2.2 SO MANY FEATURES

LESSON OBJECTIVE
talk about things you own

1 LANGUAGE IN CONTEXT

A 1.12 Look at the picture. What do you think the people are talking about? Then read and listen to the conversation. Who knows more about her phone, Jen or Maya?

1.12 Audio script

Jen Do you like my new phone? I bought the same model you have. Maya Oh, wow! You're going to love it. It has so many cool features. Jen I haven't tried many of them yet. I've already downloaded a lot of apps, though. I have so many now. It's hard to find one when I need it. Maya I can help with that. Have you already made folders? Jen No, I haven't. How does that work? Maya You create folders on the home screen, and then you can put your apps in them. Look, I have a folder for music apps, one for weather apps ...	Jen That's pretty cool. Can you help me set them up? Maya Sure. But first, I have to ask, have you tried the camera yet? With the "funny faces" feature? Jen Yes, I have. I love it! In fact, let me try it on you ... Maya Hey! Jen Look ... you look great with elephant ears! Maya Yeah, right! Now let me show you this feature ... delete!
---	---

B 1.12 Read and listen again. Are the statements true (T) or false (F)?

1 <input type="checkbox"/> Jen has a new phone.	3 <input type="checkbox"/> Maya needs help with her phone.
2 <input type="checkbox"/> Jen doesn't have any apps on her phone.	4 <input type="checkbox"/> Maya took a picture of Jen.

C 1.20 LISTEN FOR REASONS Listen again. Answer the questions.

- 1 Why has Hana invited a collector to be on her podcast?
- 2 Why does Felix collect things from race cars?

D PAIRWORK THINK CRITICALLY Does Felix agree with Hana that his item is useless? Explain the reason he gives.

2 PRONUNCIATION: Listening for /w/ sounds between words

A 1.21 Listen to the extracts from the podcast below. Listen for the /w/ sound between the underlined words.

- 1 Why do some people collect things? Have you ever wondered?
- 2 Felix, most people want to get rid of old tires! Why do you want to own something like that?

B 1.22 Listen. Underline any words you hear a /w/ sound between.

A Do you and your brother like to collect things?
B He does. But I do everything I can to avoid collecting useless stuff.
A So do you ever keep things just to keep them?
B I guess I might keep a few if they're things I really like.

C Circle the correct words to complete the statement.
A /w/ sound is often used to connect two words when the first word starts / ends in an /w/ sound and the second word starts with a consonant / vowel.

INSIDER ENGLISH
Now doesn't always mean at the moment. We can use it to introduce a topic or focus attention on what we're going to say next.

WANTED: TRAFFIC LIGHT, 2 STOP SIGNS

I'm interested in buying a Canadian traffic light (see picture for an example). Do you have one like this? Or do you know where I can get one? Yes, I know they're on every street corner – but please don't steal one! 😊 But seriously, I want one that's legal and that works. I've checked online every day for weeks, but I haven't seen any for sale yet.

I'm also looking for two red stop signs (see picture). They can be old, but they have to be in good condition. I've seen some for sale online, but they were fake, not real ones. I want "the real thing."

You're probably wondering why I want these things. They're for a party, and after that, I'll give them to my niece. She loves stuff like this.

I'll pay a reasonable price for items in good condition. Send an email with photos, and hopefully I can give you a "greenlight" for a sale. 😊 Contact Emilla at:

GLOSSARY
legal (adj) allowed by the law

B WRITING SKILLS Read the explanation about using one and ones. Then find and underline more examples in the ad. What do they refer to?

We use one (singular) and ones (plural) to avoid repeating a subject we've already mentioned. We use one and ones when it's clear what they refer to. In the question below, one = a Canadian traffic light.

light (see picture for an example).

u want that is hard to find. Write a short title. Describe the e a reason why you want it. You can include pictures. You can item.

REGISTER CHECK
In an ad title, you can leave out unimportant words.
WANTED: TRAFFIC LIGHT,
2 STOP SIGNS =
I want a traffic light and two stop signs.

Register check

INSIGHT

Teachers report that their students often struggle to master the differences between written and spoken English.

CONTENT

Register check draws on research into the Cambridge English Corpus and highlights potential problem areas for learners.

RESULT

Students transition confidently between written and spoken English and recognize different levels of formality as well as when to use them appropriately.

You spoke. We listened.

Students told us that speaking is the most important skill for them to master, while teachers told us that finding speaking activities which engage their students and work in the classroom can be challenging.

That's why EVOLVE has a whole lesson dedicated to speaking: Lesson 5, Time to speak.

Time to speak

INSIGHT

Speaking ability is how students most commonly measure their own progress, but is also the area where they feel most insecure. To be able to fully exploit speaking opportunities in the classroom, students need a safe speaking environment where they can feel confident, supported, and able to experiment with language.

CONTENT

Time to Speak is a unique lesson dedicated to developing speaking skills and is based around immersive tasks which involve information sharing and decision making.

RESULT

Time to speak lessons create a buzz in the classroom where speaking can really thrive, evolve, and take off, resulting in more confident speakers of English.

2.5 TIME TO SPEAK
Things to bring

LESSON OBJECTIVE
■ discuss items to take when you move

A DISCUSS Look at the picture. What items are in the suitcase? What type of trip do you think the person traveling is planning? Which things do you think are essential items for a trip? Which things do you think are extra or non-essential items? Why do you think the person is bringing extra items?

B RESEARCH In groups, think of a country you would like to live in for one year. You can go online to learn more about countries you would like to live in. What would you need to take with you to live in this country?

C DECIDE What essential items are you going to take to your country? Make a list of 10 items that you agree you will all take with you. Then, for each person, add one extra item to bring that is special to you.

D PRESENT Tell the class your list of essential items. Were any items on your lists similar? Did any of you choose similar "special" items to bring?

E AGREE As a class, make a list of five items that you think are essential to live in any country the class discussed. What were the reasons for choosing these items?

» To check your progress, go to page 153. »

USEFUL PHRASES

 DISCUSS I think ... is/are essential because ... I think ... isn't essential because ... I think they are bringing this because ...	 DECIDE I think we should bring ... because ... How long have you had your special item? I've had it for/since ...	 PRESENT We chose ... because ... We also chose ...

EVOLVE unit structure

Unit opening page

Each unit opening page activates prior knowledge and vocabulary and immediately gets students speaking.

Lessons 1 and 2

These lessons present and practice the unit vocabulary and grammar in context, helping students discover language rules for themselves. Students then have the opportunity to use this language in well-scaffolded, personalized speaking tasks.

Lesson 3

This lesson is built around a functional language dialogue that models and contextualizes useful fixed expressions for managing a particular situation. This is a real world strategy to help students handle unexpected conversational turns.

Lesson 4

This is a combined skills lesson based around an engaging reading or listening text. Each lesson asks students to think critically and ends with a practical writing task.

Lesson 5

Time to speak is an entire lesson dedicated to developing speaking skills. Students work on collaborative, immersive tasks which involve information sharing and decision making.

CLASSROOM LANGUAGE

1.02 PAIR WORK AND GROUP WORK

Choosing roles

Do you want to go first?

I'll be Student A, and you be Student B.

Let's switch roles and do it again.

Eliciting opinions

What do you think, _____?

How about you, _____?

Asking for clarification or more information

I'm not sure I understand. Can you say that again?

Does anyone have anything to add?

Completing a task

We're done.

We're finished. What should we do now/next?

CHECKING YOUR WORK

Comparing answers

Let's compare answers.

What do you have for number ... ?

I have ...

I have the same thing.

I have something different.

I have a different answer.

Offering feedback

Let's switch papers.

I'm not quite sure what you mean here.

I really like that you ...

It looks like you ...

I wondered about ...

Can you say this another way?

I wanted to ask you about ...

Let's check this one again.

UNIT OBJECTIVES

- talk about people's personalities
- ask and answer questions about people
- make introductions and get to know people
- write an email to get to know someone
- ask questions to test a leader's personality

WHO WE ARE

START SPEAKING

- A Where are these people? What are they doing?
- B What do you think the people are like? Guess as much as you can about them.
- C Imagine you're in this place talking to these people. What are you asking them? What are you telling them about yourself? For ideas, watch Andres's video.

What does Andres say about himself?

- talk about people's personalities

1 LANGUAGE IN CONTEXT

- A PAIR WORK Do you meet new people often? Where do you meet them? Who have you met lately?
- B Read the article. How does Kenneth say you can learn about someone?

What kind of person are you?

The answer is in your questions.

How do you get to know someone new? You can ask a lot of questions: What's your name? Whose class are you in? Which neighborhood do you live in? Where did you go to school? What kind of work do you do? But the answers don't tell you about someone's personality. I think it's best to listen to the questions that people ask you.

A sociable person, for example, will ask you a lot of questions. Quiet people don't ask you much. The same is true about selfish people – they show little interest in other people. Or imagine you're telling someone about a problem you have. A generous person might ask, "How can I help?" But if you ask someone for help first, and they agree, are you sure they're really helpful? Or are they just afraid to say "no"?

So, the next time you meet someone, ask less, and listen more. The questions people ask show more about their personalities than their answers do.

To: Elin Hansen <elin953Hansen@blinknet.com>
From: Andrew Bennett <and.bennett@mymail.org>
Subject: Your American cousin

Hi Elin,

I'm writing because I want to get in touch with the Norwegian side of the family. My Aunt Joan got your email address from your mom. Aunt Joan says you're one of my cousins, and you're about my age – 23. I just finished my degree in economics at North Dakota State University in Fargo. Fargo is the biggest city in North Dakota, and I live there with my parents.

I'd like to know about you and what you're interested in. Are you a student, or do you work? What kind of music do you like? Aunt Joan says you live in Oslo. Can you tell me what it's like? And is it true that everyone in Norway is really into winter sports? Sorry for all the questions, but this is an unusual situation – we're strangers, but we're also family. 😊

Our side of the family moved to North Dakota from Norway a long time ago. They had a farm in the Red River Valley in North Dakota, and the old house is still there (see attached photo).

Hope to hear from you soon.

Andrew

From: Elin Hansen <elin953Hansen@blinknet.com>
Subject: Re: Your American cousin

Hi Andrew,

<sup>2</sup> You asked about me. Well, I'm 24, I graduated this spring, and I'm working in an architect's office now. In my free time, I get together with friends, go shopping, go hiking, and chat with family and friends online. Oh, and I like all kinds of music.

<sup>3</sup> Oslo is the capital of Norway and is its biggest city. It's a nice place to live because people are friendly and sociable. It's full of great museums and restaurants, and people walk and ride bikes a lot around the city. I don't know if everyone in Norway is into winter sports, but it's true that a lot of us enjoy snowboarding, hockey, and skiing (see attached photo of me).

<sup>4</sup> I'd love to hear about Fargo. I wonder what people do for fun there. Can you tell me more about your family? Do you have any brothers or sisters? What do you do in your free time? Also, do you know who lives in the old house in the Red River Valley now?

Elin

B WRITING SKILLS Read about paragraphs. Then match the paragraphs of Elin's email (1–5) to the topics she writes about (a–e).

A paragraph is a group of sentences. All of the sentences in a paragraph are about the same topic. Each paragraph is about a different topic. We often use opening and closing sentences in an email. These often have their own paragraphs and can be one or two lines.

- b ___ questions about Andrew
- c ___ opening sentences
- d ___ information about Elin
- e ___ information about Elin's country

WRITE IT

D PAIR WORK Read your partner's email. Did you learn anything new about your partner?

REGISTER CHECK

We use different opening and closing sentences in informal and formal emails. For example:

It's great to hear from you.

Let's stay in touch.

Formal

It was a pleasure to hear from you.

I look forward to hearing from you again.

Profile Wall Friends

It's time for a big cleanup! Have you ever felt that way? We've lived here since 2013, but a lot of our stuff is still in the garage. Our car has been outside for two years! 😊 So we've finally decided to do something with all of the stuff. But I've never sold anything in my life, so I'm not sure which things people will want to buy and which things are useless.

For example, we have two old bikes. We haven't ridden them for years. I have some boxes of comic books. I've had them since I was 12, but they're in good condition. I also found a box of outdated computer games. A friend gave them to me, but I've never actually played them. There's also a brand new bookcase in the garage. It's plain, but it's OK. And I've collected a lot of travel souvenirs over the years: pictures, plates, hats ... They're all in a big box. I have no idea if anyone else would think they're special.

So, if you have any ideas about what I can sell – great! And if you want to buy something – even better!

1 FUNCTIONAL LANGUAGE

- A Look at the picture of the toy robots. Why do you think some people own these things?
- B  1.14 Read and listen to a conversation between two friends. What do the friends plan to do?

 1.14 Audio script

- B Yeah, I guessed that! Look at this room. How many robots do you have now?
- A Twenty-six! And guess what! I just bought two more online.
- B Cool! Are they in good condition?
- A I don't know. I haven't gotten them yet. I'm expecting them on Saturday. Anyway, they looked good in the photos. By the way, have you heard that Tori is in town?
- B No. I haven't seen her since she moved.
- A She's been here since Tuesday. So, why don't we have dinner together, the three of us – at my place?
- B Sounds great.
- A On Saturday?
- B Sure. And that's the day you're expecting your robots.
- A Yeah. So it'll be a big party: the three of us, and ... 28 of my friends!

- ___ Hey, Emma! So, you know I lost my phone.
- ___ That's funny! How did it get there?
- ___ That's right – you said you couldn't find it.

2 REAL-WORLD STRATEGY

- A  1.16 Listen to a conversation between two friends. Why is Yadira going to give her watch to Luke?
- B  1.16 Read the information in the box about using short questions to show interest. Then listen again. What three short questions do Yadira and Luke use to show interest?

USING SHORT QUESTIONS TO SHOW INTEREST

You can use short questions to show you're interested in what someone has said. Use be or an auxiliary verb in the same tense that the first speaker used.

I just bought two more online.

Tori is in town.

You did? Cool!

She is? I haven't seen her since she moved.

- C  1.17 Complete another conversation with short questions. Listen and check.

A I found a gold watch on the street yesterday.

B <sup>1</sup> _____? What did you do with it?

A Nothing. It's here in my bag.

B <sup>2</sup> _____? Can I see it?

- D  PAIR WORK Student A: Go to page 157. Student B: Go to page 159. Follow the instructions.

3 PRONUNCIATION: Saying /t/ at the start of words

- A  1.18 Listen and repeat. Focus on the /t/ sound at the start of the word in bold.

1 ___ Tuesday

3 ___ two

5 ___ tablet

4 ___ Tori

6 ___ time

- C Practice the conversation with a partner. Does your partner say the /t/ sounds clearly?

A So you know Todd just bought a new car.

B Wait. You mean he sold his truck? He loved that truck. He's had it for like ten years.

A Yeah, well, he sold it. He said he was tired of fixing it all the time.

4 SPEAKING

- A Prepare to have a conversation with a partner. Choose three of the topics below or your own ideas.

an interesting item you own your favorite piece of clothing

a hobby or sport you like a friend with an interesting job

something you collect

weekend plans

- B PAIR WORK Talk about one of the topics above. Use short questions to show you're interested in what your partner says. Use phrases to introduce new topics and to change the subject.

You know, I play soccer every weekend.

You do? Are you on a team?

LESSON OBJECTIVE

- write an ad for something you want

1 LISTENING

- A Look at the picture. Do you listen to any podcasts? Which ones?

  - 2 Why does Felix collect things from race cars?
- D PAIR WORK THINK CRITICALLY Does Felix agree with Hana that his item is useless? Explain the reason he gives.

INSIDER ENGLISH

Now doesn't always mean at the moment. We can use it to introduce a topic or focus attention on what we're going to say next.

2 PRONUNCIATION: Listening for /w/ sounds between words

- A 1.21 Listen to the extracts from the podcast below. Listen for the /w/ sound between the underlined words.
- 1 Why do some people collect things? Have you ever wondered?
  - 2 Felix, most people want to get rid of old tires! Why do you want to own something like that?
- B 1.22 Listen. Underline any words you hear a /w/ sound between.
- A Do you and your brother like to collect things?

- A So do you ever keep things just to keep them?
- B I guess I might keep a few if they're things I really like.
- C Circle the correct words to complete the statement.
- A /w/ sound is often used to connect two words when the first word starts / ends in an /u:/ sound and the second word starts with a consonant / vowel.

3 WRITING

- A Read the online ad. What items does Emilia want? Why does she want them? What kind of personality do you think she has?

The screenshot shows an online marketplace interface. At the top, there are navigation links for 'Account', 'Ads', and 'Messages', and a 'Post an ad' button. Below the navigation is a search bar with the text 'I'm looking for ...' and a 'Search' button. The main content area features a large blue header with the text 'WANTED: TRAFFIC LIGHT, 2 STOP SIGNS'. Below the header is a text-based advertisement. To the right of the text is a large image of a yellow traffic light with three lenses (red, yellow, green). Below the text is a smaller image of two red octagonal stop signs. A 'show contact info' button is located at the bottom left of the ad. A 'GLOSSARY' box is positioned at the bottom right of the ad, defining the word 'legal'.

Account Ads Messages Post an ad

I'm looking for ... Search

WANTED: TRAFFIC LIGHT, 2 STOP SIGNS

I'm interested in buying a Canadian traffic light (see picture for an example). Do you have one like this? Or do you know where I can get one? Yes, I know they're on every street corner – but please don't steal one! 😊 But seriously, I want one that's legal and that works. I've checked online every day for weeks, but I haven't seen any for sale yet.

I'm also looking for two red stop signs (see picture). They can be old, but they have to be in good condition. I've seen some for sale online, but they were fake, not real ones. I want "the real thing."

You're probably wondering why I want these things. They're for a party, and after that, I'll give them to my niece. She loves stuff like this.

I'll pay a reasonable price for items in good condition. Send an email with photos, and hopefully I can give you a "green light" for a sale. 😊 Contact Emilia at:

show contact info

GLOSSARY
legal (adj) allowed by the law

- B WRITING SKILLS Read the explanation about using one and ones. Then find and underline more examples in the ad. What do they refer to?

We use one (singular) and ones (plural) to avoid repeating a subject we've already mentioned. We use one and ones when it's clear what they refer to. In the question below, one = a Canadian traffic light:

I'm interested in buying a Canadian traffic light (see picture for an example). Do you have one like this?

REGISTER CHECK

In an ad title, you can leave out unimportant words.

WANTED: TRAFFIC LIGHT,
2 STOP SIGNS =
I want a traffic light and two
stop signs.

WRITE IT

- C Write an ad like Emilia's for something you want that is hard to find. Write a short title. Describe the item (condition, age, size, color, etc.). Give a reason why you want it. You can include pictures. You can go online to find ideas for an interesting item.

If you're a student, volunteering is a smart career move. This position is unpaid, but we'll give you a certificate to show you helped at the event – a useful experience that you can put on your résumé.

Street Beats Festival!

Volunteer Application

Last name:  First name:

Personal Statement
Explain in 100–150 words why you're the right person to be a Street Beats Festival volunteer.

The volunteer job of City Guide is perfect for me. I am fluent in Spanish and English, and I'm learning French and Portuguese in college. Fortunately, your festival happens during our summer break, so I am free to help all day from July 25th to the 27th. I am very interested in world cultures and have organized two cultural events at my school. I've never worked at a big festival or volunteered before, but I'm excited to try. I was born and raised in this city and have lived here all my life, so I know the transportation system well. I am also familiar with different neighborhoods because I have studied, worked, and lived in a few parts of the city. For these reasons, I think I would be an excellent City Guide.

B THINK CRITICALLY Do you think Manuela will be a good City Guide? Why or why not?

C WRITING SKILLS Accuracy is important, especially in a volunteer or job application. Read about how to check your own writing. Find examples in Manuela's personal statement.

Punctuation: Use capital letters at the beginnings of sentences and for job titles, names, places, months, languages, and nationalities.

Put a period (.), exclamation mark (!), or question mark (?) at the end of each sentence.

Use a comma before but and so. There's no comma before because.

Grammar: Use the present perfect for experiences in your life up to now.

WRITE IT

D Imagine you're applying to be a City Guide or Cast Helper. Write a personal statement for the volunteer application. You can use your own information or make it up. Check your writing after you are finished.

E PAIR WORK Exchange personal statements with a partner. What was the best reason your partner gave for wanting the job?

REGISTER CHECK

It's important to be clear in formal writing, like an application. We often repeat information, like job titles, to make sure we are clear.

The volunteer job of City Guide is perfect for me.
(NOT: The volunteer job is perfect for me.)

I think I would be an excellent City Guide.
(NOT: I think I would be excellent at this job.)

| Pedro | So, listen to this. I'm planning to buy two tickets for the zoo – for Isabel and me.   | Tony  | She won't like it. Her coworkers will be there, so it's going to be really embarrassing for her. I don't think she'll be amused at all. And this costume is awful! It's going to scare her. |
| Grant | Isabel, your new girlfriend?   | Pedro | But I ...   |
| Pedro | Yeah. And I'll rent a bear costume. Here's a picture of it. I can see you're fascinated , Tony.   | Tony  | And why did you choose the zoo? I mean, she's not a kid. It'll be a disappointing date.  |
| Tony  | Yeah ... and frightened ! Please don't say you want me to wear it.   | Grant | You're so annoying , Tony. Where's your sense of fun? OK, so maybe she'll be a little shocked at first, but I think she'll laugh. You should do it, Pedro! You'll be a hero!                |

Subject: Saturday Fun Day!

Dear Students,

We've arranged another Saturday Fun Day for exchange students. On May 15, you're singing a pop song and making a video! We're very excited about it, and we think you'll have a great time. The event starts at 1:00 p.m., and it lasts until 5:00 p.m.

To start, we're meeting in the computer room. You can choose a song, listen to it, and print the lyrics and practice them. At the same time, we'll be available to help you with pronunciation and words you don't understand. After that, you need to go to the language center. Then you get to practice the song with a local band. (Don't be embarrassed – remember, none of us are professionals!) Next, you'll sing the song with the band, and we'll make a video. Finally, the band will play some other songs outside, and we can dance and sing along. (Cindy really wants to sing!) 😊

This event is free and open to exchange students only. We hope to see you there. You won't be disappointed!

Cindy and Min-soo

TIME TO SPEAK

Microadventures

LESSON OBJECTIVE

- choose activities for different groups of people

A DISCUSS Read the text. What's a microadventure? Have you ever had one? Talk about it.

In his book Microadventures, Alastair Humphreys explains how adventures can be short, cheap, and close to home – but also exciting. Examples of microadventures are sleeping in your yard with friends, swimming in a river, going “urban hiking” in a nice part of your city, going to a wild place near your city, and cooking food on a fire.

B RESEARCH In pairs, think of three ideas for microadventures in or near your city. Think about what to take, what clothes to wear, and how to get there. You can go online for ideas.

C PREPARE When you have your ideas, think about what kind of people will like each microadventure, for example: young adults, older adults, families with children.

D PRESENT Work in groups. Present your ideas to the group. Say what kind of people the adventures are good for and describe the adventures they're going to have. Exchange feedback and suggestions for improvements.

E DECIDE Use the feedback to help you choose and improve your best idea.

F AGREE Tell the class your best idea. The class agrees on the best microadventure for each of these groups: young adults, older adults, and families with children.

» To check your progress, go to page 154. »

1 LANGUAGE IN CONTEXT

- A Read the title of the article and look at the pictures. How do you think the rings were lost? How long were they lost? Then read the stories and check your ideas.

RINGS THAT RETURNED ...

... FROM THE SEA

In 1979, soon after he got married, Agustín Aliaga lost his wedding ring. As he swam in the Mediterranean Sea near Benidorm, Spain, the ring fell off his finger and disappeared. He searched for it in the water but didn't find it, of course. So he left it behind. In 2016, a diver, Jessica Cuesta, discovered the ring at the bottom of the sea. She posted a message online and asked people to help her find the owner. The post was shared 80,000 times. Finally, Agustín saw it and contacted Jessica, who returned the ring to him ... 37 years after he lost it.

... AND THE EARTH.

Canadian Mary Grams was 71 when she dropped her engagement ring in her vegetable garden. She looked everywhere, but she couldn't locate it. She didn't want to tell her husband the ring was lost, so she bought a new one that looked almost the same. Thirteen years later, the old ring suddenly appeared. Amazingly, it was wrapped around a carrot in her garden! So at age 84, Mary got her ring back. It was in perfect condition and still fit her finger – but it was clearly too small for the carrot!

- B Read the stories again. How did social media help Agustín get his ring back? How did Mary get her ring back?

Alexa So, I haven't seen any pictures from your visit to São Paulo.

Shawn I know – I'm sorry! I was trying to post some pics when my phone battery died. It was at the worst time, too. My friends and I were on our way to a restaurant, and we were waiting for a train. While I was looking at some art on the wall, the train came. When I looked up, the doors were closing, and all of my friends were on it!

1 READING

Cave painting

- A Look at the picture of the cave painting. What story do you think it tells?
- B SCAN Scan the article. What are the four “S”s?

Author Q & A: The Art of Storytelling

Everyone loves a good story. Why? And what makes a story good? I discussed the topic with author Rhonda Howard.

Q: Why do people like stories?

A: A story makes you feel like you're experiencing something, and people enjoy this. Storytelling is very old. Think of cave paintings. Those are examples of people sharing stories – in a very simple way.

Q: But our stories are more complicated today, right?

A: Well, not always. And sometimes the best stories are simple ones.

Q: Speaking of the best stories, what makes a story good?

A: I narrowed it down to the four “S”s of storytelling. We already talked about the first S: Simple. People often like stories with ideas and language that are easy to understand. We discussed the second S, too: Shared experiences. People don't need to actually experience the events in the story, but they want to feel like they did. And this leads us to a famous storytelling S: Show, don't tell.

Q: I've heard that. What does it mean?

A: Here's a quick example: “Jorge was walking into his house when he saw an animal.” That's telling. “Jorge was nervously walking into his dark living room when two large, yellow eyes appeared in front of him.” That's showing!

Q: I get it – I felt like I was walking with Jorge in the second example.

A: Exactly!

Q: So, what's the fourth S?

A: Surprise! People love surprises – especially at the end of the story.

2 WRITING

A Read the story. How did the different characters in the story feel? What was the monster in the woods?

The MONSTER in the WOODS

by Hannah Miller

When I was 15, I loved reading scary stories about monsters. It was summer, and my family and I were on vacation near a lake. One evening, they went down to the beach to meet friends for a barbecue. I was reading a monster story and wanted to finish it before the barbecue, so they left me behind. An hour later, my brother David came to get me, and we started walking to the beach. It was totally dark, and I was telling David about the awful monster in the story – a huge, black, animal-like monster. We were both frightened by the story and the dark night. Then suddenly – out of the trees right beside us – a huge, black, animal-like monster appeared! We screamed and screamed! While we were screaming, my father ran to us. Then we told him our horrible story. And what did he do? He laughed – because standing in the distance was King, our neighbor’s dog. He was black and pretty big – but definitely not a monster!

GLOSSARY

monster (n) a frightening creature that isn't real

B PAIR WORK THINK CRITICALLY Do you think the story in exercise 2A has the four “S”s that Rhonda Howard describes? Why or why not?

C WRITING SKILLS Read about different kinds of storytelling expressions. Then find and underline them in the story. Think of more expressions for each group.

We can use different kinds of expressions to ...

- 1 describe when the story happened in general: When I was 15, ...      It was summer.
- 2 say when particular events happened:      One evening, ...      An hour later, ...      Then ...
- 3 describe a scene:      It was totally dark.

WRITE IT

D Write a short story like the one in exercise 2A. It can be true, or you can make it up. Remember the four “S”s. Use storytelling expressions from exercise 2C. You can repeat a verb to make a strong impact if you wish.

REGISTER CHECK

In stories, we sometimes repeat a verb to make a strong impact. The verb usually shows an action or a feeling that lasts for longer than usual. In formal writing, like an essay or news story, we don't repeat verbs.

Informal story

We screamed and screamed!

They ate and ate until they were full.

Formal writing

We screamed.

They ate until they were full.

E PAIR WORK Exchange stories with a partner. Did they use the 4 “S”s? How did their story make you feel?

B DISCUSS Share your stories in small groups. Use some of the four "S"s and storytelling expressions from Lesson 5.4 to make your story more interesting. Which story is the most amazing?

C DECIDE Your group is going to enter an amazing-but-true story competition. Choose one of these options and decide what story you will tell.

- Choose a true story from your group – if you think it's amazing enough to win the competition.
- Exaggerate a true story from your group to make it more amazing – but it should still sound true.
- Make up an amazing story that sounds true but isn't.

D PREPARE Practice, exaggerate, or make up your group's story. Get ready to tell it in an entertaining way.

E PRESENT Tell your group's story to the class. At the end of each story, others in the class ask questions to try to discover if the story is totally true, exaggerated, or totally made-up.

F AGREE The class chooses the best story that seems to be totally true. Then the winning group says whether their story is totally true, exaggerated, or totally made-up.

START SPEAKING

- A What’s happening in the picture? How do you feel about projects like this?
- B Talk about different ways this project is having an effect on the city and its people. Do you think this impact is mostly positive or negative?
- C What change is having an impact on your city at the moment? Is it positive or negative? For ideas, watch Brenda’s video.

1 LANGUAGE IN CONTEXT

- A Look at the pictures. How do you think life is different in these two places?
- B Read the blog. What is interesting about Dan's situation? Who is he writing his blog for?
- C Read the blog again. What things in Los Angeles does Dan like? What doesn't he like?

I'm Dan. I just moved from Barrow, Alaska, to Los Angeles, California for college. I'm a small-town boy writing about big-city life for students like me!

L.A. Update!

I've been in my new city for two weeks now. Living in Los Angeles has been a really big change. Here are some things I never had to worry about in Alaska:

Pollution: There's so much traffic, and it makes the air so dirty. Plus, there's smoke in the air from factories. And since I arrived, there's been almost no wind, so the air is never really clean.

Concrete: Sometimes I see a few trees and a little grass here and there, but almost all of the land between buildings is concrete. Sometimes there is graffiti on the buildings, too, which I don't like.

Noise: I expected a lot of noise during the day, but I'm really surprised how much noise there is at night. In Alaska, there's almost none. Here, I wake up several times a night.

Crowds: L.A. is a megacity (more than 10 million people). Because it's so crowded, there's very little space. But I love living close to so many people. There's stuff happening all the time.

Heat: It's a lot hotter here than in Alaska. I actually like that – but I need to buy some cooler clothes!

2 VOCABULARY: Urban problems

- A 1.49 Listen and repeat the words. Find and underline nine of these words in the blog post in exercise 1C. Then use all of the words to complete the paragraphs below.

air	concrete	graffiti	land	noise	pollution
smoke	space	traffic	traffic jam	trash

Cities are full of cars, so there's often <sup>1</sup> _____ on the roads. This often leads to a <sup>2</sup> _____, which means delays. The cars cause <sup>3</sup> _____, along with the <sup>4</sup> _____ from factories, and dirty <sup>5</sup> _____ is bad for our health. You can also hear the <sup>6</sup> _____ of the traffic all over the city.

Cities can be ugly, too. Most of the <sup>7</sup> _____ has high-rise buildings and <sup>8</sup> _____ sidewalks on it. And when people share the same <sup>9</sup> _____, they produce tons of garbage. Some people leave their <sup>10</sup> _____ on the street. - B PAIR WORK Do you agree about the problems that will last into the future? What effects will these problems cause? How many can you list?

Graffiti is a problem, but it's not going to hurt anybody.

Yeah. I worry more about pollution. That will make the air hard to breathe for a long time.

1 LANGUAGE IN CONTEXT

- A Look at the picture. Do you think the paintings make the area look better or worse? Why?
- B  1.50 Read and listen to the radio show. What three problems do the people talk about?
- C  1.50 Read and listen again. What are the solutions to the problems?

1.50 Audio script

- Host Today we're talking trash, along with other community problems. These problems can take a lot of time and money to fix, but sometimes solutions are easier than you think. We asked community members for their ideas.
- Margot Garbage is a big problem. And if there is a lot of garbage in the street, people often leave more trash there. They see garbage and think it's OK to add a little more. But if you keep the area clean, people will think twice before throwing trash on the street.
- Josh Graffiti makes local business owners angry. But if you make a special area for graffiti, people won't paint on other buildings. Many graffiti artists paint beautifully and can really improve an area.
- Frida Noise at night is a common problem. When you speak angrily to noisy neighbors, they just keep making noise. But if you talk to them calmly and politely, they'll probably listen. And if you explain your feelings clearly, they will understand.
- Host So, some interesting ideas. They may not work in every community, but some of them just might in yours!

- D GROUP WORK Do you think the community members' solutions from the radio show in exercise 1C will work? Why or why not?

INSIDER ENGLISH

D PAIR WORK Share your answers from exercise 3C. Were any of your answers similar?

4 SPEAKING

A Read the three city problems and solutions. Add a problem you want to solve and an idea for a solution to the chart.

Problem	Solution
noise	People have to be quiet before 8:00 a.m. and after 10:00 p.m.
pollution	People have to use bikes or electric cars.
traffic	People have to drive with two or more people in a car.
_____	_____

B PAIR WORK Do you think the solutions in exercise 4A will work? Why or why not? Does your partner agree?

I don't think a rule with times to be quiet will work. If people work in the morning or come home late, it's hard to be quiet.

I disagree. People don't have to be quiet all the time. If they think of others, they'll speak quietly early in the morning and late at night.

- B It's true there was a lot of smoke.
- A Was everyone OK?
- B Yes. No one was hurt.
- A I'm glad to hear that.

1 LISTENING

- A Look at the picture of the drone delivering a package. What types of things do you think a drone can – and can't – deliver?
- B 1.58 LISTEN FOR GIST Listen to Doug's podcast. What is his interview with Elsa about?
- how quickly drones can deliver packages
  - how drones can reduce traffic problems
  - how drones can cause problems for cities
- C 1.58 LISTEN FOR SPECIFIC INFORMATION Listen again. How does Elsa think drones will fix these problems: traffic, pollution, and noise?

2 PRONUNCIATION: Listening for weak words

- A 1.59 Listen to the extracts from the podcast below. Circle the words that aren't fully pronounced.
- Traffic! It can cause a lot of problems ...
  - And who better to discuss the topic ...
  - But they're a lot quieter than trucks.
- B 1.60 Listen. Write the missing words.
- Won't there be _____ accidents?
  - Drones are more useful _____ I thought.
  - And drones usually use batteries, so they cause almost no pollution compared _____ delivery trucks.
- C Complete the statement.
The words than, of, and to are often stressed / reduced in fluent speech.

3 WRITING

- A Read the comment by SensibleGuy, responding to Doug's podcast. What problems does he write about that Doug and Elsa don't mention?

PODCAST

SensibleGuy wrote:

I think using drones for deliveries is a bad idea. One truck can deliver a lot of packages, but a drone can only carry one package at a time. In a large city, trucks deliver thousands of packages every day. I don't really want thousands of drones in the air!

According to Elsa, drones will help solve the problem of traffic noise. Have you ever heard a drone? They're really loud – so I don't think that solves anything. Also, I don't trust this "sense and avoid" technology. I'm sure there will be accidents with so many drones in the air. And if they crash, the drones – and their packages – will fall into the streets or onto people.

Also, what happens if a drone arrives and you're not at home? Will it just drop the package into your yard? Maybe. If it does, I'm sure someone will steal it. What about delivering packages to apartment buildings? They can't fly in through people's windows. And who wants drones outside of your window anyway? Not me. It's creepy!

Drones are definitely not the answer. We need to find another solution to the traffic problem.

GLOSSARY

steal (v) secretly take something that belongs to someone else

creepy (adj) strange and making you feel frightened

- B WRITING SKILLS Read about using questions to make points. Then find and underline all the questions in the comment in exercise 3A. What are SensibleGuy's answers to the questions?

We often ask questions to introduce or make a strong point. Then we answer the questions. Questions can make the readers feel like you're speaking directly to them. Compare the two ideas below. The first one is stronger and more interesting.

- 1 Have you ever heard a drone? They're really loud.
- 2 Drones are really loud.

- C PAIR WORK THINK CRITICALLY What do you think of SensibleGuy's ideas? What kind of person do you think he is?

WRITE IT

- D Write your own comment responding to Doug's podcast and SensibleGuy's comment. Decide if you think drones are good or not. You can use some of the ideas below and your own ideas. Add details. Use questions to make some of your points stronger.

Positive: people don't have to wait at home      fast      less pollution fewer delivery trucks on roads      cheap

Negative: are dangerous      frightening for pets and wildlife use energy      take away jobs from delivery drivers

- E PAIR WORK Exchange posts with a partner. Do you agree? How many of your points are different?

REGISTER CHECK

In informal writing, people often give their opinions without supporting their ideas with facts.

Informal

Also, I don't trust this "sense and avoid" technology. I'm sure there will be accidents with so many drones in the air.

Formal

I don't trust the "sense and avoid" technology. One study has shown that 64% of drone accidents happened because of errors with technology.

6.5 TIME TO SPEAK

If everyone plants something ...

LESSON OBJECTIVE

A DISCUSS Look at the picture. What is unusual about the roofs of these city buildings? Do you think this is a good idea? Why or why not?

B RESEARCH Why is it good to have a lot of trees and plants in a city? In small groups, think of different benefits. Look at the ideas below to help you. You can go online for more ideas.

heat   noise   pollution   shade   the air   visual impact   wildlife

C ROLE PLAY Imagine you're city planners, and you're thinking about putting plants on every building in your city. In small groups, discuss the problems you'll have if you do this, and possible solutions to those problems.

If the city buys all the plants, it'll be too expensive. So community members will have to buy them.

But if they have to pay, they won't do it.

If they want, they can buy smaller plants. That won't be too expensive.

D PRESENT Explain your group's ideas to the class.

E DECIDE Think about the benefits you researched in part B and the problems and solutions everyone presented in part D. As a class, decide whether your city should put plants on all rooftops.

B GROUP WORK Describe your changing musical tastes. How much do you have in common?

1 VOCABULARY: TV shows and movies

- A  2.04 PAIR WORK Listen and repeat the words. Which can describe movies? Which can describe TV shows? Which can describe both?

animated movie	comedy	documentary	drama	game show
horror	musical	reality show	romantic comedy	science fiction
soap opera	talk show	thriller

- B PAIR WORK Give an example of each kind of movie or show in exercise 1A.

- C  Now go to page 147. Do the vocabulary exercises for 7.2.

2 LANGUAGE IN CONTEXT

- A Read the article. What do the small screen and the big screen mean?

Big screen or small screen?

You sit down after a long day and open an app on your smartphone. What are you going to watch this time? Maybe an episode of your favorite game show or soap opera? Your roommates are on the couch, using a tablet to binge-watch episodes of a popular drama series. Your friend texts you about the documentary she's watching on her laptop.

Many viewers think that personal devices are as good as TVs. We watch a lot of movies and TV shows on the "small screen" instead of the "big screen." But is it the same? If you like science fiction, you probably love special effects – the way monsters look or the way spaceships fly through the air. But on a phone, the effects aren't as exciting as they are in the theater. Watching a horror movie at home isn't as frightening as watching it in a dark theater. (Although maybe that's a good thing!)

Do you like watching shows on your device as much as watching on a big screen? Maybe it depends on the genre. Nothing is as much fun as watching reality shows on one big screen with your friends – and laughing together.

- B Read again. How does the article suggest watching shows and movies in different ways gives people a different experience?
- C Guess the meaning of these words from context. Match the words (1–5) to the definitions (a–e).
- |               |     |   |  |
|---------------|-----|---|--|
| 1 episode     | ___ | a | set of television broadcasts using the same characters but in different situations |
| 2 series      | ___ | b | a style of TV show or movie  |
| 3 binge-watch | ___ | c | people who watch TV or movies  |
| 4 viewers     | ___ | d | one of the parts of a television or radio program                                  |
| 5 genre       | ___ | e | watch a lot of episodes in a short amount of time                                  |

- D PAIR WORK Do you like watching TV shows and movies on a small screen or a big screen? Does it matter to you? What are the pros and cons of each option? For ideas, watch Angie's video.

Do you and Angie agree on how you like to watch TV shows and movies?

3 GRAMMAR: Comparisons with (not) as ... as

A Circle the correct answers. Use the sentences in the grammar box to help you.

Animation for All Ages

Animation used to be just for kids, but today, a growing number of animated movie audiences are adults without children. What makes people of all ages enjoy animated movies these days?

Hi-tech actions Today's animated characters often look very realistic thanks to technology. The characters can walk, talk, dance, and sing almost as realistically as people can. They are also better able to show their feelings through their facial expressions, so audiences of all ages feel the characters' emotions are real and important.

Real-life situations These days, animated characters deal with real-life topics, such as moving to a new place, failure and success, friendship, growing up, and growing old. These are topics that adults can understand – even if the story is about a cat, dog, robot, or dinosaur.

Adult humor Writers include humor that both children and adults enjoy, and there are often “secret jokes” that only adults find amusing.

Well-known actors Many famous actors record the voices for animated movies nowadays. This gives star power to animated movies. Adults enjoy hearing their favorite actors bring animated characters to life.

Happy endings The biggest reason people of all ages enjoy animated movies just might be the endings. They usually end in a positive way, and everyone loves a happy ending.

We all like to laugh and have an adventure with the characters in a movie, and animated movies make that possible in a colorful and magical way.

D GROUP WORK THINK CRITICALLY Do you think it's a good idea for writers to use adult humor in animated movies? Why or why not?

Toy Story ★★★★★

 One of my favorite movies ever

Author: AnimationFanMateo

<sup>1</sup>I didn't use to like animated movies. But after I saw Toy Story, I became a fan. It's one of my favorite movies ever. The story is interesting from beginning to end. <sup>2</sup>If you haven't seen it, it's about toys that come alive when they're alone. Six-year-old Andy's favorite toy is Woody, a cowboy. Woody is also the leader of the other toys. But then a cool, new toy arrives – a space action figure named Buzz Lightyear. He has a lot of fancy features, and Andy is fascinated. Woody hates Buzz and tries to get rid of him, but after some adventures together, the two toys become friends. <sup>3</sup>Toy Story is as dramatic as a movie with real actors, and Woody and Buzz have the same feelings as ordinary people. Their voices are perfect, especially Tom Hanks as the voice of Woody. The story has a lot of jokes for adults, so it's fun for the whole family. My only complaint is that the animation looks a little old now. Animation technology has improved a lot since 1995. <sup>4</sup>But it will always be a great movie!

GLOSSARY

REGISTER CHECK

When we describe a movie to a friend in a text message, we usually don't worry about organization. Notice how the order of ideas in the texts is different from the order Mateo used in his more formal review.

I just saw Toy Story again.

Yeah? I've never seen it.

Really? It's famous. The main character is the voice of Tom Hanks.

Cool! Tom Hanks is always good.

Definitely! The movie's about toys that come to life. It has some good jokes. 😄

What have you been doing lately?

Vanessa

I have an opportunity to work in Mexico next year. I think it'll be an interesting experience, but it's going to be a challenge because I need to be able to speak the language. So, I've only been doing one thing lately – studying Spanish. It's a difficult job, so I haven't been going out at all. But that's OK. It'll be worth it.

At work, I've been designing a new app. It's not easy, but I'm getting there. I think it will be a big success as well as a personal achievement for me. It's not the only thing in my life, though. I'm on a soccer team, and we're doing really well. Soccer practice is a nice change after sitting in front of a computer all day. Now I just need to make time for family and friends!

Rodney

Min-hee

I've been doing lots of things lately! I've been painting pictures of nature – that's a fun project. I've also been learning to make sushi. It's a long process, but I'm getting better at it. And of course, I always have chores, like doing the dishes or the laundry. Yeah ... it's a challenge to fit in everything I want to do. But that's what makes life interesting!

Matthew, Chicago
6 hours ago

After I heard this podcast, I knew I had to try Naomi's technique. I don't have many problems with emails, but I do have a lot of homework! Up to now I've had a lot of trouble managing all the work for my different classes. To be honest, sometimes I don't prepare for class as much as I should because I'm tired or busy, or have something better to do. But I always felt worried and stressed about it.

So I sat down and made a to-do list. Even that was a little frightening! I put all the jobs into two groups: short jobs (that I could do in less than five minutes) and long jobs. I immediately started with a few short jobs – I put away my papers, cleaned my desk, and things like that. I felt much happier right away. I had so much energy, I worked on one of my "long jobs" afterward – I wrote an outline for a research paper that's due next week.

So far, this has been working well! I feel more positive about what's on my to-do list. From now on, I'm going to try to study a little every day, and I'll probably finish my research paper early next week. If you're stressed about organization, definitely try Naomi's plan!!

WRITE IT

- D Write a post about how you manage your time and the things you have to do. If you already use Naomi's technique (or a similar one), describe your experiences. If you don't use a time-management technique, describe how you've been managing up to now and say what you might do in the future to manage your time better.
- E PAIR WORK Exchange posts with a partner. Would you like to use any of your partner's time-management ideas?

We often put time phrases at the beginning of sentences in more formal writing. In informal writing, we often put them at the end.

Formal: From now on, I'm going to try to study a little every day.

Informal: I'm going to try to study a little every day from now on.

- C Read again. Summarize what Theo, Lynn, and Kosuke suggest.

Posted at 10:02 a.m. ✕

Rina I just started my own small business and am working from home. I need to make some rules for myself. Any suggestions?

Theo You have to imagine you're going to an office. Get up, get dressed, and have the same working hours every day. You can take short breaks, of course, but you can't waste time. For example, you shouldn't do chores during working hours because you'll never get your work done. And you must not miss your deadlines!

Lynn Make time for yourself. You can't spend all of your time on work. Sometimes, it's hard to stop working when your office is in your home.

Rina Thanks! I see it's going to be important to manage my time. Now, any tips on how to manage my files? I work for a lot of different employers, and my wages are different for each contract.

Kosuke There are a lot of great computer programs to help you with that kind of thing.

Rina Thanks, Kosuke. May I email you? I'd love to chat more about those programs.

Kosuke Of course! My #1 rule for working at home: Get help when you can!

- B Read again. Which material is more environmentally friendly: cotton or polyester? Why?

INSIDER ENGLISH

We use -friendly with a noun to say that something is not harmful or that it's appropriate for a specific group of people. Common expressions with -friendly are eco-friendly, budget-friendly, family-friendly, customer-friendly, and earth-friendly.

Eco Stitch

Women | Men | Kids | Sale | About us

Are your clothes "green"?

For many of the things we buy, like paper products and cars, we know what's green and what's not. That knowledge helps us make eco-friendly choices. Our goal at Eco Stitch is to help you do the same with your clothing.

Unless you're wearing that wool sweater your grandmother knitted, you might not know what your clothes are made of. The names of the materials are written on the labels, but have you ever looked at them? Most people are interested in how fashionable the clothes are, not whether they're cotton or polyester.

Even if you know what materials you're wearing, do you know how eco-friendly they are? Cotton is taken from plants, and because it's natural, many people think it is more environmentally friendly than polyester, which is artificial. However, a lot of chemicals are used by most cotton farmers, and large amounts of water are needed, too. Meanwhile, polyester is often made from recycled plastic bottles. It's also warmer and lighter than cotton, so less material is needed!

We're here to help you make the best choices for you.

C CLASS ACTIVITY Compare your ideas with others in the class. What did you learn about the materials?

Lucy Thanks for helping me with my project, Monty. So, my first question is, do you know where your laptop comes from?

Monty Well, it's an American brand, but it probably wasn't made in the US. I guess it was designed there and then manufactured in China. But I didn't think about that when I bought it. I just wanted a good laptop for a good price.

Lucy I understand. And how about your coffee?

Monty I guess the coffee beans were imported. They weren't grown here in Canada, that's for sure! They were probably shipped from Brazil. I think that's where some of the best coffee comes from, and this is really good.

Lucy Yeah. And how about your sandwich?

Monty Well, I know it's fresh because it was made right in front of me. I'm not sure about the things in it, though. The tuna was probably caught and frozen weeks ago, but maybe the tomatoes were grown here. I hope so. It's good when fruit and vegetables are produced locally.

I ordered two boxes of Cocosations last week. The chocolate bars were delivered this morning, and my mom and I immediately tried them. They're fantastic! The caramel in the middle is not too sweet, and it goes well with the dark chocolate on the outside. We noticed a little salt was included in the caramel, and that's the magic touch. Salted caramel is very popular now. Although I usually buy Cocomax bars, I'll probably buy Cocosations from now on. This is another great product from my favorite candy company – thanks, Cocobar!

I'm a big fan of SUPERSPORT watches. I used to have a SUPERSPORT P1, but I lost it, so yesterday I went out and bought the new SUPERSPORT P2. I notice the screen of the new watch is made of glass. In the old model, the screen was made of hard plastic. I'm not sure glass is a good idea. It's true that the old plastic screen looked a little cheap. However, it was stronger than the glass screen, and that's very important for a sports watch. Otherwise, the P2 is really good and looks cool.

- A Read the article by Ross Rivera. What is failure? Does Ross think it is a good or bad thing? Why?
- B Read again. What qualities does the article say are good for employees to have?

DO I NEED TO

fail
MORE?

As a technology writer, I spend lots of time making sure each article is as good as my last one. I've had a lot of success in my career. But could this be a bad thing?

I write about a lot of tech companies that fail, but people in the industry actually see failure as normal and an important part of later success. Evan Williams and Noah Glass, for example, once set up a podcasting company that didn't work out. They got over it – and joined some friends to start Twitter. A lot of international companies also agree that you have to work at success. Managers often promote employees who keep up the hard work and don't give up during bad times. That really makes someone stand out from the crowd.

I've been thinking about how I can fail more, and I think I figured it out. I like my writing job and don't want to give it up, so I'm moving on ... to writing music reviews! And if that doesn't work out ... well, I just hope failure is good for me.

- C 2.41 PAIR WORK Read and listen again. How does Selma decide what she would do? Why does she use that approach?

2.41 Audio script

Miles So, let's get right to it. Why do you think you've been so successful? Is it because you've taken risks?

Selma I think that's a big part of it – yes.

Miles Would you risk everything for money and success? Even your life?

Selma My life? In what kind of situation?

Miles Well, ... would you swim across a river full of crocodiles if I offered you a million dollars?

Selma Now that's interesting! Let's see ... if I succeeded, the reward would be fantastic. That much money would have a big effect on my life. But I'd have to consider the risk carefully – and think about how to reduce it. So, I'd find out about the number of crocodiles in the river. Um ... I'd research ways to protect myself. If I spent $100,000 on a "crocodile-proof" suit, I'd still make $900,000!

Miles You're really thinking about this seriously ...

Selma In business, you have to consider all of the options – compare the advantages and disadvantages – and then decide if the risk is worth it.

Miles And if your research showed the risk was high?

Selma I wouldn't do it. I wouldn't be able to spend a million dollars if I ended up inside a crocodile!

Maybe you've had the same job for several years. Or maybe you do the same things for fun over and over again. You're in your "comfort zone." On the one hand, you feel safe, successful, and ... comfortable. On the other hand, you aren't challenging yourself, and your life is pretty boring. Is it worth it to change?

Research shows there are a lot of advantages to doing new activities outside of your routine. Challenges help you think in new ways and learn new things about yourself. And they help you see that one bad event isn't the end of the world.

Don't worry – you don't have to begin by running a marathon! Start small. How about going to a new restaurant? At the gym, you might try a class you've never taken before. If you're into hip-hop, try listening to EDM or classical music! These are all small changes, but the benefits are huge.

So the next time you're ordering your favorite coffee, think about choosing something different. You might hate it ... or you might discover your new favorite drink!

GLOSSARY

benefit (n) something that helps you

- C PAIR WORK What is your comfort zone? Are you doing things that are outside that comfort zone? How does it make you feel?
- D THINK CRITICALLY How far is "too far" to push yourself out of your comfort zone? Is there a risk to changing things in your life?

2 WRITING

A Look at the pictures and read Marty's story. What was his fear? How did he overcome it?

Conquering a fear

I have a surprising secret: I used to be really frightened of escalators. Yes, escalators: those moving stairs you see everywhere. It's actually a very common fear. For years, if I saw an escalator, I would do anything to avoid it. If I did get on, my heart would beat really fast. My friends told me that very few people fall off escalators. "I know," I'd say, "but I don't want to be that one!"

Then one day I thought, "Enough! I'm going to deal with this now." I decided to start with a short escalator and then try the longer ones. At first, it wasn't too bad. The hardest part was facing an escalator in a subway station that went deep underground. That first step was awful! I was sure I was going to fall, but I held on and didn't give up. And the more I practiced, the easier it got. Now I ride those moving stairs with confidence!

I learned something useful from this. On the one hand, it's good to push yourself out of your comfort zone. On the other hand, you don't want to push yourself too far, too fast. Take it slow! You might surprise yourself.

B WRITING SKILLS Read about comparing facts and ideas. Then underline the two opposite ways of thinking in Marty's story.

We use On the one hand, ... and On the other hand, ... to compare two different facts or two opposite ways of thinking about a situation.

On the one hand, I was afraid to ride escalators. On the other hand, I was tired of being afraid.

WRITE IT

C Write a story about a time when you pushed yourself out of your comfort zone. It can be true, or you can make it up. Use on the one hand and on the other hand to compare facts or ideas. Give advice to the reader.

D PAIR WORK Exchange stories. Would your partner's advice work for you?

REGISTER CHECK

First-person stories often contain a lot of personal details and feelings. Articles in the third person often contain more facts and neutral information. Notice the differences between a sentence in Marty's story and a sentence that could be in an article about Marty.

My friends told me that very few people fall off escalators.

According to the National Institutes of Health, there are only 10,000 escalator injuries per year in the US that result in emergency room visits.

LIFE'S LITTLE LESSONS

START SPEAKING

- Look at the picture. What do you think is happening?
- What might have happened in the five minutes before this accident? Make up a story.
- Who do you think learned a lesson in this picture? What lessons do you think he or she learned? For ideas, watch Andrea's video.

REAL STUDENT

Does Andrea think the same thing as you?

1 LANGUAGE IN CONTEXT

- A  2.48 Look at the picture. What do you talk about at mealtimes? Then read and listen to Lorena, Talya, and Mark's conversation. What do their stories have in common?

 2.48 Audio script

- Lorena When I was a kid, I picked up the ketchup bottle from the dinner table and started shaking it to mix it up. The lid came off, and ketchup spilled everywhere! You've never seen anything like it! Everyone was mad at me. I felt bad about it, but it was also funny. Anyway, it was an accident!
- Talya I know what you mean. One time, I was in a restaurant somewhere with my parents. My dad was cutting his steak, and suddenly his knife slipped, and his peas flew everywhere. He was so embarrassed, but my mom said, "It's not what happens – it's how you deal with it." So we laughed, got up from the table, and quickly picked up all of the peas.
- Mark That reminds me ... I was eating in a restaurant once, and I knocked something off my plate. I looked on the floor but couldn't see anything. Then the woman at the next table reached into her open purse on the floor and pulled out a chicken leg! She said nothing. She didn't blame me – she just gave me the chicken leg. I'm sure she never left her purse open in a restaurant again!

- B  2.48 Read and listen again. Answer the questions.

- 1 What feelings did Lorena have about her ketchup accident?
- 2 What lesson did Talya learn from her father's accident?
- 3 Where did Mark's chicken leg go?

INSIDER ENGLISH

We use You've never seen anything like it to mean that something was incredible or very unusual.

3 GRAMMAR: Indefinite pronouns

A Circle the correct answers. Use the sentences in the grammar box to help you.

I got a new phone a few weeks ago, but I didn't buy a case for it right away. I was walking home when I dropped my phone on the sidewalk.

Oh, no! Was there glass everywhere?

Yeah, there was. Luckily, someone lent me their phone for the day. I learned my lesson: get a case for your phone.

1 LANGUAGE IN CONTEXT

- A Look at the picture. Would you like to do this? Why or why not?
- B Read Bryce's social media post. How long has he been taking his diving course? What has he learned?
- C Read the post again. Which two things made Bryce feel good today?

Profile Wall Friends

I'm exhausted ... but day two of my diving course was terrific! Last night, I said that I was feeling miserable after a difficult start. But today, I'm thrilled. Elena (my instructor) told me that I had done really well. 😊 She said that I was concentrating on my dives, and that had made a huge difference because I'd stayed calm today.

I definitely didn't feel calm this morning when Elena told us we were going to learn to deal with air problems. 😞 Then she said we would be at a depth of 45 feet (15 meters), so we couldn't swim to the surface quickly. 😱 She said we would have to work as a team and share air. We practiced a few times just below the surface of the water. And then we went down deep. I was terrified. But in the end, everything was fine. And while we were down there, hundreds of tiny fish swam past us. It was a magnificent sight. Suddenly, I realized I was enjoying myself. 😄

So, the five things I've learned about diving are: concentrate, stay calm, work as a team, practice, and enjoy it. That's good advice for whatever you're doing, I guess.

3 WRITING

A Read Gavin's anecdote. What wrong lesson did he learn? What did he learn in the end?

When I was ten, my teacher told me I had to write a report about volcanoes and make a model volcano. I delayed working on the project until the day before my presentation, and then I told my parents after dinner. At first, they were mad at me, and I felt really bad, but then they said they'd help me. We researched volcanoes online and went to a craft store just before it closed to buy things to make the volcano. We worked on it until midnight, and I wrote the report. The next day, I gave a terrific talk. All of my classmates said I had made a cool volcano, and the teacher took a picture of me with it. This taught me that I could wait until the last minute and still do a magnificent job. But it was the wrong lesson to learn, and I spent the next ten years trying to unlearn it. In high school and college, everything was harder, but because of my volcano, I told myself I could wait until the last minute. I failed a lot before I learned how to manage my time well. I think now that it would have been better if my parents had let me fail when I was ten. I would have learned a valuable lesson a lot earlier.

B WRITING SKILLS Read about using expressions with similar meanings. Then find expressions in exercise 3A that have similar meanings to 1–5 and write them in the correct place.

D PAIR WORK Exchange stories. Talk about the lessons you learned. Have you learned the same lesson? How would you change your behavior based on your partner's lesson?

The lesson you learned is such a good one. Managing your money is important. I would like to be better at that!

I know what you mean! I liked your lesson about being nice to servers in restaurants. I learned that, too, when ...

REGISTER CHECK

In writing anecdotes, we often use longer sentences with conjunctions. It is similar to how we speak when we tell someone a story.

At first, they were mad at me, and I felt really bad, but then they said they'd help me.

2 GRAMMAR

A Complete the paragraph with the correct form of the verbs in parentheses ( ).

"The planet will get hotter in the next 100 years," said many scientists in 2017. In fact, they said that the planet <sup>1</sup> _____ (become) 3°C hotter before 2100. That is a major problem, and what we consume has a huge impact. Everyone <sup>2</sup> _____ (be) worried about the planet, but no one <sup>3</sup> _____ (know) how to solve the problem. We often consume fruits and vegetables that <sup>4</sup> _____ (produce) in other parts of the country. Those items <sup>5</sup> _____ (transport) by trucks or planes, and that increases pollution. If everyone <sup>6</sup> _____ (buy) their food from local farmers, the world <sup>7</sup> _____ (be) less polluted. Another problem is the use of chemicals. In the past, not so many chemicals <sup>8</sup> _____ (use) by farmers.
