roman soldier guarding the walls, but they say they don't feel frightened.

In the Middle Ages, Portchester became a favorite castle for the kings and queens of England. During this time, a small monastery was built. There's a church here now in place of the monastery. People say that they see a man dressed in black here and they think he is the ghost of a monk from the monastery. Surprisingly, people don't feel frightened when they see him. They say that he disappears when they look at him. Our first two ghosts are not frightening, but the next ghost really frightens people – the White Lady. Some people believe that this is the ghost of Charlotte White. She was a woman who visited the castle in the nineteenth century. Charlotte's baby fell into the water and poor Charlotte also died when she tried to save her child.

The most frightening ghost of all is a man on a black horse. Both castle visitors and staff members say that they see him. One of the staff who saw the ghost said, "It got bigger and bigger. It started to come towards me and I screamed and ran away." People also say they hear the sound of horses; one visitor even heard the sound of horses on a video he filmed. One of the strange things about the man on the horse is that we don't know who he is or which part of Portchester's long history he is from.

I was quite sure I didn't believe in ghosts before I came here, but, after a day at Portchester, I'm not so sure.

EXTRA IDEA Ask Sts if they noticed anything strange on the video (there is interference before the presenter goes into the castle, and a hooded figure, perhaps the ghost of the monk, appears four times).

- b Focus on the task. Go through 1–8 with Sts, making sure they understand all the vocabulary, e.g., charity, etc. Now play the video again. Get Sts to compare with a partner, and then check answers.

1 1,700 2 English 3 ghosts 4 soldier 5 look
6 baby / child 7 away 8 horses

EXTRA SUPPORT If there's time, you could get Sts to watch again with subtitles / showing the script, so they can see exactly what they understood / didn't understand. Translate / Explain any new words or phrases.

- c Finally, focus on the question and ask the whole class.

For instructions on how to use these pages, see p.39.

- G countable / uncountable nouns, a / an, some / any
V food and drink
P the letters ea

Lesson plan

Food and drink provide the context for looking at the grammar of countable and uncountable nouns and the related use of a, an, some, and any. The lesson begins with a quiz on food and drink words that have come up so far in Level 1, and Sts then go to the Vocabulary Bank to learn more words. Sts then read part of a blog where a man describes why he eats the same thing every day. The Reading leads into the grammar focus, and Sts go on to practice the new grammar. Sts then listen to four people describing their dinner the previous night. The pronunciation focus looks at the vowel combination ea, which can be pronounced in several different ways, and which occurs in many common food words, e.g., bread, meat, and steak. Finally, in Speaking, Sts tell each other what they ate and drank yesterday, and discuss their eating habits to find out if they are similar or not.

1 VOCABULARY food and drink

- a Books open. Focus Sts' attention on the instructions and point out that the first answer (pizza) has been done for them. Go through the clues, eliciting / explaining any words Sts don't know.

Put Sts in pairs and give them two minutes to try to write down all words in the quiz.

Check answers by getting Sts to spell the words, and write them on the board. Model and drill the pronunciation.

1 pasta 2 milk, sugar 3 meat 4 water 5 ice cream
 6 potato 7 eggs 8 chocolate 9 sandwich 10 breakfast, lunch, dinner

- b Tell Sts to go to Vocabulary Bank Food and drink on p.163 and get them to do a individually or in pairs. There are more words than usual, but Sts will probably already know some of them.

Vocabulary notes

This is a limited list of food and drink words in order to not overload Sts. If there are any food or drink items that are very common in your Sts country, you may want to get Sts to add them to the lists.

- 9.1 Now do b. Play the audio for Sts to listen and check.

Check answers.

Then either use the audio to drill the pronunciation of the words, or model and drill them yourself. Give further practice of any words your Sts find difficult to pronounce. Focus on Activation. Get Sts to cover the words and use the photos to test themselves or their partner.

Tell Sts to go back to the main lesson 9A.

EXTRA SUPPORT If you think Sts need more practice, you may want to give them the Vocabulary photocopiable activity at this point.

- c Focus on the questions and give Sts time to think about their answers. Elicit / Teach words for any food that is very common in your Sts' country, but is not in the Vocabulary Bank.

Put Sts in pairs or small groups to discuss the questions. You could demonstrate by telling Sts what your favorite breakfast is and if there is any food or drink you don't like. Get some feedback from various pairs or groups.

2 GRAMMAR

countable / uncountable nouns,
a / an, some / any

- a Focus on the instructions, making sure Sts know what a blogger is (= a person who has a website where they write regularly about topics that interest them). Do the questions as a whole-class activity, and teach Sts any food words they don't know.

smoked salmon, avocado, bread, cream cheese, lime

- b Do this as a whole-class activity.
Tell Sts to read his blog and find the answer.
Check the answer.

Because he doesn't want to spend a lot of time deciding what to eat.

- c Tell Sts to read the blog again, and then, in pairs, to answer questions 1–6.
When Sts have finished, check answers to questions 1–3, and elicit opinions for questions 4–6.

- 1 They all wear / wore the same clothes every day.
- 2 He spends less time and money buying food, and never needs to worry if his diet is healthy or not.

Check answers.

1 a 2 some, an 3 some, some

- e Tell Sts to go to Grammar Bank 9A on p.140.

Grammar notes

Countable / uncountable nouns

The concept of countable and uncountable nouns shouldn't cause too many problems (unless they do not exist in the Sts' own language), but what may cause confusion is that some words are countable in English, but uncountable in other languages or vice versa.

You may need to give more examples of when a noun can be countable or uncountable. This occurs when we can think of e.g., a chicken (a whole chicken) and chicken (e.g., chicken pieces).

Other examples: a water (= a bottle or glass of water), water (= the liquid in general); a coffee (= a cup of coffee), coffee (= the drink in general).

a / an, some / any

Sts have already learned the rules for a / an, some, and any plus singular and plural countable nouns in 8B. Here they learn that some can also be used with singular uncountable nouns to mean "a quantity of"; "not an exact amount", e.g., some butter, some milk.

Sts may find it strange using some and any with "singular" words, e.g., butter, since they previously used some and any with plural nouns, and may have translated them in their heads as plural words.

Make sure you point out the exception of using some for requests and offers. Sts usually assimilate this rule instinctively through learning set phrases like Would you like some coffee?

- 9.2 Focus on the example sentences and play the audio for Sts to listen and repeat. Then go through the rules with the class. You could point out that a good dictionary will tell Sts if a noun is countable or uncountable.

Focus on the some in ? box and go through it with the class.

Now focus on the exercises for 9A on p.141. Sts do the exercises individually or in pairs.

Check answers, getting Sts to read the full sentences in b.

- a
1 some milk 2 a sandwich 3 some French fries
4 some lettuce 5 an egg 6 some carrots
7 some chocolate 8 a cake
- b
1 any 2 some 3 any 4 some 5 any 6 any 7 some 8 an 9 some 10 a

Tell Sts to go back to the main lesson 9A.

EXTRA SUPPORT If you think Sts need more practice, you may want to give them the Grammar photocopiable activity at this point.

- f 9.3 Focus on the instructions and make sure Sts understand what they have to do. Point out the example. Play the audio for Sts to listen and write the shopping list. If necessary, play the audio again. Check answers. If Sts just answer with the food word, elicit whether it should be a or some.

some coffee, some milk, some orange juice, some apple juice, a pineapple, some (four or five) oranges, some bananas, some onions, some (two or three big) potatoes, a bottle of soda, some lettuce

9.3
(script in Student Book on p.121)

- W = woman, M = man
W We need food for the weekend – can you go to the store on your way home this evening?
M OK, I guess so. What do we need?
W Let's see. We need some coffee, we don't have any.
M OK...coffee...
W And some milk. And some juice.
M Orange juice?
W Yeah. And maybe apple juice, too.
M OK. What else?
W Get a pineapple if they have them.
M One pineapple...
W And some oranges – four or five oranges – and some bananas. And I want to make a vegetable curry, so get some onions, some potatoes, some tomatoes...
M Hold on, wait a minute...! Potatoes...
W Yes, two or three big ones. Oh, and forget the tomatoes – we've got some in the refrigerator. And a bottle of soda.
M Coke? Pepsi?
W Any kind is fine. Oh, and some lettuce, I want to make a salad.
M Some lettuce...Do we need any tomatoes?
W No, I said no tomatoes!
M Sorry, yes, you did. Is that everything?
W Yes, I think so. And don't forget anything!

3 LISTENING hypothesizing about photos to prepare for listening

- a Focus on the photos and the instructions and explain what a hashtag is (= a word or phrase with the symbol # in front of it, included in some messages sent using the Twitter social networking service, so that you can search for all messages with the same subject). You might want to pre-teach take out (= food that you buy at a restaurant that sells hot food you can take and eat somewhere else) and foodie (= a person who is very interested in cooking and eating different kinds of food), and tell Sts that foodies often post photos on Instagram.

Put Sts in pairs and get them to match the photos to 1–4.

EXTRA SUPPORT Ask Sts what different foods they can see in the photos (A = turkey, Brussels sprouts, potatoes, carrots, pie, mashed potatoes; B = lettuce, onion, tomatoes, chicken, mushrooms; C = chicken, carrots, tomatoes, lettuce, and some pieces of fried bread; D = eggs in tomato sauce, onion).

- b 9.4 Point out the Glossary. Now play the audio for Sts to listen and check. Check answers, and get Sts to say what they can see in the photos.

EXTRA SUPPORT Read through the script and decide if you need to pre-teach any new vocabulary before Sts listen.

1 B 2 C 3 D 4 A

9.4
(script in Student Book on p.122)

- 1 This is for my foodie friends. In case you thought lettuce was only for salads, here I'm cooking it in some butter with an onion. Then I add some mushrooms, chicken, fresh tomatoes, and some other things – not sure yet. Lettuce is also great in soups, or you can grill it and serve it with blue cheese.
- 2 We didn't feel like cooking last night, and besides, we didn't have any food in the house, so we decided to order some take-out salads from our wonderful local pizzeria. They were all very good, but my favorite was a chicken salad with carrots, tomatoes, peppers, lettuce, and some pieces of fried bread.
- 3 Brunch Sunday afternoon at a restaurant in the East Village, called Timna. We had lots of different sharing plates. I loved everything, especially this dish called shakshuka, which is North African, and it's basically eggs in a tomato sauce, but the mixture of herbs and spices makes it taste great. And the bread we had to dip in the sauce was wonderful, too. Go there. Soon.
- 4 OK guys, this is it! Our Thanksgiving dinner – which we had at 6:30 last night. All the usual things: turkey with cranberry sauce, mashed potatoes, sweet potatoes, lots of vegetables, and more...and more... Mom said, "Why not go to a restaurant this year – maybe have seafood?", but I said, "No, I want it homemade and traditional" – so she did it. Thanks, Mom. I now need to spend a few hours on the sofa before I even think about going to bed. So how was yours?

- c Focus on the task. Tell Sts they are going to listen to the audio again, and this time they need to decide which speaker talks about what. Make sure Sts understand all the vocabulary, e.g., ingredients. Play the audio for Sts to listen and complete the task. Check answers.

- Speaker 2 a good restaurant near their house
Speaker 1 ways of preparing something
Speaker 3 a dish with two main ingredients
Speaker 4 a meal for a special occasion

EXTRA SUPPORT If there's time, you could get Sts to listen again with the script on p.122, so they can see exactly what they understood / didn't understand. Translate / Explain any new words or phrases.

- d Focus on the questions and elicit / explain the difference between a meal (= breakfast, lunch, dinner) and a dish (= food prepared in a particular way, e.g., a pizza, spaghetti carbonara, etc.). Put Sts in small groups or pairs to discuss the questions. Get some feedback. You could tell Sts your answers, too.

4 PRONUNCIATION the letters ea

Pronunciation notes

The combination of vowels e + a has different possible pronunciations, several of which seem quite irregular to Sts, e.g., great /ɡreɪt/. In this exercise, we focus on common examples of this spelling occurring in food words.

- a Focus on the words in the list and elicit that they all have the vowels ea, but that the pronunciation is not the same. Now focus on the sound pictures and elicit the three words and sounds (tree /i/, egg /ɛ/, train /eɪ/). Get Sts, in pairs, to put the words in the correct columns. Encourage them to say the words aloud to help them.
- b  9.5 Play the audio once for Sts to listen and check. Check answers.

9.5

tree /i/	eat, ice cream, meat, peas, tea
egg /ɛ/	bread, breakfast, healthy
train /eɪ/	steak

EXTRA SUPPORT Play the audio again, pausing after each word (or group of words) for Sts to repeat.

Sts now practice saying the words.

Elicit that the most common pronunciation is /i/, but they will need to learn unusual ones, e.g., steak, by heart.

EXTRA CHALLENGE On the board, write some more words with ea that Sts know, and that have one of these three pronunciations for Sts to put in the columns, e.g., repeat, easy, headphones, read (/ɛ/ and /i/), great, mean, please, speak. You may want to point out that the letters ear have a different pronunciation from ea + other consonants, and is either /ɪr/, e.g., hear, or /ɛr/, e.g., wear. Sts saw this in 8B.

5 SPEAKING

- a Tell Sts to make a food journal for yesterday, i.e., write down what they had to eat and drink. They can use the Vocabulary Bank Food and drink on p.163 to help them. Monitor and help with any new words they need, but try not to overdo new vocabulary. Encourage Sts to use more general food words, e.g., meat, fish, vegetables, rather than specific words (e.g., lamb, cod, eggplant, etc.), which they probably won't know. Tell them to write a / an or some with each word, and to group them under meals. Tell Sts to go back to the main lesson 9A.
- b You could demonstrate the activity by telling Sts what you had yesterday, where you had it, and who made it. In pairs, Sts tell each other their answers. Monitor and help with pronunciation, and correct mistakes with a / an or some. Get some feedback. Did anyone have a very similar meal to their partner?
- c Focus on the questions and make sure Sts understand all the vocabulary. Put Sts in pairs to ask and answer the questions. Monitor and help. Get feedback from some pairs.

EXTRA IDEA Tell Sts they are now going to write their own blogs, so they need to write a short text like the ones they heard in the Listening about what they ate yesterday.

- G quantifiers: how much / how many, a lot of, etc.
V food containers
P linking, /f/ and /s/

Lesson plan

This lesson continues the theme of food and focuses on sugar and salt, which were both known at different times in history as “white gold.” The lesson begins with a vocabulary focus on containers, e.g., package and can. The context for the grammar presentation is the amount of sugar and salt that there is in some common food items. Sts learn about quantifiers, e.g., much and a lot of, and asking about quantity, e.g., How much sugar is there in dark chocolate? Pronunciation looks at two sounds, /f/ and /s/. The reading text Fascinating facts about sugar and salt is based on several recent articles and studies. The lesson ends with Sts interviewing each other, using a questionnaire to find out how much salt and sugar they eat every day.

OPTIONAL LEAD-IN (BOOKS CLOSED)

Review food and countability by playing the Long sentence game (see Optional lead-in for 8C on p.113). You begin by saying In my refrigerator, there's (e.g., some milk). Sts continue, remembering what the previous people have said, then adding an item of their own. Make sure they use a, an, or some before the food word.

1 VOCABULARY & PRONUNCIATION

food containers; linking

- a 9.6 Books open. Focus on the photos and explain that they are all containers that are often used for food. Then tell Sts to match the words and photos.

Play the audio for Sts to listen and check.

Check answers.

9.6

- 6 a bag
 3 a bottle
 5 a box
 4 a can
 2 a carton
 7 a jar
 1 a package

Play the audio again, pausing for Sts to listen and repeat.

- b 9.7 Tell Sts they are going to hear five conversations in stores and they must listen and write what people want to buy, using the words in a, e.g., a jar of honey.

Play the audio, pausing after each conversation to give Sts time to write.

Check answers. Highlight that the container words and of are always linked, and the pronunciation of of is /əv/.

- 1 a bottle of olive oil    2 a package of (basmati) rice
 3 a can of tomatoes    4 a box of chocolates    5 a carton of orange juice

9.7

(script in Student Book on p.122)

1

A Hi. I'd like a bottle of oil.

B Olive oil?

A Yes, please.

2

A Can I help you?

B Yes, I'm looking for a package of rice.

A Ordinary rice, basmati, brown rice?

B Uh, basmati, please.

3

A Excuse me. I need a can of tomatoes, but I can't see them anywhere.

B They're over there, next to the pasta.

A Thanks.

4

A Hi. I want a box of chocolates – a nice one. It's for my girlfriend's birthday.

B How much do you want to spend?

A Oh, not very much. I mean, nothing too expensive...

5

A A carton of juice, please.

B Apple juice? Orange juice?

A Uh, orange juice.

B That's two dollars and fifty-nine cents, please.

EXTRA SUPPORT If there's time, you could get Sts to listen again with the script on p.122, so they can see exactly what they understood / didn't understand. Translate / Explain any new words or phrases.

- c Sts now have to make their own phrases using a container from a and a word from the list. Point out the example.

Tell Sts to think about how they buy these things in their country.

Get Sts to compare their ideas with a partner, and then check answers.

Possible answers

- a bag of coffee / a bag of potato chips
 a box of cereal / a package of cereal a package of coffee / a can of coffee a box of cookies / a package of cookies a bottle of soda / a can of soda
 a jar of jam
 a bottle of milk / a carton of milk a package of sugar / a box of sugar a can of tuna

2 GRAMMAR quantifiers

- a Focus on the photos of food items, and give Sts time to think about how much sugar and salt is in each item and number them 0 (no sugar / salt) to 3 (a lot of sugar / salt).
- b Focus on the pictures of the spoons and make sure Sts understand the expressions for quantities from none to a lot. Highlight that a little / not much = a medium quantity, between a lot and a little.

Now focus on the speech bubbles and remind Sts that the question is How much...?, not How many...?, because sugar and salt are uncountable.

Put Sts in pairs and get them to ask each other how much sugar / salt is in each item.

Get some feedback from the class about what they think for each item, but don't correct their guesses at this stage.

- c Tell Sts to go to Communication Sugar and salt on p.106. Go through the facts with the class, establishing whether there is a lot / not much / a little sugar or salt, or none in each food item.

Sugar

a can of soda: a lot   a small bar of dark chocolate: a little an egg: none

Salt

a large bag of potato chips: a lot   a slice of white bread: a little/not much   a bottle of water: a little / not much   a bottle of olive oil: none

Get feedback from some Sts. Were their answers in a correct? Did they find any facts surprising?

Tell Sts to go back to the main lesson 9B.

- d Focus on the sentences. Sts should, from memory, try to complete the sentences with a food item or drink from 2a. Highlight that you have to say There isn't any salt NOT There's none salt.

Get Sts to compare with a partner, and then check answers.

1 olive oil   2 dark chocolate   3 water   4 (a can of) soda

- e Tell Sts to go to Grammar Bank 9B on p.140.

Grammar notes

a lot of

In positive sentences, native speakers usually use a lot of for big quantities. It is also possible to use a lot of in negatives and questions, although it is more common to use much / many.

We use a lot (NOT a lot of) in short answers or when we don't give the noun, e.g., I eat a lot of chocolate, but I eat a lot.

In colloquial English, people often use lots of as an alternative to a lot of. It's useful for Sts to recognize both forms, but at this level, we only include a lot of in the Grammar Bank exercises.

much / many

Much and many are used mainly in negative sentences and questions. Many is also sometimes used in positive sentences in formal English, e.g., Many people live in houses in the US. However, much is not usually used in positive sentences, e.g., NOT British people drink much tea.

Tell Sts to think of much as singular and many as plural to help them to remember which one to use.

- 9.8 Focus on the example sentences and play the audio for Sts to listen and repeat. Then go through the rules with the class.

Focus on the a lot and lots of box and go through it with the class.

Now focus on the exercises for 9B on p.141. Sts do the exercises individually or in pairs.

Check answers, getting Sts to read the full sentences. In a sentence 4, elicit / explain the difference between some chocolate (a bar, some pieces, etc.) and chocolates (individual candy covered in chocolate).

- a
1 How much   2 How many   3 How much   4 How many 5 How much   6 How much   7 How many   8 How many 9 How much   10 How many
- b
1 a lot of   2 A little.   3 much   4 A lot.   5 a lot of 6 not much   7 many   8 None.   9 a little   10 much, any

Tell Sts to go back to the main lesson 9B.

EXTRA SUPPORT If you think Sts need more practice, you may want to give them the Grammar photocopiable activity at this point.

- f Focus on the instructions. Elicit / Explain the meaning of the question How about you? and check Sts can remember the meaning of fast food.

Put Sts in pairs, A and B. Demonstrate the activity by saying how much you eat of one of the things in the list. Then turn to a student and ask How about you?

A should start by saying how much fish he / she eats, give extra information, and ask B. They then switch roles.

Get some feedback from various pairs. Find out if pairs have a similar diet, or if they found out something surprising about their partner's eating habits.

3 PRONUNCIATION /ʃ/ and /s/

Pronunciation notes

/ʃ/

sh and -tion are always pronounced /ʃ/, e.g., shop, station.

c before iou and ia is usually /ʃ/, e.g., delicious, special.

/s/

c before e and i is pronounced /s/, e.g., city, center (c before other vowels is usually /k/).

s at the beginning of a word is always /s/. The only two exceptions are sure /ʃʊə/ and sugar /ʃʊgə/.

s in the middle of a word or at the end is sometimes /s/ and sometimes /z/.

See Sound Bank p.167.

- a 9.9 Focus on the two sound pictures and play the audio for Sts just to listen. Make sure Sts can hear the difference between them.

9.9

See sounds and words in the Student Book on p.72

Now play the audio again for Sts to listen and repeat.

EXTRA SUPPORT If these sounds are difficult for your Sts, it will help to show them the mouth position. You could model this yourself or use the Sound Bank videos on the Teacher Resource Center.

- b 9.10 Sts should say each word aloud and then put it in the correct row in a.

Get Sts to compare with a partner, then play the audio for them to check.

Check answers, and elicit when c is pronounced /s/ (before e and i although ci can sometimes be /ʃ/).

9.10

shower /ʃ/ sugar, fish, delicious, fresh, information, reception, shopping, special, sure

snake /s/ salt, chocolates, center, cereal, glass, rice, salad, science, spice

Now play the audio, pausing after each word for Sts to repeat.

- c 9.11 Focus on the conversation. Play the audio once and get Sts to listen and read.

9.11

See conversation in the Student Book on p.72

Then play the audio again, pausing after each sentence for Sts to listen and repeat.

Now get Sts to practice it in pairs. Monitor, helping and correcting.

Finally, you could get one pair to “perform” for the rest of the class.

4 READING categorizing information

- a Tell Sts they are going to read an article entitled Fascinating facts about sugar and salt. Elicit / Explain the meaning of fascinating (= very interesting). Model and drill pronunciation. Point out the Glossary.

In pairs, Sts read the article and fill in the blanks with sugar or salt. Highlight the meaning of too much (= more than what is good for you) before blank 12.

EXTRA SUPPORT Before Sts read the article, check whether you need to pre-teach any vocabulary, but not the verbs in c.

- b 9.12 Play the audio for Sts to listen and check.

Check answers. Don't ask Sts about the facts at this stage, as they will be discussing them later.

1 Salt 2 Sugar 3 sugar 4 sugar 5 salt 6 sugar 7 salt
8 salt 9 sugar 10 sugar 11 Salt 12 salt

9.12

Fascinating facts about sugar and salt

At different times in history, both sugar and salt were called “white gold” because they were so expensive and difficult to get. But there are many more interesting facts about sugar and salt...

Salt is used to make glass, laundry detergent, and paper.

Sugar really helps the medicine go down! It's an important ingredient of many modern medicines.

Christopher Columbus introduced sugar to the New World in 1493, on his second voyage.

If you put sugar into a vase of flowers, the flowers last longer.

If you want to check if an egg is fresh, put it in a cup with water and salt. If the egg floats, it isn't very fresh.

In the UK, there's a club for people who collect the little packets of sugar you get when you order tea or coffee in a café or restaurant.

If your dog or cat has fleas, and they are now living in your rugs, put some salt on the rugs and leave it for 12 hours. This kills all the fleas.

Only 6% of the salt used in the US is used in food; another 17% is used for de-icing roads in the winter months.

Sure and sugar are the only two words in the English language that begin with “s-u” and are pronounced “sh.”

Scientists use sugar to make different kinds of plastic, e.g., for food packaging.

Salt kills some bacteria, and so helps food to last longer, which is why cheese contains a lot.

If you eat too much salt (about one gram per kilogram of weight), you can die. This was a method of ritual suicide in ancient China.

- c Tell Sts to read the article again and find the verbs. In pairs, they should try to guess the meaning and pronunciation of the verbs.

Check answers, either explaining in English or translating into Sts' L1. Model and drill the pronunciation, and get Sts to underline the stressed syllable in each verb.

introduce /,ɪntrə'dʊs/ = to bring in something new float /flaʊt/ = to stay on top of water collect /kə'lekt/ = to bring together things that are the same in some way, to study or enjoy them order /'ɔ:də/ = to ask for food or drink in a restaurant, cafe, etc.

de-ice /,di'aɪs/ = to take the ice away from something contain /kən'teɪn/ = to have or hold something within

Help with any other new vocabulary. Model and drill the pronunciation of any tricky words.

- d Do this as a whole-class activity.

5 SPEAKING

- a Focus on the questionnaire about sugar and salt. Give Sts a few minutes to fill in the blanks with How much or How many.

Check answers by going through the questions, making sure Sts understand all the vocabulary, e.g., spoon and add.

1 How many 2 How many 3 How much 4 How many 6 How much 7 How much 8 How many

- b You could demonstrate the activity by getting Sts to interview you first. Answer the questions, giving a little extra information where you can, as a model for Sts, e.g., I don't have sugar in my coffee; I hate soda.

Sts interview each other in pairs. When they have finished, they should tell each other if they need to eat less sugar or salt. If you didn't teach it earlier, you may want to teach Sts the phrase too much.

Get some feedback from individual Sts about their partner.

- G comparative adjectives: bigger, more dangerous, etc.
V high numbers
P /ər/, sentence stress

Lesson plan

The context of this lesson is general knowledge quizzes, through which comparative adjectives are presented and practiced, and high numbers introduced. The lesson starts with a vocabulary focus on numbers greater than 100. In Listening, Sts decide if they think some statements are true or false, and then listen to a contestant answering the questions on a quiz show. The quiz questions lead into the grammar focus on comparative adjectives. This is followed by a pronunciation focus on stress in comparative sentences, and the sound /ər/ in -er endings. In Speaking, Sts put the grammar and high numbers into practice and role-play taking part in a quiz show. The lesson finishes with a reading text about trivia nights in the UK and US.

OPTIONAL LEAD-IN (BOOKS CLOSED)

Review numbers up to 100 by writing some sums on the board and eliciting answers from the class.

1 VOCABULARY high numbers

- a Books open. Focus on the lesson title and elicit / explain the meaning.

Put Sts in pairs and give them a few minutes to answer the three radio quiz questions. If they don't know the answers, tell them to guess. Tell Sts at this point just to answer a, b, or c rather than trying to say the long numbers.

- b  9.13 Tell Sts they are going to hear a contestant on the radio quiz show answering the three questions. Play the audio for Sts to listen and check their answers to a.

Check answers.

1 b 2 c 3 b

9.13

C I think it's b, 37 million.
H B is the right answer! Question two. How far is it from New York City to Los Angeles? Is it a, about 1,500 miles, b, about 2,500 miles, or c, about 3,100 miles?
C About 3,100 miles.
H Are you sure?

C I think it's c, 750.
H Final answer?
C Final answer, 750.
H I'm sorry, the right answer is b. There are 650 politicians in the British Parliament.

Play the audio again and tell Sts this time to pay attention to how the numbers are said. Pause the audio after each answer and elicit the number from Sts, and write it on the board.

- 1 thirty-seven million 2 (about) three thousand one hundred
 3 six hundred and fifty

Vocabulary notes

Highlight:

- there is no s on million or thousand.
- the optional use of and between hundreds and tens, e.g., six hundred and fifty or six hundred fifty. Sts will hear it both ways.

EXTRA SUPPORT If there's time, you could get Sts to listen again with the script on p.122, so they can see exactly what they understood / didn't understand. Translate / Explain any new words or phrases.

- c Tell Sts to go to Vocabulary Bank Days and numbers on p.148 and get them to do Part 4.

Focus on 4 High numbers and get Sts to do a individually or in pairs.

-  9.14 Now do b. Play the audio for Sts to listen and check.

Check answers.

200

three hundred and fifty

Now either use the audio to drill the pronunciation of the numbers, or model and drill them yourself. Give further practice of any numbers your Sts find difficult to pronounce.

Focus on Activation. Get Sts to cover the words on the right and say the numbers. They could test themselves or their partner.

Tell Sts to go back to the main lesson 9C.

EXTRA SUPPORT Write the numbers and words below on the board, and tell Sts to correct the mistakes:

75	SEVENTY AND FIVE
2,150	TWO THOUSAND AND ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY
3,009	THREE THOUSANDS AND NINE
20,000	TWENTY THOUSANDS
3,000,000	THREE MILLIONS

EXTRA SUPPORT If you think Sts need more practice, you may want to give them the Vocabulary photocopiable activity at this point.

d 9.15 Tell Sts they are going to hear ten numbers and they must write down the number (using figures, not words). Focus on the example. Tell Sts that they are going to hear the audio twice.

! This is a difficult exercise. Pause the audio after each number, to give Sts time to think and write.

Get Sts to compare with a partner, and then check answers, getting Sts to write the figures on the board.

- 5 three thousand four hundred and thirty-seven
- 6 seven thousand seven hundred
- 7 fifty thousand
- 8 a hundred and twenty thousand
- 9 forty million
- 10 two million six hundred thousand

Finally, either use the audio to drill the pronunciation of the numbers, or model and drill them yourself.

EXTRA CHALLENGE Get Sts to write out the numbers in words as well, and then elicit both versions of the numbers onto the board.

e In pairs, Sts answer the four questions. If Sts don't know the answers and they have access to the internet in class, you could set a time limit for them to find the answers online.

Get some feedback from the class.

EXTRA CHALLENGE Sts write their own four questions with high numbers as answers. Put Sts in pairs and get them to ask each other their questions.

2 LISTENING

a 9.16 Focus on the task. Tell Sts that they are going to listen to another quiz show called Quiz Night, and give them a few minutes to read questions 1–4. Make sure all the questions are clear – check, for example, that Sts know How long (= How much time), contestant, to win, and to lose.

Play the audio twice.

Get Sts to compare with a partner, and then check answers.

EXTRA SUPPORT Read through the scripts and decide if you need to pre-teach any new vocabulary before Sts listen.

- 1 Ten seconds
- 2 a $100 b $200 c $400 d $12,800
- 3 All the money
- 4 Call a friend

9.16

(script in Student Book on p.122)

H = Host, E = Eddie

H Good evening. Welcome to Quiz Night. Our first contestant is Eddie from Washington, D.C. Hi, Eddie. Are you nervous?

E No, not really. I think I'm, uh, ready.

H Well, let's hope so. The rules are the same as always. I'm going to read you some sentences, and you have ten seconds to say if the sentence is true or false. If you get the first answer right, you win one hundred dollars. Then for each correct answer, you double your money, so if you get the second answer right, you win two hundred dollars, and for the third correct answer, you win four hundred dollars. For eight correct answers, you win twelve thousand eight hundred dollars. But if you get an answer wrong, you lose all the money. Remember, you can also call a friend, so if you're not sure about one of the answers, you can call your friend to help you. Is that OK, Eddie?

E Yeah, OK.

b Focus on the picture and elicit whale and lion. Write the new words on the board, and model and drill pronunciation.

Focus on sentences 1–8 in Quiz Night. Elicit / Teach that the sentences are comparing two things, e.g., the first one is comparing a whale and a lion, using the adjective loud. Highlight that the -er ending means more.

(script in Student Book on p.122)

H = Host, E = Eddie, S = Sandra

- H OK, Eddie, first question for 100 dollars. A whale can make a louder noise than a lion. True or false?
 E A whale can make a louder noise than a lion. Uh, true.
 H Correct. Blue whales can make a sound of up to 188 decibels, whereas a lion's roar is never more than 114 decibels. Ro-a-rrrr. Now, for 200 dollars. World War I was shorter than World War II. True or false?
 E Uh, I think it's true.
 H Correct. It's true. World War I lasted four years, from 1914 to 1918, but World War II lasted six years, from 1939 to 1945. Next, for 400 dollars, the American movie industry is bigger than the Indian movie industry.
 E I think it's false. You know, Bollywood and all that is huge. I think it's false.
 H Correct. The Indian movie industry is much bigger than the American one. It produces about 1,000 movies every year, which is double what Hollywood produces. In fact, the US isn't even the second country that makes the most movies, which is Nigeria. Next, for 800 dollars, in July, Seattle is hotter than Sydney. True or false?
 E In July, Seattle is hotter than Sydney. Uh, true.
 H Correct. The average temperature in July in Seattle is 75 degrees Fahrenheit, and in Sydney it's 62 degrees Fahrenheit. Of course, Australia's in the southern hemisphere, so it's winter there. Next, for 1,600 dollars, silver is heavier than gold. True or false?
 E Uh, true. No, uh, false.
 H Do you want to call a friend?
 E No, I think it's false. I remember from science class at school. Gold is heavier than silver.
 H Correct. Gold weighs about 10.16 ounces per cubic inch, and silver weighs only 5.53 ounces. That means that gold is almost twice as heavy as silver. OK, for 3,200 dollars, the mountain K2 is more difficult to climb than Mount Everest.
 E Uh, true.
 H Correct. Thirty percent of the people who try to climb K2 die, usually on the way down, whereas only five percent of the people who try to climb Everest die. OK, Eddie, now for 6,400 dollars, driving in Italy is more dangerous than driving in the US. True or false?
 E Uh, I think that's a trick question. We all think the Italians drive really fast, but maybe they're good drivers. I think it's false.
 H Good job Eddie! It may be hard to believe, but in fact, out of every 100,000 people, six people died because of car accidents in Italy, compared to approximately twelve in the US. And finally, the last question. Be very careful, Eddie. If you get it right, you win 12,800 dollars, but if you get it wrong, you get nothing. Are you ready?
 E Yes, ready.
 H OK, for 12,800 dollars, it's better to exercise in the morning than in the afternoon.
 E Uh...uh...
 H Quickly, Eddie, your time is almost up.
 E I think it's false, but I'm not sure. I want to call a friend.
 H OK, Eddie. So, who do you want to call?
 E Sandra.
 H Is she your girlfriend?
 E Yes, she is.
 H OK then. Hello, is this Sandra?
 S Yes, it is.

- H I'm calling from Quiz Night. Eddie needs some help. You have thirty seconds, Eddie. Here she is.
 E Hi. Sandra?
 S Yes.
 E Listen. It's the last question. It's better to exercise in the morning than in the afternoon. True or false? I think it's false.
 S Uh, I think it's true. I always see people running in the park in the morning...
 E Google it. Quickly. On your phone.
 S What do I put in?
 E That sentence and see what comes up! "It's better to do exercise in the morning than in the afternoon." Come on!
 S Yes, I'm writing it. Oh sorry, I just got a message.
 E Hurry up, Sandra!
 H Time's up, I'm afraid. OK, Eddie. So, true or false?
 E Uh. True.
 H Final answer?
 E Final answer. True.
 H I'm sorry, Eddie, it's false. It's better to exercise in the afternoon, between 4:00 and 5:00. Eddie, you had 6,400 dollars, but now you go home with...nothing.
 E Why did I call Sandra? Why didn't I call my friend Dave?

Find out if any pairs got all the answers right. Now ask how much money Eddie wins.

He doesn't win anything.

- d Tell Sts to listen again and write down why the answers are true or false. They must also write the important numbers they hear in the answers. Play the audio, pausing after each answer to give Sts time to write. Play the audio again if necessary. Check answers.

- 1 T – Blue whales can make a sound of up to 188 decibels, whereas a lion's roar is never more than 114 decibels.
- 2 T – World War I lasted four years, from 1914 to 1918, but World War II lasted six years, from 1939 to 1945.
- 3 F – ...the Indian movie industry produces about 1,000 movies every year, which is double what Hollywood produces.
- 4 T – The average temperature in July in Seattle is 75 degrees, and in Sydney it's 62 degrees.

- 8 F – It's better to exercise in the afternoon, between 4:00 and 5:00.

EXTRA SUPPORT If there's time, you could get Sts to listen again with the scripts on p.122, so they can see exactly what they understood / didn't understand. Translate / Explain any new words or phrases.

3 GRAMMAR comparative adjectives

- a Focus on the instructions. Give Sts time to answer the questions in pairs.
Check answers.

1 -er 2 Because you double the final g. 3 Change y to i and add -er. 4 more 5 better 6 than

- b Tell Sts to go to Grammar Bank 9C on p.140.

Grammar notes

There are clear rules governing the formation of comparative adjectives.

In one-syllable adjectives, a final -w after a vowel doesn't count as a consonant, and is not doubled, e.g., new, newer.

Depending on your Sts' L1, they may try to use that instead of than after comparative adjectives.

- 🔊 9.18 Focus on the example sentences and play the audio for Sts to listen and repeat. Then go through the rules with the class.

Now focus on the exercises for 9C on p.141. Sts do the exercises individually or in pairs.

Check answers. Get Sts to spell the -er adjectives in a and write them on the board. In b, get them to read the full sentences.

- a
1 higher 2 dirtier 3 more important 4 later 5 lower
6 more bored 7 wetter 8 more modern 9 more comfortable 10 happier

- b
1 cheaper than 2 easier...than 3 more tired...than 4 busier than 5 better than 6 more interesting than 7 farther / further...than 8 shorter than 9 worse than 10 more difficult than

Tell Sts to go back to the main lesson 9C.

EXTRA SUPPORT If you think Sts need more practice, you may want to give them the Grammar photocopiable activity at this point.

4 PRONUNCIATION & SPEAKING /əɪ/, sentence stress

- a 🔊 9.19 Focus on the sentence from the quiz. Play the audio once for Sts to hear how -er and than are pronounced, and then check answers. Tell Sts that the final -er is never stressed, e.g., safer NOT safer.

The final -er is always pronounced /əɪ/.
than is pronounced /ðən/.

🔊 9.19

See sentence in the Student Book on p.75

- b 🔊 9.20 Tell Sts they are going to hear six comparative sentences and they must write them down.
Play the audio, pausing after each sentence to give Sts time to write.
Check answers by eliciting the sentences onto the board.

🔊 9.20

- Carrots are sweeter than tomatoes.
- Air travel is safer than train travel.
- London is wetter than Milan.
- A horse is heavier than a car.
- Oranges are healthier than strawberries.
- Istanbul is further north than New York.

- c Play the audio again, pausing after each sentence for Sts to repeat. Highlight that is / are and than are not stressed. Play the audio again, pausing after each sentence, and elicit whether the sentence is true or not.

1 T 2 T 3 F 4 F 5 F 6 T

- d Put Sts in pairs, A and B, and tell them to go to Communication Quiz Night, A on p.107, B on p.112. Go through the instructions with them carefully. They are going to play a slightly simplified version of the game. Then give Sts time to complete their sentences with comparative adjectives. Before they start, you could quickly check they have the correct comparative forms.

Student A

- smaller
- colder
- older
- shorter
- more expensive
- drier
- farther / further
- hotter

Student B

- older
- smaller
- higher
- bigger
- more popular
- larger
- warmer
- busier

Write the amounts of money that they win on the board, e.g., 1 = 100 (dollars or a currency that your Sts are familiar with), 2 = 200, 3 = 400, etc. (up to 12,800), and check Sts can say the numbers correctly. Explain that if you get, for example, question 4 wrong, you continue playing, but you lose the money you had and the prize starts again from 100 dollars.

Sit A and B face-to-face if possible. A reads his / her sentences to B. Monitor and help Sts to get the rhythm right when they read their quiz sentences.

B then reads A his / her sentences.

EXTRA SUPPORT You could do the above activity in groups of four instead of pairs. Divide the class into groups of four and have two As and two Bs in each group. They prepare their quiz sentences together, and take turns reading them to the other pair.

EXTRA CHALLENGE Encourage A to "play the role" of the host. Give Sts a few minutes to look at the script and make a note of any useful language (e.g., Good evening, I ask the questions).

When both Sts have played the game, get feedback to see who won the most money.

Tell Sts to go back to the main lesson 9C.

5 READING identifying section topics

a Tell Sts they are now going to read an article about trivia nights in the UK and US. Make sure they understand the question and that they only read the first part. Before they start, you might want to elicit / explain the meaning of general knowledge.

When Sts have finished, elicit some responses to the question.

EXTRA SUPPORT Before Sts read the article, check whether you need to pre-teach any vocabulary, but not the words in c.

b Focus on the instructions and elicit the meaning of tips. Now focus on A–G and make sure Sts understand them. Tell Sts to read the tips and fill in the blanks with A–G. Point out that the first one (D) has been done for them. Check answers.

2 A 3 C 4 F 5 G 6 E 7 B

c Tell Sts to read the article again and find the words. In pairs, they should try to guess the meaning and pronunciation. Check answers, either explaining in English or translating into Sts' L1. Model and drill the pronunciation, and get Sts to underline the stressed syllable in each item.

a team /tɪm/ = a group of people who play a game together against another group an M.C. /ɛm 'si/ = a person who asks questions in a game, especially on TV an expert /'ɛkspərt/ = a person who knows a lot about something to cheat /tʃi:t/ = to do something dishonest in order to gain an advantage, especially in a game, a competition, an exam, etc.

to memorize /'mɛməraɪz/ = to learn something so that you can remember it exactly to be a sore loser /bi ə sɔː 'lɒzə/ = to behave badly when you lose a game to win /wɪn/ = to be the best or first in a game

Help with any other new vocabulary. Model and drill the pronunciation of any tricky words.

d Put Sts in pairs and get them to discuss the five questions. You could demonstrate the activity by answering a few questions yourself. Get some feedback from various pairs.

Function ordering a meal

Vocabulary understanding a menu

Lesson plan

In this lesson, Sts learn some common vocabulary related to menus and practice ordering a meal in a restaurant. In the storyline, Jenny and Rob are chatting in the office when Jenny gets a call from Eddie. Eddie sings "Happy Birthday" to Jenny, which Rob overhears, and he takes the chance to invite Jenny out for dinner. But before she can reply, Daniel comes out of his office and invites Jenny to go out for a working dinner that evening.

Why couldn't they do this? What happened to Jenny when she tried to find the gallery? Why did Daniel call Jenny?* Alternatively, you could play the last scene of Episode 4.

1 AN INVITATION TO DINNER

a 9.21 Books open. Focus on the photo and elicit what Sts think is happening. Don't tell them if they are right or not yet.

Focus on sentences 1–5 and give Sts time to read them.

Then play the video / audio once the whole way through for them to mark the sentences T (true) or F (false). Make it clear that they don't need to correct the false sentences yet. Play again if necessary.

Get Sts to compare with a partner, and then check answers.

1 T 2 T 3 F 4 T 5 F

9.21

R = Rob, J = Jenny, E = Eddie, D = Daniel

J Thanks for showing me around London yesterday. I had a great time.

R Me too. So, what did you do last night?

J Nothing, really. I had a lot of work to do. Emails, phone calls... What did you do?

R I wrote my article about the artist that I interviewed yesterday morning.

J Can I see it?

R Sure, it's on my laptop. Hang on a second. There.

J Sorry. Hi, Eddie.

E Happy Birthday to you, Happy Birthday to you!

J Thanks! But listen, I can't talk right now. I'm in the office.

E OK.

J Yeah, later.

E Have fun!

J OK. Sorry, but...it's my birthday today.

R Really? Happy Birthday! Maybe we could have dinner tonight?

D Jennifer.

J Oh, hi, Daniel.

D I'd like to take you out for dinner this evening.

J This evening?

D Yes, for a working dinner. We have a lot to talk about before you go back to New York. I know a very good restaurant.

J Yes, of course.

D Great. See you later.

J Yes, sure. Sorry, Rob.

b Play the video / audio again so Sts can watch or listen and correct the false sentences.

Get Sts to compare with a partner, and then check answers.

3 It's Jenny's birthday. 5 Jenny says yes to Daniel.

EXTRA SUPPORT If there's time and you are using the video, you could get Sts to watch again with subtitles / showing the script, so they can see exactly what they understood / didn't understand. Translate / Explain any new words or phrases.

c 9.22 Focus on the Responding to what somebody says box and go through it with the class. Elicit / Explain that congratulations and good job are similar, but congratulations is used for something important, like getting engaged, getting a new job, passing an important exam, etc., whereas good job is used for smaller things, like getting an exercise right.

Now play the audio for Sts to listen and repeat B's phrases. Encourage them to copy the rhythm and intonation.

9.22

See script in Student Book on p.76

d 9.23 Tell Sts they are going to hear some phrases and they must respond using a phrase from the Responding to what somebody says box. Now focus on the example. Play the audio, pausing for Sts to respond.

9.23

- 1
A I got two goals this afternoon.
B Good job!
- 2
A I passed my exam! I'm a doctor!
B Congratulations!
- 3
A I'm 30 today.
B Happy Birthday!
- 4
A I didn't pass my driving test.
B Better luck next time.
- 5
A I have my English exam tomorrow.
B Good luck!

Now repeat the activity, eliciting responses from individual Sts.

2 VOCABULARY understanding a menu

- a Focus on the menu and get Sts to fill in the three blanks. Check answers, and model and drill the pronunciation of the words. Focus especially on the stress in desserts /dɪ'zɜ:ts/ (you could point out that if they stress it on the first syllable, it will sound like deserts).

1 Appetizers 2 Main courses 3 Desserts

- b 9.24 Tell Sts to look at the highlighted words on the menu and, in pairs, to try and guess their meaning.

Check answers, either explaining in English, translating into Sts' L1, or getting Sts to check in their dictionaries.

courses /'kɔ:sɪz/ = separate parts of a meal soup /sup/ = liquid food that you make by cooking things like vegetables or meat in water seafood /'si:fu:d/ = fish and sea creatures that can be eaten homemade /,həʊm 'meɪd/ = made in your house, not bought in a store or made in a factory sauce /sɔ:s/ = a thick liquid that you eat on or with other food fresh /frɛʃ/ = made or picked not long ago

9.24

See highlighted words in the Student Book on p.76

Now play the audio for Sts to listen and repeat the words.

- c Get Sts to cover the menu or close their books. Write on the board APPETIZERS, MAIN COURSES, DESSERTS. In pairs, see if Sts can remember the two appetizers, three main courses and desserts.

Get feedback, asking the class to say what was on the menu.

EXTRA SUPPORT You could simply elicit the dishes from the whole class.

3 ORDERING A MEAL

- a 9.25 Focus on the photo and ask Where are Jenny and Daniel? (At the restaurant), What are they doing? (Looking at the menu and ordering).

Focus on the instructions and tell Sts to look at the menu on p.76 as they listen. They should check the dishes they hear.

Play the video / audio once the whole way through.

Get Sts to compare with a partner, and play the video / audio again if necessary.

Check answers. Ask What's Jenny having for an appetizer?, etc.

Jenny: soup; mushroom ravioli

Daniel: mozzarella salad; chicken

9.25 9.26

W = waiter, D = Daniel, J = Jenny

W Good evening. Do you have a reservation?

D Yes, a table for two. (repeat) My name's Daniel O'Connor. (repeat)

W Come this way, please.

***

W Are you ready to order?

J Yes. The soup and the mushroom ravioli, please. (repeat)

D I'd like the mozzarella salad and then the chicken, please. (repeat)

W What would you like to drink?

J Just water for me. (repeat)

D A bottle of mineral water, please. (repeat)

W Still or sparkling?

D Is sparkling OK? (repeat)

J Yes, sparkling. (repeat)

W Thank you, sir.

D Thank you. (repeat)

- b Now focus on the conversation in the chart. Elicit that the You hear phrases are said by the waiter, and You say is what the customer says, here Daniel and Jenny. These phrases will be useful for Sts if they go to a restaurant.

Give Sts a minute to read through the conversation and think what the missing words might be. Then play the video / audio again, and get Sts to fill in the blanks. Play again if necessary.

Get Sts to compare with a partner, and then check answers.

1 reservation 2 way 3 order 4 like 5 Still

Go through the conversation line by line with Sts, helping them with any words or expressions they don't understand.

Also make sure Sts understand the two kinds of mineral water, still (= no carbonation) and sparkling (= with carbonation).

- c 9.26 Now focus on the You say phrases. Tell Sts they're going to hear the conversation again. They should repeat the You say phrases when they hear the beep. Highlight the different ways of ordering, e.g., The soup and the mushroom ravioli, please or I'd like (I would like) the mozzarella salad and then the chicken, please, or (Just) water for me.

Play the video / audio, pausing if necessary for Sts to repeat the phrases. Encourage them to copy the rhythm and intonation.

9.26

Same as script 9.25 with repeat pauses

- d Put Sts in groups of three A, B, and C. A is the waiter, and B and C are Daniel and Jenny. Get them to read the conversation aloud and then switch roles.

e Sts now role-play the conversation. A (book open) is the waiter. B and C (books closed) are customers. Tell the waiter to give B and C one of their books, open on p.76, to use as a menu.

If there's time, get Sts to switch roles at least once. Monitor and help.

When Sts have finished, get feedback to find out what Sts ordered.

EXTRA IDEA Print a menu for Sts to use in the role play.

4 THE END OF THE MEAL

a 9.27 Give Sts time to read the six questions.

Play the video / audio once the whole way through. Play it again if necessary.

Get Sts to compare with a partner, and then check answers. When you check the answer to 3, write what Daniel says (YOU'VE GOT BEAUTIFUL EYES) on the board. Point out to Sts that you've got is a contraction of you have got, which is a British form of you have. You may also want to get Sts to speculate what the good news is when you check the answer to 5.

- 1 She goes out for dinner with friends or sees a movie.
- 2 Coffee
- 3 He says "You've got beautiful eyes."
- 4 She thanks him and says they are from her mother.
- 5 Good news
- 6 She wants to go back to the hotel.

9.27

D = Daniel, J = Jenny, W = waiter, B = Barbara

D So, Jenny, I hear it's your birthday today.

J Yes, that's right.

D Well, Happy Birthday! How do you normally celebrate?

J Oh, nothing special. Maybe I go out for dinner with friends or see a movie.

D Well, we could go out somewhere, after dinner.

W Would you like a dessert?

J Not for me, thanks.

D OK, no.

W Coffee?

J A decaf espresso.

D The same for me, please.

W Two decaffeinated espressos. Certainly, sir.

D You know, Jenny, you've got beautiful eyes.

J I get them from my mother. Anyway, what are your plans for the July edition of the magazine?

D The, uh, July edition? I, um...

J I have to take this. Sorry.

D No problem.

J Hi, Barbara.

B Jenny, just a quick call. We really like your idea about Rob Walker. He's a great writer.

J So can I ask him?

B Yes. Go ahead.

J That's great.

B Good luck. I hope he says yes.

J Me too.

D Good news?

J Yeah. That was Barbara, my boss from the New York office. She just gave me a little birthday present.

D So, would you like to go somewhere else?

J I'm sorry, Daniel. I'm a little tired.

D Yes. Of course. Waiter, could I have the bill, please?

EXTRA SUPPORT If there's time and you are using the video, you could get Sts to watch again with subtitles / showing the script, so they can see exactly what they understood / didn't understand. Translate / Explain any new words or phrases.

b Focus on the Social English phrases and go through them with the class.

In pairs, get Sts to decide who says them.

c 9.28 Play the video / audio for Sts to watch or listen to the eight phrases and check.

Check answers. If you know your Sts' L1, you could get them to translate the phrases.

1 J 2 W 3 J 4 J 5 D 6 B 7 D 8 D

9.28

See Social English phrases in the Student Book on p.77

Now play the video / audio again, pausing after each phrase, for Sts to watch or listen and repeat.

d Focus on the instructions and make sure Sts understand what they have to do.

Get Sts to compare with a partner, and then check answers.

A 7 B 2, 3 C 8 D 1 E 4 F 5 G 6

Now put Sts in pairs and get them to practice the conversations.

Finally, focus on the CAN YOU...? questions and ask Sts if they feel confident they can now do these things. If they feel that they need more practice, tell them to go to Online Practice to watch the episode again and practice the language.

- G superlative adjectives: the biggest, the best, etc.
V places and buildings
P consonant groups

Lesson plan

A reading text about the most dangerous place in the world to cross the street and other geographical superlatives provides the context to present and practice superlative adjectives and the vocabulary of places and buildings. The lesson starts with Vocabulary, where Sts learn the words for buildings and landmarks in a town or city. In Grammar, Sts make the logical progression from comparatives to superlatives, and look at some “extreme” places in the world, e.g., the biggest station, the oldest bridge, etc. Pronunciation focuses on consonant groups, which occur in superlatives, e.g., the most expensive, and then Sts do a role-play about their town, using superlatives. Then an article gives Sts information about the most dangerous place in the world to cross the street. Writing focuses more directly on the Sts’ own environment, and they write about their own town / city.

OPTIONAL LEAD-IN (BOOKS CLOSED)

Write on the board RUSSIA and CHINA. Ask Sts if they are big or small countries, and elicit that they are big. Then ask which is bigger, and elicit that Russia is bigger. (For reference, Russia is about 6 million square miles, and China is about 3.7 million square miles).

Now erase CHINA from the board. Ask Sts if they know any country that is bigger than Russia (there isn’t one). Elicit / Teach Russia is the biggest country in the world. Write the sentence on the board.

1 VOCABULARY places and buildings

a Books open. Tell Sts to look at sentences 1–6, which are all about famous tourist sights in the UK and the US. In each one, a word is missing. Sts should fill in each blank with a word from the list.

Get Sts to compare with a partner.

b 10.1 Play the audio for Sts to listen and check their answers to a or you could elicit the answers first, and then play the audio.

Check answers. Point out the silent t in castle.

1 Bridge 2 Street 3 Castle 4 Park 5 Gallery 6 Square

10.1

- 1 The Brooklyn Bridge connects Manhattan and Brooklyn.
- 2 Downing Street is where the British Prime Minister lives.
- 3 Windsor Castle is the royal family’s weekend home, and the largest inhabited castle in the world.
- 4 Central Park is a green space in the middle of New York.
- 5 The National Gallery is London’s most famous art museum.
- 6 Times Square is the center of New York’s theater district.

Finally, ask Sts if any of them have seen any of these places.

c Tell Sts to go to Vocabulary Bank Places and buildings on p.164 and get them to do a individually or in pairs.

10.2 Now do b. Play the audio for Sts to listen and check.

Check answers.

10.2

Places and buildings

- 9 a church
- 4 a department store
- 6 a hospital
- 5 a market
- 2 a park
- 3 a pharmacy
- 11 a police station
- 8 a post office
- 10 a shopping mall
- 7 a supermarket
- 1 a town hall

- 19 a river
- 18 a road
- 21 a square
- 17 a street
- 23 a bus station
- 24 a parking lot

Then either use the audio to drill the pronunciation of the words, or model and drill them yourself. Remind Sts that in compound nouns (e.g., post office, art gallery), the main stress is on the first word. Don’t forget to remind Sts of the silent t in castle. Give further practice of any other words your Sts find difficult to pronounce.

Focus on the Other places of worship box and go through it with the class.

Now focus on c. Get Sts to cover the words and use the photos to test themselves or their partner.

Finally, focus on Activation and model and drill the question. Put Sts in pairs to ask and answer the question.

Tell Sts to go back to the main lesson 10A.

EXTRA SUPPORT If you think Sts need more practice, you may want to give them the Vocabulary photocopiable activity at this point.

2 GRAMMAR superlative adjectives

- a Tell Sts to look at photos 1–6 and ask if they know or can guess which countries they are in. Don't tell them if they are right.
- b Focus on the instructions. In pairs, Sts complete sentences 1–6 using phrases from the list. Establish that the phrases are all superlative adjectives.
- c  10.3 Before you play the audio, tell Sts they are going to hear a little more information about each place. Play the audio for Sts to listen and check their answers to a and b.
Check answers. If you have a map of the world in class, you could show Sts where each country is.

- a
1 Mexico 2 the US 3 Canada 4 Egypt 5 Vietnam
6 United Arab Emirates
- b
1 The busiest
2 The biggest
3 The widest
4 The longest
5 The most dangerous
6 The tallest

10.3

- The busiest street in Mexico is Madero Avenue. Up to 500,000 people a day walk along the street in downtown Mexico City, the capital of Mexico.
- The biggest train station in the world is Grand Central Terminal in New York. It has 44 platforms, and covers nearly 2 million square feet.
- The widest bridge in Canada is the Port Mann Bridge. It's near Vancouver and it's 213 feet wide—wide enough for ten lanes of traffic.
- The longest river in the world is the Nile. It's 4,258 miles long, and goes through eleven different African countries.
- The most dangerous place in the world to cross the street is Ho Chi Minh City, in Vietnam. There are five million scooters in this city, as well as cars, trucks, and buses.
- The tallest building in the world is Burj Khalifa in the United Arab Emirates. It is 2,716.5 feet tall.

EXTRA CHALLENGE Get Sts to listen again and write down any extra information they hear about each place.

- d Focus on the chart and the three column headings. Get Sts to complete the chart with the adjectives from b.
Check answers. Model and drill pronunciation.

tall longer the biggest busy the most dangerous

- e Do this as a whole-class activity.

For one-syllable adjectives, we add -est (and not -er) to the end of the adjective. For longer adjectives with two or more syllables, we put the most instead of more before the adjective.

- f Tell Sts to go to Grammar Bank 10A on p.142.

Grammar notes

Make sure Sts are clear about the difference between comparatives (to compare two things or people, etc.) and superlatives (to say which is, e.g., the smallest / largest in a group of three or more). In your Sts' L1, they may just use the comparative form + the. (Typical error: the better place in the world...)

Formation of superlatives is very easy once Sts know comparatives: -er changes to -est with most short adjectives, and more changes to the most before long adjectives.

Spelling rules

These are exactly the same as for comparatives, e.g., hotter / the hottest; prettier / the prettiest.

Highlight that we use in the world, in the class, etc. after superlatives, NOT of.

-  10.4 Focus on the example sentences and play the audio for Sts to listen and repeat. Then go through the rules with the class.

Now focus on the exercises for 10A on p.143. Sts do the exercises individually or in pairs.

Check answers. Get Sts to spell the -est adjectives in a where there's a spelling change and write them on the board. In b, get them to read the full sentences, helping them with the rhythm.

- a 1 the hottest 2 the cheapest 3 the worst 4 the easiest
5 the wettest 6 the tallest / longest 7 the furthest / farthest
8 the dirtiest
- b 1 the biggest 2 the best 3 the smallest 4 the most comfortable
5 the noisiest 6 the most stressed 7 the youngest
8 The most beautiful

Tell Sts to go back to the main lesson 10A.

EXTRA SUPPORT If you think Sts need more practice, you may want to give them the Grammar photocopiable activity at this point.

- g  10.5 Tell Sts they are going to hear six questions with superlatives and they must write them down.
Play the audio, pausing after each question to give Sts time to write. Play again if necessary.
Check answers, eliciting the questions onto the board.

10.5

- What's the noisiest city in the world?
- What's the driest city in the US?
- Which US city has the biggest population?
- What's the highest capital city in the world?
- Which city has the busiest airport in the world?
- Which city has the worst traffic in the world?

- h Focus on the possible answers and make sure Sts know where they all are.
Put Sts in small groups and get them to ask the questions from g and choose an answer from h.
Elicit answers from the class.

- 1 Tokyo 2 Las Vegas 3 New York 4 La Paz 5 Atlanta
6 Brussels

3 PRONUNCIATION & SPEAKING

consonant groups

- a  10.6 Focus on the Consonant groups box and go through it with the class.

Tell Sts to look at the speech bubble and play the audio once for them just to listen.

10.6

See word and phrases in the Student Book on p.79

Now play the audio again and get Sts to listen and repeat.

- b  10.7 Now tell Sts they are going to do the same with the adjectives in 1–4. Tell them the word in parentheses is the noun they must use with the adjective. If Sts are confused, write BEAUTIFUL (SQUARE) on the board and show them the speech bubble in a.

Then play the audio for Sts to listen and repeat.

10.7

- 1 old – the oldest – the oldest building – What's the oldest building?
- 2 interesting – the most interesting – the most interesting museum – What's the most interesting museum?
- 3 good – the best – the best shopping mall – What's the best shopping mall?
- 4 nice – the nicest – the nicest place – What's the nicest place?

You may want to repeat it, pausing after each word / phrase, and get individual Sts to say the phrase and question.

EXTRA CHALLENGE Get Sts to say the word, phrases, and question first. Then play the audio for them to listen and check.

- c Put Sts in pairs, A and B, and tell them to go to Communication I'm a tourist. Help! A on p.107, B on p.112.

Go through the instructions with Sts carefully. Highlight that the tourist only speaks English, so the local person must explain everything in English. Highlight, too (if your Sts are from the same town), that the tourist should pretend not to know anything and to ask for as much information as possible, and the local person should try to answer all his / her questions in as much detail as possible. Now focus on questions 1–6 and the examples, and explain that Sts have to complete the questions with the superlative of the adjective in parentheses. You might want to elicit / explain the meaning of typical and popular.

EXTRA SUPPORT Get Sts to write in the superlatives, and check them before they start.

Student A

- 1 the most beautiful
- 2 the easiest
- 3 the most interesting
- 4 the best
- 5 the nicest
- 6 the most famous

Student B

- 1 the oldest
- 2 the nicest
- 3 the best
- 4 the most typical
- 5 the most popular
- 6 the most beautiful

If you are not from the same city / country as your Sts, get them to interview you first with their first two questions to find out about your town / city.

 Don't be afraid to say I don't know, but I think it's... This will provide a good model for Sts.

Get Sts to role-play the conversation. First, Sts A are the tourist. Monitor and help, especially with superlatives.

Then tell Sts to switch roles, so now Sts B are the tourist.

Get some feedback. Where Sts are from the same town / city, see if they agree.

Tell Sts to go back to the main lesson 10A.

4 READING identifying paragraph endings

- a Focus on the photo and the title of the article, and ask Sts where it is (Ho Chi Minh City). Elicit / Explain the meaning of the title.

Tell Sts to read the article and decide which suggestion in the article is the most useful.

When Sts have finished, elicit responses.

EXTRA SUPPORT Before Sts read the article the first time, check whether you need to pre-teach any vocabulary.

- b Now set a time limit for Sts to read the article again and complete the paragraphs with A–E.
Get Sts to compare with a partner, and then check answers.

Keep walking D
Cross with a local person E
Cross in a group B
Find a police officer A
Take a taxi C

- c Tell Sts to cover the article, and elicit / explain the meaning of vehicles (= a thing that takes people from one place to another). Model and drill pronunciation.

In pairs or as a whole-class activity, Sts try to remember all seven words.

If Sts worked in pairs, check answers. You could draw a mind map on the board with vehicles in the middle. Elicit / Explain that a scooter is a light motorcycle with a small engine.

cars, trucks, bikes, buses, motorcycles, scooters, taxi

Help with any other new vocabulary. Model and drill the pronunciation of any tricky words.

- d Focus on the six questions and make sure Sts understand all the vocabulary.

Put Sts in small groups and get them to discuss the questions.

Get some feedback from various groups. You could also tell Sts if you have had problems crossing a street.

5 WRITING

Focus on the instructions and read the example about Eagle Rock. Tell Sts to write an advertisement for their town / city, and to include some superlatives. If your Sts are all from the same town / city, you could give them the option to write about another place they know well. You could assign this as homework and ask Sts to add some photos to their advertisement.

Put the advertisements around the class for Sts to read.

Ask Sts if they found out anything new / interesting about the places.

- G be going to (plans), future time expressions
V city vacations: stay in a hotel, etc.
P sentence stress

Lesson plan

The context of this lesson is travel and city vacations. The lesson starts with Grammar, where be going to for future plans is presented and practiced by listening to and reading about two people who are planning to travel to five continents in one day. Pronunciation focuses on sentence stress in going to sentences. In Listening, Sts listen to an expert from a website called Responsible Travel giving advice about how to plan a vacation. In Vocabulary and Speaking, Sts look at some common vacation phrases and then plan their own dream trip. Finally, in Writing they write a formal email, booking some accommodations for a vacation.

OPTIONAL LEAD-IN (BOOKS CLOSED)

Review continents. Play Hangman (see p.24 for instructions) with the word EUROPE.

Then ask Sts what it is (a continent).

Finally, elicit the other five continents and write them on the board.

1 GRAMMAR be going to (plans)

- a Books open. Focus on the instructions and do this as a whole-class activity. Point out the example.

Punta Cana is in the Dominican Republic, North America.
 Casablanca is in Morocco, Africa.
 Paris is in France, Europe.
 Istanbul is in Turkey, Europe / Asia.

- b 10.8 Focus on the task and make sure Sts understand what Gunnar and Adrian are planning to do. You could tell Sts that in order to break the record, Gunnar and Adrian have to leave the airport in each place, even for just a short time. Make sure Sts cover the interview and look at the map.

Before playing the audio, you might want to tell Sts that Gunnar is from Germany and has a slight accent. Play the audio for Sts to listen and draw the route. Play the audio again if necessary.

Check answers. Ask Sts which continent they are not planning to visit (Australia).

Istanbul > Casablanca > Paris > Punta Cana > Caracas

10.8

I = interviewer, G = Gunnar, A = Adrian

- I Gunnar, Adrian, tell us your plan. How can you visit five continents in one day?
G We're going to start in Istanbul. Part of Istanbul is in Asia, which is our first continent. At one-ten in the morning, we're going to fly to Casablanca, which is in Morocco, in North Africa. Continent number two.
I Are you going to get another flight right away?
A No, first we're going to visit the famous mosque – it's the largest mosque in Morocco. Then our next flight is to Paris, at seven thirty-five in the morning.
I So Europe is your third continent. How long are you going to be in Paris?
G Five minutes, maybe? We're just going to go out of the airport – that's one of the rules of our challenge – and then go back in. We only have one hour and fifty-five minutes before our next flight, to Punta Cana, in the Dominican Republic.
I So North America is your fourth continent?
G Yes, that's right. And from there, our final flight is to Caracas in Venezuela, South America – our last continent. We're going to arrive at 10:05 p.m. And then we're going to celebrate!

- c Tell Sts to uncover the interview and look at the verbs in the list.
 Give Sts time to quickly read the interview before playing the audio.

EXTRA CHALLENGE Get Sts to fill in the blanks before they listen to the audio.

Play the audio for Sts to listen and fill in the blanks.
 Get Sts to compare with a partner, and then check answers.

1 start 2 fly 3 get 4 visit 5 be 6 go out 7 arrive
 8 celebrate

- d Either put Sts in pairs and get them to answer the questions, or do this as a whole-class activity.
 If Sts worked in pairs, check answers.

1 base form 2 the future

e Tell Sts to go to Grammar Bank 10B on p.142.

Grammar notes

going to + base form is the most common way to express future plans and the main future form taught in this level. It is often used with time expressions like tonight, next week, and next summer. Sts don't usually find the concept of going to a problem, but the form needs plenty of practice. A typical error is the omission of the auxiliary be, e.g., I going to have dinner, or using the simple present of go, e.g., I go to have dinner.

In song lyrics, going to is sometimes spelled gonna because of the way it is pronounced (see Pronunciation notes in 2). Discourage Sts from using this in written English.

Some Sts may know the future form will and may ask about this. Explain that both going to and will are used to talk about the future. In the American English File series, be going to is presented first to talk about plans and predictions. Going to for predictions is practiced in the next lesson. Sts will learn the grammar of will in American English File Level 3, but will see some examples in Practical English.

🔊 10.9 Focus on the example sentences and play the audio for Sts to listen and repeat. Then go through the rules with the class.

Now focus on the exercises for 10B on p.143. Sts do the exercises individually or in pairs.

Check answers, getting Sts to read the full sentences.

- a
- 1 're going to book    2 'm going to stay    3 's going to study
4 are going to get    5 's going to work    6 isn't going to go
7 aren't going to visit
- b
- 1 'm going to call    2 are...going to have    3 isn't going to come
4 are...going to get    5 aren't going to buy
6 Are...going to watch

Tell Sts to go back to the main lesson 10B.

EXTRA SUPPORT If you think Sts need more practice, you may want to give them the Grammar photocopiable activity at this point.

- f 🔊 10.10 Remind Sts of Gunnar and Adrian's plan. Focus on the question.
- Play the audio for Sts to listen and find out if Gunnar and Adrian succeeded.
- Check the answer.

Yes, they did.

🔊 10.10
(script in Student Book on p.122)

I = interviewer, G = Gunnar

- I Gunnar, can you give us a quick update on your trip?
- G OK, so we left Istanbul 20 minutes late, at 1:30 in the morning – not a good start. But we arrived in Casablanca more or less on time. We visited the mosque at 4:30 in the morning. We couldn't go inside though – we just saw it from the outside! Then we went back to the airport and flew to Paris. When we arrived, we rushed outside and took some photos, and then went back in to a different terminal. It was really stressful, the most stressful part of the trip – but we got to the gate just in time for our flight to Punta Cana. When we got there, we went to a beach that was about 12 miles from the airport, and we relaxed there for a little bit, and then went back to the airport and got our flight to Caracas. And we arrived here at 10:00 at night, and we officially entered the country at 10:15. So – five continents in one day! We did it!

EXTRA IDEA Before playing the audio, you could ask Sts what they think success or failure depended on, e.g., the airlines, the weather, etc.

- g Focus on the question and the three options, eliciting / explaining any vocabulary Sts don't know, especially the word trip.

Do this as a whole-class activity, by getting a show of hands for each option. Elicit some reasons. You could also tell the class what you think.

2 PRONUNCIATION & SPEAKING

sentence stress

Pronunciation notes

When native speakers speak quickly, they tend to pronounce going to as gonna /'gɒnə/. It is a good idea to point out this pronunciation to Sts since they will hear it if they have contact with native speakers or listen to songs, and they will see it written down in song lyrics. This pronunciation is widespread in American and British English, particularly in conversation, although it might not be appropriate in some formal situations.

At this level, we recommend that it is better to teach the more "correct" pronunciation, i.e., pronouncing both going and to (using the weak form of to). Sts can use the more colloquial form later when their speed of speech increases.

- a 🔊 10.11 Tell Sts they are going to listen to the two conversations. Before playing the audio, focus on the first question and ask Sts which words are stressed (What, do, and summer).
- Play the audio once for Sts just to listen.

🔊 10.11
See conversations in Student Book on p.81

Play the audio again, pausing after each line for Sts to listen and repeat. Encourage Sts to get the right rhythm.

EXTRA IDEA Get Sts to read the conversations aloud in pairs.

- b Put Sts in pairs, A and B, and tell them to go to Communication What are you going to do?, A on p.107, B on p.112.

Tell Sts they need to complete their questions with going to. Point out the example.

Sit A and B face-to-face if possible. A asks his / her questions to B. Monitor and help Sts to get the rhythm right when they read their questions.

B then asks A his / her questions.

When both Sts have answered the questions, get feedback from the class.

Tell Sts to go back to the main lesson 10B.

3 LISTENING using prior knowledge to predict stages

- a Focus on the task and make sure Sts understand plan. Give Sts time to read the four questions and make sure they understand previous. Now get Sts to number the questions. Put Sts in pairs and get them to compare answers. Get some feedback.

- b  10.12 Focus on the task and make sure Sts understand who Justin Francis is.

Play the audio for Sts to listen and complete the task.

Check answers. Find out, with a show of hands, if anyone had the same order as Justin. Don't ask Sts if they agree with Justin, as they will be doing this later in the lesson.

EXTRA SUPPORT Read through the script and decide if you need to pre-teach any new vocabulary before Sts listen.

- 1 What am I going to do?
- 2 Who am I going to go with?
- 3 What previous vacations did I really enjoy?
- 4 Where am I going to go?

10.12

(script in Student Book on pp.122–123)

If you're thinking of taking a vacation or traveling somewhere nice, the planning can be complicated. The internet is full of reviews of hotels, restaurants, and attractions. There are so many different ways of traveling, and thousands of places to go. Where do you start? Why not follow these three simple steps to find the right vacation for you?

Step one. Think about what you want to do on your vacation. The first thing people usually try to decide is where they want to go, but it's probably better to start by thinking about what you want to do. Do you want to relax? Then think about how you relax. For example, do you like reading or doing yoga, or do you like doing something more active? Do you want to go somewhere completely different? Do you want to visit an exciting new city, or see some scenery and animals that are different from where you live? Seeing something completely new is a great way to forget about your normal life. Do you want to go on an adventure? Perhaps you're dreaming about climbing Everest or living with an African tribe. You could use your vacation to make one of those dreams come true.

Do you want to learn something new? Not everybody wants to sit in a classroom learning Spanish, or be in a kitchen learning to cook when they're on vacation, but some people love it. And nowadays you can take courses in many countries and experience a different culture at the same time.

So now step two. Think about the people you're going to go with. Are they family or friends? Do they have children? What do they want to do? People have different needs and interests, and if you're all going to enjoy the vacation, you need to make sure you all want the same things. But if what you really want to do is to meet new people, maybe it would be better to travel alone.

And finally, step three. Think about good vacations you had in the past. Why were they good? Maybe it was the people you were with. Maybe it was something you learned, or an experience you had. What can you repeat from those vacations?

Of course, there are always other things you need to consider, like how much money you can spend, and how much time you can be away. But first follow these three steps, and then you're ready to start thinking about where you want to go!

EXTRA IDEA Ask Sts what else Justin said is important to think about.

How much money you can spend and how much time you can be away

- c Now tell Sts they are going to hear the audio again and they must answer questions 1–5.

Go through the questions before Sts listen, making sure they understand all the vocabulary, e.g., skill, to make sure, etc.

Now play the audio again, pausing after Justin has answered each question.

Get Sts to compare with a partner, and then check answers.

- 1
  - Reading, doing yoga
  - Visit an exciting new city, or see some scenery and animals that are different from where you live
  - Climb Everest or live with an African tribe
  - Learn Spanish or learn to cook
- 2 Make sure everyone wants the same things.
- 3 To travel alone
- 4 The people you were with, something you learned, or an experience you had
- 5 Where you want to go

Help with any new vocabulary. Model and drill the pronunciation of any tricky words.

EXTRA SUPPORT If there's time, you could get Sts to listen again with the script on pp.122–123, so they can see exactly what they understood / didn't understand. Translate / Explain any new words or phrases.

- d Either put Sts in pairs and get them to answer the questions, or do this as a whole-class activity.

If Sts worked in pairs, get feedback.

4 VOCABULARY & SPEAKING city vacations

- a Tell Sts to look at the nine phrases related to vacations and to complete each one with a verb from the list. Check answers.

- 1 book
- 2 go
- 3 rent
- 4 stay
- 5 eat
- 6 visit
- 7 buy
- 8 have
- 9 meet

Now get Sts to cover phrases 1–9 (but not the verbs in the list) and see if they can remember the vacation phrases.

- b Focus on the task and put Sts in pairs.

Monitor and help while Sts try to find things they both like doing on vacation.

Get some feedback from various pairs.

- c Focus on the task and the five questions. Tell Sts that they are going to plan a dream trip in their pairs. Their plan must be a visit to three cities in the same continent, and the vacation can be a maximum of ten days.

Before Sts start, go through the Making suggestions box with the class, and encourage them to use these phrases when planning their trip with their partner. You could write them on the board to serve as an extra reminder.

Give Sts about five minutes to make their plans for each of the five questions. Monitor and help, encouraging them to use Why don't we...?, etc. for making suggestions.

Monitor and help.

- d Now tell Sts to change partners and to tell their new partner the agreed plan from c. Focus on the example in the speech bubble before they start.
- e Finally, ask Sts if they are still happy with their original plan, or if they prefer their new partner's plan. Get some Sts to tell the class their plans.

EXTRA IDEA Get one pair to come to the front of the class. Act as a TV host and interview them, using the questions from c, e.g., What cities are you going to visit?

5 WRITING a formal email

Remind Sts of / Elicit the difference between informal and formal writing: informal = e.g., to a friend, and formal = e.g., to a person we don't know, or to a company or institution.

We need to use a different style of writing depending on whether it is an informal or formal situation. Before going to the Writing section, quickly elicit what Sts can remember about writing an informal email, e.g., how you begin (Hi / Dear...) and end (Best wishes / Write soon, etc.).

Now tell Sts to go to Writing A formal email on p.117.

- a Focus on the advertisement and the email. Make sure Sts know what a Bed and Breakfast is. Tell Sts to fill in the blanks in Hannah's email with the words in the list. Check answers.

1 Dear 2 double 3 from 4 are 5 about 6 would
7 hope 8 confirm 9 Sincerely

Ask Sts some comprehension questions to make sure they understand the email, e.g., Who are Mr. and Mrs. Brewster? (the owners of the Bed and Breakfast), Why is Hannah writing to Mr. and Mrs. Brewster? (to confirm her reservation, ask about parking, and arrange to have dinner there), How many nights does Hannah want to stay? (three nights), etc.

- b Focus on the task and give Sts time to think of their answers.

- c Focus on the Formal emails box and go through it with the class. Elicit / Remind Sts of the difference between Mrs. and Ms. (some married women use Mrs.. Most women use Ms. as this gives no indication of marital status). Highlight that we don't usually use contractions in formal writing.

Now tell Sts to write their email to the Bed and Breakfast. They must include answers to the questions in b, i.e., who they are traveling with, which rooms they want, how many nights they want to stay, etc.

As this writing task is fairly short, you may want to get Sts to do it in class.

EXTRA IDEA If your Sts also need to write formal letters, not just emails, tell them that they can use exactly the same language to begin and end as in an email, but they should put:

- their address in the top right-hand corner
- the name and address of the person / company they're writing to on the left-hand side, slightly lower down
- the date under the name and address
- Sincerely, Regards, Yours truly, to end the letter. You could also teach as a set phrase I look forward to hearing from you.

- G be going to (predictions)
V verb phrases: become famous, etc.
P word stress

Lesson plan

This lesson looks at another use of the future be going to to express predictions (what we think or are sure is going to happen in the future). The context is a short story about a fortune-teller, which has also been dramatized on video. The lesson starts with Sts discussing fortune-telling and looking at related verb phrases. In Pronunciation, Sts look at stress in two-syllable words. Then Sts read and listen to a short story about a fortune-teller, which has a “twist” at the end. As they read / listen to the story, Sts have to make a series of predictions about the outcome. After reading and listening to the first four parts of the story, Sts then have the possibility of watching them on video, and then finally discovering what happens in the end. However, if you are unable to use video in class, you can simply use the audio for the end of the story, and tell Sts to watch the video at home. After the story, Sts look at the grammar of using going to for predictions, and the lesson ends with Sts telling each other’s fortunes. If you would like to give Sts the actual cards to use for this stage, go to p.246 to photocopy them and cut them up.

Get Sts to test each other’s memory by covering the phrases and pointing at the cards.

2 PRONUNCIATION word stress

- a Focus on the Word stress in two-syllable words box and go through it with the class.

Now focus on the words in the list and tell Sts that all these words are in a story they are going to hear. They must look at the words and decide which four are stressed on the second syllable. Remind Sts that exercises like this are easier if they say the words aloud.

Get Sts to compare answers with a partner.

- b  10.13 Play the audio for Sts to listen and check. Check answers.

believe idea surprise today

10.13

See words in the list in the Student Book on p.82

Put Sts in pairs and get them to practice saying the words.

EXTRA SUPPORT Play the audio again, pausing after each word for Sts to listen and repeat. Then put them in pairs and get them to practice saying the words.

3 READING & LISTENING following the events of a story

- a Focus on the title of the story and help Sts to explain / translate it. Elicit some ideas about the story.

- b  10.14 Focus on questions 1–3. Now play the audio and get Sts to read and listen to Part 1 of the story.

Get Sts to answer the questions in pairs and then check answers. Elicit / Teach the meaning of any words you think Sts may not have understood, e.g., a voice.

EXTRA SUPPORT Read through the scripts and decide if you need to pre-teach any new vocabulary before Sts listen.

! Although the story is in the past, it is more natural to ask and answer questions about it in the present.

- 1 Madame Yolanda, the fortune-teller
- 2 A man because Madame Yolanda isn't there.
- 3 Because the room was dark.

10.14

See It's written in the cards Part 1 in the Student Book on p.83

- c 10.15 Sts now listen to Part 2. Tell Sts you are going to play the audio twice. Sts, in pairs, fill in the blanks in 1–4. Play again if necessary.

Check answers. Elicit / Teach the meaning of any words you think Sts may not have understood, e.g., face down, turn over.

- 1 boyfriend 2 five 3 (very) lucky 4 stay

10.15

(script in Student Book on p.123)

J = Jane, Ji = Jim, N = narrator

Part 2

- J Well, I have a problem with my boyfriend. We argue all the time. I'm not sure that he loves me. I want to know if we're going to stay together.
- Ji Please choose five cards, but don't look at them.
- N The fortune-teller put the cards on the table, facedown. Jane took five cards. The fortune-teller turned over the first card.
- Ji Ah, this is a good card. This means you're going to be very lucky.
- J But am I going to stay with my boyfriend?
- N Jane asked.
- Ji Maybe.
- N ...said the fortune-teller.
- Ji We need to look at the other cards first.

- d 10.16 Focus on questions 1–5. Then play the audio and tell Sts to read and listen to Part 3.

Give Sts time to answer the questions in pairs.

Check answers and elicit some ideas for question 5.

- 1 A house. She is going to move to another country.
- 2 Her boyfriend can't move.
- 3 A heart. She's going to fall in love.
- 4 Jim is an actor from New York. She met him at a party.

10.16

See It's written in the cards Part 3 in the Student Book on p.83

- e 10.17 Focus on sentences 1–4. Then play the audio and tell Sts to listen to Part 4.

Give Sts time to complete the sentences in pairs.

Check answers. Elicit / Teach the meaning of any words you think Sts may not have understood, e.g., ring, note.

- 1 leave, another country 2 get married 3 happy, very happy
4 50

10.17

(script in Student Book on p.123)

Part 4

- N The fortune teller turned over a card with two rings.
- Ji Now I can see everything clearly. You're going to leave your boyfriend and go away with the other man, with Jim...to another country. And very soon you're going to get married.
- J Married? To Jim! But am I going to be happy with him?
- Ji You're going to be very happy together. I'm sure of it.

- N Jane looked at her watch.
- J Oh no, look at the time. I'm going to be late for work.
- N She stood up, left a 50-pound note on the table, and ran out of the room.

4 VIDEO LISTENING

- a 10.18 Tell Sts they are going to watch or listen to Parts 1–4 again. Get them to close their books and try to follow the story. Play the video / audio once the whole way through.

Ask Sts what they think is going to happen.

10.18

See scripts 10.14–10.17

EXTRA SUPPORT You could get Sts to listen again to the four parts of the audio with the scripts in the main lesson and on p.123, so they can see exactly what they understood / didn't understand. If you are using the video, you could get Sts to watch again with subtitles / showing the script.

- b 10.19 Focus on the three questions. Then play the video / audio and tell Sts to watch or listen to Part 5. Give Sts time to answer the questions in pairs. Check answers and elicit some ideas for question 3.

- 1 Jim, the actor that Jane met at the party
- 2 Because she helped him.
- 3 A plane
Accept any reasonable predictions: her plane is going to crash. If he travels with her, he is going to die, too.

10.19

N = narrator, Y = Yolanda, J = Jim

Part 5

- N The fortune-teller stood up. He turned on the light. At that moment, a woman came in.
- Y So, what happened?
- N ...she asked.
- J It was perfect! She believed everything.
- N ...said Jim.
- J I told you, I'm a very good actor. She was sure I was a fortune-teller!
- N He gave the woman 100 pounds.
- J That's Jane's 50 pounds and another 50 pounds from me. Thanks very much, Madame Yolanda. Bye.
- N Madame Yolanda took the money. The fifth card was still on the table, facedown. She turned it over. It was the plane. She looked at it for a minute and then she shouted.
- Y Wait, young man! Don't travel with that girl – her plane is going to...
N But the room was empty.

EXTRA SUPPORT If there's time and you are using the video, you could get Sts to watch again with subtitles / showing the script, so they can see exactly what they understood / didn't understand. Translate / Explain any new words or phrases.

5 GRAMMAR be going to (predictions)

- a Focus on the two sentences and make sure Sts understand a prediction (= something you think is going to happen). Do this as a whole-class activity.

1 is a prediction and 2 is a plan.

- b Tell Sts to go to Grammar Bank 10C on p.142.

Grammar notes

Sts learned the use of going to to express future plans in the previous lesson. Here, the same structure is used to make predictions (what we think or are sure will happen).

Will can also be used to make predictions. This is taught in Level 3.

- 🔊 10.20 Focus on the example sentences and play the audio for Sts to listen and repeat. Then go through the rules with the class.

Focus on the exercises for 10C on p.143. Sts do the exercises individually or in pairs.

Check answers, getting Sts to read the full sentences.

- a
- 1 They're going to have dinner.
  - 2 It's going to be a nice day.
  - 3 She's going to get the bus.
  - 4 He's going to make an omelet.
  - 5 She's going to send an email.
- b
- 1 're going to have
  - 2 isn't going to pass
  - 3 are going to buy
  - 4 'm not going to finish
  - 5 're going to win
  - 6 're going to be
  - 7 'm not going to like
  - 8 's going to forget
  - 9 's going to sleep
  - 10 're going to have

Tell Sts to go back to the main lesson 10C.

EXTRA SUPPORT If you think Sts need more practice, you may want to give them the Grammar photocopiable activity at this point.

- c Tell Sts to write one prediction for each category – the weather, sports, their town / country, and the student himself / herself. All four sentences should start with I think. Point out the example.
- d In pairs, Sts now read their predictions to each other and say whether or not they agree with their partner's predictions.
Get some feedback.

6 SPEAKING

Go through the instructions with Sts and focus on the example in the speech bubbles. Then put Sts in pairs, A and B, and get them to sit face-to-face if possible.

Sts individually number the cards 1–10. Stress that it should be in random order. Number your cards, too.

Demonstrate the activity. Get a student to tell you a number, and "tell his / her fortune," depending on the card he / she has chosen.

Student A is the fortune-teller first. B chooses five numbers between one and ten, and tells A, who writes them down. A predicts B's future according to the "cards" he / she has chosen. Then Sts switch roles.

- ! If you have odd numbers, have a group of three, where A tells B's fortune, B tells C's, and C tells A's.

Get feedback by asking a few Sts what's going to happen to them.

EXTRA IDEA You could photocopy the Communicative photocopiable activity and cut out the cards. Give each pair a pack of cards. Sts don't need to think of any numbers, they simply choose five cards from the pack.

11A Culture shock

- G adverbs (manner and modifiers)
- V common adverbs: slowly, fast, etc.
- P connected speech

Lesson plan

People's first impressions of a new country provide the context for learning common adverbs of manner and modifiers. This lesson starts with Sts reading some posts on a forum written by people about what surprised them when they first arrived in the US. This leads into the grammar focus on the formation and position of adverbs. In Listening, an American man talks about living in Costa Rica, which leads to Pronunciation, where the focus is on understanding connected speech. Sts then discuss habits and behavior in their own country / city. Finally, Sts write three short posts about habits in their country that might surprise a visitor.

OPTIONAL LEAD-IN (BOOKS CLOSED)

Tell Sts to imagine that they have to go and live for a year in a foreign city. Then tell them, in pairs, to decide which city they would like to go to, and why.

Get feedback about the cities Sts chose and their reasons.

1 READING

- a Books open. Do this as a whole-class activity. You could tell the class about your own experience.
- b Focus on the title of the forum and the question below it. Make sure Sts understand the topic. Give Sts a few minutes to read the posts and decide which topic isn't mentioned. Check the answer.

EXTRA SUPPORT Before Sts read the posts the first time, check whether you need to pre-teach any vocabulary, but not the words and phrases in e.

exercise

- c Get Sts to read the posts again and match sentences 1–9 to the people who said them. The sentences are paraphrases and not the exact wording in the posts. Get Sts to compare with a partner, and then check answers.

1 J 2 L 3 N 4 R 5 L 6 N 7 T 8 N 9 T

- d Tell Sts to read sentences 1–9 again and, with a partner, discuss whether each one is true in their country. You could do the first one with the whole class to start them off. If your Sts come from the same country, you could do this as a whole-class activity.
- e Focus on the words in the list. Elicit the pronunciation from the phonetics, and drill. Then Sts work alone or in pairs. Check answers, either explaining in English, translating into Sts' L1, or getting Sts to check in their dictionaries.

salary – the money that you get from your job insurance – something that you buy to protect yourself if you have an accident, need an operation, etc.
tip – extra money that you give to a taxi driver, a waiter, etc.
earn money – get money from your job pay bills – pay for electricity, gas, phone, etc.

Help with any other new vocabulary. Model and drill the pronunciation of any tricky words.

2 GRAMMAR adverbs

- a Tell Sts to look at the highlighted phrases in sentences 1–9 in 1c and choose option a or b in questions 1–3. Check answers.

1 a 2 b 3 b, a

EXTRA SUPPORT Get Sts to work in pairs.

- b Tell Sts to go to Grammar Bank 11A on p.144.

Grammar notes

Adverbs of manner

Sts usually find formation of these adverbs fairly straightforward.

The most common word order with these kinds of adverbs is to put the adverb after a verb or verb phrase, e.g., He drives very quickly, I speak English very well (typical error: I speak very well English).

Sts may try to use hardly instead of hard, e.g., I work hardly. Explain that hard is irregular and doesn't add -ly.

Hardly is a word that means almost not, e.g., I hardly slept last night, I hardly ever go to the theater. Sts learned hardly ever in 4C.

Modifiers

The position of these is quite straightforward. You may want to point out that you can't use very with strong adjectives, e.g., great, fantastic, awful, etc.

Focus on the example sentences and play both audio 11.1 and 11.2 for Sts to listen and repeat. Then go through the rules with the class.

Focus on the Words ending in -ly box and go through it with the class.

Now focus on the exercises for 11A on p.145. Sts do the exercises individually or in pairs.

Check answers, getting Sts to read the full sentences. Help with rhythm, and tell them that adverbs are always stressed.

- a
1 carefully 2 polite 3 beautifully 4 unhealthy 5 slowly
6 really 7 well 8 perfectly 9 casual 10 incredibly
- b
1 quietly 2 fast 3 well 4 carefully 5 hard 6 healthily
7 badly 8 easily

Tell Sts to go back to the main lesson 11A.

EXTRA SUPPORT If you think Sts need more practice, you may want to give them the Grammar photocopiable activity at this point.

- c 11.3 Tell Sts they're going to hear six sound effects, and for each one, they must write a sentence using the present continuous and an adverb to describe what's happening.

Play the audio and pause after number 1, so Sts can see how the example sentence describes what they heard.

Now play the other five sound effects, pausing after each one to give Sts time to write.

Elicit ideas from Sts.

- 2 He's driving fast.
3 They're dancing badly.
4 They're eating noisily.
5 She's singing beautifully / well.
6 He / She's playing the piano loudly.

- 11.3
(sound effects for the following)

- 1 two people whispering
2 car screeching round corners, plus male voice
3 stepping on feet, two voices
4 two people eating together, slurping spaghetti
5 lovely female opera voice
6 very loud piano playing

3 LISTENING & PRONUNCIATION

connected speech

- a 11.4 Focus on the photo of Jack and the caption, and ask Sts if they know where Costa Rica is (Central America), and what they can see in the big photo (a man selling fruit and vegetables). Make sure Sts understand the task.

Tell Sts that the first time they listen, they don't need to understand everything. They just need to decide how Jack feels about living in Costa Rica.

Play the audio for Sts to listen and answer the question.

Check the answer.

EXTRA SUPPORT Read through the script and decide if you need to pre-teach any new vocabulary before Sts listen.

He's positive.

- 11.4
(script in Student Book on p.123)

The first thing that I really noticed when I arrived here was how incredibly friendly the people are. The "ticos" – that's what they're called – are much friendlier than people from my home country. They always say buenos días to you even if they don't know you. And if something's good, like a beautiful day or a good meal, they say pura vida, which I love. It literally means "pure life," but I think it really means "things are great", or something like that. One thing that can be difficult though, their sense of time is completely different from ours – they call it "tico time". If they have an appointment at, let's say, seven in the evening, they probably leave home at seven o'clock, so they're always late. Luckily, my school works on what they call "British time", so classes start punctually!

Another thing that surprised me was the weather. I thought Costa Rica was hot and sunny all the time. That's true in the dry season, and the temperature's about 77 degrees all year round, but in the rainy season, especially in September and October, it rains really heavily for maybe two hours a day. Really amazing rain, nothing like at home.

Everyone told me that the scenery was beautiful in Costa Rica, but it was even more beautiful than I expected. Incredible animals, birds, trees – and volcanoes. Some of them are active and smoke quietly, and then suddenly there's a big bang and they start erupting. I was very frightened the first time it happened.

What else? Uh, I thought that life here was going to be very cheap, but in fact, food is very expensive, especially imported food. The only thing that's cheap is fruit, vegetables, and coffee – wonderful, wonderful coffee. And the fruit and vegetables are very different from what we have at home. One day, I went to a market and I didn't recognize any of the fruit.

I like San José. I don't feel that it's dangerous, but it probably is. A colleague of mine was in a taxi the other day, and the taxi driver robbed him of his money! And the roads are terrible, especially in the rain! But in general, I love it here.

- b 11.5 Tell Sts they are now going to hear seven phrases taken from the listening and they must write each one down. Each phrase has three or four words in it. Point out the example.

Play the audio, pausing after each phrase to give Sts time to write. Play again if necessary.

Check answers.

- 11.5
1 how incredibly friendly
2 things are great
3 their sense of time
4 seven in the evening
5 hot and sunny
6 all year round
7 two hours a day

Now play the audio again, pausing after each one for Sts to listen and repeat.

c Tell Sts they are going to listen to Jack again, and this time they need to fill in the blanks in 1–11. Give Sts time to read 1–11.

Play audio  11.4 again for Sts to complete the task.

Get Sts to compare with a partner, and then check answers.

1 friendlier 2 are great 3 late 4 77 degrees 5 rains, heavily 6 more beautiful 7 very frightened 8 fruit, vegetables, coffee 9 coffee 10 dangerous 11 terrible

d Do this as a whole-class activity and give your opinion.

4 VOCABULARY & SPEAKING

common adverbs

Focus on the task. Then look at the questions and make sure Sts understand all the verb phrases, e.g., treat tourists, behave, etc.

Put Sts in small groups. Focus on the example, or demonstrate first if you are from a different country / city, by telling Sts, e.g., In the US, I think most people drive very carefully. I drive...

Give Sts time in their groups to discuss all the points. Remind them to first say what they think about the people in their country and then about themselves.

Get some feedback from various groups.

5 WRITING

Tell Sts to look back at all the topics in the posts in 1 and to choose three they want to write about, e.g., transportation, food, money. They need to write one post about their own country for each topic.

When Sts have finished, ask them to compare their posts. If your Sts are all from the same country, ask them if they wrote about the same things, and if they agree. If they're from different countries, ask if anything surprises them, and if they'd like to visit the other country.

- G verb + infinitive
V verbs that take the infinitive: want to, need to, etc.
P weak to, sentence stress

Lesson plan

This lesson is based on a blog written by a German girl who is passionate about travel and new experiences. In the first half of the lesson, Sts read and talk about people's dreams or "bucket lists." In Grammar, they focus on the structure verb + infinitive, which is common when talking about dreams, e.g., I want to climb a mountain, and they learn some common verbs that are followed by the infinitive. In the second half of the lesson, Sts work on the weak pronunciation of to in verb phrases and sentence stress, and talk about their dreams and plans for the future. The Writing task, which links back to the reading, gets Sts to write their own bucket lists and then compare them.

OPTIONAL LEAD-IN (BOOKS CLOSED)

Tell Sts to imagine that they have won, for example $1,000 in the lottery. Ask who would buy something with it (what?), and who would spend it on an experience, e.g., a trip (where to?).

1 READING & SPEAKING scanning for information

- a Books open. Read the definition and elicit answers from the class. Don't ask Sts if they have a bucket list since they will be doing this later in the lesson. The term bucket list comes from the expression to kick the bucket, meaning to die. You might want to point out that the definition here says "before you die," but the term bucket list also often means any list of special things that you want to do – in this lesson, Stef makes a new bucket list for each year.
- b Focus on the task and make sure Sts can remember what a blog is. Give Sts time to read the About me section and answer the questions. Point out that the first one has been done for them.
- Get Sts to compare with a partner, and then check answers. Don't ask Sts any questions about Stef's lifestyle at this stage as they will be doing this later in the lesson.

EXTRA SUPPORT Before Sts read the blog check whether you need to pre-teach any vocabulary, but not the phrases in d.

- 2 She went to Australia in 2011. She worked in a restaurant. Then she traveled all over Australia and New Zealand.
- 3 She got a job there as a project assistant.
- 4 She went there on vacation when she worked for the IT company.
- 5 Having experiences is more important than working to pay for an apartment and buying things she doesn't need.
- 6 Three months ago, she left her job and decided to work in different jobs.

- c Focus on the task and the My dreams section of the blog. Check Sts know all the vocabulary in the list, e.g., a balloon, a field, to dive, etc.
- Now give Sts time to go through the list and check the five things they would most like to do. You could demonstrate the activity by telling Sts five you would like to do, and explaining why.
- Put Sts in pairs and get them to compare their lists. Tell them to say why they have chosen each item.
- Get some feedback from individual Sts.
- d Now tell Sts to cover the text and look at the phrases in 1–8. Can they remember the verbs?
 Check answers.

- 1 make
- 2 go
- 3 ride
- 4 learn
- 5 go
- 6 make
- 7 make
- 8 get

Help with any other new vocabulary. Model and drill the pronunciation of any tricky words.

- e Do this as a whole-class activity.
- You could also tell Sts what you think. You could find out with a show of hands if any Sts would like to live like Stef.

2 GRAMMAR verb + infinitive

- a Tell Sts to match the sentence beginnings on the left to the endings on the right, and then answer the question.
 Check answers.

I decided to go to Australia.
 I needed to save some money.
 Learn to play the guitar.
 The missing word is to.

- b Tell Sts to go to Grammar Bank 11B on p.144.

Grammar notes

There are two forms of the infinitive in English, e.g., live and to live.

Live is often known as the "base form" and to live as the "infinitive." The negative is formed by adding not, e.g., to be or not to be.

The base form (live) is used, for example, in questions and negatives with do / does and did, e.g., Where do you live?, I don't live here.

The infinitive (to live) is used very widely in English. One of its main uses is after a lot of common verbs, like want, need, decide, hope, etc., e.g., I want to live in the city center. Some verbs – a smaller group – are followed by the gerund (-ing), e.g., like, love, hate (I like cooking), which Sts learned in 6B. However, some native speakers, use the infinitive after like, e.g., I like to cook.

11.6 Focus on the example sentences and play the audio for Sts to listen and repeat. Highlight the pronunciation of would /wəd/, reminding Sts that the l is silent. Then go through the rules with the class.

Focus on the would like and like box and go through it with the class.

Now focus on the exercises for 11B on p.145. Sts do the exercises individually or in pairs.

Check answers, getting Sts to read the full sentences.

- a
 1 to drive 2 to buy 3 to be 4 to call 5 to stay 6 to see
 7 to get married 8 to have 9 to go 10 to leave
- b
 1 to have 2 to speak 3 to travel 4 relaxing 5 to play
 6 to get 7 going 8 reading 9 to wear 10 cooking

Tell Sts to go back to the main lesson 11B.

EXTRA SUPPORT If you think Sts need more practice, you may want to give them the Grammar photocopiable activity at this point.

3 PRONUNCIATION weak to, sentence stress

11.7 Tell Sts they are going to hear six sentences with verb + infinitive in them, and they must write them down.

Play the audio, pausing after each sentence for Sts to listen and write down the sentence.

Get Sts to compare with a partner, and then check answers, by eliciting the sentences onto the board.

- 11.7
 1 I'm planning to buy a new car.
 2 He decided to walk home.
 3 I hope to hear from you soon.
 4 Do you want to stop now?
 5 I need to go to the supermarket.
 6 They'd like to have dinner with us.

Now play the audio again, pausing after each sentence for Sts to listen and repeat.

Ask the class how to is pronounced. If necessary, play the audio again.

It is pronounced /tə/.

11.8 Remind Sts that all the stressed words are in bigger font. Play the audio once the whole way through for Sts just to listen.

11.8
 See conversation in the Student Book on p.89

Play the audio again, pausing after each line for Sts to listen and repeat. Encourage them to copy the rhythm by saying the stressed words more strongly.

Put Sts in pairs and get them to practice the conversation. Get a few pairs to read the conversation to the class.

EXTRA CHALLENGE Ask Sts to memorize the conversation, then close their books and practice saying it.

c Put Sts in pairs and focus on the task. First, they need to look at the five things their partner checked in Stef's bucket list in 1c, and then they should ask their partner five more questions, using Would you like to...? followed by an item in the list. Before they start, focus on the speech bubbles and tell Sts to ask and answer like this, and if possible, as in 3b, they should give a reason. You might want to point out that Sts need to change my in certain items to your, e.g., Would you like to go on vacation with your best friend?

Get some feedback from various pairs on their partner's dreams.

4 VOCABULARY verbs that take the infinitive

a Focus on the task and get Sts to do it in pairs.

EXTRA SUPPORT Elicit the past tense of each verb from the class and write it on the board. Then ask the class to divide the list into regular and irregular verbs.

Check answers.

Forget is irregular (forgot).

b Tell Sts to complete 1–10 with the verbs in a. Point out that the first one (wanted) has been done for them. Get Sts to compare with a partner, and then check answers.

- 2 remembered 3 decided 4 forgot 5 tried 6 learned 7 hoped 8 promised 9 planned 10 needed

5 SPEAKING

Give Sts a few minutes to look at the ten phrases and think about their answers.

Now focus on the instructions and example.

Put Sts in pairs. Monitor and help, especially correcting any errors with infinitives.

Get some feedback. Find out if any Sts had the same answers, or if any answers were surprising.

6 WRITING

a Tell Sts to write a bucket list like Stef's, with five things they want to do this year.

b Put Sts in pairs and get them to compare lists. They should see if any of the items are the same or if their partner wrote something they also want to include in their list. Get some feedback from various pairs.

- G definite article: the or no the
V phones and the internet
P the

Lesson plan

The topic of this lesson is phones and the internet. The lesson starts with the introduction of some useful phone and internet related language. Sts then listen to three people saying what they use their phones for, and Sts do the same. Reading focuses on life before the internet – something that you and your Sts may not have experienced. This is followed by the grammar focus, which looks at the uses of the definite article, with a special focus on the non-use of articles when generalizing, e.g., talking about things or people in general. The lesson ends with a Speaking activity that reviews the different uses of articles.

Write on the board DIGITAL NATIVE and DIGITAL IMMIGRANT and ask Sts what they think the terms mean.

Elicit / Explain that a digital native is somebody who was born after the internet was already an important part of life, and a digital immigrant is somebody who was born before then and has had to learn how to use it.

Ask Sts if they know any digital immigrants.

1 VOCABULARY phones and the internet

- a Books open. Focus Sts' attention on the phone screen. Give them time to look at all the apps and functions, and count how many they have on their phone. Elicit some answers.
- b Get Sts to match the icons in a to the activities. Check answers.

EXTRA SUPPORT Play the audio again, and get Sts to listen and repeat.

2 LISTENING & SPEAKING using visual clues to support understanding

- a  11.11 Focus on the instructions and tell Sts they are going to hear three different conversations. They must listen for the first activity the three people do with their phones.
 Play the audio once the whole way through.
 Check answers.

EXTRA SUPPORT Read through the scripts and decide if you need to pre-teach any new vocabulary before Sts listen.

Speaker A the internet
Speaker B receiving phone calls from other people
Speaker C email

11.11

(script in Student Book on p.123)

I = interviewer

A

I What kind of phone do you have?

A I have an iPhone.

I How old is it?

A Uh, about two years old.

I How often do you change phones?

A Not very often, I would say. I like to, uh, I'm not particularly worried about having the latest phone. I just want one that works well. Uh, I usually keep my phone about four years – if I don't lose it, that is.

I What do you use your phone for the most?

A Probably the internet. And messaging. Things like SnapChat, Facebook messenger.

I So you don't use it much to actually talk to people?

A No, I don't.

I What other apps do you use a lot?

A I use the weather one a lot. And I have a couple of games I like playing. And Skype. I use Skype from time to time to talk to my brother because he lives in Toronto.

I Do you have any unusual apps that you sometimes use?

A I have one to track the food that I eat, but I don't use it every day. And I have a photo-editing app.

B

I What kind of phone do you have?

B An android smartphone. A Samsung, uh, Galaxy, I think.

I Is it new?

B About six months old.

I How often do you change phones?

B About every two to three years.

I What do you use it for the most?

B Receiving phone calls from other people, or looking up things on the internet.

I What apps do you have that you use a lot?

B An online banking app. I use that a lot. Email, of course. And the Kindle app, the e-reader.

I Do you like reading on your phone?

B No, I prefer reading real books, paper books, but I always have my phone with me, so there are lots of times, like on the bus or if I'm waiting for somebody, I can read a book on my phone.

I Do you have any unusual apps that you sometimes use?

B Uh, I have an app so I can order a taxi from my local taxi company.

C

I What kind of phone do you have?

C An iPhone.

I How often do you change your phone?

C When my contract lets me upgrade it, which is, I don't know, every two or three years.

I What do you use your phone for the most?

C Uh, email, text messages, internet, and phone, I mean, talking. In that order.

I What apps do you use a lot?

C Apart from mail and Google, you mean?

I Yes.

C Uh, Twitter, er, CNN news, and various transportation apps for buying train tickets or seeing what time they are.

I Do you have any unusual apps that you sometimes use?

C I have a "night sky" app. If it's a starry night, I sometimes use that. You point your phone at the sky and it tells you the names of the stars and planets and things.

b Tell Sts they are going to hear the three speakers again, and this time they must listen and label 1–9 according to which speaker says it.

Give Sts time to read 1–9.

Play the audio, pausing after each speaker to give Sts time to complete the task.

Check answers.

- 1 speaker A   2 speaker C   3 speaker B   4 speaker B
5 speaker A   6 speaker C   7 speaker B   8 speaker C
9 speaker A

c Put Sts in pairs and get them to ask and answer questions 1–5.

Get some feedback from various pairs. You could also tell Sts how you use your phone.

3 READING

a Do this as a whole-class activity. Don't tell Sts if they are right or not at this stage.

b Focus on the article. You might want to model and drill the pronunciation of encyclopedia /ɪnˌsɪkləˈpiːdiə/. Tell Sts to read the article to check their answers to a and to find out what people used the things for.

Check answers. If you used any of these things yourself, tell the class about your experiences.

EXTRA SUPPORT Before Sts read the article, check whether you need to pre-teach any vocabulary.

- 1 Encyclopedias: people used them to look up information.
- 2 Carbon paper: people used it to make one or two copies of a document.
- 3 Fax machines: people used them to send printed messages over the phone.
- 4 The Yellow Pages: people used them to look up the names and contact information of local businesses.
- 5 Walkmans: people used them to listen to music.
- 6 A Thomas Guide: people used them to find streets in their city.

Help with any new vocabulary. Model and drill the pronunciation of any tricky words.

c Focus on the task and example.

Put Sts in pairs and get them to tell their partner if they do any of the activities (the chances are they rarely do any of them – the objective here is to get them to explain how they do these things, e.g., book tickets, find information, etc., nowadays).

Get some feedback from various pairs.

4 GRAMMAR definite article

a You could do this as a whole-class activity, discussing each sentence in turn, or Sts could do it in pairs or small groups. If Sts worked in pairs or small groups, get some feedback.

b Tell Sts to look at the three sentences in a and complete rules 1–4 in b.

Check answers.

1 Use the 2 Don't use the 3 Don't use the 4 Use the

c Tell Sts to go to Grammar Bank 11C on p.144.

Grammar notes

This lesson focuses on the use and non-use of the definite article. It also reviews the uses of the indefinite article that Sts have seen so far in Level 1.

The Grammar Bank information covers several uses / non-uses of the article, but is not exhaustive, as some of the more complex rules, e.g., the use of articles with geographical words, will be dealt with at a higher level. The difficulties your Sts have with articles will depend, to a large extent, on how articles are used or not used in their L1.

11.12 Focus on the example sentences and play the audio for Sts to listen and repeat. Then go through the rules with the class.

Focus on the a / an or the? box and go through it with the class.

Now focus on the exercises for 11C on p.145. Sts do the exercises individually or in pairs.

Check answers, getting Sts to read the full sentences.

1 in college 2 by train 3 on the weekend 4 at home
5 novels 6 the best 7 the moon 8 the man 9 the door
10 breakfast
b
1 – 2 – 3 The 4 – 5 – 6 The 7 the 8 the 9 – 10 the

Tell Sts to go back to the main lesson 11C.

EXTRA SUPPORT If you think Sts need more practice, you may want to give them the Grammar photocopiable activity at this point.

5 PRONUNCIATION & SPEAKING the

a 11.13 Focus on the task and play the audio for Sts just to listen. If necessary, play it again.

Check the answer.

1 /ði/ 2 /ðə/

11.13

See phrases in the Student Book on p.91

Now ask what difference there is between the words after the in each group. Elicit that in group 1 the words after the (= /ði/) begin with a vowel, and in group 2 the words after the (= /ðə/) begin with a consonant.

b Put Sts in pairs and get them to practice saying the phrases.

EXTRA SUPPORT Play the audio again, pausing after each phrase for Sts to listen and repeat. Then get Sts to practice saying the phrases.

c The goal of this exercise is to get Sts talking about topics, often generalizing, which will encourage them to use the definite article correctly.

Go through the instructions with Sts. Focus on the speech bubbles and highlight that because the person is speaking in general, they say women and men, and not the women and the men.

Give Sts time to read the circles. Then put Sts in pairs, A and B.

A chooses a circle and talks about the three things.

B listens, reacts, and asks extra questions. Monitor and help Sts, making sure that they use articles correctly.

B then chooses a circle and talks about three things, and A asks for more information. Monitor and help as before.

When B has finished, A should choose another circle, and they should continue, alternating until they've talked about all the circles.

Get feedback to see if any of the information was surprising / funny / interesting, etc.

Function getting to the airport

Vocabulary public transportation

Lesson plan

In this final Practical English lesson, Sts learn some vocabulary related to transportation, and functional language for using public transportation. It's Jenny's final morning in London, and Rob goes to the hotel to say goodbye. Jenny says that she has shown some of his articles to Barbara, her boss in New York, and that they would like him to go to New York for a month and write a column for New York 24seven, and a daily blog. Rob is excited at the idea, but asks for time to think about it. Jenny takes a taxi and then a train to get to Heathrow Airport, but when she arrives, she discovers that she has left her phone in the hotel. At that moment, Rob arrives with the phone and tells her that he wants to accept Barbara's offer and go to New York. He finally discovers who Eddie is.

The story is continued in New York in American English File Level 3.

OPTIONAL LEAD-IN (BOOKS CLOSED)

Elicit what happened in the last episode by asking some questions, e.g., Where did Daniel take Jenny? What did Daniel say to Jenny after the meal? Was she happy about this? Who called her during the meal? Was it good news or bad news?

Alternatively, you could play the last scene of Episode 5.

1 JENNY'S LAST MORNING

a 11.14 Books open. Focus on the photo and elicit what Sts think is happening.

Focus on sentences 1–5 and go through them with Sts.

Then play the video / audio once the whole way through, for them to mark the sentences T (true) or F (false). Make it clear that they don't need to correct the false sentences yet. Play again if necessary.

Get Sts to compare with a partner, and then check answers.

1 T 2 F 3 F 4 F 5 T

11.14

R = Rob, J = Jenny

J Rob!

R Jenny, hi. Sorry I'm a bit late.

J No problem.

R Really?

J Really!

R I got your message.

J Would you like a coffee or something?

R No, I'm fine, thanks. So what did you want to talk about? You think London is the best city in the world and you don't want to go home.

J Not exactly. We'd like you to come to New York.

R Me? To New York?

J I talked to Barbara about you. You know, Barbara, my boss? She loves your articles, too. So...would you like to come over to New York and work for us? Just for a month. And write a column for New York 24seven. And maybe a daily blog?

R Wow, sounds great! What could I call it? An Englishman in New York?

J Why not? Are you interested?

R Yes, very. It's amazing! But I need to think about it.

J Of course.

R When do I need to decide?

J Before the end of the week.

R OK, great. Thank you.

J And now, I really have to go.

b Play the video / audio again, so Sts can watch or listen and correct the false sentences.

Get Sts to compare with a partner, and then check answers.

2 He doesn't want a coffee.

3 Jenny has good news.

4 He thinks An Englishman in New York is a good name.

Ask Sts what they think Rob is going to do, but don't tell them yet.

EXTRA SUPPORT If there's time and you are using the video, you could get Sts to watch again with subtitles / showing the script, so they can see exactly what they understood / didn't understand. Translate / Explain any new words or phrases.

2 VOCABULARY public transportation

a Focus on the task and get Sts to match the words and pictures.

Get Sts to compare with a partner.

b 11.15 Play the audio for Sts to listen and check.

Check answers.

1 train 2 plane 3 ferry 4 subway 5 bus 6 taxi

11.15

5 bus 2 plane 6 taxi 1 train 3 ferry 4 subway

Now play the audio again, pausing after each word for Sts to listen and repeat.

Finally, tell Sts to cover the words and look at the pictures to test themselves.

c Focus on the task and get Sts to complete the four headings with a word from a.

Get Sts to compare with a partner, and then check answers.

1 taxi 2 plane 3 subway 4 bus

Go through the four texts, helping with new vocabulary, and model and drill pronunciation.

d Write the four types of transportation on the board. Get Sts to close their books. Then elicit two facts for each type, e.g., ask Where can you get a taxi? (at a taxi stand) What's another word for a taxi? (a cab), etc.

3 GETTING TO THE AIRPORT

a 11.16 Focus on the photos and elicit what Sts think is happening and who the people are (a ticket clerk and a taxi driver). Model and drill the pronunciation of clerk /klɜ:k/.

Focus on the instructions and the question. Alternatively, you could get Sts to close their books and write the question on the board.

Play the video / audio once the whole way through.

Get Sts to compare with a partner, and play the video / audio again if necessary.

Check the answer.

She gets a taxi and a train.

11.16 11.17

J = Jenny, R = receptionist, T = taxi driver, TC = ticket clerk

J Could you call me a taxi, please? (repeat)

R Yes, of course. Where to?

J To Paddington Station. (repeat)

R And when would you like it for?

J Now, please. (repeat)

J How much is it? (repeat)

T That's thirteen sixty, please.

J Make it fifteen pounds. (repeat) And could I have a receipt? (repeat)

T Thank you very much, madam.

J Could I have a ticket to Heathrow Airport, please? (repeat)

TC Single or return?

J Single, please. (repeat)

TC Standard or first class?

J Standard, please. (repeat)

T That's eighteen pounds.

J Can I pay by credit card? (repeat)

TC Yes, of course.

b Now focus on the conversations in the chart. Ask Sts Who says the You hear sentences in each conversation? and elicit that first it is the receptionist, then the taxi driver, and then the man at the ticket office.

Then ask Who says the You say sentences? and elicit that it is Jenny. Tell Sts that if they want someone to call them a taxi, or want to use public transportation, they will need the You say phrases.

Give Sts a minute to read through the conversations and think what the missing words might be. Then play the video / audio again, and get Sts to fill in the blanks. Play again if necessary.

Get Sts to compare with a partner, and then check answers.

1 Where 2 for 3 13.60 4 madam 5 return 6 first
7 course

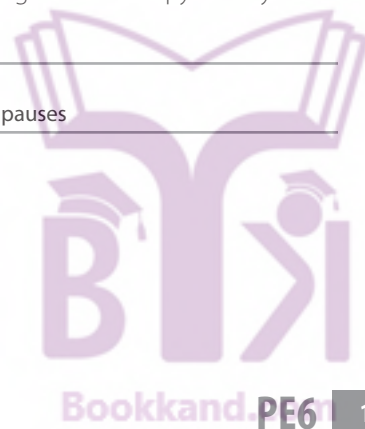

Go through the conversations line by line with Sts, helping them with any words or expressions they don't understand. Highlight that a single ticket = one way only, a return ticket = to a place and then back again, standard = a normal ticket, and first class = you pay more and travel in a more comfortable part of the train. Highlight also the useful phrase Could I have a receipt? and elicit that a receipt /rɪ'si:t/ is a piece of paper showing what you paid for something. Point out that the p is not pronounced in receipt.

c 11.17 Now focus on the You say phrases. Tell Sts they're going to hear the conversations again. They should repeat the You say phrases when they hear the beep.

Play the video / audio, pausing if necessary for Sts to repeat the phrases. Encourage them to copy the rhythm and intonation.

11.17

Same as script 11.16 with repeat pauses

- d Put Sts in pairs, A and B. Tell Sts A to read the part of the receptionist, the taxi driver, and the ticket clerk, and Sts B to read Jenny.
In pairs, Sts read the conversations aloud.
Then Sts switch roles.
- e Sts now role-play the conversation. In the same pairs, get them to read the information for their roles. Tell Sts that Gatwick is the other main London airport.

EXTRA SUPPORT You could write VICTORIA STATION and GATWICK AIRPORT on the board to help Sts B remember where they want to go.

Make sure Sts switch roles when they have finished.
You could get some pairs to perform in front of the class.

4 SAYING GOODBYE

- a  11.18 Focus on the photo and ask Sts what's happening.
Focus on the sentence beginnings and give Sts time to read them.

- J And?
- R I'd love to accept. I really want to come and work in New York.
- J That's great, Rob! I'm so happy.
- R Me, too. Oh, you had a call from Eddie. I didn't answer it. Is he going to meet you at the airport?
- J Eddie? No. He's at college in California.
- R In California? Does he teach there?
- J Teach? No, he's a student.
- R A student?
- J Well, he's only 19. Eddie's my brother.
- A Next departure, flight 232 to New York, is now ready for boarding.
- J I need to go.
- R Well, have a good journey.
- J Thanks, Rob. Bye.
- R Bye. And see you in New York!

EXTRA SUPPORT If there's time and you are using the video, you could get Sts to watch again with subtitles / showing the script, so they can see exactly what they understood / didn't understand. Translate / Explain any new words or phrases.

- b Focus on the Social English phrases and go through them with the class.
In pairs, get Sts to decide who says them.
- c  11.19 Play the video / audio for Sts to watch or listen to the five phrases and check.
Check answers. If you know your Sts' L1, you could get them to translate the phrases.

11.19

See Social English phrases in the Student Book on p.93

Now play the video / audio again, pausing after each phrase for Sts to watch or listen and repeat.

Get Sts to compare with a partner, and then check answers.

A 5 B 2 C 3 D 1 E 4

Now put Sts in pairs and get them to practice the conversations.

Finally, focus on the CAN YOU...? questions and ask Sts if they feel confident they can now do these things. If they feel that they need more practice, tell them to go to Online Practice to watch the episode again and practice the language.

- G present perfect
V irregular past participles
P sentence stress

Lesson plan

The topic of movies and TV shows that are based on books provides the context to introduce the present perfect. The lesson begins with the grammar presentation through a conversation about movies, TV shows, and books. The pronunciation focus is on sentence stress, and Vocabulary looks at common irregular past participles. The main context of the final Listening and Speaking activity is a survey asking about movie, TV, and book experiences, and Sts learn how to ask present perfect questions with ever.

NB In 12B Sts learn other regular and irregular past participles, and contrast the present perfect with the simple past.

EXTRA CHALLENGE Get Sts to complete the chart before they listen to the audio again. They then listen and check their answers.

d Tell Sts to go to Grammar Bank 12A on p.146.

Grammar notes

Present perfect

The present perfect is presented here in two of the most basic uses, i.e., for recent past actions and past experience when the time is not referred to. These uses may be difficult for Sts if they don't have an equivalent in their language.

The form of the present perfect may also be problematic as it is the first time Sts have seen have used as an auxiliary verb with all its contractions (I've..., he's..., etc.).

Regular and irregular past participles

Past participles of regular verbs should not cause any problems for Sts since they are the same as the simple past. Sts simply have to remember the pronunciation rules for -ed endings.

Many irregular past participles also have the same form as the simple past. However, ones that are different (e.g., speak–spoke–spoken) may cause problems as Sts may confuse the two forms. For this reason, it is worth giving special attention to these verbs.

12.2 Focus on the example sentences and play the audio for Sts to listen and repeat. Then go through the rules with the class.

Now focus on the exercises for 12A on p.147. Sts do the exercises individually or in pairs.

Check answers, getting Sts to read the full sentences. In a, write the contracted forms on the board. In b and c, tell Sts to use contractions in  $\boxed{+}$  and  $\boxed{-}$  after I, he, etc.

- a
- 1 She hasn't read the book.
  - 2 You haven't finished your ice cream!
  - 3 We've heard the news.
  - 4 He's arrived at the airport.
  - 5 They haven't asked for the check.
  - 6 We haven't seen him before.
  - 7 It's stopped raining.
- b
- 1 I've changed my email address.
  - 2 My boyfriend hasn't worked abroad.
  - 3 Have you decided what to do?
  - 4 They haven't passed the exam.
  - 5 Has he accepted the invitation?
  - 6 She's studied three languages.
  - 7 The train hasn't arrived.
  - 8 Have the children cleaned their room?
  - 9 My girlfriend hasn't called me.
  - 10 My father's helped me a lot.
- c
- 1 They've seen
  - 2 He's passed
  - 3 She hasn't finished
  - 4 He's painted
  - 5 She's asked

Tell Sts to go back to the main lesson 12A.

EXTRA SUPPORT If you think Sts need more practice, you may want to give them the Grammar photocopiable activity at this point.

- e Tell Sts to complete sentences 1–10 with the past participle of a verb from the list. Point out that the first one (opened) has been done for them.
- Get Sts to compare with a partner, and then check answers. When checking answers, get Sts to read the full sentences, e.g., I've never opened a bank account.

- 2 booked 3 acted 4 played 5 killed 6 worked 7 believed 8 asked 9 traveled 10 downloaded

- f In pairs, Sts say which sentences are true for them.
- Get some feedback from various pairs. Encourage Sts to say why, but don't correct misuse of tenses at this point.
- Finally, go through each sentence and find out, with a show of hands, how many Sts have done each one.

2 PRONUNCIATION sentence stress

- a 12.3 Focus on the conversation. Play the audio once for Sts just to listen.

12.3

See conversation in the Student Book on p.95

Now play the audio again, pausing after each line for Sts to listen and repeat. Remind Sts that the larger words are the ones that they should stress more strongly.

Get Sts to practice the conversation in pairs, switching roles.

- b Tell Sts to think of three more movies or TV shows from books. Monitor and help Sts write their three titles. The titles can be in any language, depending which country the movies or shows are from – but in a monolingual class, for American or British movies and shows, tell Sts the original title in English if you can.

EXTRA SUPPORT Some Sts might have trouble thinking of movies and TV shows, so put Sts in pairs to brainstorm some names, and then write them on the board.

Sts ask and answer with a partner. Monitor, helping Sts get the right rhythm in their questions.

Get feedback from the class.

EXTRA CHALLENGE If Sts have seen a movie and read the book, ask which one they preferred and why.

3 VOCABULARY irregular past participles

- a Tell Sts to focus on the last column of the chart. Explain that these are irregular past participles and that Sts need to write the base form and the simple past in the relevant columns. Remind Sts that past participles of irregular verbs are sometimes the same as the simple past, but sometimes different.

Get Sts to compare their answers with a partner.

- b 12.4 Play the audio for Sts to listen and check.
- Check answers. Elicit that the verbs where the past participles are different from the simple past are fall, give, and see.

- 2 fall, fell 3 give, gave 4 hear, heard 5 leave, left 6 read, read 7 see, saw 8 tell, told

12.4

1 buy	bought	bought
2 fall	fell	fallen
3 give	gave	given
4 hear	heard	heard
5 leave	left	left
6 read	read	read
7 see	saw	seen
8 tell	told	told

Now ask Sts what the difference is between the base form of the verb read and the simple past and past participle.

read base form = /rɪd/
read simple past and past participle = /rɛd/

Play the audio again, pausing after each past participle for Sts to listen and repeat the three forms. Help with pronunciation where necessary.

- c 12.5 Focus on the instructions and the example, and tell Sts they are going to hear the base form and they must say the simple past and the past participle. Tell Sts that the verbs are from a, but they will hear them in a different order. Play the audio for Sts to see what they have to do. Get Sts to either cover a or to close their books. If Sts close their books, write SIMPLE PAST and PAST PARTICIPLE on the board.

Play the audio, pausing after each base form, and elicit the simple past and past participle from the whole class.

12.5

buy (pause) bought, bought see (pause) saw, seen give (pause) gave, given fall (pause) fell, fallen leave (pause) left, left read (pause) read, read tell (pause) told, told hear (pause) heard, heard

Now repeat the activity, eliciting responses from individual Sts.

- d Tell Sts to look at 1–8 and to complete the Verb column in each one with a past participle from a.
Get Sts to compare with a partner, and then check answers.

1 read 2 fallen 3 told 4 heard 5 seen 6 bought
7 left 8 given

- e Tell Sts to cover the Verb column, and to say the sentences, completing them from memory.

4 LISTENING & SPEAKING

 recognizing topic questions

- a Focus on the Movies, books, and TV questionnaire and go through 1–12, making sure Sts understand the vocabulary, e.g., soundtrack, subtitles, etc.
Give Sts a few minutes to put the verbs in parentheses into the past participle, and then check answers. Model and drill pronunciation.

1 fallen 2 bought 3 left 4 seen 5 cried 6 seen
7 told 8 read 9 stopped 10 listened 11 given 12 watched

Don't get Sts to ask and answer the questions at this stage as they will be doing it later in the lesson.

- b 12.6 Now tell Sts they are going to listen to six people (A–F), each answering one of the 12 questions in a. Elicit / Teach that ever in the question Have you ever...? means (at some time) in your life.
Play the audio, pausing after each speaker to give Sts time to figure out which question each speaker is answering.

Get Sts to compare with a partner, and then check answers.

EXTRA SUPPORT Read through the script and decide if you need to pre-teach any new vocabulary before Sts listen.

Speaker A 10 Speaker B 4 Speaker C 1 Speaker D 12
Speaker E 8 Speaker F 2

12.6

(script in Student Book on p.123)

- A Yes, I have. I drive a lot in my job, several hours a day, and I like listening to books – it's much better than listening to the radio. I probably listen to a couple of books every week.
B Yes, I've seen Blade Runner at least ten times. It's a really great movie, I never get tired of it, I always notice something new.
C No, never. I've definitely fallen asleep watching TV, but never at the movies.
D Yes, I have. When I'm stressed, I sit on the couch with my blanket, turn on Netflix, and spend the evening watching my favorite TV show, Parks and Recreation. I can easily watch four or five episodes one after the other.
E No, I haven't. It usually takes me a long time to finish a book, so I never read them again.
F Yes, I bought the soundtrack of Catching Fire, you know, The Hunger Games, after I saw the movie. It's got some amazing music: Coldplay, Imagine Dragons, Christina Aguilera.

- c Now tell Sts that they should listen again and write down each speaker's answer. Play the audio, pausing after each speaker to give Sts time to write.
Check answers.

See script 12.6

EXTRA SUPPORT If there's time, you could get Sts to listen again with the script on p.123, so they can see exactly what they understood / didn't understand. Translate / Explain any new words or phrases.

- d Focus on the instructions and the follow-up question.
Get Sts to ask you question 1. If you answer Yes, I have, get them to ask What movie was it? If you answer No, I haven't, get them to continue with the other questions until you answer Yes, I have.

Give Sts time to choose six questions in a that they want to ask their classmates.

Set a time limit, e.g., five minutes. Tell Sts to stand up and start. Take part in the activity yourself. Tell Sts that for each question they must try to find a different person who answers Yes, I have. Remind them to write down people's answers.

Stop the activity after five minutes (or when you think Sts have had enough time, or when someone has found people for all the questions). Get Sts to sit down again.

EXTRA IDEA If it is difficult for Sts to mingle in your classroom, you could get Sts to interview each other in pairs with the 12 questions.

- e Get Sts to look at their answers and choose two that they think are the most interesting.
Get Sts to tell the class their two most interesting answers.

- G present perfect or simple past?
- V learning irregular verbs
- P irregular past participles

Lesson plan

The main context of the lesson is a conversation between a group of friends about where to go for dinner. One of the friends has tried all the restaurants his friends suggest. Their conversation contrasts the present perfect and the simple past in a natural context: Have you been to...? When did you go? Why did you go there? The lesson starts with a Listening activity in which Sts are exposed to both the present perfect (for past experiences) and the simple past. This leads into the grammar focus. In Vocabulary and Pronunciation, Sts get more practice in forming and pronouncing irregular past participles. The lesson ends with a Speaking activity in which Sts ask opening questions in the present perfect with recently and ever, and then simple follow-up questions using the simple past.

Write the names of the following dishes on the board:

DIM SUM GREEN CHICKEN CURRY FAJITAS MOUSSAKA
 SASHIMI TAPAS RISOTTO TANDOORI CHICKEN

Then ask Sts In what kind of restaurants would you find them? Have you tried them? Do you like them?

1 LISTENING identifying key information

a Books open. Focus on the task. Put Sts in pairs to ask and answer the questions.

Tell Sts the answer to 1 and elicit some feedback for 2 and 3.

1 Chinese, Mexican, Italian

b 12.7 Focus on the task and play the audio for Sts to listen and answer the question.

Check the answer.

EXTRA SUPPORT Read through the script and decide if you need to pre-teach any new vocabulary before Sts listen.

No, they don't agree which restaurant to go to.

12.7

(script in Student Book on p.123)

A = Alison, B = Brett, C = Clare, J = Joe

- A Let's go out for dinner next Saturday. We can celebrate the end of the semester.
B Good idea. Where?
A Let's try somewhere new, somewhere that we haven't been to before.
B Yeah, good idea.
C How about that Indian restaurant near the train station, Curry Up?
J Curry Up? I've been there. It wasn't very good.
C OK. Joe says it's not great. What about Chinese then? Somebody told me The Great Wall is very good.
A Yeah, I haven't been there, but people say it's great.
J The Great Wall? I've been there. I went there last week. It is good, but I don't really want to go again.
B Well, there's a new Thai place, Thai-Chi. It opened just recently.
J Thai-Chi? I've been there, too. I went on Wednesday.
A Well, I don't know. Have you been to Mexican Wave?
J Mexican Wave? Yes, I have.
A When did you go there?
J Last month. I went for dinner with people from work.
A The Acropolis? That Greek place?
B I'm sure Joe's been there!
J No, I haven't. I haven't been to The Acropolis. But it closed a few months ago.
B Oh, this is ridiculous!
A OK, Joe, here's the answer. You cook dinner for us!

c Tell Sts they are going to listen to the conversation again, and this time they need to complete the chart about Joe. Focus on the restaurant names and elicit what kind of food each one serves.

Play the audio again.

Get Sts to compare with a partner, and then check answers. You could elicit anything else Sts can remember about the restaurants, e.g., the Indian restaurant (Curry Up) wasn't very good, people say the Chinese restaurant (The Great Wall) is very good, etc.

	Has he been there?	When?
Curry Up (Indian)	✓	?
The Great Wall (Chinese)	✓	last week
Thai-Chi (Thai)	✓	on Wednesday
Mexican Wave (Mexican)	✓	last month
The Acropolis (Greek)	✗

d Do this as a whole-class activity, making sure Sts understand annoying.

2 GRAMMAR present perfect or simple past?

- a Focus on the extract from the conversation and give Sts time, in pairs, to read it and answer questions 1–3. Check answers.

1 present perfect 2 simple past 3 When did you go there?

- b Tell Sts to go to Grammar Bank 12B on p.146.

Grammar notes

Present perfect or simple past?

This is intended as a gentle introduction to the contrast between the present perfect and the simple past.

Many conversations typically begin with an opening question in the present perfect, e.g., Have you been to the new French restaurant? Yes, I have, and continue in the past tense, e.g., What did you think of it? I loved it.

This grammar point will be dealt with in more detail in American English File Level 3.

been or gone?

This can be a tricky grammar point for Sts to assimilate. Instead of Have you been to Mexico?, Sts often say (incorrectly) Have you gone to Mexico? or Have you been in Mexico?

Focus on the example sentences and play both audio 12.8 and 12.9 for Sts to listen and repeat. Then go through the rules with the class.

Now focus on the exercises for 12B on p.147. Sts do the exercises individually or in pairs.

Check answers, getting Sts to read the full sentences.

- a
1 haven't finished 2 gave 3 bought 4 Have you ever danced 5 went
- b
1 gone 2 been 3 gone 4 been 5 been
- c
1 Have...visited 2 went 3 did...go 4 paid 5 Were 6 were 7 did...stay 8 had 9 Has...invited 10 stopped

EXTRA IDEA Get Sts to read the conversation in c to practice their pronunciation.

Tell Sts to go back to the main lesson 12B.

EXTRA SUPPORT If you think Sts need more practice, you may want to give them the Grammar photocopiable activity at this point.

- c You could demonstrate this yourself first. Write on the board the names of a restaurant you've been to recently, a movie you've seen recently, and a place you've visited recently. Then ask Sts Have you been to / seen / visited x? If they say Yes, ask more questions with the simple past. Then get Sts to write down their two restaurants, movies, and places.
- d Put Sts in pairs to ask and answer their questions.

3 VOCABULARY learning irregular verbs

- a 12.10 Focus on the task and point out that all but one of these five irregular verbs have the same form for the simple past and the past participle.

Get Sts to write the base form of the verbs.

Play the audio for Sts to listen and check.

Check answers. You could tell Sts that of the 50 most common irregular verbs in English, 27 have the same form for the simple past and the past participle.

1 get 2 have 3 lose 4 meet 5 win

12.10

- |   |      |      |
|---|------|------|
| 1 | get  | got  |
| 2 | have | had  |
| 3 | lose | lost |
| 4 | meet | met  |
| 5 | win  | won  |

Play the audio again, pausing after each for Sts to listen and repeat. Help with pronunciation where necessary.

- b 12.11 Tell Sts that they are now going to look at some verbs where the simple past form and the past participle are not the same. Give them time to write both the base form and the simple past.

Play the audio for Sts to listen and check.

Check answers.

1 be, was / were 2 do, did 3 eat, ate 4 speak, spoke
5 sing, sang

12.11

- |   |       |            |        |
|---|-------|------------|--------|
| 1 | be    | was / were | been   |
| 2 | do    | did        | done   |
| 3 | eat   | ate        | eaten  |
| 4 | speak | spoke      | spoken |
| 5 | sing  | sang       | sung   |

Play the audio again, pausing after each past participle for Sts to listen and repeat the three forms. Help with pronunciation where necessary.

- c Tell Sts to go to Irregular verbs on p.165, and get them to underline the verbs that have the same form for the simple past and the past participle.

Check answers by eliciting the base form of the verbs.

bring, build, buy catch, cost feel, find have, hear leave, lose
make, meet pay, put read say, send, sit, sleep, spend, stand teach, tell, think understand win

EXTRA IDEA Get Sts to test each other's memory like this:

A (book open): make B (book closed): made – made

After two minutes, Sts switch roles.

Then tell Sts to highlight the verbs where the past participle is different from the simple past and try to learn them.

Tell Sts to go back to the main lesson 12B.

4 PRONUNCIATION irregular past participles

a Focus on the seven sound pictures and elicit the word and sound (clock /ɑ/, fish /ɪ/, tree /i/, up /ʌ/, phone /oʊ/, saw /ɔ/, and egg /ɛ/).

Now focus on the verbs in the list. Elicit that the first one (bought) has the /ɔ/ sound, so Sts should write it in the saw column.

Put Sts in pairs, and get them to put the past participles into the correct columns. Remind them that this kind of exercise is easier if they say the words aloud to themselves.

EXTRA SUPPORT Model the pronunciation of the participles first, and then get Sts to put them in columns.

b  12.12 Play the audio for Sts to listen and check. Check answers.

12.12

clock /ɑ/	gotten fish /ɪ/	given
tree /i/	eaten, seen
up /ʌ/	done, sung, won
phone /oʊ/	spoken
saw /ɔ/	bought, fallen, lost
egg /ɛ/	left, met, read

Now play the audio again, pausing after each group for Sts to listen and repeat. Give extra practice as necessary.

Put Sts in pairs and get them to practice saying the past participles.

EXTRA IDEA Draw this bingo card on the board for Sts to copy:

Sts, in pairs, complete their bingo card with six past participles from Irregular verbs on p.165. Alternatively, you could just use the past participles from 3a and b.

Call out random base forms of some verbs. Keep a note of the ones you call out.

If Sts have one of the verbs you call out on their card, they should cross it off. Keep calling until a pair has crossed off all their verbs, at which point they should call out Bingo!

Check the winning pair's card. If it's correct, they have won. If it isn't, continue the game. Once there is a winner, you can play Bingo again if there is time.

5 SPEAKING

a Focus on the questionnaire and highlight the two groups of questions, one group about Recently (= in the last few days / weeks) and the other about In your life. Model and drill the pronunciation of recently.

Point out to Sts that the first column has the heading Present perfect and the second Simple past. Elicit which words are missing from the questions (column 1: Have you, and column 2: did you). Then elicit what form is needed for the verb in bold (the past participle). Finally, elicit all the questions for 1 (Have you been to the movies recently? What did you see? Did you like it?).

Give Sts time to read all the questions.

EXTRA SUPPORT Write the questions for 1 on the board (HAVE YOU BEEN TO THE MOVIES RECENTLY? WHAT DID YOU SEE? DID YOU LIKE IT?) and leave them up there to help weaker Sts.

EXTRA CHALLENGE You could get fast finishers to write some more Have you ever...? questions of their own.

b Demonstrate the activity by getting Sts to ask you some of the questions from each section. Then put Sts in pairs, A and B, and get them to take turns to interview each other. You could get Sts A to ask Sts B questions 1–5 under Recently and Sts B to ask Sts A 1–5 under In your life. Then they switch roles.

Monitor and help.

Finally, get feedback from a few Sts. Ask Who has been to the movies recently?, and then get the details.

G review: question formation

Lesson plan

In this final lesson, Sts review Grammar, Vocabulary, and Pronunciation from the whole course, with a special focus on question formation. The lesson is based on an interview Sir Ian McKellen kindly gave to the American English File authors. Sts first read the interview with Ian McKellen and do some comprehension exercises. Then, in Grammar and Speaking, they review question formation before interviewing each other. Finally, Sts watch or listen to a show about Judi Dench, an actress who has worked in famous productions with Ian McKellen.

Write these answers on the board, and elicit the questions from Sts:

CHINESE, ARABIC, AND A LITTLE ITALIAN.

7.00 A.M – BUT LATER ON THE WEEKEND.

JAZZ, AND SOME CLASSICAL.

YES, I HAVE A DOG CALLED SPOT.

I'M GOING TO GO TO EGYPT.

Possible answers

What languages do you speak?

What time do you get up?

What kind of music do you like?

Do you have a pet?

Where are you going to go for your next vacation?

Then tell Sts that in this lesson they're going to read an interview with a famous actor who answers these questions and others.

1 READING understanding topics

a Books open. Tell Sts to look at the characters in the photos and ask them if they know Sir Ian McKellen. They might recognize him from movies such as The Lord of the Rings, X-Men, Mr. Holmes, The Da Vinci Code, or The Golden Compass.

Find out if any Sts have seen any of the movies.

b Tell Sts that the interview was given exclusively for American English File and that Sir Ian McKellen answered questions based on lessons in Level 1.

Get Sts to read the interview and match a heading to each section. Point out that the first one (Your tastes) has been done for them.

Get Sts to compare with a partner, and then check answers.

EXTRA SUPPORT Before Sts read the interview the first time, check whether you need to pre-teach any vocabulary.

B Your lifestyle C Your home D Your abilities E Your places
F Your work experiences

c Put Sts in pairs and tell them to decide in which sections of the interview they think they will find 1–10.

Check which section of the interview the sentences might be in. Also elicit some feedback on which sentences are true and which are false. Don't tell Sts at this stage if they are right or not.

1 F 2 C 3 B 4 E 5 B 6 F 7 C 8 C 9 B 10 D

d Tell Sts to read the interview again and to mark sentences 1–10 T (true) or F (false). Remind them to say why the F ones are false.

Get Sts to compare with a partner, and then check answers.

- 1 T
- 2 F (He lives in London.)
- 3 F (Sometimes he doesn't get up until 10 a.m.)
- 4 T
- 5 T
- 6 F (He read The Lord of the Rings when he was preparing to play Gandalf.)
- 7 T
- 8 F (He loves dogs.)
- 9 T
- 10 F (He'd like to learn to sing, play the piano, and speak foreign languages.)

Help with any other new vocabulary. Model and drill the pronunciation of any tricky words.

e Put Sts in pairs and get them to discuss what three things they found the most interesting from the interview.

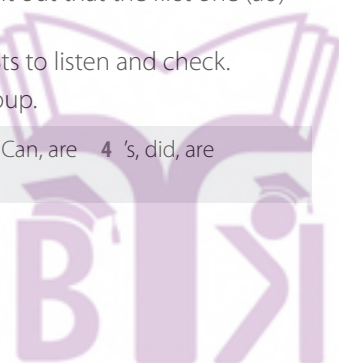

Get some feedback from the class.

2 GRAMMAR & SPEAKING review: question formation

a Put Sts in pairs and get them to complete all the questions in groups 1–6. Point out that the first one (do) has been done for them.

b  12.13 Play the audio for Sts to listen and check. Check answers after each group.

1 do, did 2 's, Are, Did 3 can, Can, are 4 's, did, are 5 's, are, do 6 have, 's, Have

c Focus on the task and the example.

Put Sts in pairs, A and B. A starts by interviewing B with group 1. Encourage Sts to ask for more information and react to their partner's answers.

EXTRA SUPPORT Write some phrases on the board to help Sts react and show interest, e.g., Really? How interesting! Me too! What about you?

When Sts A have finished asking the questions in group 1, Sts B ask the questions in group 2. Make sure they keep changing roles.

When they have finished, elicit some interesting answers from the class for each group of questions.

EXTRA CHALLENGE Get Sts to write the interview they just had with their partner. They should follow the style used in the interview with Sir Ian McKellen.

EXTRA IDEA Tell Sts that they are going to role-play being a journalist and a famous person. Tell them to think of a famous person who is still alive. When they are ready, put them in pairs, A and B. Tell Sts A they are journalists and Sts B they are the famous person. Tell Sts B to use their imagination and invent answers. When Sts A have finished their interview, they change roles.

3 VIDEO LISTENING understanding biographical information

a Tell Sts they are going to watch a documentary about Judi Dench, one of Britain's best known and most successful actresses.

Focus on the movie titles and check that Sts understand / recognize them. Then play the video for Sts to watch and complete the task. Play again if necessary.

Get Sts to compare with a partner, and then check answers.

EXTRA SUPPORT Read through the script and decide if you need to pre-teach any new vocabulary before Sts watch or listen. You may want to tell Sts that The Old Vic and The Royal Court are famous theaters in London.

The six movies mentioned are Macbeth, A Room with a View, Henry V, GoldenEye, Mrs. Brown, and Shakespeare in Love.

Judi Dench – a life in acting

Judi Dench is one of a golden generation of British actors who have had long and successful careers, including Maggie Smith, Vanessa Redgrave, Ian McKellen, Michael Caine, and Anthony Hopkins. She has acted in the theater, on TV, and in movies in a career of nearly 60 years.

Judith Olivia Dench was born on December 9th, 1934, near York in the northern part of England. Dench's father was a doctor, but she had connections from a very early age to the Theatre Royal in York – her father was the theater's doctor and her mother made costumes for the theater. As a teenager, Judi Dench acted in the York Mystery Plays. These religious plays have been performed in York every four years since the fourteenth century.

In the late 1950s and 1960s, she acted with several important theater companies, the Old Vic, the Royal Court, and the Royal Shakespeare Company.

In the 1970s and 1980s, Dench continued to work in the theater and on TV. In 1978, she acted in Shakespeare's Macbeth with the actor Ian McKellen, both in the theater and on film. Many people think it was one of the best performances of the play ever. She also appeared in movies like A Room with a View in 1985 and Henry V in 1989.

In the 1990s, her career changed with two movies. The first of these was the James Bond movie, GoldenEye, where Dench played Bond's boss, M, normally a part for a man. Dench was a great success in the part. She was hard, and at the same time funny. She played the part in eight movies, with both Pierce Brosnan and Daniel Craig as James Bond. The second movie that changed her career was Mrs. Brown in 1997. Dench played Queen Victoria. This small movie was a great success and she was nominated for an Oscar for Best Actress.

In 1998, she played Queen Elizabeth I in the comedy, Shakespeare in Love. The movie was another big hit. It won the 1999 Oscar for Best Film, and Judi Dench won the Oscar for Best Supporting Actress. She's only in the movie for eight minutes, but, as usual, she was fantastic.

Finally, ask Sts if they've seen any of the movies, and if they liked them.

b Focus on the task and give Sts time to read the events in Judi Dench's life. Point out that the first one has been done for them.

Play the video for Sts to watch again and number the events in the order in which they happened.

Get Sts to compare with a partner, and then check answers.

Photocopiable activities

Overview

- There is a Grammar activity for each main (A, B, and C) lesson of the Student Book.
- There is a Communicative activity for each main (A, B, and C) lesson of the Student Book.
- There is a Vocabulary activity for each section of the Vocabulary Bank in the Student Book.

All the photocopiable material is also available on the Teacher Resource Center (TRC). It is available on the Classroom Presentation Tool (CPT) as well, allowing you to display the worksheets on an interactive whiteboard or projector. This will make it easier to set up and demonstrate the activities, and show answers.

Using extra activities in mixed ability classes

Some teachers have classes with a very wide range of levels, where some Sts finish Student Book activities much more quickly than others. You could give these students a photocopiable activity (Grammar, Vocabulary, or Communicative) while you help the slower Sts. Alternatively, some teachers might want to give faster Sts extra oral practice with a communicative activity while slower Sts reinforce their knowledge with an extra grammar activity.

Tips for using Grammar activities

- The grammar activities are designed to give Sts extra practice in the main grammar points from each lesson. How you use these activities depends on the needs of your Sts and the time available. They can be used in the lesson if you think all of your class would benefit from the extra practice or you could assign them as homework for some or all of your Sts.
- Before using the worksheets in class, check for any vocabulary that may be either new or difficult for your Sts.
- All of the activities start with a writing stage. If you use the activities in class, get Sts to work individually or in pairs. Allow Sts to compare before checking answers.
- If Sts are having trouble with any of the activities, make sure they refer to the relevant Grammar Bank in the Student Book.
- All of the activities have an Activation section. Some of them have a task that gets Sts to cover the sentences and test their memory. If you are using the activities in class, Sts can work in pairs and test their partner. If you assign them for homework, encourage Sts to use this stage to test themselves. Alternatively, you could assign the main activity for homework and then get Sts to do the Activation at the start of the next class.

- Make sure that Sts keep their worksheets and that they review any difficult areas regularly. Encourage them to go back to activities and cover and test themselves.

Tips for using Communicative activities

- Before using the worksheets in class, check for any vocabulary that may be either new or difficult for your Sts.
- We have suggested the ideal number of copies for each activity. However, you can often manage with fewer, e.g., one worksheet per pair instead of one per student.
- When Sts are working in pairs, if possible get them to sit face-to-face. This will encourage them to really talk to each other and also means they can't see each other's worksheet.
- If your class doesn't divide into pairs or groups, take part yourself, get two Sts to share one role, or get one student to monitor, help, and correct.
- If some Sts finish early, they can switch roles and do the activity again, or you could get them to write some of the sentences from the activity.

Tips for using Vocabulary activities

- These worksheets are intended to recycle and reinforce Sts' understanding of the vocabulary in the Student Book Vocabulary Banks. As such, we suggest not using them directly after doing these exercises. Instead, get Sts to do them in a subsequent lesson.
- If Sts are having trouble with any of the activities, make sure they refer to the relevant Vocabulary Bank page.
- You could ask Sts to check their answers by referring to the relevant Student Book Vocabulary Bank.
- All the activities are suitable for use in class. However, you may wish to assign some of the tasks for homework.
- Most of the Vocabulary worksheets have an Activation task and this can be treated in a similar way to the Grammar ones.
- Make sure that Sts keep their worksheets and that they review any difficult areas regularly. Encourage them to go back to activities and cover and test themselves.

Customizable worksheets

There are Customizable versions of some of the Grammar, Communicative, and Vocabulary activities on the Teacher Resource Center. These allow you to adapt the material to make it more applicable and/or relevant to your Sts. For instance, you could:

- change some of the names to the names of Sts in your class.
- change place names to ones that are more relevant and/or familiar to your Sts.
- change items of grammar or vocabulary to focus on the needs and interests of your Sts and/or adapt the level of challenge.
- reduce the number of items if you are short on time.

On August 4th, they arrived at Los Angeles airport. They checked in and waited for the plane to leave.

Six hours later, they landed at a big airport and changed planes. The new plane was very small and Emma was worried.

After only an hour, the plane landed. They looked out of the window. It was a very small airport!

They showed their tickets to a woman at the information desk. Raoul asked, "When is our next flight?"

The woman was surprised. "The next flight? This is the end of your trip. You're in Sydney."

But Raoul and Emma weren't in Sydney, Australia. They were in Sydney, Nova Scotia, a small town in southeast Canada!

ELIZABETH ARDEN

Elizabeth Arden's real name was Florence Nightingale Graham. She was born on December 31st, 1884 in Ontario, Canada. Her family didn't have a lot of money and she was the fifth of five children. She studied to be a nurse and worked to help her family. In 1908, she moved to New York and got a job as an assistant in a beauty salon. Two years later, she opened her first beauty salon with a friend. They called the salon Elizabeth Arden. The salon closed, but she liked the name. She changed her name to Elizabeth Arden and used it for her beauty products. She opened beauty salons all over the world and became very famous. Elizabeth was also a suffragette – she wanted women to get the vote. In a protest march in 1912, all the women wore red lipstick, which was Elizabeth's idea. All her life she never told people how old she was. When she died in 1966, her age, 81, was a surprise for many people.

ANTHONY HOPKINS

Anthony Hopkins was born on December 31st, 1937 in Port Talbot, Wales. He went to the Royal Welsh College of Music and Drama when he was only 15 years old. Then he went to London to continue his studies and he met Laurence Olivier, a very famous actor. He thought Anthony's acting was really good and he gave him a job in his theater. After that, Hopkins acted in many plays and critics loved him. He got his first movie role in The Lion in Winter in 1968, and after that acted in more movies and in the theater, but he wasn't a big star. In 1990, he decided to go back to London and to forget about the movies. But in 1991, he won an Oscar for The Silence of the Lambs, and became very famous. He went to live in the US, and got three more Oscar nominations, but he didn't win. In 2003, he got a star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame. Today he lives in Malibu, California.
